Drug suspect shot, killed by cops

BRYAN MITCHELL

Michigan State Police expect to complete their investigation this week of Thursday's fatal shooting of a Westland man after a drug buy fell through.

The victim was Ronald John Melnyk, 33, who lived in the Wilderness Park Apartments, on Warren Road east of Newburgh. Melnyk was described by a police official as a "sizeable dealer for Novl."

Melnyk, who was unarmed, was shot by officers when he tried to drive away from a planned undercover drug buy before the buy was completed.

The incident took place in the crowded Northville Township Meijer Store parking lot on the southwest corner of Eight Mile and Haggerty. The store attracts shoppers from Plymouth Township, Farmington Hills and Livonia.

Melnyk was dead on arrival at Botsford General Hospital, Farmington Hills.

OFFICERS FROM the Northville post of the State Police are handling the investigation. Involved in the unsuccessful drug buy were officers from the Oakland County Narcotics Enforcement Team, with help from the Western Wayne County Drug Task Force.

The shooting started when Melnyk started to flee in his 1989 Chrysler, striking two officers in the parking

Major crimes up in city last year

By Darrell Clem
staff writer

Despite a major drop in murders, major crimes reported in Westland increased 15.4 percent last year, largely because of more robberies and larcenies that police blamed on a souring economy.

Westland had only one murder in 1990, compared to six during the previous year, marking an 83-percent decrease.

The sole murder occurred Feb. 24 when Westland resident Miracle Ewayne Crawford, later tried and convicted, strangled his live-in girlfriend, Shirley Ann Harris, with a piece of clothesline at the home they shared on the 2000 block of Steiber.

AMONG OTHER major crimes, rates increased for robberies, serious assaults and larcenies, while rates dropped for rapes, burglaries and car thefts.

Serious assaults involving such weapons as guns, knives and clubs showed a dramatic increase of nearly 40 percent, climbing from 221 cases to 309. Arson jumped 21.7 percent, from 46 cases to 56.

Larcenies rose nearly 26 percent as the number of reports increased from 2,500 to 3,144. Robberies

Court upholds fee for tax collection

The Michigan Supreme Court has upheld Westland's 1 percent property tax collection fees.

A one-sentence order last week affirmed a May 1990 decision by the Court of Appeals in favor of Westland and four other cities.

Losers were the owners of four local apartment complexes — Parkway Arms, Scottsdale, Palmer Park Terrace and Westland Colonial Village.

"We are not persuaded that the questions presented should be reviewed by this court," said the order, approved by Chief Justice Michael Cavanagh and Justices James Brick-

Top cop Sergeant helps recreate how he saved his partner

By Darrell Clem
staff writer

Westland Police Sgt. Tom Vaughan didn't believe it when he was told that CBS-TV wanted him to appear on its "Top Cops" show.

He had just been promoted to sergeant when his fellow officers told him the network had called the police station and asked for him while he was out.

"I thought it was a joke," Vaughan said.

Still stunned, Vaughan learned during a subsequent telephone call that CBS, sure enough, wanted to feature him in a segment recreating his heroic efforts to save another officer during a close-range shootout with a gunman.

The 12-minute segment, scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday on Channel 2, will be shown nationwide.

The offer to Vaughan, 34, came after "Top Cops" researchers read a police journal article about a 1980 incident in which Vaughan's quick actions saved officer Mike Terry's life.

Vaughan and Terry had been sent to investigate a family dispute in Westland's southwest section on that fateful Nov. 2 afternoon. They were paired for the first time because both of their partners had called in sick.

When they arrived at the Northampton residence, they heard a woman screaming for help from behind the door of a room where she was being held captive by her armed husband.

AS THE officers broke through the door, the man fired his .357 Magnum at them and then turned the gun on his wife, shooting her dead. In an ensuing, rapid exchange of fire, Vaughan killed the gunman who had aimed directly at Terry.

One of the gunman's bullets went through Terry's left hand, ricocheted off of his night stick and struck his bullet-proof vest.

THE CITY OF Westland 25th Anniversary Committee is planning a special reunion program for the anniversary day of Thursday, May 16.

Former mayors and council members have been invited to take part in sharing their political memories in the program at the Hellenic Cultural Center, on Joy east of Newburgh.

Tickets are $35 each and available from the city clerk's office in city hall, Westland Friendship Center, city council office in city hall and the cable-TV studio office. Tickets must be bought by May 3.

TWO TOP Westland city officials were honored by the YWCA of Western Wayne County at the group's annual awards program.

Mayor Robert Thomas and James Gilbert, the city's community development, housing and grants director, were presented a YWCA community service award for their ongoing support of the agency's Child and Family Neighborhood Program in Westland.

