Average voting turnout expected

Almost 21 percent of Westland's voters are expected to cast ballots in Tuesday's general election, according to the city clerk's office.

City Clerk Diane Rohraff said she expects 9,500 of the 46,433 Westland voters, or 20.5 percent, to turn out for the election Tuesday. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

"(The turnout) depends on the ballot and the issues," Rohraff said. "It's usually 20 to 22 percent (for a general city election)."

A TOTAL of 1,350 absentee ballots were requested for the November election, according to Rohraff. The voting turnout in the September primary was 8.6 percent, or a total 3,991 ballots.

"This will be more than in September," the city clerk said. "September was very slow. This turnout has picked up some."

The November ballot contains one proposed amendment to the City Charter and eight candidates for the city council.

The amendment would take away the authority of the mayor to veto council appointments to office and to veto the appointment of the independent auditor.

Supporters of the amendment say it will protect the checks and balance system between the executive and legislative branches. Those who oppose it say the amendment will usurp the power of the executive branch.

Four council members will be chosen from a field of eight in this election. The candidates who receive the top three votes will receive four-year terms, while the candidate who places fourth will fill a two-year term.

Seeking places on the council are current members Thomas Artley, Ben DeHart, A. Kent Herbert and Robert Wagner. The four incumbents are challenged by Harry Conner, Marjorie Daniels, Richard "Rick" Grajek and Henry "Hank" Johnson.

Bloomin' beauties

Edwin and Wilma Slesak Sr. of Livonia have plenty to cheer about after winning several awards in the special categories competition recently at the 23rd annual Chrysanthemum Show sponsored by the Detroit Chrysanthemum Society. The Slesaks grow chrysanthemums popularly known as "football mums" that do not normally grow in this climate. See story on Page 5B.

PLACES AND FACES

IT STARTED with a phone call from Paul D. Westland, and it was over. Duane "Doc" Mollinger, vice-president of Wayne County, had saved the state about $10 million.

That's the amount Mollinger's plan to eliminate red ink from the state's banking industry was expected to save. The banks were expected to save a lot of money by eliminating paperwork.

Mollinger did suggest a change in an outdated state law that required Michigan banks to file annual reports on their financial condition with the State Financial Institutions Bureau (FIB).

His reports are similar to ones banks file with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. (FDIC). Since information from FDIC reports is available to the state by computer, information sent to the FIB wasn't necessary.

The FIB commissioner still has the authority, however, to require banks to submit reports by a certain time.

SPECIAL blood donors from Westland were recently honored by the American Red Cross.

PHYSICIAN Dr. Robert Williams, Ronald M. Artley, Marilyn Clinton, Charles D. Wagner, Marjorie Daniels, Charles Conner, Sandra Hady, Frances Williams, Faye Cole, Irene Najduk, Ben DeHart, and Keyin Donnelly.

During the pheresis procedure, blood is drawn from a donor and circulated through a machine to separate only a certain component, either plasma, platelets or white cells. The remaining components are then returned to the donor's blood stream. The process takes from 45 minutes to 2 1/2 hours.

The components are used to treat a variety of patients from those with leukemia to burn victims. For more information about becoming a blood donor, contact the Red Cross Pheresis Recruitment office at 722-8000.

MICHIGAN Teamsters Joint Council 43 has endorsed Henry "Hank" Johnson for the Westland Council.

2 face exam in shooting Westlander

Two Detroit men face a Nov. 14 preliminary examination on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder after the shooting of a 34-year-old Westland man on Halloween.

The Westland resident, Dwight Finley, shot once in the right buttock with a .38-caliber revolver, was treated and released from Wayne County General Hospital the following day.

After descriptions of the suspects and their vehicle were broadcast, Livonia police arrested the pair at Plymouth Road and Loveland in that city at around 10:30 p.m. Monday, some 45 minutes after the incident.

Ralph Mills, 29, and William Houston, 25, stood mute at their arraignment last Wednesday in 18th District Court. Mills also was charged with possession of a firearm in the commission of a felony. Court Administrator Les Hall entered a plea of innocent for the two.

Mills and Houston are being held in the Wayne County Jail on $100,000 bond each.

THE SHOOTING took place at about 9:50 p.m. in the parking lot of the complex where the Westland man lives, in an area near Woodgreen and Cowan. Residents reportedly saw Mills, who was wearing a mask and cape resembling the Darth Vader character in "Star Wars," prowling around the complex. Finley was confronted by Mills when he went to investigate, according to police. Police said Mills removed the mask.

Mills, who formerly lived in the complex, shot at the Westland man four times, hitting him once, police said. Mills reportedly told police that the shooting was in retaliation for the victim beating him up recently, and that he had reported the previous assault to Inkster police.

Police said that the gun, mask and cape were found in the vehicle when the two were arrested.

Drugs change but abuse continues

Remember the commercial in which a young man goes into a bar and asks for a beer? As the gruff bartender asks to see his identification, the crowd of middle-aged men turns to stare at the young man. The bartender reads the ID, hands him a beer and says, "Happy Birthday!"

The tension is broken and the crowd welcomes the young man with camaraderie.

"That commercial isn't about beer," said John Farrar, director of the Community Commission on Drug Abuse (CCODA). "It's about being accepted, fitting in, being a man."

"It's powerful stuff, but that's an ad for all beer."

Farrar would like to see beer commercials removed from television, just as cigarette commercials were years ago in response to public sentiment and the success of anti-smoking commercials by the American Cancer Society.

"If beer commercials don't have any effect, then a major industry in America is being philanthropist to television by giving away millions of dollars for nothing. And that's not true," he said.

A "significant decline" in smoking was found after cigarette commercials left the airwaves, according to Farrar.

"The same thing could happen with alcohol," he said.

Residents in other neighboring communities are being asked to attend whichever meeting is closest to home.

EVIDENCE THAT such meetings can work is apparent from the existence of CCODA, Farrar said.

"CCODA was started 13 years ago as a result of such a meeting," he explained. "The issues were different then. Kids were experimenting with exotic drugs. As a result, leaders (of the meeting) were organized and motivated, and this organization was created."

Over the years, the drug scene has changed, Farrar said. He said that CCODA, which receives funding from federal as well as Livonia and Westland city and school units, has become an institution, a part of the scenery.

"There isn't a sense of compellingness to it," said Farrar, a former psychology teacher and basketball coach at Bentley.

"I'd like to see these meetings generate some emotion. Society needs to once again become energized."

Farrar said that today the problem of drug abuse is spectacular, but the symptoms are not because young people experiment less with exotic drugs such as LSD and PCP.

"Now we've got Miller beer, and we're talking about what good kids are doing on the weekend while still getting a 3.5 at Stevenson and planning to go to the University of Michigan," he continued.

EDUCATION CAN make an impact on drug abuse, Farrar said. To increase public awareness of drug problems locally, Farrar is joining with public television station WTVS - Channel 56 in coordinating town hall meetings on the subject.

The first segment of a drug awareness show called "The Chemical People" was aired last week. The show outlined the extent of the problem at both national and local levels.

At 8 p.m. this Wednesday the second segment will air, providing information on what can be done about drug abuse. While the program can be watched at home, area residents are being encouraged to attend town hall meetings at three high schools where monitors will be set up for viewing the program.

After the one-hour segment, a panel of people concerned about drug abuse will field questions from the audience and assist in setting up a community program.

The 7:30 p.m. town hall meetings are being scheduled at John Glenn High School, on Marquette west of Wayne Road and south of Cherry Hill in Westland, at Bentley High School, 15100 Hubbard Road in Livonia, and at Northville High School, 775 North Center in Northville.

BUT FARRAR said that parents are kidding themselves if they think that's not a problem. He said those teens are "incubating alcoholism."

"They may have a big drinking career ahead of them, but it won't be manifested until they're 25 or 35," he said.

"That's dangerous because youth are more susceptible to physical and psy-

The problem of alcoholism among teen-agers, as portrayed in the Wayne Memorial High School play "Voices" by Mary Butler and Charlene Atkinson, will be among the topics discussed at a town hall meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the John Glenn High School auditorium, on Marquette west of Wayne Road. Performances of the play, which offers vignettes of high school life, are at 8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday at the Stockmeyer auditorium, Glenwood at Fourth streets. Tickets are $2.

Turning car kills elderly woman

Westland police are asking the public to help as they continue the search for the driver of a gold Ford Torino that allegedly struck and killed a 74-year-old Westland woman last Wednesday.

Dellah Ema Moore was hit by the car at 6:55 p.m. at Cherry Hill and Wayne roads. She died at Wayne County General Hospital at 7:49 p.m. that day, according to police.

After Moore was struck, the driver of the car parked the vehicle and walked over to where the elderly woman lay, then drove off, police said.

THE DRIVER was described to police as a white, heavyset woman, 30 to 45 years old, with dark, shoulder-length hair. She wore a dark jacket with a white blouse or sweater underneath.

The gold Torino was rusted and in poor condition. One witness gave police a partial license number of the vehicle. Police urge that witness, and anyone else who can give information about the accident, to contact the Westland police traffic bureau, 722-9633.

Police said Moore went out to buy a newspaper and was returning home when the accident took place. It was the 10th traffic fatality in Westland this year.

The Torino was heading west on Cherry Hill. It made a left turn onto Wayne Road where it struck Moore as she was walking east across that road, police said.

The vehicle knocked or carried Moore some 60 feet down Wayne Road. Police said the driver then turned into the driveway of a nearby business and parked. After walking over to Moore, the motorist got back in the Torino and drove away.

Don't overlook drug abuse signs

chological damage from abuse, according to Farrar.

"There is a direct relationship between the acceptance society has of a drug and its use," he said. "We may not be able to stop kids from drinking, but we can change their attitudes about drinking so they can recognize what responsible use of alcohol is."

Farrar said that he still has people who ask if there is a drug problem in Livonia.

"In reality, everyone has a problem. It's not all or nothing," he explained. "There is a quotient of kids in all schools that do something of each kind of drug. So it's unfair to label a community."

THERE ARE differences, however, in a community's reaction to drug problems, Farrar said.

"As you move from a higher socio-economic area to one with lower status, you move to a position where there is less need to deny (a drug problem), less status to protect," he said.

"So, consequently, there is more of a willingness of professionals to make referrals, and the willingness of parents (to deal with the problem) increases."

There are "psychological cliches" about who can become an alcoholic or addicted to cocaine, he said, and anyone can have the problem.

TREATMENT FOR drug abuse has changed over the years, Farrar noted.

"We used to not involve families and agencies. As a result, families and society could say it was a kid problem, when it was really a society, family problem," he said.

Farrar said that he runs into a lot of parents who bring their kids in for treatment "like taking a car to a bump shop."

"The kids are resistant and hostile, but when you get past that, they're not saints, but they are resentful of being scapegoated for what they see as a messed up family," he said.

