BRRRRR! If the chilly temperatures late last week didn't get your teeth chattering, the thought of facing high heating bills again is enough to get everyone shivering. But the city of Westland can help.

Through the assistance of services provided by the Energy Administration of the Michigan Department of Commerce, the city is trying to inform residents of no-cost or low-cost energy conservation measures.

But the Westland Energy Savings for Tomorrow committee needs volunteers to make the program work. The energy management program doesn't receive tax money.

If you want to help your neighbors avoid higher fuel bills, attend a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the council chambers on the second floor of city hall, Ford between Wayne and Newburgh roads, where the program will be explained.

ANOTHER way to chase the chills next Wednesday is by listening to heart-warming renditions of marching band music during the Second Annual Marching Band Exhibition featuring eight to 10 bands from western area high schools.

Showtime begins at 7 p.m. at John Glenn High School's football field, 36105 Marquette, west of Wayne Road. Refreshments will be sold during the show. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for students and older persons. Tickets may be purchased at the gate. The show is sponsored by the John Glenn Instrumental Music Booster Club.

Proceeds will be used to buy all-weather coats for marching band members. The Rocket band performs during parades and competitions and during the halftime show at all home games.

BRANDI TRASK, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Temer, has been selected to represent Westland in the 1983 Miss Charm State Scholarship finals Friday-Sunday, Oct. 14-16, at the Southfield Civic Center.

Brandi, 10, is a fifth grade student at Hayes Elementary School. Her hobbies include jazz, ballet, baton twirling, roller skating and collecting stickers.

Sponsored by Michigan National Bank of Detroit, Brandi has won honors for participation in the Dearborn Heights Parade last July and in the June 1982 science fair.

ALSO COMPETING in the same show is Lila Safiedine, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Safiedine of Westland. Lila, a fifth grade student at Wildwood Elementary School, will be representing the area as Junior Miss Western Wayne County.

A member of the Islamic Church, Lila's hobbies are dancing, swimming, modeling and roller skating. She participates in numerous shows for the elderly and children during the holidays.

Lila and other contestants will be judged on scholastic and community achievement, talent, beauty, poise and personality.

Council mulls library millage

By Mary Klemic
staff writer

Westland voters may get a chance next year to decide whether to approve a levy of one mill to fund the city's own library system.

"For the past 10 years, Westland has outgrown its library," Westland library board member Jane O'Kray said at the Westland City Council's meeting Monday night. "The library board has wanted to build a library but hasn't had the funds. Citizens must put money aside to fund a library that's adequate for a city of 85,000 people. We need our own library."

Administrators from the cities of Wayne and Westland are now working to draft the necessary legislation to set up a district library system. After the district a system is formed, each city will appoint between 10 and 20 persons to form an advisory committee.

This committee, along with library board representatives, will start a referendum and information campaign to put the millage on the ballot next spring.

THE ONE-MILL tax, which would bring in about $500,000, would enable Westland to build its own library as well as run the Wayne-Westland branch library and maintain its obligations in the Wayne Oakland Library Federation (WOLF), according to Councilman Charles "Trav" Griffin. He said a one-mill library millage was approved by Ypsilanti and Ypsilanti Township recently.

If the city keeps its WOLF obligations, its residents may take books out from any other community library, Griffin explained.

Presently, Westland residents may take out books only from the Wayne-Westland branch library, located on Sims in the City of Wayne, or from Livonia libraries.

Because Westland has no library facility within its boundaries, the city has paid Garden City and Livonia for use of their libraries by Westland residents. Westland also has provided 60 percent of the funding for the Wayne-Westland library.

WESTLAND had funded the library out of the city's general fund. But the amount of money in that fund decreased when Westland's state equalized valuation went down, O'Kray said.

"The library in the past was being funded out of the city's general fund, but this can no longer support library services," she said. "Money that was in the general fund went to other needs, basic services for the city like police and fire. Other cities have a millage that supports their libraries."

As a result of budget cuts, Garden City and Canton Township halted book check-out service for Westland residents and hours at the Wayne-Westland branch were cut back to two evenings a week. The City of Wayne, which had provided 40 percent of the funding for the Wayne-Westland library, cut back on that amount in accordance with Westland's budget cuts.

The actual cost of building a new library would be looked into by a subcommittee after the district library system is formed, Griffin said. Mayor Charles Pickering said the city would consider converting old school buildings into libraries as an alternative.

THE MAYOR said he was "fully behind" the proposed library millage.

"We're now in a situation where something has to be done to protect library services," he said.

Alternatives to the one-mill levy would include attempts to raise millages of 0.3-mill to 0.5-mill, Griffin said. He said a 0.3-mill levy would barely meet current library obligations.

"The worst option would be that things got so bad we would have to close down and completely cut out our contributions to WOLF," Griffin said. "The worst is that we close the library down. Nobody wants that."

Griffin was confident that the library millage referendum could be completed in time for the spring election.

"We would like to have it by the spring to find out what people's feelings are before the budget hearings start," he said.

Recovering alcoholics find friends in city club

By Mary Klemic

The mugs — hundreds of them — hang in orderly rows along one wall of the former school building on Ann Arbor Trail at the Westland-Livonia border.

Some of the mugs are flamboyant — brightly colored or with humorous sayings — while others are plainer or more conservative. They are as varied as their owners, individuals of all ages and occupations who visit the Northwest Alano Club to help themselves, and each other, recover from alcoholism.

The name "Alano" is a combination of the words "alcohol" and "no," to mean alcohol isn't served at the club, according to a club counselor. The Northwest Alano Club offers coffee, food and camaraderie to help the recovering alcoholic and his family.

"THEY CAN spend time here instead of going to bars," said Alano board member Cal. "There are all kinds of activities. We hope to grow in our new facilities and have volleyball and basketball."

"Like Alcoholics Anonymous is based upon love for one another, we help each other and we help ourselves," counselor Eddy added. "It's a place to go to, to bring the family down and socialize."

There are no last names at the Northwest Alano Club.

"We're here to help people. There are no gimmicks," Eddy said. "We ask for no opinions on outside issues. We use anonymity."

Man, 73, dies in crash

Westland police are continuing their investigation of a late-night traffic accident that resulted in the death of a 73-year-old Westland man last week.

Police Friday afternoon were withholding the names of the two drivers and details of the fatal accident, which took place at 11:55 p.m. last Thursday at Wildwood and Ford Road. The 73-year-old, one of the drivers involved in the incident, died at Wayne County General Hospital at 4:40 a.m. last Friday, police said.

Police said the accident was a head-on collision between the elderly man's car and a truck, driven by a 25-year-old Walled Lake resident. The Westland man was the only person injured in the crash, according to police.

Faust proposals could limit legislative suit immunity

Legislation restricting the times and circumstances under which a state lawmaker can claim legislative immunity has been introduced by Senate Majority Leader William Faust, D-Westland.

"Michigan voters last November approved Proposal A, giving the Legislature the opportunity to restrict the scope of legislative immunity, and that's what this four-bill package does," said Faust.

The Michigan Constitution grants immunity to state senators and representatives from civil arrest and civil process during sessions of the Legislature. The immunity clause was part of the 1908 Michigan Constitution. At that time, the Legislature was a part-time body; however, since the Legislature now meets year-round, the clause's effect is to give legislators total immunity from civil suits and offenses.

"The intent of legislative immunity is to prevent a civil action from interfering with a person's work as a legislator, not to make the legislator totally invulnerable from civil suits or civil offenses such as traffic violations," Faust explained.

"This legislation protects lawmakers from civil action interfering with their legislative duties while ensuring that at all other times, they will be treated as ordinary citizens."

UNDER THE proposed Senate bills, if a legislator is a party in a civil action and the Legislature is in session, the civil action is to be postponed without motion to a non-session day that is at least two days after the date the Legislature adjourns temporarily or for the year.

Similarly, if the legislator is serving on a legislative committee, subcommittee, commission, caucus or council that is meeting while the full Legislature is not in session, the civil action is to be postponed to a non-session day that is at least two days after the meeting's adjournment or recess.

State senators and representatives also could not be served for the 30 minutes before and after such sessions or meetings.

If a delay would defeat or abridge certain plaintiff rights, a court could continue the civil action on the earliest practicable non-session day during the legislative session. Those plaintiff rights include:

- The right of plaintiff to relief pending a lawsuit in a paternity action.
- The right of plaintiff to invoke a provisional remedy, such as support during the progress of a lawsuit in a domestic relations matter, attachment and sale of perishable goods, receivership of a failing business and a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction.

The proposed bills also extend the same procedures and stipulations to contested cases which fall under the state's administrative procedures act, and the package exempts legislators from liability in civil actions for any acts performed by them related to their legislative duties.

Youth admits to killing teen

Juvenile Court Judge Thomas Maher has upheld the confession of a 16-year-old in the killing of a Garden City teenager in Westland last summer.

Maher upheld the youth's confession last Monday. Testimony is still being heard from social workers and therapists concerning whether or not the youth should be tried as an adult. Police had estimated it could take six to 12 months before a decision is reached.

The badly decomposed body of Rhonda Glover of Garden City was found in a heavily wooded area of Hines Park in Westland Aug. 4. Glover, 16, had last been seen four days before, leaving her home to see a boyfriend, according to police.

The youth, an acquaintance of Glover, led police to the body. He reportedly confessed to killing her with a two-by-four. He was on leave from Boys Republic in Farmington, a residential treatment center for troubled or problem youth, to visit his parents in Garden City at the time of Glover's death. A Boys Republic representative said that the youth had been granted home visits during the past two years and that there was no indication he had ever been violent in the past.

Armed robber strikes at pizzeria for 2d time

A masked gunman took an unspecified amount of money, along with several dollars from an employee's purse, in the late-night hold-up of a pizzeria Wednesday.

Westland police say the same man had robbed the pizzeria four days before. The suspect wasn't wearing a mask in the previous incident.

A worker at Little Caesar's Pizza, 8292 Merriman, told police she was locking the front door of the business at 11:35 p.m. last Wednesday when a man rushed in and pulled a small black handgun from his right front pants pocket. Pulled over the man's face was a dark blue, knit ski cap with a red stripe, in which were cut eye and mouth holes.

POLICE SAID the man ordered the employee to go behind the counter and open the cash register. The robber took the money that was in the register and made the worker open a floor safe. He demanded that the worker give him the bank envelope, which contained an undetermined amount of money from the safe and told her to lie on the floor while he left.

On his way out the front door, the robber took the employee's brown leather purse that held identification and $7 in cash, according to police.

Police said the first hold-up was similar to the one last week, in that the armed robber pushed his way into the business at closing time. The amount of money taken in the previous robbery was undisclosed.

The robber was described to police as white, 25 years old and six feet tall. He weighed 170 to 180 pounds, had a light brown mustache and wore a dark blue nylon jacket, blue jeans and black boots.

Cop faces theft charge

A 39-year-old Westland police officer faces a preliminary hearing Oct. 3 for the shoplifting theft of a leather nail pouch from a hardware store.