The program, housed in the city's Dorsey Community Center for nine years, provides parents and young children with special services, information programs and resources.

The Y also honored Dario Tomei of the Forum Health Spa in Westland for his support of the agency's ENCORE program, designed to provide exercise, water therapy and discussion sessions for post-mastectomy patients. Tomei provides his spa's facilities one day a week for the program's participants.

CHRISTINE SOVEL of Westland has been named a national finalist in the Model of the Year — USA 1991 contest.

Competition is scheduled for the week of July 24 with the finals to be Saturday, July 27, at the Macomb Center for the Performing Arts near Mt. Clemens.

Sovel, a 1988 graduate of John Glenn High School, will compete in the runway, swimsuit, spokesmodel and photogenic categories.

She is a junior at Eastern Michigan University, majoring in travel and tourism.

TWO WESTLAND students at Kalamazoo College are taking part in the school's foreign study program. In the program, students live with host families in France, Germany or Spain, spending from three to six months overseas while continuing their studies at a selected college or university.

In the program is Jeffrey Horne, a sophomore, a graduate of Franklin High School and the son of Christine Horne of Westland and Richard Horne of Plymouth, and sophomore Shobhan Grolesau, also a Franklin High graduate, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Grolesau of Westland.

Jeffrey is living in Spain while Shobhan is in France.

THE HEALTH Stop Medical Center will open its newest facility Friday afternoon, May 3. There will be an open house from 3-4 p.m. and a ribbon cutting ceremony at 4 p.m. The center is on the corner of Wayne Road and College, north of Cherry Hill.

TWO WESTLAND students have been named to the winter quarter dean's list at the University of Toledo for having a 3.5 or higher grade point average. The two are Jill Abernathy, a junior majoring in business, and Pauline Kieridge, a junior majoring in education.

Court OKs tax collection fee ley, Patricia Boyle, Dorothy Comstock Riley and Conrad Mallett Jr. Justices Charles Levin and Robert Griffin wanted to hear the appeal.

The fee is permitted by state law. Originally it was written for rural townships with part-time, not salaried, treasurers. In time, some of the state's largest cities also imposed it.

Michael Gorman, Westland's municipal finance director, said the fee was first levied in the early 1970s to offset the city's cost of printing, processing and collecting property taxes.

He said the fee, which brings in an $430,000 in revenues a year, covers the cost of handling the bills. The city doesn't make or lose money on the fee, Gorman said.

THE APPEALS court panel last May 29 ruled 2-1 in favor of the cities. Judge Martin Doctoroff wrote the opinion and was joined by Judge Kathleen Jansen.

The cities collected property taxes on behalf of themselves and school districts, imposing the one percent fee to offset their collecting, assessing, review and appeal procedures.

The apartment owners sought to stop the fee, contending it was really a tax and amounted to double taxation. They won a summary judgment in circuit court. The cities went to the Court of Appeals.

"In order for a fee to be deemed a tax," Doctoroff said, "it must not bear a reasonable relationship to the expense of the service.

"(A) regulatory fee would be construed as an illegal tax only where the revenue generated by the regulation exceeded the cost of the regulation."

"We find that the property tax administration fee is a fee, not a disguised tax... Since the revenue generated by the fee does not exceed the cost of collecting taxes, the fee is not used to generate income and will not be deemed a tax."

DISSENTING, Judge Gary McDonald said the fee was really a tax.

Examples of true regulatory licensing fees, McDonald said, are "hunting and fishing license fees, occupational fees and driver's license fees."

"Absent payment of the fees, citizens are normally precluded from the activities or privileges licensed."

"Fees imposed for city-provided refuse collection typifies (sic) a situation wherein a regulatory fee is exacted in return for the receipt of governmental service."

McDonald said the majority missed the point of the suit. It was not whether the revenue from the fee exceeded the cost of service, but whether the "fee" is in exchange for a specific service performed by the government.

McDonald said the property tax collection fee "is being exacted to create revenue to enable the government to perform one of its basic governmental functions, tax collection."

Glenn musicians perform in festival

John Glenn High School musicians, in what could be their last appearance at a state music festival, performed April 13 in the Michigan School Vocal Association State Solo and Ensemble Festival at Eastern Michigan University.

The students in February earned the right to participate in the festivals—after receiving high ratings during district-level competitions.

John Glepn, teacher and vocal music director Judith Premin said this year's festival had "great meaning" to her because it could be the last time Wayne-Westland students attend due to school district budget cuts. Barring a millage increase, the expressive arts program is expected to be eliminated next fall.

Student soloists attending included tenor Toby Shaver, baritone Rob Facione and alto soloists Melanie Thom and Jan Latimer.

THOM AND Latimer also performed with Keisha Dukes and Kwaun Dukes in a quartet. Sixteen students calling themselves the Glenn Singers also performed.