Parents who are concerned about whether their children are using drugs make, the mistake of "looking for subtly and overlooking the obvious," Farrar said, adding that there are four areas to look at:

- Relationship — How does the youth get along with his family and friends? Has she suddenly found a new set of friends?

- Work/school — Look for significant changes in performance. Dropping out is a sign of abuse.

- Problems with the law — The law, according to Farrar, can be the police, mom and dad, or the assistant principal. "Involvement with drugs means a preoccupation with authority," he said, adding that if students are paranoid about parents going through their pockets or walking into their rooms, there is a problem.

- Physical problems — These may be more subtle, said Farrar, allowing kids to get away with drug abuse for a "fair amount of time." Look for excessive fatigue, loss of energy and loss of motivation.

If your children don't exhibit any of these signs, it doesn't mean they aren't using drugs, he cautioned. It just means it isn't a problem yet.

Visionaries look at the future

Toffler foresees breakup of world industrial system

By Tim Richard
staff writer

Alvin Toffler has a visionary view of a "third wave" of civilization, and an audience of 1,300 at Schoolcraft College clearly liked it.

"The de-massification of society is occurring," said the one-time factory worker turned magazine writer, author and social philosopher, and those who fail to adapt "condemn themselves to the past."

Toffler was the headline attraction Friday evening at the community college's "Say Yes to the Future" exposition last week.

HIS LISTENERS:

• Raised their hands en masse when he asked how many made purchases in the last year by telephone or mail. "The supermarket is obsolete," said Toffler, explaining that market segmentation is making possible "made to order" manufacturing.

• Laughed aloud after he described the work place of the future. More jobs will be done at home, and many people will work partly at home and partly in the office. He quipped, "You may work in the office three weeks, and then take work home — to get it done" — and the audience cracked up at his allusion to madhouse conditions in offices and factories.

• Applauded when he said, "Some education will transfer to the home. In the second wave (Industrial society), many well-educated parents turned over their precious children to teachers who are less well-educated."

His 75-minute lecture was a condensation of his 1980 book, "The Third Wave." In it, Toffler detected three "waves" in history: 1) the agricultural revolution starting 10,000 years ago, 2) the Industrial revolution with its mass production, mass distribution, mass education and mass media, beginning 300 years ago, and 3) the "de-massification" movement, beginning sometime between 1955 and 1960.

THE FIRST exposition of its kind, at least in metropolitan Detroit, "Say Yes to the Future" featured 30 exhibits on jobs, education and robotic gadgets; discussions of outer space; a rescue helicopter demonstration; and examinations of the society of the future.

It attracted a broad stream of schoolchildren, teen-agers, collegians and older residents; many asking questions about technology, others about public policy, virtually all curious.

Toffler tied together news events of the stock market, inventions and military action, not with predictions of the 21st century but an analysis of "inter-related forces" that will be at work.

"We're restructuring not just our economy but our political and social lives," said the former editor at Fortune Magazine. "The basic industries will never be basic again. We are witnessing the breakup of the world industrial system of which capitalism and communism are both a part."

Lt. Col. Robert Springer
Industry in space

HE TRACED the birth of the "third wave" to such anti-conformity books of the late '50s as "The Man in the Grey Flannel Suit" and "The Organization Man."

"The new wave is diverse," Toffler said.

"My wife and I visit factories all over the world. We visit factories while others visit cathedrals. Factories today are turning out not billions of this and 200,000 of that but 38 of this, 13 of that. . . . Because of computer controls, there is a shift to customization."

U.S. ASTRONAUT Robert C. Springer, who expects to fly in one of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's space shuttle missions, painted a glowing picture of pharmaceuticals being manufactured in space labs with "unbelievable degrees of purity."

The reason for such quality, Lt. Col. Springer said in a news conference, is that in the micro-gravity of space, materials can be separated by electric charges and won't be re-mixed by the force of gravity.

"An orbiting space station is an exploitation of space. The Mercury and Apollo missions were exploration. It's like a new industrial age," said the former naval combat pilot.

How far away is a space station? "As far off as the budget," he replied. "We have the technology. It's a shame we lack the budget to go with it."

Alvin Toffler said "the third wave" of civilization began with the 1950s revolt against conformity and standardization and is made possible by the computer.

Candidate harassment charge made

By Mary Klemic
staff writer

The campaign for the Westland City Council took an ugly turn last week when a woman claimed candidate Richard "Rick" Grajek tried to "pressure" her into putting his bumper stickers on her car, then put them on the vehicle without her permission.

When the woman returned home from reporting the incident to Westland police, she found her front door "all busted," she says.

"I'm not accusing Rick Grajek, but as far as I know, I don't have any enemies," Carol Frye said. "It happened within hours."

"I can't go running around the city, working like I do, and be afraid."

GRAJEK, WHO retired from the Westland fire department last August, denied knowledge of the incident. He said he spoke with the woman but didn't pressure her and didn't put the stickers on her car.

"I don't know where she lives or who she is," he said. "She said she was a friend of (Councilman Robert) Wagner's."

"She said she was voting for three people, and I said, 'Maybe you can give me the fourth vote,'" Grajek continued.

"That's all I told her. Everything was friendly." "There's no connection between the two (incidents)," Westland Police Lt. James Hornkuhl said.

Frye said that after work last Wednesday, she and a friend went to Charlie's Country Bar, where she s Grajek. The candidate introduced himself and asked Frye her name, she said. When she refused to give her last name, Grajek said he would "make it a point to find out," according to the woman.

SHE SAID he tried to pressure her into putting his bumper stickers on her car and that she refused three times.

After he left, another friend of Frye's came into the bar to find out if she was having car trouble, she said. The friend said a man fitting Grajek's description was "putting bumper stickers all over my car," the woman said. She said she found two stickers on the window on the driver's side of the vehicle.

"I feel I have the right to put whatever bumper stickers on my car that I like," the woman said. "I have the ones I wish to have on. He had no right to slap them on when he asked me three times if I would put them on and I said no."

Grajek said he met a woman at the bar who was "drinking beer and some kind of peppermint Schnapps." He said he sat with her for about half an hour, left the bar and went home and then to a Lion's Club meeting.

"From what I heard, that (broken door) happened before she filed the police report," Grajek said.

LAST WEDNESDAY'S incident was the second time the question of harassment was brought up concerning Grajek. At the first candidates' night session last month, Donna Shaw claimed that in a recent election, Grajek followed her down a street as she was doing campaign work, and harassed her and other women workers by blocking their way with his truck and making complaints at campaign headquarters.

At that session, Grajek said he doesn't "harass women" and said he didn't know Shaw. When Shaw repeated her charges, Grajek replied, "If Rick Grajek did that, Rick Grajek is sorry."

"I think there's a little bit of harassment here too," he said last week. "When there's s... like this, I have to find out why she's doing what she's doing."

Henry takes Trenton coaching job

By Brad Emons
staff writer

Dan Henry will coach a varsity basketball team this winter, but not at Westland John Glenn High School.

He was hired last week to coach Trenton's boys' team by athletic director Eric Federico.

Henry coached the past three seasons at Glenn where he posted a 40-19 record. His coaching contract, however, was not renewed for the 1983-84 season by an interview committee of four Wayne-Westland School District administrators, who said Henry is "not the best qualified for the job."

The committee consisted of Glenn principal Tom Svitekovich, his assistant, Jim Myers, athletic director Jerry Szukaitis and Dan Sles, executive director of student relations for the Wayne-Westland Schools.

Denied in a grievance procedure last week, the Wayne-Westland Education Association has filed for arbitration on behalf of Henry.

DR. ROBERT KOWALCZYK, executive director of the WWEA, said the case is "in the hands of the American Arbitration Association under the normal process."

"Because of time constraints, we couldn't obtain expedited arbitration," Kowalczyk said. "We would not get a decision until after the basketball season had started."

"We're seeking loss of wages and restoration of the position — not immediate reinstatement."

Henry, meanwhile, agrees wholeheartedly with the union's process.

"They recommended that I get another job," Henry said. "If (arbitration) might have lasted until December, it wouldn't be right to change in the middle of the season. The kids would be getting the short end."

"I'll take it one day at a time and wait until March."

"This late in the season you don't expect to get a job like Trenton. It's a quality job in a quality league. It's going to be quite a challenge."

GORDON DAVIS, who coached Glenn for 11 years before resigning in 1980, returns as the school's coach.

In 1980, Henry was fired under what was termed "personality differences" with the Glenn administration, but went to arbitration and won, gaining his position back.

"We've recommended the same arbitrator who reviewed the case in 1980 be called back," said Kowalczyk. "Because he has the benefit of previous information, we'll be able to cut down on the amount of time spent on the case."

Contributions may color judgment

To the editor:

It is a curious fact that every candidate for Westland City Council, incumbent and challenger alike, claims to be independent — independent of the mayor, of the council majority, or of both.

The incumbent candidates stress their independence of the mayor so vigorously, one concludes they are running against him, rather than their challengers. For instance, incumbent candidate Robert Wagner says, "The mayor's chosen them (the challengers) to become his 'yes council.' They claim they're independent. That's hogwash. When you owe someone, you have to pay them. You need a council who is not endorsed by the mayor, who is truly independent."

The question, though, is who is independent. The incumbent candidates are not, because they owe too many too much.

The incumbent candidates, Thomas Artley, Ben DeHart, Kent Herbert, and Robert Wagner, together with Charles Griffin and Ken Mehl, their like-minded colleagues, dominate the present Westland Council having power over the purse-strings and a veto-proof majority, they are indeed independent of the mayor. But does this mean they are truly independent? Do they exercise independent judgment when dealing with conflicting interest facing the council? Are their own interest close to those of the ordinary Westland citizen?

The answer seems to be no they are dependent on special interests to finance their joint re-election campaign. Their record when dealing with residents' and homeowners' interest versus developers' and commercial interests is weighted in favor of the latter and their finger pointing at the mayor and their "us-against-them" campaign stance are not in the best interests of the ordinary Westland citizen.

Take special interest as the prime example. "Friends of the City Council," as the incumbents call their joint re-election committee, collected $12,720 from contributors during a 40-day period prior to the recent primary election (according to the committee's finance report).

Of the 68 contributions to "Friends of the City Council," 37 give addresses that are outside Westland in 22 different communities among these are Farmington Hills, Huntington Woods, Madison Heights, and Southfield, Fraser, Grosse Pointe, Mt. Clemens, and Roseville, South Lyon, New Hudson, and Brooklyn, Michigan. The 31 other contributors give addresses in Westland, however, these addresses are mostly of businesses and of employers, or else they are doubtful, one is non-existent.

In fact, only 14 out of 67 people, excluding the "Friends of Faust" committee actually live in Westland. These 67 people as a whole are mainly a set of various interest groups: the owners of many different businesses, several officeholders and politicians, attorneys, commercials property owners and developers, city contractors and consultants, those who have bid on city owned land, and those who have petitioned the council.