Officer Darryl Perkins, a 16-year police veteran, has been charged with larceny under $100. He has been suspended from the department pending the outcome of the criminal trial, according to Westland Police Inspector Fred Dansby.

Perkins could still face departmental charges, with a discharge from the force as the maximum penalty, Dansby said. The Inspector said the Civil Service Commission has yet to set a hearing date in the matter.

Dansby had no comment on Perkins' past record.

Perkins pleaded innocent at his Sept. 9 arraignment before 18th District Judge Thomas Smith, and was released on $1,000 personal bond. The officer was arrested two days before.

Police said that Perkins was arrested Sept. 7 at the scene of the alleged incident, Ace Hardware, 1547 S. Wayne. He was charged with stealing a leather nail pouch that had a retail value of $16, according to police.

SYNOPSIS OF MINUTES
LIVONIA PUBLIC SCHOOLS BOARD OF EDUCATION
Regular Meeting
August 15, 1983
*The following is a summary, in synopsis form, of the Board of Education's regular meeting of August 15, 1983; the full text of the minutes is on file in the office of the Superintendent, 15125 Farmington Road, and in the principal's office of each school, and is available on request.
President Strom convened the meeting at 8:00 p.m. in the Board Room, 15125 Farmington Road, Livonia. Present: Charles Akey, David Cameron, James Merner, Patricia Sari, Carol Strom, Ronald Withers. Absent: Marjorie Roach. President Strom appointed Mr. Akey as Secretary Pro-tem.
Recognition: The Board presented a resolution of appreciation to George F. Valassis and Company.
Minutes and synopsis of the regular meeting of August 1, 1983, were approved as written.
Bills: Motion by Merner and Withers to approve for payment General Fund checks, Nos. 62837 through 63283, in the amount of $1,357,727.97. Ayes: Akey, Cameron, Merner, Sari, Strom, Withers. Nays: None.
Bills: Motion by Withers and Merner to approve for payment Building and Site check No. 11013, in the amount of $2,688.00. Ayes: Akey, Cameron, Merner, Sari, Strom, Withers. Nays: None.
Cargo Vans: Motion by Merner and Sari to accept the low bid of Town & Country Dodge for the purchase of four 1984 cargo vans in the amount of $38,769.44. Ayes: Akey, Cameron, Merner, Sari, Strom, Withers. Nays: None.
Trucks: Motion by Merner and Akey to accept the bid of McDonald Ford for the purchase of four 1984 Ford 4 x 4 trucks with snow plow special package, in the amount of $43,837.44. Ayes: Akey, Cameron, Merner, Sari, Strom, Nays: Withers.
Administrative Organization Study: Neil Mettler, of Anderson/Roethlis, Inc., presented the first part of an administrative study authorized by the Board in April, 1983. The report dealt with administrative organization. Mr. Mettler noted that, as his firm looked at enrollment trends and staffing, it was evident that the district has not been overstaffed at any point in the past, and it is not overstaffed now. Reductions are not necessary at this time; however, some reductions are recommended in future years as enrollment continues to decline. Mr. Mettler presented Anderson/Roethlis' observations, recommendations and job descriptions. He noted that a common comment from the public and teacher organizations relates to the number of administrators versus the enrollment. It is often the assumption that administration numbers should decline at the same rate as enrollment. This is virtually impossible, because the administrative functions still have to be performed even though enrollment has declined. In fact, as enrollments decline, additional administrative functions have to be performed. The number of administrators cannot parallel enrollment. Board members discussed the report and/or asked for clarification relative to specific areas of the study. Mr. Mettler said that Anderson/Roethlis is utilizing the job descriptions as a base for classifying jobs and redoing the salary system. Copies of this segment of the study will be sent to the district after Labor Day.
Recess: President Strom recessed the meeting at 9:15 p.m. and reconvened it at 9:22 p.m.
Reports were made by the Superintendent and by the Finance, Curriculum and Legislation committees.
Board Hearing: Board members commented on the following topics: MASB seminar and publicizing the high school sixth hour of instruction.
Audience Communication: Lee Webber suggested that this might be a good time to reinstitute the administrative internship program for principals.
Closed Session: Motion by Akey and Sari that the meeting be recessed to closed session for the purpose of discussing property matters. Ayes: Akey, Cameron, Merner, Sari, Strom, Withers. Nays: None. President Strom recessed the meeting to closed session at 9:40 p.m. The meeting was reconvened at 10:42 p.m.
Adjournment: President Strom adjourned the meeting at 10:43 p.m.

Cindy Buchanan, holding nephew Jonathon, brought her daughters Dawn and Cheyanne along on a tour of the General Motors Assembly Division warehouse during the auto company's 75 anniversary celebration.

Public joins GM in celebration

By Sandra Armbruster
editor

Helping General Motors celebrate its 75th anniversary Friday was Cindy Buchanan, who brought along her nephew and two daughters for a tour of the GM Assembly Division plant on Newburgh in Westland. The tour was part of the open house sponsored at various facilities in the area.

"They've been real interested in cars since I started doing my own car maintenance," explained Buchanan, owner of a 1973 Monte Carlo. She said "being single" got her started doing her own repair work.

Buchanan paused to talk while walking through the Chevrolet critical fastener testing lab, one of the stops on the tour of the 694,000-square-foot facility. To get an idea of how much space that is, try thinking of 33 football fields laid side by side and end to end.

The testing lab is an important one for car buyers. Kathy Carter, who guided the tour through the area, said it's the only one of its kind. She explained that while some car companies approve their suppliers before receiving parts from them, the Chevrolet lab checks parts after they arrive at the warehouse.

"Our number one priority is quality assurance. We assure that Chevrolet is buying quality parts. We look for early detection of bad, faulty parts," she explained.

On display for the tours were a $26,000 Corvette and a $13,000 Berlina that had been torn apart for inspection.

Among the tools used for checking safety-related nuts and bolts were a Magnaflex Unit, used to illuminate cracks, and a salt spray cabinet used, as you may have already guessed, to test for corrosion.

WHILE THE 13 lab employees keep busy checking parts, 500 people in the rest of the facility spend 24 hours a day, five days a week, storing and then shipping parts to 21 assembly plants in the U.S. and Mexico.

According to company spokesmen, GM contracts with Leaseway of Detroit for the storage and shipping duties.

The warehouse is celebrating its 15th anniversary this year. It opened in March 1968, expanded in 1969 and, in 1978, an 82-foot automated, high-rise warehouse was added.

One sign in the plant reads, "House-keeping is the number one priority," and that's no wonder. The warehouse has the capacity to store 14,000 different nuts, bolts and metal stampings in 20,000 storage bins.

To help keep track of all that merchandise is a computer which can locate all those parts. Conveyors move the parts throughout the warehouse, where it is stacked, audited, "stretch-wrapped" in what looks like plastic wraps used in the kitchen, and finally placed on board either trucks or trains.

"FREIGHT CONSOLIDATION" is the task of employees in the warehouse, explained Mark Kenczyk, a supervisor of shipping and receiving for General Motors.

"What we do is receive parts in by truck and ship them out by rail," Kenczyk said. "We get small loads in from Ma and Pa companies. Rather than having all the plants getting a number of small loads, they get one from us."

And that saves the company money, Kenczyk added.

Competition is hot right now between trucking and rail companies, Kenczyk said, because trucking has been deregulated. That means the warehouse, which includes 30 truck wells and 24 rail road car spots inside, cycles back and forth, according to who offers the lowest shipping prices.

The plant ships out on 110 rail cars a week. Switches are made to a rail road sliding off Newburgh just north of the plant at 2 and 8 p.m. each day. It takes about 3½ hours to load one rail car with an average 82,000 pounds.

In contrast, 60 trucks a week are shipped out, carrying 30,000 pounds.

Put it all together, said company officials, and the warehouse totals about 600 million pounds of material controlled and shipped annually.

Hard to imagine all that weight? Well, the next time you cross the railroad tracks on Newburgh, picture a train that's 72 miles long.

That's what it would take to ship all the material in rail cars at the same time.

Competition between rail and truck shippers is growing due to deregulation, according to a GM spokesman.

GM's warehouse facility on Newburgh in Westland hosted an open house to mark the company's 75th anniversary. Expanded several times, the warehouse has been in the city for 15 years.

Seniors organize plan to visit peers

Crowding into the Friendship Center last week were 132 senior citizens gathered to kick-off the Department on Aging's new Seniors Helping Seniors program in conjunction with the Wayne-Westland adult extension program.

But the seniors didn't attend just to enjoy the ice cream social. By the time the last one left that Sunday afternoon, a total of 125 seniors had signed up to help their peers.

Some seniors are "really alone, so alone that many have lost their identity," Sylvia Kozorosky, deputy director of the Department on Aging, told those assembled.

The new visiting senior volunteers will not only make a friendly visit, but also determine individual needs and forward their report to the Department on Aging.

INTRODUCING the subject of seniors helping seniors were two volunteers who know what it means to keep in touch with the homebound. Evelyn McGuire-Overend, who has chaired the convalescent home project since 1972, and Paul Planté, chairman of the Theodorians, talked about the self-satisfaction and sense of fulfillment received while helping those less fortunate than themselves.

Volunteers will be trained on a professional basis, and all contacts will be strictly confidential.

The first visits will be made to those seniors now receiving daily telephone calls or who participate in the homebound meals program. Seniors in those programs will be contacted to see if they would welcome a visit from a fellow senior citizen.

OTHERS WHO would like to have some Westland senior visited can request the service by calling the Department on Aging at 722-7632. But volunteers will be needed to make the program a success. If you are a senior, widow or widower, you may volunteer simply by calling the department on aging at the above phone number.

Kozorosky said that volunteers will meet at 1 p.m. Friday at the Friendship Center, Marquette east of Newburgh and south of Ford roads, to introduce the program. She said that volunteers will then meet once a month on a Sunday to "rap" about their experiences. She emphasized that no names will be used.

The next meeting will be at 2 p.m. Oct. 16 at the Friendship Center. Seniors are asked to bring a medium dish of food to share for a pot luck meal.

Barns explains development fund

The Legislature's top priority during the fall session is jobs, according to Rep. Justine Barns, D-Westland. But the task of putting in motion a plan for creating new jobs won't be easy as the Legislature begins to tackle the proposed $54-million Michigan Strategic Fund (MSF) as proposed in the governor's economic development package presented recently to the legislators.

The goal of the fund, according to Barns, is to speed up diversification and growth of the state economy. To do that, the fund is supposed to supply money needed to expand or develop new products, technologies or facilities in Michigan.

A nine-member board of directors appointed by the governor and approved by the Senate would set policies and oversee the activities of the fund.

The private sector would be involved because five members, a majority, of the board would be business people and because the private sector's involvement would be required to finance any project.

"The fund works on the philosophy that business, labor and state government can work together to expand our private economy, and create or save jobs," Barns said. "This is the philosophy that worked so well in saving Chrysler Corp. and 80,000 or more Michigan jobs."