The soloists had to perform two selected pieces of classical repertoire and participate in a session where they performed selections they had never seen before, Premin said.

"These festival experiences help the talented students grow in musicianship, confidence and obtain further knowledge about their craft from outstanding professors and teachers from leading universities and music schools," she said. "I truly feel that all the students that have participated in this year's various festivals have benefited greatly."

In related announcements, Premin said the last concert of the school year planned by John Glenn's vocal music department is set for 7 p.m. May 15 in the school auditorium. Admission is $4 for adults and $1 for students and senior citizens.

lot. The two suffered minor injuries.

Melnyk was the target of a narcotics sting conducted by federal, state and Wayne and Oakland county law enforcement teams, state police Detective Richard Duthler said.

UNDERCOVER OFFICERS were trying to buy seven ounces of cocaine from Melnyk when he suddenly mixed the deal, Duthler said.

"The undercover officer and the suspect had discussions, (but) the deal was never finalized."

When Melnyk tried to flee, he struck a 1991 Chrysler car being used by undercover officers.

Two officers fired at least six shots from their 9mm pistols.

Melnyk appeared unconscious before he struck the car driven by an undercover officer, witnesses told police.

OFFICERS HAD previously bought drugs from Melnyk within the past two months, a state police inspector said.

Officers were planning a "buy-bust" from Melnyk Thursday night in a move to arrest him immediately after the drugs were paid for.

Melnyk was a "sizeable dealer for Novi," Lt. Dorothy McAleer of the Oakland NET unit said.

The arrangements between Melnyk and officers were that the planned drug buy was to be in Novi, she said.

Melnyk had an associate who was identified only as a Dearborn Heights party store owner, said investigator Joe Koenig of the state police criminal investigation division.

Warrants for Melnyk's arrest had been issued and were lacking a judge's signature, Koenig said. Melnyk likely was part of a larger narcotics distribution system, Koenig said.

(Information for this story was reported by Northville Record staff members Mike Tyree, Scott Daniel, Cristina Ferrier and Rick Byrne, and written by Leonard Poger of the Observer Newspapers.)

jumped 12.5 percent, from 72 incidents to 81.

Westland Police Inspector Michael Frayer said police weren't caught by surprise in the increase in larcenies and robberies, which tend to show higher rates during an economic downturn.

"We're not shocked by it," he said. "These things happen in tough economic times."

THE NUMBER of rapes dropped almost 11 percent as 43 cases were reported in 1990, compared to 48 during the previous year. Westland police have added more officers to investigate rapes, Frayer said. The local department also has succeeded at prosecuting offenders, he said.

In rape and other sex crimes, Westland ranks second behind Detroit, in warrants obtained to prosecute cases, he said. Still, many cases of rape go unreported, Frayer said.

Motor vehicle thefts declined by nearly 7 percent, dropping from 668 thefts to 622, while reports of burglaries remained virtually unchanged, dropping only 1 percent from 861 incidents to 850.

"We have a real strong anti-burglary program going on," Frayer said, explaining why burglaries dipped slightly while robberies and larcenies increased because of the economy.

To combat burglaries, Westland police have started tracking stolen property through local pawn shops, Frayer said.

"We've made more arrests. Anything we can do to make a dent in that makes us happy."

IN OTHER crimes, Westland showed some significant percentage increases in reports of non-aggravated assaults (28 percent), fraud (56 percent), narcotics violations (34 1/2 percent) and drunken driving (22 percent), among other areas.

A remarkable increase was reported for weapons possession, which rose 119 percent from 32 incidents to 70.

"It alarms me to think that more people are going around carrying weapons," Frayer said.

The latest crime statistics were submitted by Westland police to the FBI, which analyzes them and then issues a year-end crime analysis.

City cop to appear on TV show

Recalling his closest brush with death, Terry knows he would have been killed had Vaughan not been there. Terry still has a partially disabled hand and just underwent the last of four surgical operations in December. Bullet fragments remain lodged in his hand.

"He saved my life," Terry, a 39-year-old sergeant, said Friday as he and Vaughan discussed the incident during a conversation at the Westland police station. "We were literally a heartbeat away from being killed."

Vaughan received the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police's Medal of Honor in 1981.

AT CBS'S request, Vaughan and Terry went to Toronto two months ago to work on the segment scheduled to air Thursday. It was a bit eerie when they arrived on the set and saw police cars painted like those at the Westland department.

Vaughan appeared on the "Top Cops" program and described the shootout, while Terry served as a consultant to the CBS crew.

"I was like a kid in a candy store,"

Terry said, though he admitted "it was a little unnerving watching that traumatic experience being relived."