So we see that the incumbent candidates are not as independent as they say, because they owe too much to too many "friends." For balance, though, a word about the challengers. Their campaign finances are nowhere comparable to the incumbents. No challenger collected more than $2,000 before the primary. Each of the challengers is his or her own biggest contributor. Finally, I do not mean to imply the present councilmen are guilty of any misconduct, but I do question what colors their judgement.

Make citizens city's priority

To the editor:

Good grief! Tom Taylor took credit for practically everything short of creating the universe (Taylor wrote a letter to the editor that appeared in the Oct. 24 issue). However, the taxpayers are aware that most of those items were on the drawing board long before he took office.

Except for the Friendship Center. Initially designated as a warehouse, it became the police department, the parks and recreation department and finally became the fulfillment of Taylor's election promise to give the "seniors" a place of their own. He ought to be ashamed of that instead of proud.

He knew from the beginning that it was sorely inadequate to service the needs of the aging.

In spite of all the patting himself on the back, Taylor, nevertheless, was able to pen condemnation of Mayor Pickering. Here again, even though Pickering is not above criticism, these continued hassles are engineered from the sidelines by coaches who mistakenly think they're anonymous.

The orchestrated hassles serve no purpose except to embarrass the mayor but, as a result, halt city progress. Consequently, the political game continues to run plays laterally. Never forward to even gain let alone makes points for the Westland citizens. The game is always tied, and the spectators (citizens) have become increasingly frustrated, resentful, and discouraged. One day, the players and coaches will come to the arena and find it vacant.

On the other hand, there may still be enough interested voters to rid the city of the antiquated politicians who haven't had a new or creative idea in a decade. On their coattails will go the hangers-on. Maybe again the citizens will become top priority instead of the aggrandizement of the local politicians.

Receiving help was wonderful

To the editor:

I had something wonderful happen the other day. I was feeling quite depressed because soon my unemployment will run out. I am 53 years old and having a hard time finding another job.

I was advised to contact Sylvia Kozorosky, deputy director of department of aging in Westland. She must have spent two hours with me listening and making phone calls.

She set up an appointment for a job and also another appointment with an attorney because of an injury of the job.

She was leaving on vacation the following day and still spent time with me.

Michigan National Corporation Banks Reach Record Highs

The Michigan National Corporation banks have reached record highs at September 30, 1983 in terms of assets, deposits, and loans. Depositor Protection Accounts for that period also reached $477 million which is 7% of total assets. This is an increase of $9.2 million since year end 1982. Depositor Protection Accounts are made up of the sum of equity, debt capital, and reserves which are all subordinate to depositors' claims. During its 10 year history Michigan National Corporation has grown into one of Michigan's major statewide banking groups with 362 approved banking offices serving 2.6 million customers, and has built one of the USA's largest automated teller machine (ATM) networks with over 800 ATM's statewide.

County board rejects $20,000 raises for top county attorneys

By Tim Richard
staff writer

Key members of the Wayne County prosecutor's staff who were expecting raises of more than $20,000 a year may have to wait two more weeks. The Wayne County Commission last week rejected a proposed new union contract 7-2, with eight votes needed for ratification.

"I am seriously concerned at the level of increases," said Commissioner Mary Dumas, R-Livonia, who with Richard Manning, D-Redford, successfully shot down the proposed pact.

"Some of them are getting more than elected officials," Dumas added. After the meeting, she conceded the agreement probably would be approved when more than nine of the 15 commissioners show up. Last Thursday's meeting, on the Schoolcraft College campus, was delayed 40 minutes while the commission waited for enough members to form a quorum.

THE AGREEMENT, negotiated by the staff of County Executive William Lucas, involves 21 persons in the Administrative Bar Association, which has been working without a contract since mid-1979.

'These attorneys are still making less than attorneys in private practice.'

—Milton Mack,

County Commissioner

Commissioner Milton Mack, D-Wayne, saw "significant advantages" to the agreement. "These employees are dissolving their union," said Mack, noting the group would come under the executive compensation program once the final pact is approved.

"It was embarrassing when the CEO (chief executive officer) imposed a four-day work week and had to shop around for an attorney to represent the county" in a suit filed by employees unions, Mack said. He indicated these executive-level lawyers would be able to handle such a case once their union is dissolved.

"These attorneys are still making less than attorneys in private practice," Mack added.

Commissioner Joseph Jurkiewicz, D-Taylor, noted the group had gone without raises for 4½ years. "This is a situation of catch-up. Unfortunately, there is no good time to make up past amounts," he said. Jurkiewicz added the cost of the contract is "trivial" compared to the cost in lost lawsuits if the county fails to retain good lawyers.

AS PROPOSED by Lucas and recommended by a commission committee, the pact would raise a division chief in the prosecutor's office from $41,730 to $55,000 maximum a year, an increase of $24,270.

A deputy division chief would be raised from $40,541 to $61,800, up $21,259. A principal attorney would be raised from $39,247 to $58,590 maximum, up $19,343.

All current executive level lawyers would be placed at the maximum step retroactive to last Jan. 1.

Only Mack among Observer area commissioners supported it. Edward Plawcki Jr., D-Dearborn Heights, and Kay Beard, D-Inkster, were absent.

In another labor matter, Dumas found herself on the short end of an 8-1 vote as the commission ratified a 33-month contract with the Construction Trades Council, AFL-CIO. "I have continually objected to the 'prevailing wage' rate," she said. "When others have accepted serious cuts, we are giving a small increase. There are hundreds of (unemployed) skilled workers with no wages at all."

IN OTHER business during the 90-minute meeting, the county commission:

- Kept the 1984 county property tax rate at 7.32 mills. Commented Chairman William Suzore, D-Lincoln Park: "We have nowhere to go. We have been at our limit for years."

- Adopted a resolution condemning the recent Soviet shooting down of a Korean Air Lines plane and demanding "financial relief for the families of the 269 passengers and crew members" who were killed.

- Agreed to a 10-year lease of six floors of Cadillac Towers for the friend of the court office. The department will move from the old County Building.

- Approved unanimously a three-year contract with Local 24 of the Hotel, Motel, Restaurant, Cooks and Bartenders Union, AFL-CIO, covering 80 food service workers in the jail. Opening of the new county jail in 1984 will require the addition of 20 to 40 more persons, according to Lucas.

- Took no action to confirm or reject Lucas' appointment of Frank Wilkerson, former jail administrator, to the Detroit-Wayne Joint Building Authority. One board faction, relying on legislative research director George Cross, believes Lucas lacks authority to make the appointment; the other, that the new home-rule charter gives most appointments to the executive.

TWO PERSONS took advantage of the Open Meetings Act to address the commission.

Northville Township Supervisor John McDonald thanked the commission for its resolution opposing the Blanchard Administration's decision not to build a new state prison at Five Mile and Beck. Gov. Blanchard instead proposes to convert a former mental health facility at Five Mile and Sheldon to prison use. McDonald said a legislative committee has taken no action on the proposal, which the township argues would endanger a senior citizens development at Five and Sheldon.

Agency for blind invites comment

The Michigan Commission for the Blind will hold its monthly meeting at 10 a.m. Thursday in Room 21-C of the State of Michigan Plaza Building, Detroit.

The five-member commission is responsible for providing rehabilitation services for the blind and administering business enterprise, rehabilitation and independent living programs.

The public is invited to attend the meeting and may comment on programs and services to the blind. The comment time will be before lunch and at the end of the meeting.

For information, call the commission office at (517) 373-2062 or (313) 256-1524.

SCC picks new VP for marketing, sales

Michael J. Bradley has been named vice president of marketing and sales for Suburban Communications Corp. (SCC), parent company of Observer & Eccentric Newspapers.

Bradley, 42, of Woodhaven, previously held sales and circulation management positions with the Detroit Free Press.

"I am confident Mike will make a significant contribution to the marketing of our newspapers in our competitive environment," said Richard Aginian, SCC president and chief executive officer.

In his 10 years with the Free Press, Bradley was classified advertising manager, assistant retail advertising manager and circulation marketing manager.

Earlier, he was sales representative for Sawyer-Ferguson-Walker Co., media supervisor for Leo Burnett's Detroit advertising agency office and associate media director for Zimmer, Keller & Calvert in Detroit.

UF Torch Drive reaches 45% of goal

United Foundation Torch Drive volunteers announced today that $20.2 million, or 44.9 percent of the year's $45 million goal, has been raised to date.

The announcement was made at the second report meeting at the Bobk Cadillac Hotel by Torch Drive general chairman Thomas F. Russell, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Federal-Mogul Corp.

Representing the metropolitan Detroit-area banks and financial institutions, Michigan National Bank of Detroit president Andrew Brodhuu reported contributions of nearly $2.4 million, or 100.1 percent of quota.

ADDRESSING more than 350 volunteers, Brodhuu said, "In these difficult times, the banking and financial institutions have once again demonstrated their concern for the residents of the metropolitan Detroit area and are reporting significant increases from their 1982 gifts. Their outstanding support of the 1983 Torch Drive will help meet the increased needs of our community."

Reports from four campaign units showed:

- Industrial Unit — $2.7 million, 53.9 percent of quota.
- Commercial Unit — $3.5 million, 51 percent.
- Service Unit — nearly $3 million, 45.1 percent.
- Schools, Government and Professions Unit — $2.2 million, 49.2 percent.

WINNERS OF the 1983 Communications Contest were announced.

Receiving top awards for their winning entries were Burroughs Corp., Detroit Diesel Allison, the Detroit Police Department, and Michigan Bell Telephone.

Cost for all report luncheons are met through the UF's meeting sponsorship pool. Local corporations, labor unions and organizations make special contributions to this pool, in addition to their generous Torch Drive gift to cover expenses for official United Foundation functions.

The 1983 Torch Drive continues through Nov. 10. Contributions to this campaign support health and community service programs at 136 charitable organizations throughout Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

ACLU looks at rights erosion

The American Civil Liberties Union is sponsoring a daylong examination of the danger of increasing encroachment by the federal government on constitutional liberties.

"Don't Mess With Our Bill of Rights" is the topic of the event from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday in the Conference Center of Mercy College, Detroit.

Featured speaker will be Mary Frances Berry, professor of history and law at Howard University. She was recently fired by President Ronald Reagan from the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.

Also planned are workshops covering major current intrusions on civil liberties. Included are "The New Censorship," "The Scuttling of Our Civil Rights Laws," "The Administration vs. Women's Rights," and "They're Making it Harder to Fight City Hall."

Special sessions will also be held on "Training for Effective Lobbying." Workshops will include panelists representing the press, the legal system, civil rights groups and others.

The event, sponsored by more than 30 participating national and regional organizations, is open to the public. Registration at $5 ($2 for seniors and students) can be made by mail to ACLU, 1701 David Whitney Building, Detroit 48226.