THE FUND would combine existing state-operated financing mechanisms into a flexible program that would focus on areas where success is most likely. That means the fund would coordinate the Michigan Economic Development Authority, the Job Development Authority, the state research fund, power for bonding and other forms of debt management.

But Barns believes that the MSF isn't an additional layer of bureaucracy.

"It would mean a more clear focus for state activities in economic development delivered with fewer layers of bureaucracy," she said. "Every $1 million the fund puts behind loans to small businesses could result in an additional $9 in federal loan guarantees."

Indian Guides is time well spent

A FRIEND called to tell me about a program he and his son had joined. They would both dress up like Indians and go to meetings.

It sounded silly, but my friend was a no-nonsense type, so I asked him for more information. After attending a meeting of about six fathers and sons, I decided to join.

That was my introduction to Indian Guides, a program designed to foster a close relationship between one parent and one child.

That year, my son and I attended one meeting a month, went on one outing a month and camped out twice. Both of us had a good time and I think learned something about each other. That was eight years ago.

WHEN THE school year ended, Indian Guides was over. The next school year, there were distractions. I guess you could call me a dropout. I haven't thought much about it since.

One day last week, I read in our Farmington newspaper about the start of the new year for Indian Guides. I called Vic Kruppenbacher, program director for the Farmington Y, to find out about the changes in Indian Guides in the past eight years. (Programs are sponsored by Ys.)

As expected, there have been some. The idea of promoting better relationships between father and son has expanded. It's now called Indian Family Programs and includes both sexes.

THE NEW programs are: Indian Princess (father/daughter), Indian Maidens (mother/daughter), and Indian Braves (mother/son).

"As women have changed their roles, so have our programs," Kruppenbacher said. "Today, many mothers are working full time and don't get to spend much time with their children. Some mothers are divorced and looking for ways to spend limited, but quality, time with their children."

Indian Maidens were added four years ago. This is the second year for Indian Braves.

All of the Indian programs are doing well, according to Kruppenbacher. More than 300 families in the Farmington area participate.

"We get many positive comments from the families," Kruppenbacher said. "Most new people join because of recommendations from friends already in Indian Family programs. Also, we get many repeat parents who re-enter with younger children."

Based on my one year's experience, I'd recommend Indian Family programs to any parent. I never changed my mind about a grown man looking silly wearing an Indian headdress and vest. But that's not the point of the program.

IT'S DIFFICULT for a parent to give a child individual attention. The Indian program requires that time be spent together without the normal distractions.

Family Ys in your area are signing up new people. Indian programs are for children 5-9. Children 10-14 can join Trail Blazers.

X-rated story has 2 sides

HOW DO YOU STAND on the subject of X-rated films?

There are a couple of sides to the story more than in the flimsy plots in so-called adult movies.

Iris Wolf is trying to get the city of Southfield to prohibit stores from selling or renting X-rated videotapes. She said such tapes, or movies, are disgusting, pornographic garbage which can be seen by kids on home TV, and therefore should be banned.

Jackie Klein

Southfield City Attorney William Beach cites a Supreme Court ruling which prohibits local government from adopting or enforcing obscenity ordinances. Community standards determine what is obscene.

Wolf says some of her friends claim her crusade is an invasion of privacy. In letters to our newspapers about half the writers agree with Wolf and the other half agree with her friends.

MARK SKLAR, owner of the Negative Outlook video store in Southfield, wrote a letter to this reporter telling his side of the story.

To begin with, he writes, X-rated films constitute only a small portion of the films he carries. His business, he says, is geared to classical films and popular movies that generate public interest.

He goes on to say that the X-rated films are concealed for the express purpose of keeping them out of the hands of everyone under the age of majority.

All his employees are carefully instructed to ask for identification before renting adult films, Sklar says. Visible signs in his stores clearly state that X-rated films aren't available to minors, he adds.

Sklar said he has always taken these precautions and the policy will never change.

"However, we are moving out of the Victorian age and the demand for adult home entertainment has kept the pace. Movie houses with R-rated films that border on an X-rating are filled with eroticism and are in abundant supply. How often is a 'G' rated film produced?"

MOST LARGE supermarket chains carry "porno" magazines and drug stores have large and visible supplies of contraceptives, Sklar maintains.

"Last but not least, cable television has pornography in film as early as 7 p.m. with perversions that make anything we carry look pale in comparison," Sklar said.

"Parents have the responsibility to provide greater control and guidance for their children. Perhaps it is there the weakness lies."

"We can't make the world conform to our individual values any more than we have the right to judge the activity in our neighbor's bedroom."

"The demand for X-rated films is there and we try to supply that demand with the greatest discretion. If such paraphernalia falls into the hands of a minor, then some adult was careless. We must ask whose responsibility it is to know where our children are."

Drama of football game is often in locker room

THIS IS the season of the year when thousands upon thousands of persons gather in the football stadia of the land to watch the drama that takes place between the white stripes on the green floor below.

They thrill at the sight of Michigan State pulling the upset of the early season by conquering Notre Dame on the home grounds of the "Fighting Irish," or they groan at the downfall of Michigan in the closing minutes of their battle with Washington in far off Seattle.

But little do they realize that the stark-drama of the day may be played out in the dressing room just before the start of the game.

the stroller
W.W. Edgar

It was drama down at South Bend when George Perles, the new Michigan State coach, stood before his team and spoke as the time came to take the field an underdog.

IT WAS a tense moment and justly for the coach for this was his first big game on a new job.

But he met the task — dramatically.

"I just told them that this was a game they would long remember," he said after the game. "They would live with the dramatic moments the rest of their lives. And I told them to play for their families, too, so they would have fond memories."

Well, you know what happened.

Coach Perles' performance was drama at its best and it recalled the day when "Biggie" Munn, another Spartan coach, talked his team into beating the Irish.

"This is the day to prove that you are men," Biggie told his team. "This is the day you can show your mothers that you are men. You can show the world that you are men." And with that he led them onto the field.

"WE ALMOST banged the door down to get out there on the field," one of the veterans said after the victory. "Biggie certainly did a great job."

The one great moment The Stroller never will forget was back in Pennsylvania when he followed the fortunes of Lehigh University.

Lehigh was coached by a big bruiser of an Irishman named Tom Keady. And it so happened that his younger brother, Jim, played in the backfield.

Before the big game with Lafayette, Keady talked to the team as a group and then to the players one at a time. He kept his brother for the last.

He walked over to him, put his hand on Jim's shoulder, and said, "There is an old gray-haired woman up in New England this afternoon waiting to hear what her sons did in their big game. Will it be good news, Jim, or will it be bad?"

"Well, it better be good. If it isn't, just stay out there on the field and I'll see to it that you get a decent burial."

WITH THAT he patted his brother on the back and sent him into the fray.

There wasn't an inch gained around brother Jim's side of the field that afternoon. And his old gray-haired mother up in New England got the good news, her coaching son had so desperately wanted when he spoke those closing words in the pre-game talk.

Yes, some of the greatest dramas of the football season are not always played on the chalk-lined turf on the floors of the stadia.

discover Michigan

by Bill Stockwell

One of the early settlers in Birmingham, Michigan, Frank Durkee, is said to have cut down and burned more than 100 trees in a single winter, selling the ashes for lye making. His payment consisted of one pair of boots, one bushel basket, some miscellaneous groceries and six yards of calico. Some produce items — tea, for example — were very expensive, when they could even be found.

The Great Lakes, as we know them today, were the result of a terrific battle between sun and ice which took place in this area 10,000 years ago. The warmer climate moved northward and the blanket of ice glaciers covering what is now the Upper Peninsula retreated. Geological miracles took place and the area which is now the state of Michigan was created.

MUSCLE PAIN AS PART OF ARTHRITIS

There are times when your muscles ache but the doctor will diagnose the problem as arthritis. Why will a joint condition show itself as a muscle pain?

First, the same type of cells that line the joints also line the tendons of the muscles as these tendons anchor near the joint. These tendon sheaths, as the linings are called, are sensitive to the same noxious stimulus that affect the joint linings.

Second, strain occurs on muscles that are near an inflamed joint. These muscles try to splint the joint to prevent its movement and subsequent irritation. The joints are at rest, which helps them, but the muscles are put under undue tension and react with pain and ache.

Treatment for the involved muscles is the same as for the inflamed joints; rest, aspirin and heat are the mainstays of therapy. Fortunately, muscles recover faster than bone, and you can expect relief soon after appropriate therapy is begun.

Anti-nuke groups pressure Pursell on MX vote

By Tim Richard
staff writer

Anti-nuclear people spent an entire day in Carl Pursell's 2nd Congressional District, but the Plymouth Republican doesn't seem to be budging in his decision to vote money for the MX multiple-warhead missile.

"I've traditionally and consistently voted against the B-1 (bomber) and MX," said Pursell, who has changed his mind since last spring.

Groups such as the Nuclear Freeze Movement, which set up camp in the Newman House near the Schoolcraft College campus, and SANE, the anti-bomb group with headquarters in Ann Arbor, want the fourth-term congressman to change it back again.

PURSELL IS one of 40 "target" congressmen — half Democrats, half Republicans, nearly all moderates — whom the anti-nuclear groups are lobbying heavily to defeat the MX. He is the only Michiganian.

Rep. Carl Pursell
negotiating chip

'I spent a lot of time with key House leaders — 10 or 12 who voted against MX. We felt MX could play a role in negotiations. We might trade MX for (the Soviets') SS 20.'

—U.S. Rep. Carl Pursell

Last week they brought in Arthur Macy Cox, a New York Times contributor, author, former CIA official and director of the U.S. Arms Control Agency in the Carter Administration, for appearances in Jackson, Hillsdale, Ann Arbor and Livonia.

"There are only two conceivable reasons for going ahead with the MX," Cox told a Newman House audience at Schoolcraft.

"The serious reason is that Reagan has a desire to build an arsenal of first strike weapons" which within minutes of launch could "decapitate" the Soviet Union — that is, obliterate its leaders even if they take refuge in 100-foot-deep silos.

"AN ABSOLUTELY insane goal" Cox called it, because it would force the Soviets to develop a "launch on warning" system whereby they would hurl similar missiles the moment they suspected the MX heading their way.

American warning devices are unreliable and the Soviets' even less reliable, Cox said, thus compounding the chance of an accidental war of devastation.

He saw the MX as "forcing the Soviets into a corner which will almost force them accidentally to attack us."

He said a better strategy would be a total embargo on grain by the United States, Canada, Australia and Argentina. The $3 billion subsidy price would be much less than the MX cost and would be "very painful" to the Soviets.

The less serious reason anyone would support MX, said Cox, is the "notion that it is a useful bargaining chip." But he added it is useful only before it has been deployed, not afterwards.

BUT THAT is exactly why Pursell has switched to support MX — he sees it as a useful bargaining chip in arms reduction talks with the Soviets.

"I believe the link between strategic arms modernization and arms negotiations... must continue," said Pursell, citing the recommendations to the Reagan Administration of the bipartisan Scowcroft Commission.

Pursell said he voted twice against MX — for research and development, and for procurement — but will vote for the appropriation.