Vaughan said the show's special effects impressed him. "They were outstanding."

Vaughan and Terry have become quite the celebrities at the police department, and Terry accuses Vaughan of carrying around dozens of TV Guide magazines listing the "Top Cops" program.

Vaughan jokes that he and Terry will be portrayed by Tom Selleck and Mel Gibson in the CBS segment.

More seriously, though, Vaughan doesn't appear awestruck by his sudden fame.

"I just did what anybody else would have done," he said.

Cyclists find riding rough on I-275 path

By Diane Galo
staff writer

The I-275 bike path has a roller coaster reputation.

Every spring motorists comfortably watch the annual ritual of cyclists and joggers revisiting the 40 miles of winding cement and asphalt through Wayne, Oakland and Monroe counties.

But even ambitious athletes won't be able to make the entire trip. Baricades stop travelers from passing into areas that are falling apart, especially in Monroe County.

HOWEVER MOST of the state's longest recreational facility is open. It can be taxing with tough stretches of uphill pedaling and fast downhill rides. One minute the path takes you a few bike lengths from speeding expressway traffic, and the next through a secluded enclave of trees seemingly far away from noise and exhaust fumes.

The path connects parks, rest areas, picnic spots, shopping areas, camping areas and Hines Drive Park.

Every community has different stories attached to the path.

It's hard to say exactly how popular the path is. The latest count was taken seven years ago, said Terry Eldred, Michigan Department of Transportation planner.

Several hundred people a day rode the path at that time, said Eldred adding that he couldn't be more specific. The numbers vary depending on the weather, time and day of the week.

BUT GETTING ON THE PATH is often times an uphill battle.

At some points entrances are hidden and far away from the road. Also, safety is a concern at intersections where the path crosses busy roads, like Michigan Avenue, Ford Road or Ann Arbor Road.

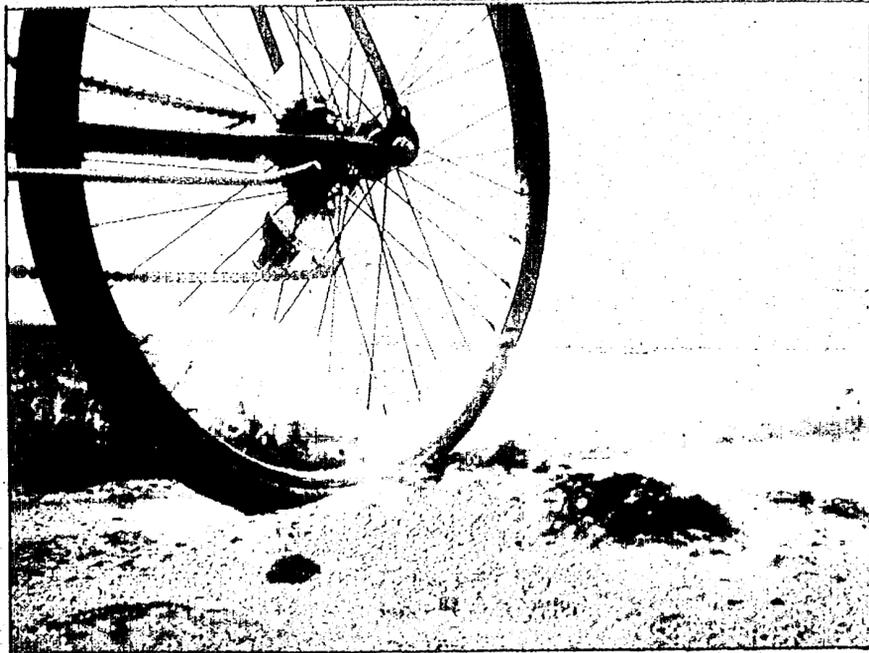

The state transportation department had high expectations when the path was built from 1975 through 1978. It was considered an innovative idea, Eldred said.

"It was envisioned as the backbone for communities along I-275 so they can tie into it," Eldred said. "It's close to major population centers and connects with a lot of communities that allows people to go from one area to another. As the area develops it will become more and more significant."

More than a decade later it remains the longest recreational facility in Michigan, Eldred said.