"The last few years have witnessed increasing restrictions on avenues of information and communication from government agencies and departments," said Steven Walker, conference chair.

"This 'information shrink' threatens to erode the most fundamental tenets of our Bill of Rights."

GOLD THERAPY IN RHEUMATOID ARTHRITIS

The use of gold to treat disease may sound like a holdover from the days of alchemy. In fact this therapy for rheumatoid arthritis was discovered only forty years ago.

The way gold works to halt the progression of rheumatoid arthritis is unknown. But repeated medical studies have confirmed its effectiveness. Approximately 80% of people who complete this therapy are improved.

Gold is given as a solution by injection into muscle one time a week for 20 weeks. If this course of therapy is successful, then the interval between injections is increased gradually.

Gold has potentially serious side effects, and places a heavy responsibility on the patient because of the large number of office visits involved. Therefore it is a consideration only after more basic therapy has failed. On the other hand, in the vast majority of patients who are so treated, the beneficial results far outweigh these hazards and the inconvenience.

Finally, keep in mind that gold therapy is useful only for rheumatoid arthritis; its use has not yet been proven effective in any other form of arthritis.

Easy, Light... Just Right Meals! for year 'round dining indoors and out

Casual entertaining has long been associated with patio and poolside parties. Foods served at such gatherings, however, have become so popular you're apt to find almost identical menus being served indoors these days.

Whatever the location, such meals must be hearty enough to satisfy yet light enough to fit the lower calorie trend in mealtime planning. And, above all, they must be easy to prepare. Canned gravy and rice work well into such planning.

The gravies range in calories from 10 to 50 per serving. Nicely seasoned and ready to use, canned gravy is the answer to the kinds of foods consumers request these days... products that taste fresh and don't take a lot of time to prepare.

Rice, too, is low in calories... only 82 in each half cup. Rice also is low in fat and sodium... therefore ideal for today's lifestyles.

There's no end to the number of recipes using these two staples. A meat, poultry or seafood nicely sauced with a canned gravy and served over rice will highlight any occasion. The following recipes show how... for inside or outside eating pleasure.

Calcutta Chicken and Rice

- |                                     |                                     |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 2 tablespoons butter or margarine   | 3 tablespoons ketchup               |
| 8 choice broiler-fryer pieces       | 3 tablespoons orange marmalade      |
| 1 medium onion, sliced              | 1 to 1-1/2 tablespoons curry powder |
| 1 can (10-1/2 ounces) Chicken Gravy | 3 cups hot cooked rice              |

1. In 10-inch skillet over medium heat in hot butter brown chicken on all sides; remove from skillet. Spoon fat from drippings remaining in skillet.
2. Add onions to drippings in skillet; cook over low heat until tender. Stir in gravy, ketchup, marmalade and curry, scraping any bits from bottom of pan. Bring to a boil.
3. Add chicken. Reduce heat to low, cover, and simmer 30 minutes or until chicken is fork-tender.
4. Serve chicken with rice; spoon gravy over chicken. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Beef and Fruit Kabobs

(Photo)

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 2 cans (10-1/4 ounces each) Beef Gravy       | 1-1/2 pounds boneless sirloin steak, cut in 1-inch cubes |
| 1/4 cup brown sugar                          | 1 can (about 16 ounces) chunk pineapple, drained         |
| 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves                   | 3 cups hot cooked rice                                   |
| 12 carrot pieces, each 1-1/2 inches long     |  |
| 12 green pepper pieces, each 2 inches square |  |

1. To make sauce: In 1-quart saucepan over medium heat, heat gravy, sugar and cloves to boiling, stirring occasionally.
2. Meanwhile, in 2-quart saucepan over medium heat in 1-inch boiling water, heat carrots to boiling. Reduce heat to low. Cover; simmer 5 minutes. Add green pepper; simmer 3 minutes more or until tender-crisp. Drain.
3. On six 18-inch skewers thread meat alternately with pineapple, green pepper and carrots.
4. Broil kabobs 10 minutes or until done, turning and basting frequently with sauce.
5. Heat remaining sauce; serve with kabobs and rice. Makes 6 servings.

Billed Yogurt Pork Chops

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 4 pork chops (about 1-1/2 pounds) Pepper, paprika | 1/4 cup chopped green onions, including tops |
| 2 tablespoons vegetable oil                       | 1/4 teaspoon dill weed, crushed              |
| 1 can (10-1/2 ounces) Chicken Gravy               | 1/2 cup plain lowfat yogurt or sour cream    |
| 1 cup diagonally sliced celery                    | 1 cup peach slices                           |
|   | 2 cups hot cooked rice                       |

1. Season chops with pepper and paprika. In 10-inch skillet over medium heat in hot oil slowly brown pork chops on both sides (about 15 minutes). Spoon off fat. Add gravy, celery, onions and dill.
2. Reduce heat to low. Cover; simmer 25 minutes, stirring occasionally. Blend a small amount of gravy into yogurt; stir into skillet. Add peaches; heat through.
3. Serve with rice. Makes 4 servings.

Beef Antonio with Rice

- |  |                               |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 2 tablespoons vegetable oil                          | 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce |
| 1-1/2 pounds beef for stew, cut into 3/4-inch chunks | 1/4 cup dry red wine          |
| 1 medium clove garlic, minced                        | 1/2 cup cubed Cheddar cheese  |
| 1 can (10-1/4 ounces) Beef Gravy                     | 3 cups hot cooked rice        |

1. In 4- to 6-quart Dutch oven over medium heat in hot oil cook beef with garlic until well browned. Spoon off fat. Stir in gravy, tomato sauce and wine.
2. Reduce heat to low. Cover; simmer 35 minutes or until meat is fork-tender. Add cheese, stirring constantly until cheese is melted.
3. Serve beef with rice; spoon gravy over beef. Makes 6 servings.

Ham with Spiced Bananas

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 2 tablespoons butter or margarine                  | 1/3 cup dry white wine                              |
| 4 medium bananas, peeled and cut in half crosswise | 8 slices (1 to 1-1/2 ounces each) fully-cooked ham* |
| Ground cinnamon                                    | 2 cups hot cooked rice                              |
| 1 can (10-1/2 ounces) Chicken Gravy                |   |
- *Use slices 6 x 4 inches.

1. In 10-inch skillet over medium heat in hot butter heat bananas through, turning to coat evenly. Remove bananas from skillet and sprinkle lightly with cinnamon.
2. Stir gravy and wine into same skillet. Remove from heat.
3. Meanwhile, to assemble ham roll, place banana at narrow end of ham. Roll up jelly-roll fashion. Place seam side down in skillet. Repeat with remaining ham and bananas.
4. Cover; bring to a boil, reduce heat and simmer 5 minutes or until ham rolls are heated through. Serve over rice. Makes 4 servings.

Meatballs Sicilian

- |   |                                     |
|---|-------------------------------------|
| 1 can (10-1/2 ounces) Mushroom Gravy, divided | 1/4 teaspoon pepper                 |
| 1 pound ground beef                           | 2 tablespoons saled oil             |
| 1/4 cup fine dry bread crumbs                 | 3 cups sliced zucchini              |
| 1 egg, slightly beaten                        | 1/8 teaspoon basil leaves, crushed* |
| 1/8 teaspoon salt                             | 2 medium tomatoes, cut in wedges    |
|   | 2 cups hot cooked rice              |
- *Or use 1/2 to 1 teaspoon Italian seasoning

1. In large bowl mix well 1/4 cup gravy, beef, bread crumbs, egg, salt and pepper. Shape mixture firmly into 24 meatballs.
2. In 10-inch skillet over medium heat in hot oil cook meatballs, a few at a time, until well browned on all sides. Remove meatballs to a large bowl as they brown. Spoon off fat from skillet.
3. Stir remaining gravy, zucchini and basil into skillet; add meatballs. Reduce heat to low; cover. Simmer 15 minutes, stirring occasionally.
4. Add tomatoes; heat through. Serve over rice. Makes 4 servings.

Smereck-Eastaugh

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smereck of Garden City announce the engagement of their daughter Janet Anne to Steven Richard Eastaugh of Newton Highlands, Mass. They will exchange vows in December in Mariners' Church in Detroit.

The bride-elect is a 1975 graduate of Garden City West High School and a 1979 graduate of the University of Michigan with a bachelor of science degree in oceanography. She recently graduated from the U-M Medical School, and is now an intern in general surgery at Georgetown University Hospital in Washington, D.C.

Her fiance earned a bachelor's degree from Harvard University in 1973 and a master of science degree from Harvard's School of Public Health and the John F. Kennedy School of Government in 1975. In 1978 he graduated from Johns Hopkins with a doctorate of science degree in health economics. In 1982 he was the first annual Henry Ford senior faculty finance fellow at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit.

Travis-Flack

Bill and Ginny Travis, former residents of Garden City who now live in Novi, announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Ruth, to Stanley J. Flack, son of Leonard and Rosemarie Flack of John Hawk Street, Garden City.

The bride-to-be is a 1981 graduate of Garden City East High School. She attended Oakland Community College and works for the Roger Zatkoff Co. in Farmington Hills. Her fiance, a 1979 graduate of Garden City West High School, is a senior at Michigan Technological University, majoring in geological engineering.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Oldani-Haller

A wedding in Reading, Pa., in June is planned by Stephanie Ann Haller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Haller Jr. of that city, and Robert Emmett Oldani, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Oldani of Hugh Street, Westland.

The bride-to-be graduated from Mansfield State University, and is working toward a master's degree in guidance and counseling at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Va. The bridegroom graduated from Franklin High School in 1976 and the University of Michigan in 1980 with a degree in mechanical engineering. He is a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy, assigned to the USS Arkansas, based in California.

Davidson-Montroy

A Nov. 26 wedding is planned by Janice Lola Davidson, daughter of Austin and June Davidson of Garfield Street, Redford, and Donald Charles Montroy. He is the son of William and Mary Montroy of Foch Street, Livonia.

The ceremony will take place in St. Martin Episcopal Church.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Schoolcraft College and employed by the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor. Her fiance is a graduate of Bentley High School and served for eight years in the U.S. Navy. He owns a building company in Redford.

bridal register

Wilson LaFleur

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Earl Wilson have settled in Westland. She is the former Katherine Mary LaFleur, daughter of Norman and Carol LaFleur of Clements Circle, Livonia. He is the son of Lawrence and Marie Wilson of Belleville.

The ceremony took place in Ward Presbyterian Church, Livonia.

The bride wore a champagne white dress and carried silk purple, pink and white flowers.

Genette Jackson was maid of honor and Dale LeCour was best man.

The bride is a 1980 graduate of Franklin High School. She studied graphic arts at the William D. Ford Vocational Technical Center in Westland, and works as a secretary. The bridegroom graduated from Belleville High School in 1975, and attended the Detroit Institute of Technology. He has been a journeyman for five years at Republic Die and Tool.