"Carter cancelled the B1 bomber and got nothing (from the Soviets) in return," Pursell said.

"I SPENT" a lot of time with key House leaders — 10 or 12 who voted against MX. We felt MX could play a role in negotiations. We might trade MX for (the Soviets') SS 20."

In July remarks on the House floor, Pursell said:

"I am further persuaded that the MX is necessary by its effect on America's participation in NATO. NATO is in the process of modernizing its nuclear forces. A vote today for the MX will continue a consistent U.S. position and will materially benefit these NATO efforts."

"Improving the strength of the NATO alliance and of the U.S. nuclear deterrent improves our negotiating posture with the Soviets."

★ FIRST FEDERAL OF MICHIGAN ★

HELP US DO MORE FOR YOU BY VOTING "YES" FOR OUR STOCK CONVERSION PLAN.

As a First Federal of Michigan customer, you're aware of the many financial services we offer. From savings and interest-earning checking to consumer and home loans.

To meet more of your financial needs, we'd like to expand our services.

That's why we're hoping you'll help us convert to a stock form of ownership. As a stock association, we'll be able to provide additional capital strength for our depositors, and financial support for increased lending activity, expanded facilities, acquisitions and future growth.

But before we can put our plan into action, we need you to take action. And vote.

The whole process is as easy as 1-2-3.

Step 1: Look for your Proxy Statement.

You'll be receiving in the mail—if you haven't already—a detailed Proxy Statement explaining our complete Stock Conversion Plan. Please read it carefully.

Included in the statement, you'll find Proxy Cards.

Step 2: Vote.

It is very important that you vote. If you don't, it is considered a "no" vote.

Our Board of Directors has approved the proposed change, and we urge you to vote "yes."

Voting for conversion will not affect your current accounts or loans. Nor does it obligate you to buy stock.

Step 3: Mail your Proxy.

After you have decided how to vote, mark, date and sign the Proxy where indicated. That's all there is to it! Mail the Proxy in the blue postage-paid business reply envelope labeled "PROXY"—or bring the Proxy to any office of First Federal of Michigan. If you receive more than one Proxy, please vote and return each one.

Or you may pick up Proxy Cards at any First Federal of Michigan branch office and complete the voting process there.

Remember: You must vote before November 2, 1983.

Stock subscription offer.

Slim Down with Main Dish Molded Salads

Slim down with a trio of main dish salads to serve on a salad buffet or individually as a meal. They are all big in flavor but low in calories when made with a new Featherweight 87% reduced calorie gelatin.

Here's a new slim-down approach to a calorie controlled meal in a molded salad pretty enough for a party. We've followed the advice of nutritionists by starting with a low-fat protein, adding a vegetable or two and molding them together with a touch of seasoning in a sugar-free fruit flavored gelatin.

The new gelatins, which are 87% lower in calories than regular gelatin, were developed by Featherweight™ with NutraSweet™ (a new sweetener, aspartame) which gives them a natural sweet fruit flavor. They have no sugar, saccharin or salt added.

Our choice for the sparkling layered salad starts with chicken, either cooked or canned, for the protein, and then adds colorful green peas and celery for the vegetables, a light touch of curry and the option of adding some chopped chutney, if you choose. The fresh orange flavor of the gelatin compliments both taste and appearance. Whole blanched almonds add crunch and garnish to a salad with only 126 calories per serving.

Canned salmon marinated in low calorie Italian dressing is the inspiration for a fish shaped mold. Green onions, shredded carrots and cucumber add color, texture and nutrients while the lemon gelatin accents the color and flavor of the salad. Fresh dill blended with low-fat yogurt make a perfect salad dressing to serve as accompaniment in a sea-shell. Made with Featherweight gelatin there are only 115 calories per serving in the mold and 18 calories per tablespoon of dressing.

The spicy flavors of gazpacho blend chunks of tuna, cucumber, celery, tomato, green pepper and onion with lemon gelatin to create a colorful and tangy mold with merely 101 calories.

Pick your favorite molded salad and add crisp bread sticks for a good accompaniment. To keep the meal nutritionally balanced and low in calories, add a beverage and fresh fruit for dessert.

The Featherweight NutraSweet sweetened gelatins are available nationally with each 2-pouch package containing 8 servings.

LEMON GAZPACHO MOLD

6 servings

101 calories
per serving

- 1 package lemon gelatin dessert
- 1 teaspoon instant bouillon beef flavor
- 1 cup boiling water
- 2-1/2 cups tomato juice
- 2 teaspoons red wine vinegar
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1/4 teaspoon liquid red pepper seasoning
- 1 cup chopped unpared cucumber
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup chopped seeded peeled tomato
- 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/4 cup finely chopped onion
- 2 6-1/2-ounce cans tuna chunks, drained

Empty both envelopes of gelatin into a bowl. Add instant bouillon and boiling water; stir until dissolved. Add tomato juice, red wine vinegar, Worcestershire sauce, and red pepper seasoning; stir well. Chill until thickened. Add cucumber, celery, tomato, green pepper, onion, and tuna to thickened gelatin; mix well. Turn mixture into a lightly oiled 5-1/2 or 6-cup mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on a serving plate.

SALMON SALAD WITH DILLED YOGURT SAUCE

6 servings

115 calories/salad
18 calories/tbsp/dressing

- 2 7-3/4-ounce cans pink salmon
- 1/2 cup low calorie Italian dressing
- 1 package lemon gelatin
- 1 cup boiling water
- 2-1/2 cups cold water
- 3 green onions, thinly sliced
- 2 carrots, pared and shredded
- 1/2 small cucumber, coarsely chopped
- 1 8-ounce carton low-fat yogurt
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh dill or
- 1 teaspoon dried dill weed

Drain salmon and put into a bowl. Pour dressing over salmon and toss with a fork to coat. Cover and marinate in refrigerator 4 hours or overnight. Empty both envelopes of gelatin into a bowl. Add boiling water and stir until dissolved. Add cold water and stir well. Chill until thickened. Add green onions, carrots, cucumber and marinated salmon to thickened gelatin; mix well. Turn mixture into a lightly oiled 5-1/2-cup fish-shaped mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on a serving plate. Combine yogurt and dill. Serve with the salad.

LAYERED ORANGE CHICKEN SALAD

6 servings

126 calories
per serving

- 1 package orange gelatin dessert
- 1 teaspoon instant bouillon chicken flavor
- 1 cup boiling water
- 3 cups cold water
- 18 blanched almonds
- 2 cups coarsely diced cooked chicken
- 1 cup cooked green peas
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1 teaspoon curry powder
- 1 tablespoon chopped chutney (optional)

Empty both envelopes of gelatin into a bowl. Add instant bouillon and boiling water; stir until dissolved. Add cold water and stir well. Chill until thickened but not set. Arrange almonds in bottom of a lightly oiled 2-quart fancy mold. Pour half of thickened gelatin into the mold over the almonds. Chill gelatin until just set. Combine chicken, peas, celery, curry powder, and chutney; add to gelatin in bowl and mix thoroughly. Spoon chicken mixture over set gelatin layer. Chill until firm. Unmold on a serving plate.

Change your routine with the ever-popular hot dog

The way to change in kitchen routine can be spelled r-i-c-e. This all-American product is probably one of the most versatile, appealing and low cost foods in the world. It is easy to prepare and serve.

Rice can take the ever-popular but ordinary hot dog, for example, and turn it into a family-pleasing casserole. One that takes no time to make, providing extra moments for summertime relaxation.

In this special recipe, cooked rice is flavored with cheese, tomatoes and seasonings, to which hot dogs are added. Then, it's into the oven for 25 minutes. . . and serve.

At less than four cents per half-cup serving, rice adds economy as well as versatility to any menu. When combined with other meats, poultry or seafood, it stretches those items, enabling additional people to be served per meal.

Rice, an excellent source of carbohydrates, also has good nutritional quality.

ALL-AMERICAN HOT DOGS AND RICE

- 1/2 cup pasteurized process cheese spread
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/2 cup catsup
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 1/4 tsp. ground black pepper
- 3 cups cooked rice
- 1 pkg. (12 oz.) frankfurters, cut in 1-inch pieces
- 1 can (14 1/2 to 16 oz.) tomatoes, crushed and drained
- 1/4 cup finely chopped onion
- 2 tbsp. snipped parsley

Combine cheese spread, milk, catsup and seasonings in a small saucepan. Heat on low until well blended. Combine cheese sauce with remaining ingredients except parsley. Turn into a buttered shallow 2-quart baking dish. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 to 30 minutes, or until heated through. Sprinkle with parsley. Makes 6 servings.

ALL-AMERICAN HOT DOGS AND RICE (Microwave Method)

Combine cheese spread, milk, catsup, and seasonings in 1-quart microproof dish. Cook at 50 percent power 3 minutes, or until well blended, stirring every minute. Combine cheese sauce with remaining ingredients except parsley. Turn into buttered shallow 2-quart microproof dish. Cook on high (maximum power) 8 minutes, or until heated through, rotating dish 1/4 turn after 4 minutes. Let stand 5 to 10 minutes before serving. Sprinkle with parsley.

Each serving provides: 318 calories, 310 calories with low calorie catsup, 2 meat exchanges, 1 bread exchange, 2 fat exchanges, 1/2 vegetable exchange, some milk.

SAUSAGE RICE PIE (Microwave Method)

- 2 cups cooked rice
- 5 eggs, divided
- 1 1/4 cups (5 oz.) grated Swiss cheese, divided

Combine rice, 1 egg, and 1/4 cup cheese. Press into bottom and sides of a buttered 10-inch pie plate. In a medium skillet cook sausage until well browned, stirring to crumble. Drain well. Arrange meat and onions over crust. Combine milk, half-and-half, salt, and remaining eggs. Pour into prepared crust. Sprinkle with remaining cheese. Dust with paprika, if desired. Cook at 70 percent power for 12 minutes, or until set, rotating dish 1/4 turn every 5 minutes. Allow to stand 5 to 10 minutes before slicing.

Tasty spread

Mix this light-tasting spread ahead and let it chill. Use as a sandwich filling or layer it on plain crackers or melba toast for after-school or after work-snacking. Drain well an 8-ounce can unsweetened crushed pineapple. Blend with the contents of a 5-ounce can chunk chicken, 1/2 cup medium chopped walnuts, 3 tablespoons sour cream, 2 tablespoons minced green pepper and 1 tablespoon drained chopped maraschino cherries. Season to taste with salt and white pepper. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

- 1/2 lb. pork sausage meat
- 1/2 cup sliced green onions, including tops
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/4 cup half-and-half (cream and milk)
- 1/2 tsp. salt

Combine rice, 1 egg, and 1/4 cup cheese. Press into bottom and sides of a buttered 10-inch pie plate. In a medium skillet cook sausage until well browned, stirring to crumble. Drain well. Arrange meat and onions over crust. Combine milk, half-and-half, salt, and remaining eggs. Pour into prepared crust. Sprinkle with remaining cheese. Dust with paprika, if desired. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 to 40 minutes, or until set. Allow to stand 5 to 10 minutes before slicing. Makes 6 servings.