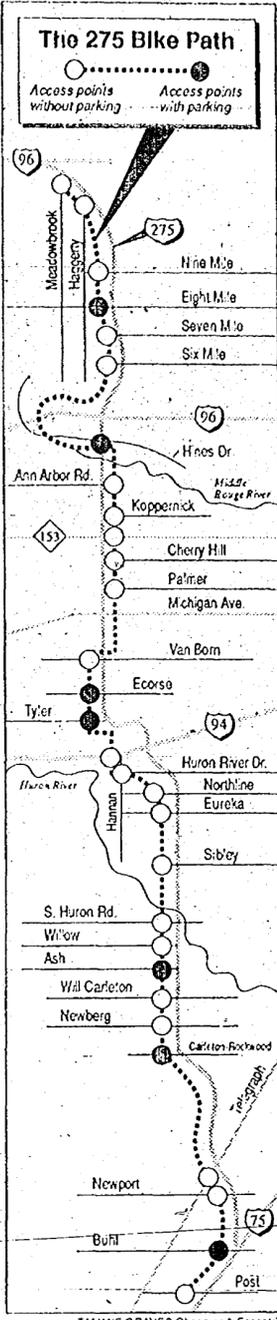

Maintaining it hasn't been easy.

IN CANTON the stretch between

The asphalt and cement bike path along the I-275 expressway is showing its age. The longest recreational facility in the state was built in the mid-70s.

The I-275 bike path between Michigan Avenue and Van Born Road is a few arm lengths from the expressway traffic.

Michigan Avenue and Van Born Road has been closed since last year.

The retaining wall on the path overlooking the railroad tracks gave way and the cement heaved onto an angle.

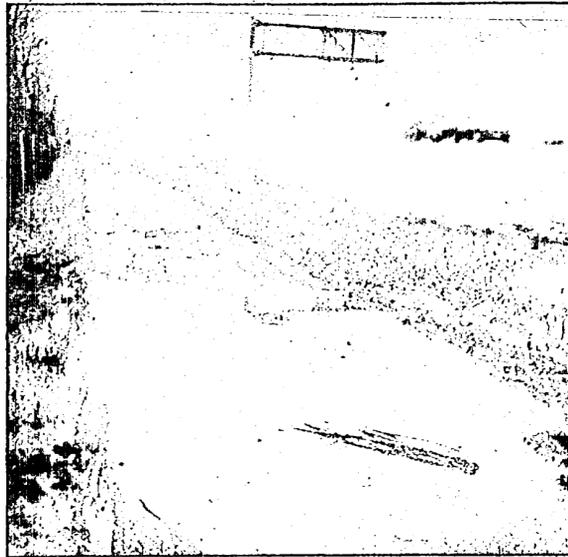

"We had to close it down, because we didn't think it was safe," Eldred said.

A repair plan is underway and it could be fixed as early as this year.

The entire path in Monroe County is closed.

The path is difficult to maintain, "because of the lack of funding," said Ernie Sovas, MDOT district operations engineer.

And in Canton, you can't mention the bike path without hearing about the summer of 1984. Seven women reported they were sexually assaulted near the path. A Canton man confessed to the assaults.

Low spots in the path gather puddles.

State Rep. Keith defends residence outside district

By Leonard Pogor
editor

State Rep. William Keith insists that he is a legal resident of Garden City, protesting claims that he is a "carpet bagger" because he owns a second home in suburban Lansing.

Keith, whose district includes Garden City, Inkster and southeast Westland, also insisted that he will not resign from the position he has held for 18 years.

The legislator came under public criticism recently in the wake of public reports that he spends most of his time in a home in Haslett, near Lansing, instead of the one at 1160 Lathers in Garden City.

Keith, 61, stressed in an interview April 15 that he meets all of the legal requirements — and more — of a state legislator.

His driver's license, voter registration, Social Security, international driver's license and passport address are listed in Garden City, he said.

"My primary residence is the Garden City home and is reflected on my legal identifications," he said.

While there is no typical weekend for him, he reported that in 1990, he had 21 open weekends which didn't have job-related connections. Of those 21, they were about evenly divided between his Garden City and Haslett homes.

CITING THE evidence of his living part of his time in Garden City, Keith said the Lathers home has his clothes and toiletries, as well as those of his wife, Phyllis.

Keith said he bought the Haslett home, which has four bedrooms and one den, in October, 1979, a time when he had two of his children attending nearby Michigan State University and a third, a high school senior, who was planning to attend MSU.

'My primary residence is the Garden City home and is reflected on my legal identifications.'

—State Rep. William Keith

At the same time, Keith married Phyllis Keith, who then worked full time for the Michigan Dental Association.

"I bought the (larger) Haslett home then because of my family's needs," Keith said.

WHEN FIRST elected to the House in late 1972, Keith said he commuted daily to and from Lansing. But growing legislative responsibilities forced him to later spend more time in Lansing.

He is now the chairman of two House committees and serves on state and national education organizations.

Since the "bottom line is effectiveness," Keith said that "I have worked very hard to become an effective advocate for the 33rd District. My voting record consistently reflects the concerns of the middle-income working families in my district," referring to quality of life and school equity issues.

He said the more seniority he accumulated in the House, the more power and effectiveness he was able to build.