Mum's the word

Garden hobbyists reap harvest of floral awards

By Marie McGee
staff writer

OOPS — A craft show will be held tonight at Hoover Elementary School on Levan Road, north of Five Mile, and not Hull school as reported in Thursday's story on bazaar happenings. Hand-crafted items will be on sale.

HAND-CRAFTED items made by residents of Dorvin and University Convalescent homes will be featured in the craft show at the Livonia Mall Wednesday-Friday, Nov. 9-11.

STILL FLUSHED with the glow of a successful show for the Community and during the appearance on stage at Cobo Hall the recent international convention of Sweet Adelines, the Midwest Harmony Chapter is seeking to fill several openings for new members. A guest night is set for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 16, in the chorus's regular meeting place, Kirk of Our Savior Church on Cherry Hill between Wayne and Newburgh roads, Westland. "This is the night for women to visit and see what Sweet Adelines is all about," says Pat Daubenmeir, president, of Canton. The ability to read music is not a requirement. What is needed is the ability to hold a musical line against other singing parts and the good will and good health to enjoy association with an active singing and competing group, she said. Call 721-3861 for more information.

FOR A TASTE of fabulous French cuisine and other gourmet fantasies this holiday season, plan to rendezvous with local celebrities, community leaders and friends at "La Grande Affaire," a benefit evening for Children's Hospital at 7 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 13, at Fairlane Town Center in Dearborn. Hors d'oeuvres, pastries and desserts will highlight the event along with imported chocolates and other gourmet delicacies which will be provided by food specialty shops and restaurants in Fairlane. French fashion designer Paul-Louis Orrier will make a personal appearance to introduce his holiday creations. Tickets are $75 per person and are available by calling 689-3850.

LIVONIA bowling champion Mary Mohacs's dream of becoming the world's singles champion was shattered last week in Caracas, Venezuela under the most unusual circumstances. Instead of coming home with a gold medal, she had to be content with a bronze medal won in the women's team event. "When we arrived in Caracas, we hadn't thought of the military tension in that part of the world until we were met by military guards and taken to the lanes," she said. "We were guarded all the time and that put the pressure on us." The lanes left a lot to be desired in terms of championship facilities, she added. They didn't have running water, or restroom facilities and no tournament office. When it came to singles, she reported at 8 a.m. and didn't get to bowl until 10 p.m. that night. Then after all that wait, she finished out of the top 10. "It was most disappointing," she said.

SPEAKING of bowling, the central regional office of ALSAC/St. Jude Children's Research Hospital have announced that Westworld Family Recreation Center on Merriman Road in Westland will be conducting a bowlingathon during the week of Dec. 3-10. Locally, Dolores Etherington has volunteered to coordinate the "Strike out Cancer — Spare a Child Campaign." Sponsor forms are now available at Westworld.

REGISTER now for the November make-it and take-it workshops at the Michigan State Fairgrounds. Classes are geared for beginners. During this week, workshops will be offered in pine cone wreaths, herb wreaths, potpourri, embroidery, stenciling, chair rushing, oriental flower making and basketry. For details, call the community arts section at 568-1000. Quilting lessons and workshops are going on and a quilting club meets. Some of the classes include Seminole quilting, reverse applique (Nov. 15, 22 and 30).

IT TOOK A LOT of dough before Edwin and Wilma Slesak got into the business of growing prize-winning chrysanthemums.

And after 10 years, their efforts finally bloomed in a showy splendor of silver trophies complemented with blue and red ribbons.

The Livonia couple were honored recently when they won the top prize in the best three-of-a-kind category in recent competition sponsored by the Greater Detroit Chrysanthemum Society at the Tel-12 Mall. The entry with three brilliant yellow petal incurves was appropriately named "Treasure." They also won a trophy in the best white single bloom competition with an entry of "Winter Carnival."

Frequent winners in the annual competitions, the Slesaks of Livonia also took 32 blue ribbons and 15 second-place ribbons in the competition.

The awards this year were more significant, they said, because it was the first time they have won trophies in the major categories of the competition.

The competition involves growing giant-bloom chrysanthemums — known as "standards" or football mums — that will not normally grow in this climate.

AFTER PURCHASING the plants from growers, there's a lot of pampering that goes on in the backyard beds of the Slesaks' home on Rayburn in Coventry Gardens subdivision in Livonia. From early spring until the August "blackout" period, the couple keep a watchful eye on the progress of the special plants. The enforced darkness comes in very early August and lasts for a 12-hour period and is done by covering the plants with a dark covering.

Meanwhile, back in other areas of the Slesak gardens, the common garden varieties of chrysanthemums lead an unsheltered life that will ultimately bring beauty and color starting in mid-August through Thanksgiving Day.

They belong to the "cushion" family of mums. Unlike the "standards" that grow upwards to four or five feet, they grow in clumps and much closer to the ground. And like their rah-rah cousins, come in a variety of colors and petal formations.

Contrary to what many people believe, mums are not perennials in this climate, Slesak noted. Because they are a shallow-rooted plant, they often do not survive the winter.

Mild weather, like that experienced last winter, isn't much good either, he added, because the plants fall to get the moisture they need. Those that do manage to make it through the winter — for one reason or another — perpetuate the hardy image so often associated with the plants, he said.

ONE OF THOSE hardy types is a small, button-type variety called "lemon drop."

"We have good luck with them making it through the winter," Slesak said.

While many people buy mum plants in the fall, the best time to plant them is in the spring, he said. Start with seedlings purchased from any nursery or at plant sales by groups like the Greater Detroit Chrysanthemum Society.

"The hardest thing for people to visualize is that the tiny sprout put in around June 1 will grow into a good-sized cluster by August," Slesak said.

Dividing the plants should always be done in the spring, he added.

Slesak's hobby of growing chrysanthemums stemmed from a desire to do something at the same time his wife entered the Michigan State Fair competition in the baking division.

A Missouri farm girl who learned to bake on her mother's wood-burning stove, Wilma Slesak for more than a decade had won dozens of ribbons for her homemade bread, English muffins and coffee cakes.

"I was looking for something to do," he said. "I looked at the flower arrangements and it looked simple enough, so I decided to try it." He began by taking a flower arrangement class in the Livonia Public Schools' evening program.

HIS WIFE ALSO got interested in flower arranging. They joined the chrysanthemum society to learn more about flowers.

"If you want to arrange flowers, you have to have them," said Slesak. That led the couple to tear out their backyard lawn and put in flower beds. Mums soon became their specialty.

Next spring the couple will host the chrysanthemum society's annual spring sale at their home where over 3,000 plants will be on sale. Mum fever will be rampant.

Slesak retired recently from a career in merchandising with the F.J. Heinz Co. where "57 varieties" was a promotional factor.

Today he's still promoting "57 varieties" — but they're all in his backyard.

DAN DEAN/staff photographer
Wilma Slesak gave up baking for prizes at the State Fair in favor of flower arranging now that she and her husband raise prize-winning chrysanthemums in the backyard of their Livonia home.

Edwin Slesak's interest in flower arranging led to growing chrysanthemums, some of which are grown for competition.

Large I suggests degree of confidence

Dear Lorene:

I understand that handwriting analysis is now being used in personnel sections which indicates to me that it is recognized as a credible evaluation of one's personal traits.

I am now 45, righthanded, and my handwriting has changed considerably over the years. Does this mean that my personal traits are changing? I enjoy your column and will be interested in your reply.

A.D. Madison Heights.

Dear A.D.:

Graphology is indeed used in personnel selection. And also used in courts of law. Both areas speak for the credibility of the science, I feel.

If your handwriting has changed considerably over the years, it is indicative of the fact your personality has also changed. However, past and present handwriting samples must be examined to determine what the changes have been.

Here is a word picture of your personality as it is currently seen in your handwriting.

What I see first is your large, full personal pronoun I which suggests a degree of confidence. Whatever it is that you do in life, you apparently feel you can do it as well as or better than others. Augmenting this is your feeling of responsibility. You are willing to assume responsibility to further enhance your self-esteem.

You are an extremely emotional woman. So much of what you feel is revealed in your body language. It would not be easy to conceal your emotions and they can vacillate rather quickly, often with only slight provocation. The environment and people in it play a large part in your life. Your behavior is strongly influenced by the attitudes of others and your own mood of the moment. You tend to be impulsive, often acting first and considering later.

Traditional would probably describe you. Customs and values are of long standing, possibly even from your parental home.

Strong need to own and possess is evident in your handwriting. You may be equating material possessions with love.

A sensuous nature is suggested by your choice of pen and bold green ink.

Woven throughout this handwriting is a measure of tact. And I know the sarcasm, which I also find, is going to sound paradoxical. But it is here and probably serves as a defense mechanism.

At times you are inhibited and somewhat tense. It is quite possible you keep certain things bottled up inside because you seem unable to bring them out into the open to discuss them.

Large, clearly executed numbers and narrowing left margin bespeak your working relationship with a budget.

Seemingly you do not require a great deal of physical activity. Much that is meaningful to you takes place in your own home.

If you have a question about your handwriting, write to Lorene C. Green, a certified graphologist, in care of this newspaper. Please use a full sheet of white, unlined paper writing in the first person singular. Age and handedness are also helpful. Feedback is always welcome.

• STOP SMOKING

Smokers who want to kick the habit will have their chance at a five-day Stop-Smoking Clinic directed by Arthur Weaver, M.D., professor of surgery at Wayne State University.

The program will begin Monday, Nov. 7 and run through Friday, Nov. 11 at 7:30 p.m. in Bentley High School auditorium, 15100 Hubbard Road, Livonia. The program is by donation only, with no pre-registration necessary.

• HELP FOR ASTHMATICS

Non-traditional and alternative forms of asthma treatment will be discussed at the American Lung Association of Southeastern Michigan's (ALASEM) Family Asthma program at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 17 in doctors' dining rooms C and D of Oakwood Hospital, 18101 Oakwood Boulevard, Dearborn.

James Fordyce, M.D., will lead the discussion at this monthly meeting for asthmatics and their families sponsored free of charge by ALASEM in cooperation with Oakwood Hospital.

• HELPFUL BROCHURES

Arabic-speaking patients who have diabetes or high blood pressure are benefiting from newly translated brochures at Grace Hospital.

Kadreyia Mabrouk of Westland, a registered dietitian, translated the diet instructions and helped translate the blood pressure brochure. There are more Arab-speaking people on the west side of Detroit than in any other location outside of their homeland.

A new brochure, aimed at promoting good dental hygiene for persons with handicaps, has been published by the Michigan Dental Association.

The publication contains helpful suggestions which can help these with handicaps establish good dental habits. It is titled "Happy Smiles for Handicappers."

It is available free from members of the Michigan Dental Association. Pick up a copy from your dentist or write to the Michigan Dental Association, 230 N. Washington Square, Suite 208, Lansing 48933.