Each serving provides: 321 calories, 2 1/2 meat exchanges, 1/2 bread exchange, 2 fat exchanges, some milk.

SAUSAGE RICE PIE (Microwave Method)

Combine rice, 1 egg, and 1/4 cup cheese. Press into bottom and sides of a buttered 10-inch microproof pie plate. In shallow microproof dish cook sausage on HIGH (maximum power) 3 minutes, or until well browned, stirring every minute to crumble. Drain well. Arrange meat and onion over crust. Combine milk, half-and-half, salt, and remaining eggs. Pour into prepared crust. Sprinkle with remaining cheese. Dust with paprika, if desired. Cook at 70 percent power for 12 minutes, or until set, rotating dish 1/4 turn every 5 minutes. Allow to stand 5 to 10 minutes before slicing.

Franks and . . . rice? Why not? Served in a cheese and catsup sauce, with onion and seasonings, the hot dog and cooked rice become a tasty casserole.

Any time of the year, it's time for a picnic

An entertaining idea to try this fall or winter might be a country picnic. This picnic is a new and different way of entertaining because it isn't the typical picnic with chicken and potato salad. Instead it's a picnic containing an arrangement of varieties of cheese along with unusual breads, fresh fruits and berries. These foods make up the visual dynamics for the picnic and provide fresh, natural goodness.

The country picnic can be served for breakfast, light lunch or a snack. It's fun because the picnic can take place outside in the prairie grass or in your home next to the fire. The picnic can actually take place anytime of the year, just set the mood by spreading out a blanket and serve fresh, natural goodness.

SIMPLY SELECT a variety of cheeses, choosing two to three kinds to complement their distinct flavors with beautiful whole grain breads. Good choices for cheese include a wedge out of a wheel of Cheddar cheese, a hunk of Baby Swiss and one variety of a process cheese. Provide a knife or cheese cutter for each variety. Freshly baked whole grain breads, or French, Italian and sourdough breads add shape and texture to the cheese assortment. Preslice the bread or serve whole loaves with knives nearby for guest to serve themselves.

Fresh fruits and berries add even more shapes, textures and flavors to the picnic. Cheese brings out the sweet bite of grapes, pears or figs and the fruit reciprocates by emphasizing the savory flavor of the cheese. Apples are a natural choice, being both crisp and juicy. Select other fruits that have interesting taste and an unusual design. Fresh figs have an unusual texture because they are soft with the crunch of seeds. Kiwi contains an artistry with the black seeds against its brilliant green surface.

Cheese, breads and fruits are all you need to serve at the country picnic. This picnic will be a simple, beautiful gathering and one to tempt the palate.

It's the last semester in school...you've done the interviewing bit and, lucky you, there's that job waiting for you in June. But that doesn't mean instant wealth for a guy with college debts to pay. What it does mean is that you'll be needing a car and a new place to live.

Right now the car is uppermost in your mind and the search is serious for you. Like thousands of young men before you, you turn to Classified. The Classified columns are the accepted marketplace for both new and used automobiles...and you can depend on finding the car just right for you.

Family trouble calls a constant worry for police

By Leonard Poger
staff writer

NEARLY EVERY day, there is a "family trouble" call that Garden City police officers answer.

"There is danger in every one — you never know what will happen," said Detective Sgt. Richard Mager.

He said that family trouble calls are one of the most dangerous things an officer faces.

The veteran officer talked about the growing problem of family trouble reports and domestic violence while putting together information for an upcoming murder hearing scheduled for today.

That hearing, if held, involves Marc Davis, a Wayne County sheriff's deputy, charged with the fatal shooting of his sister-in-law, Kimberly Wilson of Garden City, and the serious wounding of her husband, Todd, and Davis' wife, Diane.

Mrs. Davis, also a sheriff's deputy, was separated from her husband for several weeks and was living with her sister, Mrs. Wilson, at the time of the shooting in the early morning hours of Sunday, Sept. 18.

While Mager was talking about family trouble from the police department's viewpoint, his small office in the department's detective bureau was cluttered with pieces of evidence to be used in the preliminary hearing.

One item was a purple woman's robe worn by Mrs. Wilson when she was shot.

MAGER SAID the Garden City department, which covers a city with 38,500 persons, has about five family trouble calls a week, and he said that he is providing a conservative estimate.

That amounts to about 250 a year. Many of those calls are misdemeanor cases although some are felonious assaults.

In some cases, Mager said, guns are involved in the assaults and are taken away by the police department.

In the recent shooting, the police confiscated two guns, both .38-caliber revolvers.

A problem for the department, the detective said, is that the wife-victim of the assault usually doesn't sign a complaint to allow for prosecution of the case.

Only about 25 to 33 percent of family trouble reports eventually are prosecuted in court, he said.

Part of that statistic is that wives sometimes sign a complaint but later change their minds and want to drop the charges against their husbands, he said.

The police department is powerless to act unless the victim signs a complaint, he said.

What happens when an officer is called to a family trouble call? "The officer is urged to use caution," Mager said.

"The couple are usually irate at any one involved."

The officer tries to find out what the problem is about and take what steps he can, Mager added.

FOLLOWING THE shooting on Cambridge Street, Mrs. Davis, mother of a 3- and 5-year-old, remains in critical condition at University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Mager said there is no hope of an early release for her.

Her brother-in-law is expected to be released from Wayne County General Hospital, Westland, and can testify at a preliminary court hearing, Mager said.

The hearing before Garden City District Judge Richard Hammer will determine whether a crime has been committed and if there is probable cause to believe there is enough evidence to hold a trial.

Davis, 32, is charged with first degree murder, two counts of assault with intent to commit murder, and use of a firearm while committing a felony.

If convicted of the murder charge, Davis faces a maximum sentence of life in prison, Mager said.

Dewey goes to bat for battered women

By Sherry Kahan
staff writer

JANE DEWEY has stepped into the role of executive director of First Step at a time when staff members are telling her that violence is escalating in spouse abuse.

She's learning there is also more alcohol-related violence, and that from one-half to three-quarters of First Step's battered clients have unemployed husbands. The martial arts are contributing a new stick that has been used to injure women. Other angry males are still relying on their hands and feet as the weapons of choice to hurt the females in their life.

The staff is also reporting several cases of beatings of a mother by her son, taking his abusive father as a role model. There have also been incidents of a violent husband suddenly turning on a daughter and sexually abusing her.

In August, 95 new clients contacted First Step, the Westland-based agency which helps victims of domestic violence in western Wayne County (except Detroit) and downriver. That was about the same number asking for help in a peak month, November 1979.

Eighty-seven families have used First Step's live-in shelter since it opened in February.

"VIOLENCE WITHIN the family setting should not be tolerated by our

'Violence within the family setting should not be tolerated by our society. Services to help families experiencing such violence must be allowed to continue and expand to meet the need. I see it as my job in this new position to help our services do just that.'

— Jane Dewey
new First Step director society," declared Dewey. "Services to help families experiencing such violence must be allowed to continue and expand to meet the need. I see it as my job in this new position to help our services do just that."

Dewey comes to the job with a degree in social work from the University of Michigan. Thirty-one years old, her most recent job was as executive director of an agency west of Chicago which provided support services for handicapped children, adults and their families.

She grew up in Michigan, and when she saw an advertisement in a Detroit newspaper recently for the position of director of First Step, she decided to try a return to this area.

"I liked the challenge," she said. "It is a good cause. I had been active in women's issues in Detroit. This is a very new field as far as social service is concerned. People are still trying to understand the extent of the problem of domestic violence and find a solution. I'm excited about being involved in a field so new."

"I also liked the duties of executive director at the other agency and see this job as a continuation of the duties I had liked. I see one of my main tasks as fund raising and public relations. There is a lot of community outreach to do. Also the preventive aspects of abuse need attention."

She said she thought the job would not be depressing because "progress takes place because of your help."

FIRST STEP was started in 1978 by a coalition formed by the Northwest Wayne County Chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW). Particularly active in the project were Mary Ann Pinkerton of Plymouth, Sheila Nobriga of Livonia and Cathy Aerni, a Westland resident. Also involved was the Rev. Doug Hodges, then the pastor of Norway Baptist Church in Westland.

The agency was launched with donations of money and office space from the city of Westland, after which the state, area cities and private organizations made financial contributions. Just recently Westland underlined its continued interest in the program by giving First Step $41,000.

"First Step is very supportive," commented Livonia police officer Anne Dempsey. "The service is real good, and it has helped tremendously. It is an excellent referral for us."

Livonia police officers often hand the First Step information card to women after a call on domestic violence.

Frequently a battered woman refuses to prosecute her husband after his attack on her. Dempsey estimated that only 5 percent of the cases go to final prosecution. She thinks it is due to a number of factors.

"There may be an emotional tie," she said. "Or after 30 years of marriage, she may not want to give up her lifestyle. She may want to be married to him. First Step helps her see alternatives open to her."

At the First Step shelter, 43 percent of the women who find temporary refuge there return to the assailant. Fifty-seven percent leave him.

Dempsey believes that there is less domestic violence since state legislation was passed which allows police to arrest the perpetrator on the scene even if they didn't witness the assault.

She added that today victims feel they have more legal power.

"They feel things don't have to be that way," she noted.

Upright style suggests matching traits

Dear Mrs. Green:

This is only the second time I have read your column in the Eccentric. The first time I wanted to write but never did, this time I am since I was so fascinated with your articles and found that handwriting actually says something about the person. I enjoy anything to do with writing in pen or pencil.

Furthermore, I would be very interested in knowing whay my handwriting reveals about myself. Thank you.

C.L. Union Lake

Dear C.L.:

Your neat, upright handwriting portrays a young woman who is outwardly poised, one who does not reveal feelings freely in her body language.

Most of her decisions are predicated more on intellect than emotion. She does not rush into them quickly, but takes time to decide how the matter will affect her personally before becoming involved.

Neat and orderly would also describe her. And she likes a place for everything and everything in its place.

Discipline is something with which she is familiar. She knows what needs to be done and does it. While all necessary aspects of a task are handled with care and precision, she does not waste time on the things she deems unessential.

She is probably known for her dependability. People have learned she can be counted on to do a commendable job when she assumes a task. She probably strives for perfection always. And currently she appears to be quite invovled.

Basically she has a peace-loving nature. But let no one underestimate the writer's ability to stand up and be counted when she feels this is necessary.

Hope she has learned to rely on her hunches, as a bit of intuition is here to furnish some of the answers.

FORMATIVE YEARS were spent in a female-dominated home. Some of her early traditions and values have been jettisoned as she matures and reaches out for new vistas.

She is aware of proper decorum for her social set. Still, with the fantasy suggested by those full lower loops, I can almost see her performing and embellishing for the attention it brings.

In social interaction she is often direct. But there is also tact here to lend charm to her personality.

At times she seems to underestimate here capabilities by setting goals that are not challenging enough. Someone once said, "Reach for the moon, if you miss you will still fall among the stars."