IN CITING the legal aspects of the residency issue, Keith cited a state attorney general's opinion which concluded:

"A state legislator's legal residence is unaffected in the absence of an intention to change it and this section (of a state law) specifically provides for the continuation of the legal residence of a state official."

Keith also cited an 1876 court ruling which said:

"The temporary absence of a person or his family, though extending over a series of years, does not necessarily without regard to his intentions, make him lose his residence or deprive him of his rights as an elector."

The legislator said the residency issue isn't new — saying it was raised during a 1980 primary campaign.

"Since then, I've been elected repeatedly by wide margins," he said.

Keith also pointed out the effectiveness of his work in the state House: chairman of the education committee and recently notified that he will be inducted in the Michigan Education Hall of Fame.

He said he will maintain his full-voting responsibilities but admitted he will be in his Lansing office on a limited basis because of two major prostate cancer operations this year, but "by September, I'll be 100 percent."

Problem solving teams compete

Livonia school district student teams were invited to participate in the 12th annual Michigan Future Problem Solving Program State Bowl.

The team included students from Churchill and Livonia Stevenson high schools and Frost Middle School.

The students were Amanda Barrett from Frost, Becky Snedley from Churchill, Lizle Kostelney and Nirav Shah from Stevenson.

THE STUDENTS were scheduled to compete with 120 teams, the top 20 percent of teams from throughout Michigan, at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor April 20-21.

The state bowl is the culmination of a yearlong program in which students are taught to creatively seek, attack and solve problems related to projections into the future.

More than 14,000 Michigan students during the 1990-91 school year worked on problems dealing with high school dropouts, ozone depletion and transportation. Their efforts were critiqued by trained evaluators.

The competition is divided by grades: 4-6, 7-9, 10-12.

WHILE THE teams knew the general topic (censorship) of this year's State Bowl, they did not know the specific nature of the problem they were to solve until the bowl began.

Solutions were evaluated on criteria and the top four teams from each division earned trophies. State champions also will be invited to the 1991 International Conference June 7-10 at Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.

In the past 10 years, Michigan participants have won 17 championships at the international conference.

Don't feel guilty over environment

LAST YEAR PRESIDENT George Bush celebrated Earth Day by going fishing. And because of that he took heat from so-called environmentalists.

This Earth Day I hope Bush goes fishing again. It's the best way I can think of to celebrate the preservation of our natural resources. And if trout season opened earlier than Saturday, I'd be out there too, floating in a royal coachman on the Pigeon River in quest of brook trout.

Fishing on Earth Day is much better than agonizing over which kind of chemicals I'm putting on the lawn or feeling guilty because I don't have a brick in my toilet to save water. Trout can only live in the purest of water and to me are a symbol of what's good about our environment.

HOWEVER, THE environmental groups who were critical of Bush would much rather have us feel guilty about the environment than to celebrate. I think it's partly because such groups as the Sierra Club and Greenpeace have themselves become bureaucrats whose salaries depend on a constant environmental crisis.

Such groups raise millions to lobby. And to me they should be viewed with as much suspicion as a lobbyist from Dow Chemical or Exxon.

These paid environmental terrorists are the folks who get quoted in newspapers. They're the ones asked to react to Bush's fishing on Earth Day. And when they were asked, they made it sound akin to Nero fiddling while Rome burned.

Jeff Counts

Environmental groups have become the snake oil salesmen of the 20th century, selling cure-all medicine to a willing public that wants to be rid of pollution.

We all want to be rid of pollution. But contributing money to environmental groups isn't the best way. Such groups have become the Chicken Littles of the 20th century with their chorus of the sky is falling because of global warming.

And that mentality is reflected in local events. An empty gas station sits at the corner of Main Street and Ann Arbor Trail in Plymouth as a monument to the hysteria of the environmental movement.

PART OF the reason the station is unused is that agencies like the state Department of Natural Resources and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency won't establish tolerance levels for fuel oil in the ground. They won't say what clean is.

From a scientific point of view, I can understand. No amount of pollution should be acceptable. However, we live in a practical world where we need to set priorities for environmental cleanup.

It's pretty hard to convince an oil company to pay for a clean up when the cost is open ended.

One politician once told me that 10 percent of the money set aside for environmental cleanup would take care of 90 percent of the problem. But because the DNR and EPA won't set tolerance levels, the money is mispent.

We're pouring money down rat holes to clean the ground to the state it was in before white men came to America. It's crazy.

We all want a clean environment and in most cases I think people are willing to foot the bill. But like any other household expense, people want to make sure they're spending money sensibly.

WHEN IT comes to the environment, we've lost sense. Part of the reason is that groups like Greenpeace and the Sierra Club have been taken over by fanatics whose main intent isn't to see the earth cleaned up, but is to destroy our economic system.