• CANCER WORKSHOP

"The Challenge of Cancer," a workshop for cancer patients and families will be held 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 12 at Barth Hall in Detroit.

The program offers the cancer patient and their families an opportunity to explore both community and person resources needed to promote the positive conditions for well-being.

The keynote speaker will be Dennis Roblee, M.A., from the Wellness Health Counseling program. His topic is "Self-Responsibility — Key to Successful Living."

Barth Hall is adjacent to St. Paul's Cathedral at 4800 Woodward Avenue, at Warren. A lunch will be provided. The fee is $5 per person. Reservations can be made by calling the Michigan Cancer Foundation at 833-0710, Ext. 244/245. The deadline is Nov. 7.

• ADOPTIVE PARENTS

A series of expectant adoptive parent classes will be starting at Botsford Hospital at 7 p.m. Monday, Nov. 21 for families approved by a licensed adoption agency and awaiting the placement of an infant up to two years of age. The class will meet once per week for four weeks.

For information future classes or to register for the upcoming November classes, call Maureen Shea, adoption supervisor at Catholic Social Services of Wayne County at 883-2100, or Terry Allor at 459-7883. Although no fee is charged for the series, a tax-deductible donation of $20 per couple is suggested and used for the cost of supplies and handouts.

• FREE BLOOD TESTS

Free blood tests to help detect diabetes will be offered by 180 Michigan hospitals and health centers during Diabetes Detection Week, Nov. 6-12. The statewide testing program is co-sponsored by the American Diabetes Association, Michigan Affiliate and is open to persons over 18 years of age who have not previously been diagnosed as diabetic.

For best results, a meal high in carbohydrates with large amounts of starches and sugars should be eaten two hours before the test. Breakfast could be fruit or juice, cereal with milk and sugar, two slices of buttered toast with jam, and coffee or tea. A person planning to take the test after lunch could have soup, a sandwich, cake or pie, and a glass of milk. The meal should be eaten within a 15-minute time period and nothing else except water should be taken before the test.

If the test indicates that person may have diabetes, he will be advised to see his own physician for further evaluation.

This screening test and the recommended high carbohydrate meal are not appropriate for persons who have been told that they have diabetes.

In this area, test sites and hours are as follows:

- Garden City Osteopathic Hospital, 6245 Inkster Road, Garden City, Nov. 6-12, 2-6 p.m.
- Joy Road Health Center, 28303 Joy Road, Westland, Nov. 8-9, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
- Wayne County General Hospital, 2345 Merriman Road, Okmum Nov. 8-10, 9 a.m.-3 p.m.
- Henry Ford Hospital Fairlane Center, 19401 Hubbard Dr. at Evergreen, Dearborn, 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 10.

• HODGKIN'S DISEASE

The Michigan Hodgkin's Disease Foundation will hold its monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 14 at Providence Hospital Medical Building, Eighth Floor, Room C, Nine Mile Road in Southfield.

Joseph Csotty, psychologist from Professional Psychology Services in Trenton, will speak on "Cognitive Restructuring and Stress Reduction."

The foundation is geared to help Hodgkin's patients, family members and friends to better understand and deal with the disease and its treatment. For further information, call the MHDF at 427-3737.

• EMOTIONS ANONYMOUS

Weekly Emotions Anonymous meetings are held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesdays at the First Presbyterian Church, 1669 W. Maple Road, Birmingham.

EA is a 12-step program to a new way of life. It was formed by a group of individuals who found a new way to life using the 12-step program of Alcoholics Anonymous as adopted for people with emotional problems.

• ZIPPER CLUB

A national "Zipper Club" dedicated to unifying and educating people who have undergone open heart surgery has been established by Donald R. Gordon of Pittsford, N.J. J. Gordon, who underwent triple bypass surgery four years ago, stated that affiliation with this common interest group should be a morale boosting aid to post-surgery patients.

For more information, contact Gordon by writing P. O. Box 136, Pittsford, N.J. 08867.

One loss, then another

Death seems to deal our family double blows.

Last summer we lost an uncle and aunt who died three days apart after 57 years of marriage. This year death hit in a way that will ever etch in memory our recent trip to Michigan. Daughter Barb won't forget either. She was proclaiming for a while that she wasn't answering any more telephones.

Joe and I were having a fine visit. We had reveled in being able to spend hours with granddaughter Katie and her parents. We had seen family and friends and some fine fall color. We had taken in a University of Michigan football game and were planning to see another and then head back south the following day.

THEN THE FIRST blow fell on Friday afternoon as we chatted with friends for lunch. Voice trembling, Barb telephoned to say she had received a call from my brother, Jim. Our younger brother, John, was dead in Indiana.

It was unexpected, unbelievable and devastating. In shock, we sought to learn more and prepared to do what had to be done.

Jim and his wife, Louise, were getting ready to leave for Indiana Saturday morning, and Joe and I were going to join them there the following day. Then the telephone rang again. Barb answered, then dropped the receiver and burst into tears. Our Aunt Helen had died in her sleep at the nursing home.

THE FUNERALS are over, and to some extent shock has given way to contemplation, mostly on the terrible contrast.

Aunt Helen was 94. Her death was a peaceful finish to a fine life. I feel great loss, but also thankfulness that death came without illness or pain or loss of dignity, and that I was nearby and had seen her the previous evening and on two other recent occasions.

But John, the beloved baby brother of my childhood, was only 50, a brilliant man, a fine educator who had contributed much to life at the university where he taught, a fun uncle to our daughters. He suffered alone what must have been a torturous death from an illness none of us knew he had.

Over the years, our busy lives and his private nature had made our contacts infrequent and short. But he called recently to say he would visit us in Florida right after Christmas, and we were really looking forward to more time together. I feel only emptiness.

BUT I HAVE been going back to some other words, ones that Joe and I memorized for a small drama in church. The story deals with death through the falling leaves of autumn. We had rehearsed them glibly, and now it's going to be terribly painful to say them.

We will, though. I'll ask: "Then what has been the reason for all this? Why are we here at all, if we only have to fall and die?" Joe will answer with his lines: "It's been about the sun and the moon. It's been about happy times together. It's been about the shade and the old people and the children. It's been about colors in fall. Isn't that enough?"

Margaret Miller was Suburban Life editor for the Observer Newspapers for 16 years.

Rutger Hauer is John Tanner, a TV investigative reporter, who tries to warn his friends of danger in "The Osterman Weekend."

the movies
Louise Snider

Bizarre violence dominates action in confusing film

Dan Greenberg, guest critic for this week's movie review, is a film instructor at the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College in Farmington Hills.

Osterman's weekend spoiled mine. But I shouldn't complain too much. My only problem with "The Osterman Weekend" (R), starring Burt Lancaster, Rutger Hauer and John Hurt, was figuring out who was doing what to whom, and maybe why.

On the other hand, Osterman (Craig T. Nelson) and all his friends spent the weekend getting battered, beaten and blown to bits by assorted CIA characters. That fate should have been reserved for scenarist Alan Sharp and Jan Masters, who adapted this film from the exciting Robert Ludlum novel.

Ludlum writes excellent, thrilling espionage stories with considerable understanding of World War II's legacy. His books convey so well the texture and atmosphere of the war.

It was particularly disappointing, then, to see what Sharp and Masters did with his novel. Of course, to compound their sins, director Sam Peckinpah assumes that large amounts of violence will carry any story. Not so in this case. The film is confusing because it is confused. Or is it the other way around?

THE ONLY CLEAR POINT to "The Osterman Weekend" is that people can be shot with laser-guided sniper scopes; blown up with bombs; incinerated in gasoline-laden swimming pools; killed with regular guns, and murdered with good, old-fashioned arrows or with modern needles inserted in their noses.

That's where the film begins, as a pretty blonde is done in by two black-suited operatives (needle in hand) while her husband, superspy Lawrence Fassett (John Hurt), showers and CIA head Maxwell Danforth (Burt Lancaster) watches on closed-circuit television.

Fassett, it turns out, is employed by Danforth in a complex plot to turn three Berkeley graduates/Russian spies into double agents.

The three are Bernard Osterman, Richard Tremayne (Dennis Hopper) and Joseph Cardone (Chris Sarandon). Since their college graduation some 15 years ago, they have become, respectively, a writer-media person of sorts; a bad doctor with a cocaine-addicted wife, Virginia (Helen Shaver); and a sleazy financier whose wife, Betty (Cassie Yates), has to be told to remove her chewing gum when they make love.

These three, CIA head Danforth explains, are involved in a terrible Russian plot, Omega. With his trusted assistant Stennings (Sandy McPeak) trying to put respectable brakes on the project, Danforth charges ahead using TV investigative reporter John Tanner (Rutger Hauer) as the bait.

TANNER WILL DO anything to get Danforth on his show. Little do any of them realize that superspy Fassett is out to avenge his wife's death, which he blames on Danforth.

All these characters come together for a weekend at Tanner's who, conveniently, is one of the old Berkeley crowd. This delightful foursome, plus three wives, has shared weekends for years, weekends called "Osterman's."

Now with all those ingredients, you can follow the various assassinations as Fassett pretends to operate the weekend scam to turn the Omega Project spies into double agents via state-of-the-art interactive television that speaks to our hero, Tanner, through his microwave. Guilt via microwave, the latest in psychotherapeutic espionage.

But hold everything. The three friends from Omega aren't really spies, just minor financial crooks. The real plot is Danforth's attempt to become president by exposing a communist plot he created for expose's sake.

Danforth is foiled by Fassett's revenge and Mrs. Tanner (Meg Foster), who takes to the woods with crossbow to protect her son, Steve (Christopher Starr). Her arrows make a real nice thunk while impaling CIA operatives trying to murder her husband and Bernie Osterman swimming in the aforementioned, gasoline-laden swimming pool. Oh, boy.

Surprisingly, the actors achieve credible results with incredible material. There was even one exciting chase sequence when Mrs. Tanner and son were kidnapped. However, that was not enough to save this film. Save your time and money. Don't spoil your weekend.

Burt Lancaster is Maxwell Danforth, head of the CIA, who plots to turn three Russian spies into double agents.

Artist heads group

Jean Gloria Newell, professional of the dance arts in Livonia, has been elected president of the Cecchetti Council of America for the 1984-85 season.

The CAA is an organization dedicated to maintaining the method of ballet training established by Cav. Enrico Cecchetti. The CAA uses his teaching and writings in a sequence of grades and provides a system of accredited examinations to test the student's proficiency within those grades.

Newell also is a permanent examiner for the CAA. She has been a performing artist since age 10 and has done radio broadcasts and numerous Broadway shows. Locally she has choreographed many musicals for Stevenson High School and the Dearborn Players Guild.

Her school of the dance arts is on Seven Mile in Livonia and is the home of the Livonia Civic Ballet Company, of which she is founder and artistic director.