If you have a question about your handwriting, write to Lorene C.

Reformation scholar kicks off Bible series

Noted Reformation scholar, Prof. Arnold Koelpin of Dr. Martin Luther College, New Ulm, Minn., will kick off the fall mid-week Bible-class series at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 17810 Farmington Road, Livonia.

He will lead discussions tomorrow and Wednesday evenings at 7:30. Each session will focus on the 500th anniversary of Martin Luther's birth. The Tuesday night topic will be "Creeds and Confessions Today." The Wednesday subject will be "How Did We Get the Basic Christian Creed?"

The public is invited to attend any of the sessions.

KOELPIN WAS a Fulbright scholar at Erlangen University, Germany and wrote a thesis on the "Anabaptist Movement in the Reformation Era" for his doctorate. Currently, he is a professor of religion at the Wisconsin Synod Teaching Training School.

Following the kickoff meetings, the Fall Bible class sessions will continue each Wednesday and will treat doctrines which Luther dealt with during the Reformation. On Nov. 2 the children of the St. Paul's Lutheran school will present a "Luther Pageant" and on Nov. 16, there will be a premiere showing of the film, "Here We Stand!" recently produced by the parent body of St. Paul's, the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod.

Prof. Arnold Koelpin Bible studies speaker

CHARLES W. WARREN DIAMOND CLUSTER PENDANT

~~$890.15~~
$599.95

A PRICE FAR BELOW CURRENT MARKET VALUE

•OUR EXCLUSIVE DIAMOND CLUSTER•

Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, this pendant is a beautiful blending of quality and value. The 13 diamonds, carefully selected for their fine cut, are set off by a ruby or emerald. The pendant is available with a diamond or emerald center stone, or a 14k gold, with a diamond accent stone.

•OUR SPECIAL LOW PRICE•

Two extremely low prices. One for the diamond cluster pendant, the other for the ruby or emerald pendant. Both are available in very large quantities. The prices are lower than most retailers must pay. We are offering these pendants at our own factory. In addition to sharing these savings, we have sharply reduced the retail price of our diamonds. (Photo enlarged.) Use our charge or we will ship by express. Express, Visa or MasterCard.

House rejects lid on social welfare programs

Here's how area members of Congress were recorded on major roll call votes after returning from their summer recess.

HOUSE

SOCIAL SPENDING — By a vote of 124 for and 283 against, the House rejected an amendment to keep an administration-backed spending lid on 10 social welfare programs.

This authorized an additional $1.6 billion in fiscal 1984 for programs such as education aid for poor children and nutrition aid to infants and pregnant mothers who are poor.

Reversing themselves on this vote were many members who supported the ceilings when they were set in 1981 as part of the Gramm-Latta budget resolution, the keystone of the president's budget-cutting program.

The outlays were approved as part of a vocational rehabilitation bill (HR 3520) later passed and sent to the Senate.

Rep. Henry Hyde, R-Ill., who voted for the amendment, called it "clever politically" for the Democratic leadership to add the social spending to the popular vocational bill.

Rep. Pat Williams, D-Mont., said

roll call report

voting for the extra education outlay would be "responding to the power of the American people, who are insisting that more, not less, money be spent on education."

Members voting no favor the additional $1.6 billion in social spending.

Voting yes: William Broomfield, R-Birmingham.

Voting no: Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth; Dennis Hertel, D-Detroit; William Ford, D-Taylor, and Sander Levin, D-Southfield.

LITERACY — By a vote of 128 for and 275 against, the House rejected language requiring that high schools deny graduation to the functionally illiterate as a condition of receiving special U.S. aid for the poor.

The vote came during debate on HR 3520 (above).

It was supported by lawmakers unhappy with the additional $350 million in education outlays for the disadvantaged.

Sponsor John Erlenborn, R-Ill., said

"we should get some results for the federal funds that have been and will be expended... for education."

Opponent Carl Perkins, D-Ky., said the literacy requirement amounted to "heavy-handed federal control" over state and local education.

Members voting no opposed federally mandated literacy tests for high school graduates.

Voting yes: Broomfield.
Voting no: Pursell, Hertel, Ford and Levin.

AID — The House refused, 154 for and 255 against, to kill a provision extending Trade Adjustment Assistance to a new category of the jobless.

Presently, TAA unemployment and retraining benefits go to workers in industries such as steel and auto who lose their jobs directly as a result of foreign competition.

With this vote, the House approved TAA eligibility also for former employees of companies that supply goods and services to firms directly affected by imports.

The vote occurred during debate on a bill (HR 3319) extending the TAA program for two years at a cost estimated by the Congressional Budget Office at $380 million. Benefits authorized by this vote would cost at least $44 million annually. The bill awaited final action.

President Reagan has sought deep cuts in TAA, long a favorite of organized labor and its allies in Congress.

Rep. Barber Conable, R-N.Y., who voted yes, said the provision "would create a new entitlement program."

Rep. James Oberstar, D-Minn., said extending TAA to workers in supplier companies was a matter of "equity," adding "this is not an entitlement program."

Members voting no wanted to extend Trade Adjustment Assistance to a new category of the unemployed.

Voting no: Pursell, Hertel, Ford, Levin and Broomfield.

SENATE

MILITARY — The Senate passed, 83 for and eight against, and sent to the House the conference report on a bill (S 675) authorizing a $187.5 billion military budget for fiscal 1984.

The measure goes $18.9 billion beyond current spending levels but is $10.5 billion short of President Reagan's request for 1984. It funds the MX missile, nerve gas production and the B-1 bomber, among other controversial weaponry.

Supporter Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., said the Soviets' recent downing of a Korean Air Lines passenger jet "should remind us that military strength and national will are our only deterrents to Soviet aggression."

Opponent Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., cited the MX and the B-1 as examples of "wasteful, inefficient and destabilizing weapons" and said "I reject the notion that simply spending more will lead to greater national security."

Carl Levin, D-Mich., voted no. Donald Riegle, D-Mich., voted yes.

GC, Rockets, North win 'Dome clashes

By Brad Emons
and Chris McCosky
staff writers

Garden City, Westland John Glenn and North Farmington have the early jump in the Northwest Suburban League football race after Saturday's triple-header before a sparse turnout at the Pontiac Silverdome.

Here is a summary of league openers:

GARDEN CITY 20 LIVONIA FRANKLIN 14

Mark Hebestreit returned a kick-off 80 yards for the winning touchdown with only 3:18 remaining to give the Cougars their first victory of the season against the defending league champs.

Both teams are now 1-2 overall.

The junior halfback found a friendly wall of blockers down the right sideline and picked his way through a host of Patriot tacklers to score the game-winner.

Senior quarterback John Romano also had a big day, throwing for two TDs and 188 yards, completing 13 of 24 passes.

"It was a super game for us," said GC coach Dean Shipman. "We knew we would have to go over the top or around them because Franklin is a lot bigger than we are. We knew we couldn't go in the middle."

Franklin, thwarted earlier when two TD runs were called back because of penalties, finally tied the score at 14-14 with 3:59 in the game on a Randy Hurst one-yard plunge followed by a successful Rob Drabicki two-point conversion pass to Marshall Kleven. (Hurst finished with 125 yards in 23 carries.)

The Patriots scored at the outset of the second quarter on a one-yard sneak by Drabicki, capping an 11-play, 77-yard drive.

But Romano put the Cougars on the board when he found David Lee alone in the end zone for a 25-yard scoring toss.

With the score tied 6-6 at the half, GC came out passing in the third quarter, taking the lead on a Romano 44-yard bomb to Mike Roffi, who made a spectacular grab. Roffi's brother Mark then faked the extra point attempt and passed for two points, making the count 14-6 in GC's favor.

"They (GC) seemed to get tougher and gain more confidence in the second half after the long TD pass," said Franklin coach Armand Vigna. "Even then I thought we had the play covered well, but their kid made a perfect throw."

The GC scoring play came after Hurst had run 44 yards for an apparent TD, which was immediately nullified because of a holding call.

"That really hurt us and it shouldn't have," Vigna said. "We should have been able to overcome that. The offense was sluggish and the offensive line did not do the job for us."

Romano's favorite targets were Roffi, who caught five passes for 107 yards, and Jeff Shroat, who grabbed five for 48.

"John's a three-year starter with a pretty fair arm," Shipman said. "Our offensive line gave him great protection and we have a fleet of receivers we use. He had three or four to throw to."

Tony Boles showed why he's not on the JV football team anymore.

The sophomore transfer from Livonia Churchill, making his first varsity appearance ever, rushed for 141 yards on 24 carries and one TD to give Glenn a come-from-behind win over winless RU.

Glenn trailed 12-7 at halftime, but came out fired up in the third quarter behind the running of Boles. The speedy tailback sparked the winning TD drive, rushing for 73 yards in eight carries.

Quarterback Doug Corbell, filling in ably for starter Jeff Hawley after he was shaken up in the first half, passed six yards to tight end Jeff Meixner for the go-ahead TD with 8:12 to play in the period.

After a Ron Taj interception of an RU pass, senior Craig Thornton then put the game away with 44-yard TD burst up the middle with 2:26 left to play, sending the Rocket fans into orbit.

"We played much better in the second half," said Glenn coach Chuck Gordon. "Corbell's fine and we're solid with him in there. He's a heck of a leader."

And with the emergence of Boles, Glenn (2-1) appears to be a serious contender for the league title.

quarters, wore down the Panthers with its endless bench.

"They're huge," said RU coach Terri Anthony of Glenn. "We were out-sized at every position. They're a good team."

The Panthers had every opportunity to win, but 29 turnovers were tough to overcome.

"We played well enough defensively," Anthony said, "but we didn't play a very good offensive game. We were in the game, but they made the key shots and we didn't."

RU got in trouble early when 5-foot-9 sophomore center Julie Marchand was saddled with three quick fouls.

Tony Boles (right) made a stirring varsity debut Saturday in John Glenn's football win over Redford Union. RU's Bill Taylor attempts to bring the sophomore down.

"Tony moved in and we heard great things about him," Gordon explained. "But we didn't bring him up right away because it was a matter of evaluation."

"But I think he gives us a dimension now that we haven't had before."

After recovering a first quarter fumble, RU came out with its steam-roller attack.

It was the Bob Macek Express with the senior running back carrying the ball 11 of the 13 plays to set up the first TD. He capped a 46-yard drive with a four-yard dash at 8:49 of the quarter.

Glenn, however, came right back with Boles going 13 yards for the score. Thornton set up the TD when he picked off a Rick Holme pass at the RU 29. Chris Piazza's extra point put Glenn on top, 7-6.

But Keith Manus, throwing a pass from the backfield, hit Don Angel with a 31-yard TD toss with 5:03 to play in the half, making it 12-7. The score was set up when Gino Picano recovered a Boles fumble at the Glenn 34.

"Our defense played all right, but in the first half we gave them tremendous field position and that really put us in a bind," Gordon said.

NORTH FARMINGTON 32 REDFORD THURSTON 0

Whatever the North Farmington football team had for breakfast last Friday morning must have been mighty potent.