For me, they've lost all credibility. But that doesn't mean I trust Dow Chemical or Exxon to tell me the truth, either.

I don't trust either side of an environmental issue. Dow Chemical will tell you that dioxin is a perfectly healthy thing to have around, while the Greenpeace folks will run around screaming like stuck pigs that we're doomed for eternity.

The result is I have to rely on my own internal B.S. detector system. It's not real scientific, but it's the best system I've got going.

But I don't think I'm alone. A recent Associated Press story on Earth Day said: "The enthusiasm for environmental issues wasn't reflected at the ballot box, where most state environmental ballot initiatives were defeated in November."

The story said environmentalists blamed the Gulf War and lobbying by industry for those defeats.

HOWEVER, THE same story said 69 percent of adults polled by the Marist Institute for Public Opinion said they would pay higher taxes for an improved environment.

The environmentalists were dead wrong in blaming the war and lobbying for the ostensible contradiction between the vote on environmental ballot proposals and the poll. The environmentalists should have looked at their own houses.

If environmentalists ever want to see any of their goals attained, they're going to have to learn to tap into the mainstream, which is willing to pay for cleanups and to even change the way they handle their trash. However, these mainstream folks won't buy into ballot initiatives like California's Big Green that would have basically taken California back to the 19th century.

Bush knows that and maybe that's the reason he chose to go fishing last Earth Day.

I hope he makes that choice again. I know I am.

Course change will affect jobs for teachers

Question: I read that university presidents in Michigan are going to increase the number of certain course requirements for admission. What are the new requirements, and what impact will this have on high school curriculum and high school students?

Answer: University presidents are requiring a high school liberal arts curriculum similar to what is found in the liberal arts colleges in the state such as Albion and Hillsdale.

Under this model, high school students planning to attend a university are locked into a four-year curriculum with little or no choice for elective courses.

High school students will be required to take four years of English (presently it is three years in most districts), two years of science (three preferred), three years of foreign language, three years of social studies, two years of art/music and one year of computer education.

Therefore, high school students planning to attend a Michigan university are now locked into 18 or 19 required credit courses out of a total of usually 22 credits (or courses) required for graduation. If physical education and a health class is required for graduation, the student may not be able to take ancillary enrichment courses such as a business course.

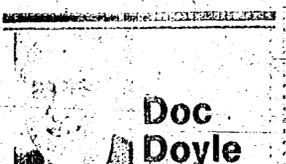

Many high school students who plan to be engineers take courses in the vocational education department, i.e. electronics, for their practical application. This type of choice could be out the window.

ON THE OTHER hand, if one takes the position that America's students should take at least three years of a foreign language, this is a more scholarly plan.

Certainly one can't argue with a required computer education class. Indeed, students should be into computers no later than kindergarten.

It is also difficult to argue with a required four years of English, three years of social studies, two or three years of science and enrichment in art and music.

The concept of a comprehensive high school curriculum with vocational education opportunities for both college bound and non-college bound students is history. The college bound student also has no flexibility in this four-year model for practical and enrichment classes. This plan will separate the college bound and non-college bound students in a high school even more than it presently does.

JAPAN BASICALLY uses this same model. Tests are given to determine which students go into the university bound curriculum and which students go into the vocational, job-oriented curriculum.

Another impact would be felt in districts that are losing students or not experiencing any increased enrollment. There will be more job security for foreign language teachers and English teachers. There could be less job security for vocational and industrial arts teachers, depending somewhat on the make-up of the student body.

Why did the universities go this route? Major universities in Michigan have an over abundance of applications each year.

THE PLAN will assist university admission offices in the preliminary screening of applicants. Grade point averages will be calculated on basically the same sequences of required university bound courses in every school district in the state. Presently, admission offices re-calculate grade point averages and drop those courses that don't fit their entrance requirements.

And for those people who have graduated from high school and who sat out a few years, it will have a major impact.

They will have to go back to their local community college and take up to three years of foreign language, additional English courses and all the other new entrance requirements.

So depending on one's philosophy, the new university entrance requirement is on target or is an inhibiting factor. If one believes the high schools should offer a comprehensive assortment of experiences, it is bad.

Write if you care about all children

To the editor:
Steve Barnaby's column of April 4 on the damage done to children by the state's budget cuts realistically laid out the results of the current Department of Social Services budget dilemma.

I only wish that people could look into the eyes and faces of children who have come from situations of abuse and neglect in order to have a more vivid sense of the message given in Barnaby's article.

At St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center, we have made a commitment to continue the high quality of care that we have provided for needy children and young mothers for over 60 years in Farmington Hills, a total of 140 years in the Detroit metro area. We face a huge deficit this year as we experience the 24.3 percent cuts ordered by the government.