Tell me about your high gas heating bills...

and I'll tell you how some people saved as much as 20%* with Ameri-Therm®

THE PROBLEM
You have a hole in your roof.
The hole? Your furnace vent.
Every time your furnace turns off, the warm air in your home is quickly lost up in the furnace vent, and on goes the furnace again, heating the air and running up your gas bill.
When a furnace, boiler or water heater shuts off, warm air in your home is quickly lost up the furnace vent. Energy escapes, but you still end up paying for it. People want to save as much as they can, so I tell them to keep heat inside with an Ameri-Therm® Vent Damper.

THE SOLUTION
Close the hole in your roof with an Ameri-Therm® Vent Damper.
The heat of your furnace opens the Ameri-Therm® Vent Damper. When the furnace turns off, the Ameri-Therm® Vent Damper closes your furnace vent and the warm air you paid for stays where it belongs, inside your home.

The Ameri-Therm® Vent Damper is...

Troy Athens dethrones Stevenson, 3-0

By Brad Emons
staff writer

It was Troy Athens' day and Troy Athens' soccer season. Pure and simple.

The Red Hawks capped a storybook year Saturday by dethroning defending Class A state champion Livonia Stevenson, 3-0, before 980 fans at Flint's Atwood Stadium.

"Our whole theme going into this game was even though we were No. 1 and No. 2 (in the rankings), they had something we wanted, and we had to take it away," said Athens coach Tim Storch, whose team finished with a 21-0-2 record.

The Red Hawks, who beat Stevenson two years ago in a state invitational tournament, dominated the match from start to finish.

Only goalie Terry Harshfield kept it from being a rout.

After missing a number of good scoring chances, Athens got on the board at 29:38 of the first half when Kevin Dwyer booted in a rebound shot on play set up by Mark Noffert.

THE RED HAWKS added another goal with less than five minutes to play in the half when Steve Smith followed up his own missed penalty kick shot after Harshfield had made a diving stop.

Smith was awarded the kick when Stevenson defender Todd Ericson fouled an Athens player just outside his own net.

"The boys didn't follow-up," said Stevenson coach Pete Scerri. "It was a split-second thing."

The goal had a chilling effect on the Spartans, who desperately searched for some offense. Scerri even moved the team's top defender, Dan Divens, up front in the second half, but the Red Hawks' back line, led by senior Alex Petrusha, kept them in check.

Noffert, a slick passer, set up Athens' final goal with 14:56 gone in the second half as Allan Schneck booted home a rebound to clinch the victory.

STEVENSON was playing without three starters, two injured and one suspended, but Scerri couldn't take anything away from the new champions.

"I don't mind losing to Troy because they're a good team that plays with class," he said. "They're big and they use it to their advantage."

"I'm impressed with the way they play together and they have one of the best coaches in the state."

Noffert, bothered by a pulled hamstring, was a freshman on the 1981 championship team. "We had Marty Hagen back then — a great player — where everything revolved around him," said the junior forward. "This is a well balanced team with no superstar. We can stick anybody off the bench and everybody has the skills to do it."

Storch, who took a victory jog around the stadium with his team, reflected on the title: "We came out here knowing that we had to play the state champions in the state championship."

"THE WORK was getting here and I told our guys 'here is the reward'."

Because of the number of underclassmen on both teams, the two coaches mentioned a possible rematch.

"I'm hoping we can do it," Noffert said, "but you really can't say anything right now."

You can say, however, that Athens is the team in '83.

North's Shaw spoils Glenn bid

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

Don't blame North Farmington girls' basketball coach Greg Grodzicki if he's feeling just a tinge of deja vu.

You see, last season his team all but wrapped up the Northwest Suburban League title by defeating Westland John Glenn on the next to last game of the season — after being defeated the game before by Livonia Franklin.

History has repeated itself.

Thursday night the Raiders, after losing to Franklin Tuesday, earned at least a share of the NSL crown by nipping Glenn 46-45. If the Raiders beat Garden City Thursday, they will win the NSL outright for the second straight year.

"IT WAS LAINNA'S night," said a happy — and relieved — Grodzicki afterwards.

He was referring to sophomore guard Lainna Shaw, who led all scorers with 17 points while playing superb defense on Glenn's Michele McCullen. Shaw's long-range jumpers fouled the Rockets' 1-2-2 zone defense.

"We played our game," said Rocket coach George Sommerman. "We knew that the outside would be there for them. Lainna just shot unbelievable."

Shaw scored nine points in a frantic fourth quarter that saw the lead change 10 times. Shaw's jumper with 23 seconds left gave the Raiders the victory.

"Lainna had such a bad ballgame against Franklin, but she just doesn't rattle. She played outstanding defense, I thought, on McCullen and she was just cool as a cucumber down the stretch," Grodzicki said.

MCCULLEN FINISHED with 10 points on the night, but she got into foul trouble and scored just four in the second half.

It was the red-hot shooting of Glenn's Sophie Castonguay that gave North fits and just missed giving the Rockets the win. She ended up with 14 points, eight in the second half.

North hit on just two of their first 14 shots in the game which enabled Glenn to break out on top 9-4. It was 13-6 with 5:38 left in the first half.

At that point Amy Austin, North's leading scorer who Glenn successfully

girls basketball

kept bottled up for most of the game, hit her first bucket. Then she made a steal and dropped in a layup. Then she hit another long jumper. Then she forced two more Glenn turnovers which resulted in two Lisa Mummert baskets and a tie game.

The score was tied 29-29 at the half. North built up a six-point lead in the third quarter before Castonguay led a Glenn surge which saw them score seven unanswered points at the end of the quarter.

THAT SET UP a scintillating fourth-quarter finish.

Austin, who finished with 10 points, four steals and 11 rebounds, scored four quick points to start the fourth quarter. She was answered with hoops by Glenn's Julie Pucci and Castonguay.

North went ahead 38-34 on a Shaw jumper with 4:46 to play. Pucci tied it 31 seconds later.

After two misses by North, Cheryl Dozier took an adroit feed from Pucci and sank a short jumper to put Glenn ahead 38-36 with 3:36 left. Shaw then sank a pair of bombs, answered by a Pucci bucket and a free throw by Dozier. Glenn led 41-40 with 1:57 left.

ENTER SUZANNTOINE. Suzanne Howley, affectionately named Suzannitoine — as in Antoine Joubert — by the North fans, hauled in two clutch offensive rebounds and converted them into hoops. The unheralded North center scored 10 points and grabbed 13 rebounds on the night.

With 50 seconds left, North led 44-43. McCullen got the lead back on the Glenn side by canning a jumper. Sommerman wanted a time out after McCullen's hoop but his team didn't see him.

"That really cost us," Sommerman said. "I wanted the time out right after we scored. We still had the lead."

Coming on strong

Churchill dumps Spartans in football finale

Big Mo finally got behind Livonia Churchill instead of in its path.

Momentum came in a strong driving force — or a tough foe. For the past couple of years, Churchill football followers and coach Ken Kaestner must have felt momentum lived on the opposition's side of the line of scrimmage.

That all changed when Churchill upset unbeaten Farmington Harrison two weeks ago. Since then the Chargers have been a terror. They proved it again in their season-finale when they came up with the key defensive play in the fourth quarter to thwart Livonia Stevenson 27-14 Friday at Stevenson.

It was Churchill's third straight win, boosting its record to 4-5 after a 1-5 start. Stevenson ended the campaign with a 6-3 mark.

THE CHARGERS were ahead 21-14 in the fourth quarter, but Stevenson was on the march at Churchill's eight-yard line. On third down, Spartan quarterback Dan Gilmartin dropped back to pass, but Dave Mize and Scott Papich stormed through to throw him for a 17-yard loss, all the way back to the 25.

Stevenson faltered on fourth down

'Our defensive front, led by Rob Kempler and (Dave) Mize, played extremely well. This (season) was a good comeback for the kids. I'm happy for the class of '84.'

—Ken Kaestner
Churchill coach and Churchill took over. The Chargers promptly drove down the field for the game-clinching touchdown, with quarterback John Stoitsiadis scoring on an eight-yard, counter option play.

"Our defensive front, led by Rob Kempler and Mize, played extremely well," said Kaestner. "This (season) was a good comeback for the kids. I'm happy for the class of '84."

Churchill's crunching ground game, led by Bob Foust's 141 yards and two touchdowns, offset a fine passing effort by Gilmartin. The senior quarterback completed 17 of 32 passes for Stevenson, good for 225 yards and two TDs. But Churchill pilfered three of his passes.

CHURCHILL SCORED first, on a 17-yard Stoitsiadis run in the opening quarter. Stevenson charged right back as Gilmartin unloaded an 85-yard bomb to Andy Taliaferro. Pete Huddy's placement made it 7-6, Stevenson.

Foust's first TD run, a two-yard dive in the second quarter, made it 13-7 Churchill at the half.

Gilmartin put Stevenson back in front, 14-13, with a 41-yard scoring toss to tight end Bill Ulle in the third quarter. But Foust reached paydirt before the close of the quarter on a 15-yard bolt, and Stoitsiadis raced in for a two-point conversion to give Churchill a 21-14 lead.

"They're a good football team," said Spartan coach Jack Reardon. "They're much better than 4-5."

Churchill had 246 yards rushing and 36 passing. Stevenson had 47 yards on the ground and 225 in the air. Taliaferro hauled in five passes for 109 yards and Ulle caught five for 81.

SALEM ENTERED the game with a very slight hope for a playoff berth. They needed losses from East Lansing, Brighton and Ann Arbor Pioneer.

Moshimer, had tears in his eyes afterwards as he assessed the Rocks season. "This has been the most fun I've had coaching in 25 years as a high-school coach. This ranks as one of the most enjoyable seasons I've had. These kids are super. We've had no discipline problems, they really took to the coaching — this is one solid football team."

"If somebody would have told me at the beginning of the season we would be 8-1, I would have laughed at them," he added.

The Redford Union loss was its first in four games. The Panthers finished at 4-5.

RU run down by Salem wishbone

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

The Rocks may have saved their best for last.

After a sloppily played, scoreless first half, the Plymouth Salem football team went wild in the second half and routed Redford Union 32-0 in what will most likely be their final game of the season.

"Redford Union played tough, tough defense in that first half," Salem coach Tom Moshimer said. "They can really make you look bad with the way they bring their ends and tackles down hard."

The Panthers' defense had a hand in stopping the Rocks in the first half, especially the play of senior safety Bob Macek, but more often than not the Rocks stopped themselves.

SALEM TURNED THE ball over four times in the first half, three on fumbles and one on an interception. A Rock clipping penalty also washed out a tremendous 80-yard touchdown run by Scott Jurek. RU didn't fare much better. They coughed up the ball twice on fumbles and once on an interception.