The Raiders played Saturday like the Raider team most experts picked to win the Northwest Suburban League title. They completely dominated the hapless Thurston Eagles in a game that was every bit as lopsided as the score would suggest.

"It took these five weeks for the players and coaches to adjust to each other," said first-year Raider coach Jim O'Leary. "We sat down and had a long talk about team unity last week. Then we had a special team breakfast on Friday."

"We started the season too cocky. I think the kids were waiting for Ron Holland to walk back onto the field. I let them know that I was the coach now and I would be for some time."

The Raiders responded in a big way. Thurston could manage just 60 yards total offense against the charged up Raider defense. Only nine of the yards were gained via the run.

North got a spectacular performance from senior running back Ken Goss. Hampered in the first two games by a bad ankle, Goss broke loose for 113 yards in just 14 carries.

"The way we played today, we would have beaten anybody," O'Leary said.

Maybe what the Raiders ate Friday morning was the breakfast of champions.

Pucci assists in Glenn triumph

By Brad Emons

Julie Pucci came out of the pack Thursday, leading Westland John Glenn to a 41-30 girls' basketball win over scrappy Redford Union in a Northwest Suburban League opener for both teams.

It was Glenn's sixth straight victory without a loss, while host RU dropped to 2-3.

Pucci, a senior point guard, took charge in the final quarter, sparking Glenn to an 18-10 surge and the victory. Pucci sealed the triumph when she fed teammate Sophie Castonguay for a layup with a perfect pass on a two-on-one break. The basket gave the Rockets an insurmountable 10-point lead with 1:28 remaining.

She finished with 12 points and six assists, while Castonguay chipped in with nine points.

"Julie's been playing there for two years and knows her role — she's the initiator of the play," said Glenn coach George Sommerman. "She sees a lot of the floor in front of her."

"HER PASSING and her shooting are two big improvements, and she has better shot selection. She played very well tonight."

Livonia schools falter in league duals

Recently crowned Schoolcraft Invitational cross country champ Livonia Churchill was bumped off Thursday in a Western Lakes dual meet by Plymouth Canton, 27-28, at Cass Benton.

"We didn't have our third man, but that shouldn't be an excuse," said Churchill coach Dave Westover. "We didn't run that well — we should have won."

Churchill's Don Miller and Doug Plachta finished first and second, respectively, each clocked in 17:15. But Canton grabbed the next four spots led by Tim Collins in third place at 17:43.

In another meet Thursday at Cass Benton, Salem's boys defeated Livonia Stevenson, 26-34.

Ken Dubois of Stevenson gained first in 16:28, but Salem took second and third with Scott Steiner (16:54) and Eric Pedersen (17:36).

Salem's boys are now 5-1 in dual meets.

Sue Tatiglan of Stevenson won the girls' race in 20:19, but Salem swept the next three places to win the team race, 26-29. Stevenson's Michele Economou and Maggie Karr finished fifth and sixth with times of 21:37 and 21:41, respectively.

REDFORD THURSTON'S Katie Showich was the individual winner Thursday in a dual meet against Redford Union with a time of 19:52.

RU, however, won the meet by grabbing the next six spots — Denise Durrer, second, 20:28; Melly Mogielski, third, 20:38; Janis Billinski, fourth, third with Scott Steiner (16:54) and Eric Pedersen (17:36).

In between, Manny Murua converted a penalty kick for the Ocelots. The shot was awarded after Greg Velt headed a corner kick toward the net and a Delta defender cleared it with his hand.

Schoolcraft outshot Delta, 24-4. Wes Karczyski anchored the Schoolcraft defense. Andy Bunting was in goal for the shutout.

Redford Bishop Borgess finished second in a triangular meet Thursday at Cass.

Dearborn Edsel Ford won the meet with 25 points followed by Borgess (42) and Dearborn Fordson (68).

The top Borgess finishers were: Sherry Williams, third place, 20:59; Kris Whise, fifth, 21:44; Sue Panek, ninth, 22:52; Carole Shaheen, 11th, 23:01; and GARDEN CITY lost its Northwest Suburban League (NSL) opener Thursday to North Farmington, 24-31.

GC's Dave Homann, however, won the boys' race in 16:17, outdistancing North's Kirk Armstrong who came in at 16:44.

Other GC finishers includes Brian Pritchard, sixth, 17:28; Jim Finetti, seventh, 18:24; Tom Anthony, eighth, 18:26; and Don Savard, ninth, 18:29.

Beth Emery of North won the girls' race in 21:07. Jenny Shroat of GC was second in 21:42.

Homann and Pritchard finished one-two in GC's win over Dearborn Heights Annapolis earlier in the week, 26-30.

Churchill remains unbeaten in league

By Paul King
special writer

Livonia Churchill is still unbeaten in boys' soccer.

Barely.

The Chargers had their collective hands full Thursday before prevailing over Plymouth Canton, 2-1, at Churchill.

The Chiefs' Tom Wright got the only goal of the first half on a deflection off a Churchill defender.

The Chargers got back into it offensively largely due to the efforts of Chris Rose. Churchill tied it at the 6:29 mark of the second half on Ray Galasso's 15-yard drive, with Rose picking up the assist.

Before the midway point of the second half, Rose struck again, netting his first goal and the eventual gamewinner. Mike Duckworth drew the assist.

Rose's offensive efforts were matched by Churchill goalie Sam Matovski, who turned aside 20 of 21 Canton shots. Churchill had 13 shots in the contest.

The victory left Churchill with a 4-0-2 overall record, 3-0-2 in the Western Lakes. Canton fell to 2-3-0.

PLY. SALEM 3 FARMINGTON 2

Ebon Nash slammed home the game-winning goal with just 43 seconds left in the game to lift Salem to its fourth straight triumph Thursday.

Nash took a crossing pass from Randy Johnson and drove it home for the winner. Kevin Sultana added a goal and an assist, with Johnson assisting on his goal, with Matt Crook also finding the net for the Rocks.

Jon Gregory and Jason Forge scored in a four-minute span late in the contest to tie it at 2-2.

Joe Knoerl was in the nets for Salem, while Mark Pingree and Ryan Link split the goalkeeping duties for Farmington.

LIV. STEVENSON 3 LIV. BENTLEY 0

John Gelmisi scored a goal in the first half and assisted on one in the second in boosting Stevenson past Bentley Thursday.

The Spartans led, 2-0, at the half behind Joe Novak's unassisted goal, which ricocheted in off Bentley defender Steve Hollar at the 6:32 mark. Gelmisi followed four minutes later with a breakaway score.

Jim Kimble got the final Stevenson tally, with Gelmisi assisting less than two minutes into the second half.

ON FRIDAY, the Spartans took it on the chin for the second time in three games, suffering a 1-0 defeat at Bloomfield Hills Lahser in a non-league tilt.

Dave Rivera's unassisted goal in the first half stood up as the gamewinner. Kimball, Gelmisi and Eric Pence applied pressure throughout the second half, with Kimball firing one shot just wide. But Lahser goalie Vince Fraga frustrated Stevenson throughout.

It was the first shutout suffered by Stevenson since 1979, a streak of more than 60 games. Flint Carmen was the last to turn the trick by a 2-0 count.

GARDEN CITY 4 DEAR. FORDSON 3

Bill Hyde and Paul Pummill each hammered home two goals to lift Garden City past Dearborn Fordson.

Pummill got the winner on a penalty shot late in the game. Fordson outshot Garden City, 16-14, and the Tractors held a 2-1 halftime lead before succumbing.

Jeff Guido and Brian Hall split the goalkeeping duties for Garden City, which improved its record to 6-0.

It seemed only a matter of time before Schoolcraft College's men's soccer team would get on track.

The Ocelots had not been having an outstanding year. At least not until Friday.

In the team's best performance of the season, Schoolcraft fired in three first-half goals and coasted to a 3-0 victory over Michigan Junior College Athletic Conference (MJAC) foe Delta Community College at Delta.

"We made some changes and they clicked for us," said Schoolcraft coach Larry Christoff. The win evened the Ocelots' MJAC record at 1-1.

"Overall, it was a super performance by everybody," Christoff added. "We were attacking very strong, we beat them to the ball most of the time. We played extremely aggressive."

WHAT SCHOOLCRAFT did differently was put the ball in the net. In the last three games, the Ocelots have outshot their opponents, 60-18, yet they have lost two of those contests.

Midfielder Jim King "was superb" according to Christoff, setting up two goals. Doug Marshall got Schoolcraft's ing with a goal 19 minutes into the first half. Steve DeMatteis assisted. Notre Dame struck back with goals by Al Sanhueza and John Watkins. Watkins' tally came with three minutes left in the opening half.

The Shamrocks took 10 shots on goal in the second half, but Irish goalie Gino Soave stopped them all. CC is now 5-1. Notre Dame is 6-2-1.

LIV. FRANKLIN 3

FARM. HARRISON 2
Livonia Franklin overcame a 2-0 halftime deficit to frustrate Farmington Harrison Friday at Harrison.

Both teams entered the game winless. Harrison got on the board first, with John Sepety and Wasim Baoura finding the net. Baoura assisted on the first goal, with Dave Quartz assisting on Baoura's tally.

But the tide changed in the second half. Franklin's Jeremy Ruckhaber narrowed the gap to 2-1 15 minutes into the second half, and Bob Neuman tied it at the 30 minute mark.

The winner came with six minutes remaining, as Graham Crawford converted on a penalty kick.

Franklin is now 1-4, while Harrison is 0-6.

Chargers have smooth swings

Livonia Churchill's golfers are on a roll.

The Chargers won their sixth straight dual meet this season Friday, 206-214 over Livonia Bentley at Hilltop Golf Course.

Churchill's Chris Semik was medalist with 38. Other Charger scorers were John Fournier, Todd Vollick and Mark Morasky, all with 41. Dean Allen was Bentley's best with a 41. Emilio Hesena was next (42), followed by Matt Russell and Bob Mewdryga (43).

ON WEDNESDAY, Churchill defeated Plymouth Salem, 209-221 at Brue Burn. Fournier's 39 was low score for the match. Semik, Vollick and Mike Morris each had 42s and Morasky finished with a 44.

Sean Kelly's 40 was best for Salem, followed by Mike Granger, 44, and Erich Hartnett and Jim Rorer, each with 45.

LIVONIA STEVENSON whipped

Walled Lake Central Wednesday, 205-209, behind Jeff Dixon and Harry Youmans, who each carded 38s at Idyl Wild.

Don Williams added a 40, Craig Szewc had a 42 and Jim Hunt finished with 47. The victory boosted the Spartans' record to 3-1.

REDFORD CATHOLIC CENTRAL improved its meet record to 6-2 Thursday with a 155-189 win over Redford Bishop Borgess at Hilltop.

Tom Simion topped the Shamrocks with a 36. Rob Madonis shot 37 and Dan Sullivan and Scott Alexander each had 41.

REDFORD ST. AGATHA evened its record at 3-3 Thursday with a 171-215 triumph over winless Detroit St. Ann.