"All those turnovers, you just can't do that. We were lucky, even though we had the ball down close twice, we were lucky to come off 0-0," Moshimer said.

Salem got as close as RU's 9-yard line, but with time running out in the half, quarterback Mark Tindall's pass was picked off in the end zone by Tony Vorias.

The second half belonged exclusively to the Rocks.

The Rocks broke the scoreless barrier at 5:05 of the third quarter when Tindall rambled 19 yards for the score. The touchdown was set up by a 40-yard dash by Kevin Riley. Mark Dixon added the extra point.

SALEM GOT THE ball back with 2:06 left in the quarter and promptly went 64 yards in four plays scoring on a 61-yard pass from Tindall to Craig Morton. The point after was blocked.

"They made some adjustments in the second half," said RU coach Harvey Heltman. "And we didn't cover it well. They got those two quick scores and it was 'Katie-bar-the-door.'"

If Salem's second touchdown let the wind out of RU's sails, the third touchdown put nails in the coffin.

After Jeff Arnold recovered an RU fumble at the Panther 21, Jurek ran for nine yards to the 12 and Arnold took the next handoff the rest of the way. After the Rocks' two-point try failed, they led 19-0.

In their next possession, Jurek took three handoffs, gained 54 yards and scored from 13 yards out. Dixon added the PAT.

Salem finished the scoring with 52 seconds left, Chris Raymond scored on a 34-yard run.

"WE DIDN'T MAKE any real major adjustments," Moshimer said. "We just ran our offense. We tried to take advantage of what their defense gave us. If you have faith in the offense and you work at it, it'll work for you."

Did it ever work.

The Salem offense rolled up 366 yards in total offense. The Rocks gained 272 yards on the ground, 94 in the air. Jurek carried 10 times for 83 yards. Arnold had 72 in just six tries. "Give Salem credit," said Heltman.

Ladywood advances; Pats, GC victorious

The Catholic League girls' basketball playoffs now have become the Central Division playoffs.

All four Central Division teams advanced to the semifinal round, including Livonia Ladywood, an easy 67-29 winner last week over Madison Heights Bishop Foley at U-D's Callhan Hall.

The Blazers, 14-2 overall, jumped out to a 20-5 lead and never looked back.

Char Govan paced a balanced Ladywood attack with 14 points. Emily Wagner and Sue Laliberte chipped in with 13 each, while Debbie Lapinski added 12.

Ladywood squares off with Harper Woods Regina in the opener of a double-header at 6 p.m. Tuesday at Harper Woods Notre Dame. The second game features Farmington Hills Our Lady of Mercy and Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher at 7:45 p.m.

FRANKLIN 58, REDFORD UNION 52: The Patriots stayed a game behind Northwest Suburban leader North Farmington in the league chase by beating the stubborn Panthers.

Carolyn Smith pumped in 14 points for the winners, while Alicia Letka and Sue Johnson added 10 each.

Sophomore center Julie Marchand played a strong game for RU, scoring 21 points and grabbing 19 rebounds.

basketball

Marie Becker, another sophomore, added 10 points, while Guard Kellie Szabo dished out 11 assists.

"RU look away our corner shot so we started taking it from the top of the key," explained Franklin coach Tim Newman, whose team is 13-5 overall and 7-2 in league play. "We didn't start hitting it until the second half."

"Franklin played an excellent game," said RU coach Terri Anthony. "They were outstanding from the field."

RU is 7-10 overall and 2-7 in league play.

GARDEN CITY 28, THURSTON 20: The visiting Cougars prevailed, but not without a fight from the stubborn Eagles, who were within five points in the final quarter.

Tammy Narramore led Garden City with 10 points, while Rose Scerri and Julie Engle combined for 16 Thurston points.

Garden City is now 9-8 overall and 4-5 in Northwest Suburban play, while Thurston fell to 1-16 and 0-9.

North Farmington clinches title share

But North hustled the ball up the floor. Mummert, who had 10 assists and four steals, fed the ball into the corner to Shaw who tried to drive the baseline, but was stopped. She passed back to Mummert, who worked it back around to Shaw. With 23 seconds left, Shaw let fly the winning jumper.

GLENN HAD two more opportunities to pull the game out in the last 20 seconds, but both shots missed the mark. "We're not world beaters by any means," Grodzicki said. "But we have a lot of poise. We showed that tonight."

Sommerman, on the other end, said that the season was far from over for his team.

"We can't quit. There's a whole other season to be played: the second season — the playoffs. We have to go out and play for pride. These kids have a lot of class," he said. "At least I think they do. We'll see."

Easy: Bentley passes 1st round test

Livonia Bentley opened the Western Lakes girls' basketball playoffs Thursday with an easy 51-27 victory at Northville.

"We wanted to play well and get off to a good start in the playoffs," said Bentley coach Tom Lang, whose team is 15-2 overall. "Defensively we played real well and offensively we controlled the game."

"The girls played hard because they knew the importance of it." Bentley led 25-9 at the half and blew it open with an 18-4 scoring edge in the third quarter.

Lonnie Payne and Laurie Day tallied 15 and 14 points, respectively, for the Lakes Division champs. Sheri Wolfe added six points, eight rebounds and three steals.

The Bulldogs advance to the second round — Tuesday at home against Walled Lake Central.

basketball

W.L. WESTERN 47, STEVENSON 26: Walled Lake, the Western Division champ, remained unbeaten Thursday thanks to a 17-2 point advantage in the final quarter.

The Warriors' Carol Croll scored 12 of her game-high 16 points in the second quarter, while 6-foot-3 junior center Val Hall added 12 points, six coming in the final period.

Mary Kay Hussey (14) and Lisa Bokovoy (10) combined to score all but two of Stevenson's 26 points.

"The key to the game was when we got outscored 16-6 in the second quarter," said Stevenson coach Wayne Henry, whose team is 9-9 overall. "We were behind 12-10 when Hall went out with three fouls."

"We relaxed defensively when she went out. That's when Croll scored 12. But give the girls credit. They came back and got within six. We'll be a good team when we play the entire 32 minutes."

SALEM 39, CHURCHILL 22: The Rocks, who play Tuesday at Western in the semifinal round of the playoffs, got another solid defensive effort last week in beating the host Chargers.

Pam McBride and Dawn Johnson each scored 10 points for the winners, now 14-3 overall. Mary Beth West contributed eight, all in the final quarter.

Patti Schmidt led Churchill (6-11) with 10 points, while freshman Tracy Greenwald chipped in with seven.

"We were pretty solid defensively," said Salem coach Fred Thomann. "We did not give up any easy buckets. Our perimeter defense was good. And our block-out, rebounding situation was good."

Royals rally for puck triumph

The Redford Royals erased a 1-0 deficit with three goals each in the second and third periods to beat the Paddock Pool Saints, 6-3, in a Great Lakes Junior A hockey game played Thursday night before 150 fans at the Redford Arena.

Gary Andrews scored twice for the winners, now 5-2-4 in league play.

Other Royal goal scorers included Craig Stedman, Kevin Miller, Larry DePalma and Paul Rossi.

Craig Mooney, who made 30 saves, was the winning goaltender.

Earlier in the week, Redford and the St. Clair Shores Falcons battled to a 3-3 tie.

Expectations? What kind of expectations can a coach have, starting her first year in a program where the recruiting was completed by the former coach?

"I knew we had a good team," was what Linda Jimenez said after facing that situation as volleyball coach at Henry Ford Community College. "But this is a game of momentum and you just never know."

The Hawks momentum started slowly (they lost their first three), but once it got rolling Jimenez's good team turned great, rolling to an undefeated season in the Michigan Junior College Athletic Association's Eastern Division.

Henry Ford's strength came from five Westland residents, four of whom were regulars and the fifth a part-time starter. Jimenez, like three of her players, graduated from Westland John Glenn.

It was the former coach, Linda Telli-chkoff, a teacher at Wayne Memorial and a former John Glenn JV coach, who convinced the John Glenn and Wayne stars to attend Henry Ford.

BUT IT WAS JIMENEZ who coached them to an 18-8 record, including an 8-0 Eastern Conference mark. Her philosophy included preseason mental training that helped the girls "set goals, think positive and relax."

"We're not a big team," Jimenez said. "I think the key to our success came from our setters ability to run the offense. Each of our plays has three options and they knew what to do and to whom."

"That and everyone got along well together. We played very well together."

The setters that sparked the Hawks' attack were Sandy Cokrum, a 5-3 sophomore from John Glenn, and Tammy Lall, a 5-3 sophomore from Wayne Memorial. Cokrum topped the team in assists (set-ups for kill shots) with 263 and service aces with 52.

Lall collected 94 assists and "really improved" according to Jimenez in her ability to "know who to set to and knowledge of what to do. She's very enthusiastic, she peeps everybody up."

The players Cokrum and Lall set to were Glenn grads Dawn Boyd, a 5-10 sophomore center hitter who led the Braves with 183 kills and compiled a 23 percent kill average; and Terri Chappo, a 5-6 sophomore hitter who collected 146 kills and led the team with a 25 percent kill average.

JIMENEZ SAID BOYD'S ability to hit either to the right or left has made her an ideal center hitter, while Chappo is "probably the team's best defensive player and an effective, smart hitter."

Freshman Paula Cardin, a 5-8 hitter, rounds out the Westland contingent. Cardin was one of three freshmen to play extensively, accounting for 104 kills as an off-side hitter. But her kill percentage was only 10 percent, prompting Jimenez to say, "We have to work on her being more consistent."

With the regular season behind them, the Hawks are eyeing a possible regional title and a trip to the NJCAA national tournament Thanksgiving weekend in Baltimore.

Stop excusing your life away.

Everyone has an excuse for not seeing their doctor about colorectal cancer. However, every year 52,000 men and women die of colorectal cancer in this country alone. Two out of three of these people might be saved by early detection and treatment. Two out of three. So what is your excuse? Today you have a new, simple, practical way of providing your doctor with a stool specimen on which he can perform the guaiac test. This can detect signs of colorectal cancer in its early stages before symptoms appear. While two out three people can be saved. Ask your doctor about a guaiac test, and stop excusing your life away.

LEARN ABOUT AN INDUSTRY THAT'S ALREADY OUTPACING THE ECONOMY.

The service sector of the economy is booming. And at the Merrill Lynch seminar we'll discuss how it encompasses everything from telecommunications to tourism, hospital care to advertising. Services everyone uses in day to day living. You'll learn about the New Economy Fund, a mutual fund composed of growth-oriented companies' stocks and how you can benefit.

The services industry is, in fact, the fastest growing sector of the economy. We'll explain how you'll be able to invest in an area that is expected to account for over half the gross national product by 1995. You realize, of course, that the success of an industry doesn't guarantee the success of the individual companies in it.

Naturally when Merrill Lynch offers such valuable information, you can expect a heavy turnout. So please reserve your place now by calling the number or mailing the coupon below.