Brow nets 28 in league win; Big 1st quarter lifts Franklin

Amy Brow scored 16 coming in the first quarter, to lead fast-breaking Livonia Churchill to a 55-49 Western Lakes girls' cage triumph over Plymouth Canton Thursday night.

Brow missed Julie Steadman's school scoring record by one point. But more importantly, the senior sharpshooter led a Churchill 22-6 first quarter with eight field goals.

"We used a good pressing defense and our transition game was on," said Churchill coach Roger Springsteen, whose team won for the second straight time. "The girls are getting more experienced in running the fast break."

"They're running their lanes and playing well right now."

Gail Mundle added 14 points for the winners, while center LaDonna Sevakis chipped in with eight points and six rebounds.

Cathy Ross and Tammy Budlong scored 16 and 11 points, respectively, to lead Canton (2-4).

LIVONIA FRANKLIN 41

GARDEN CITY 21

The Patriots won their Northwest Suburban League (NSL) opener Thursday behind senior Alicia Leckta's 14 points and eight rebounds.

The visiting Patriots, 5-1 overall, made six of their first eight shots to jump out to a 14-0 first quarter advantage.

Wagner leads Blazer cagers

A second quarter blitz carried unbeaten Livonia Ladywood to its fifth straight girls' basketball win Thursday over Wyandotte Mt. Carmel, 66-42.

Juniors Emily Wagner and Char Govan scored 21 and 17, respectively, for the winners.

Linda Borawski had 12 for Mt. Carmel. Leading 17-14 after one quarter, Ladywood got its full-court press in gear, outscoring the Comets 24-7.

DET. DOMINICAN 30

BISHOP BORGESS 29

The Spartans lost to Dominican by a single point for the second straight time this season.

Mary Kniffin's two free throws with eight seconds left sealed the victory for Dominican. Borgess never got a chance to win it, making a costly turnover.

"We're getting good shots but we're not making them," said Borgess coach Denise Zatkoff, whose basketball

The Patriots' guard tandem of Mary Pollard and Tracy Leckta were also instrumental in the win, handling GC's pressing defense.

"They came out smoking," said GC coach Jan Moore. "We got within seven, but you can't make 38 turnovers and expect to win. Franklin is a good team."

Jennifer Waldron scored seven to lead GC.

A total of 41 fouls were called during the 32 minutes of play.

The unbeaten Raiders used a three-guard offense Thursday to beat the Eagles in another NSL battle.

Sophomore guard Laina Shaw, making her first varsity start, scored 19 points to lead the way. She scored eight in the opening period as North outscored host Thurston, 20-8.

"They just blew us off the floor," said Thurston coach Van Kostegian, whose team is 1-5 overall.

Sharon Bowman led the Eagles with eight points.

REDFORD ST. AGATHA 52

DET. BENEDICTINE 33

The Aggies (2-4) jumped out early and never looked back Thursday in beating the Ravens for their second straight victory.

Junior Beth Reicha scored 20 points and grabbed eight rebounds for the winners. Lisa Micou, a 5-foot-10½ freshman, continued her sterling play with 19 points and 25 rebounds.

"We played a good first quarter," said Agatha coach Jim Murphy, whose team outscored Benedictine 19-8. "We played a lot more sound than we have in the past. We played a real poised first half."

Stoitsiadis triggers Churchill win, 14-6

Defense and John Stoitsiadis' passing arm — that's really all Livonia Churchill needed.

The Charger defense shut down Plymouth Canton, limiting the Chiefs to 90 yards through the air and less on the ground, while Stoitsiadis shredded the Canton secondary for 186 yards passing in a 14-6 Churchill victory Friday at Churchill.

The win came in the Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) opener for the Chargers and was their first overall after two defeats. Canton is 0-1 in the WLAA and 0-3 overall.

STOITSIADIS PLAYED a part in both Churchill touchdowns. The Chargers got on the board first, as the senior quarterback capped a 41-yard second-quarter drive by racing around end and into the end zone from three yards out. Matt Wiljanen's kick put Churchill up by seven.

football

In the third quarter, Stoitsiadis connected with John Fraser on an 18-yard scoring pass. Wiljanen's boot increased Churchill's lead to 14-0.

Canton's only score came late in the third quarter, as Jody Spitz hit Dave Knapp on a nine-yard pass to cap a 60-yard march.

Stoitsiadis completed nine of 21 tosses for 186 yards and one touchdown, with one intercepted. Irwin Anderson-Smith caught four passes for 101 yards and Fraser hauled in two for 52 and a TD.

Canton quarterbacks Spitz and Tony Aikens combined to complete six of 17 for 90 yards and one score.

what's at the movies

BIG CHILL (R). William Hurt, Kevin Kline and Glenn Close in drama about a group of college friends from the 1960s who are reunited by the death of a close friend.

EASY MONEY (R). Rodney Dangerfield as Monty Capuletti can inherit millions but only if he gives up drinking, smoking and gambling for a year.

FLASHDANCE (R). A determined young woman works as a welder by day and a dancer by night. Movie doesn't make too much sense but the dancing makes a terrific impact.

MR. MOM (PG). Micheal Keaton is a rising young executive who gets pink-slipped and trades jobs with his wife, a housewife and mother, who then goes out to work.

NATIONAL LAMPOON'S VACATION (R). Wally World, the world's greatest theme park, is the destination in this cross-country comedy starring Chevy Chase, Beverly D'Angelo, Imogene Coca and Christie Brinkley.

RETURN OF MARTIN GUERRE. Winner of three French Academy Awards, romantic mystery is about man who returns from war after nine years. Gerard Depardieu stars.

RETURN OF THE JEDI (PG). Third chapter in the middle section of George Lucas' "Star Wars" trilogy. With Luke Skywalker, Hans Solo, Princess Leia and other characters from the previous films as the Rebel Alliance battles Darth Vader and the forces of the Empire.

CUJO (R). Thriller based on the Stephen King horror story about a mad dog.

STAYING ALIVE (PG). John Travolta recreates the role of Tony Manero, now struggling in the competitive world of Broadway dancers, in this sequel to "Saturday Night Fever."

LA TRAVIATA (G). Franco Zeffirelli wrote, designed and directed this sumptuous version of Verdi's opera with opera stars Teresa Stratas, Placido Domingo and Cornell MacNeil.

WAR GAMES (PG). A teen-age computer whiz kid (Matthew Broderick) accidentally taps into the command system of a military defense network and triggers a world crisis.

ZELIG (PG). Woody Allen and Mia Farrow in Allen's fresh, exciting comedy about a man whose severe identity crisis makes him take on the personality and characteristics of whomever he associates with.

Free Spirit will give a concert Saturday at Westland Free Methodist Church.

upcoming things to do

MASTER CLASSES

Prof. Eugene Bossart will be artist-in-residence at Schoolcraft College in Livonia, offering four days of master classes in chamber music and vocal coaching. Bossart has 40 years' experience in concertizing in America, Europe and South America. Classes and recitals will be offered Monday-Tuesday, Sept. 26-27, and Oct. 24-25 in Room F301 in the Forum Building. Master classes will run from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and recitals will be held from 1-2:15 p.m. There will be no charge on Sept. 29 and Oct. 27 because of a grant from the Bryan Endowment Fund. An audition for Oct. 24-25 recitals will be held the afternoon of Sept. 27. Tapes also will be accepted. For more information call Donald Morelock, director of the Piano Department, at 591-6400, ext. 517.

YOUNG SINGERS

Free Spirit, a group of young adult singers, will present a public concert at 7 p.m. Saturday at Westland Free Methodist Church, 1421 Venoy, Westland. Included will be favorite hymns, contemporary songs, narration and puppets. The professional singing group, in its 13th year of ministry, travels across the United States and Canada under the auspices of the Department of Christian Education, Free Methodist Church of North America. Free Spirit's ministry is self-supporting through concert offerings and sale of records, tapes and videocassettes.

SPANISH DANCE

Guitarist Jean Agopian and his wife, Maria Durante, of Redford will perform in a program of Spanish Flamenco dance at 8:30 p.m. Saturday as part of the Original Old World Market. The 57th annual market will be held Thursday through Sunday at the International Institute, 111 E. Kirby and John R. In Detroit's Cultural Center. Market hours are 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Thursday-Saturday and 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday. Admission is $2 for adults, $1 for senior citizens and 50 cents for children 6-12 years old.

FILM CLASSICS

"High Noon," starring Gary Cooper and Grace Kelly, will open the "All Time Film Classics" series at 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 7, in the Livonia City Hall Auditorium. The series is presented by the Livonia Arts Commission. Other films in the series are "Caine Mullin," Oct. 14; "Quiet Man," Oct. 21; "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town," Oct. 28; and "Citizen Kane," Nov. 4. Individual tickets are $1.50. Season tickets are $6. For tickets and further information contact the L.O.V.E. office on the fourth floor of city hall, phone 421-2000, ext. 353.

FR. DUSTIN

Banjo-playing priest Fr. Joseph Dustin, accompanied by Elma Santa, will appear in a musical evening at 8 Saturday, Oct. 8, at St. Robert Bellarmine Parish at W. Chicago and Inkster roads in Redford. The program of banjo jazz will be followed by music for singing and dancing. Admission at $6 per person includes beer, set-ups and snacks. Admission for senior citizens is $3. All proceeds go to St. Robert's Church. For reservations call 937-2093, 422-0861 or 937-8862.

Prof. Eugene Bossart will teach master classes.

BENEFIT CONCERT

Marcus Belgrave with the New Detroit Jazz Ensemble and Bess Bonnier on the piano will play in a benefit concert at 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 29, at the Friends Auditorium in the Main Library, 5201 Woodward, Detroit. The concert is part of the Keep the Doors Open Campaign, which is working to raise $1.1 million in order to stop the closing of 14 Detroit Public Library branches on Oct. 1. A wine and cheese afterglow follows the concert. Tickets at $10 may be purchased at the door or from the Friends of the Library Office in the Main Library. For more information call 833-4044.

SEASON VIII

The Attle Theatre has opened Season VIII with "How I Got That Story" by Amlin Gray, continuing through Saturday, Oct. 29, in Detroit's Greek town. The 1983-84 season will continue with "Strider" by Mark Rozovsky, Nov. 4 through Dec. 17; "Awake and Sing" by Clifford Odets, Dec. 30 through Feb. 11; "Sea Marks" by Gardner McKay, Feb. 17 through March 31; "Lydie Breeze" by John Guare, April 6 through May 19, and "True West" by Sam Shepard, May 25 through July 7. The season's final production, July 13 through Aug. 25, is to be announced. For ticket information call 963-7789.

LOOK-ALIKE CONTEST

A Richard Gere Look-Alike contest will be held Saturday, Oct. 1, at the City Club Cafe, 2108 Park at Elizabeth, in downtown Detroit. Contestants will be judged on similarity of appearance to Gere in a jacket and tie, casual attire and T-shirt and shorts. Gere is the star of the movie "Breathless." For entry forms call 985-5460. There is a $3 entry fee. Prizes include a trip to Toronto for two.