Our hope is that those in the Legislature will read the many letters being mailed by our constituency stating the serious effect that these financial cuts have on the defenseless and vulnerable population of our state.

There are thousands of Michigan children who cannot live at home due to abuse, neglect, or parents who, for whatever reason, are not able to function as parents at this time.

Funds received through our state contract are combined with charitable dollars to provide a safe temporary home here at the center.

We urge your readers who care about what happens to all children, to write to their governor and legislators, asking them to make these children a priority.

Voters to decide to assessment cap

By Tim Richard
staff writer

Neighbors with identical houses may find themselves paying vastly different property tax bills in a few years if voters approve a 1992 ballot proposal to cap assessments.

"People will lose the incentive to trade up," said state Sen. Fred Dillingham, R-Fowlerville, one of the handful of legislators to raise a voice against last week's bipartisan compromise.

"It will have a horrible effect on building. Builders and Realtors ought to be going out of sight."

"It will pit low property tax payers against high property tax payers," Dillingham said. He predicted that longtime residents whose assessments had been capped might not mind voting for new local millage requests, but newcomers paying higher assessments would resist.

THE SENATE gave 31 to 3 approval to Senate Bill 19 and 30 to 5 approval to placing House Joint Resolution H on the 1992 ballot. (See related story.)

Dillingham was one of the no votes. All other area senators voted yes except William Faust, D-Westland, who was absent.

The House approved the measures by 101 to 4 and 104 to 2 votes respectively. All area members voted yes.

Taxpayers United, the group backing the Headlee II proposal to cut all property taxes 20 percent, objected that the plan would freeze assessments at high 1991 levels when, in fact, housing prices are declining because of the recession. "A freeze would be unconstitutional," said Bill McMaster, publicist for the anti-tax group.

HERE IS HOW neighbors with identical houses could wind up paying vastly different tax bills under the proposed constitutional amendments:

Take two $200,000 houses assessed this year at $100,000. Assume their assessments are capped at 5 percent over a 10-year period (the rate of CPI inflation during much of the '80s). Assume the real estate market inflates at the rate of 10 percent a year. At the end of 10 years, their assessments will be $155,133 (at 5 percent compounded).

At this point, Family A stays in its home, but Family B sells. House B is reassessed to the market rate (10 percent compounded) and is now valued at $235,795 — more than $80,000 higher than House A.

Dillingham said families will be discouraged from moving because of the hard hit they will take on property taxes as new owners.

Empty nesters whose children have grown would be discouraged from selling the four-bedroom colonial and moving into a one-bedroom retirement home because there would be little property tax benefit.

One result, Dillingham said, might be that families would sign lifetime leases on houses or concoct other devices to avoid an outright purchase with the resulting leap in assessments.

THE COMPROMISE was negotiated by House and Senate leaders of both parties and Gov. John Engler after weeks of fruitless battling over rival plans for a property tax cut.

A week earlier, the Senate passed a bill to freeze property taxes for two years, beginning in 1991.

But cities and school districts raised a firestorm of protests because they could have lost $233 million in property tax revenue, with no state reimbursement and no way to cut their budgets (this late in the planning process).

The new plan emerged in two days of closed door negotiations as representatives milled around or passed routine resolutions of tribute.

AS PASSED, Senate Bill 19 may cost local units some revenue next year, said Rep. Lyn Bankes, R-Livonia.

In-formula school districts (those receiving state aid) would lose $97 million; out-of-formula, $163 million.

Counties would lose $50 million; cities and villages, $67 million; townships, $11 million; and community colleges, $8 million, for a total loss of nearly $400 million, according to an Senate Fiscal Agency analysis supplied by Sen. Robert Geake, R-Northville. Total statewide property tax collections are $7 billion-plus.

Bankes said there still is a chance in-formula schools might be reimbursed. Engler's budget has money for his proposed property tax cut, which has no chance of passage in the Democratic-controlled House.

Engler got two-thirds of what he sought — a freeze and a limit on future growth, Bankes said. "The provisions are somewhat altered from Engler's. He had proposed a freeze every other year in assessments until a limitation was adopted."

Local units still could see new revenue in 1992 from new construction, estimated at $243 million, according to the Senat Fiscal Agency.

THERE STILL is no legislative agreement on a property tax cut.

Engler and Republicans want a 20 percent cut in school operating taxes for everyone and would pay for it by reducing state spending.

Democrats want to exempt property taxes on the first $15,000 of home assessments to benefit low-income families and pay for it by raising business taxes.

Property tax 'freeze' plan outlined

Here are major terms of the property tax "freeze" plan as passed April 18 by the Michigan Legislature, based on a Senate Fiscal Agency analysis:

- No change during 1991.
- 1992 real estate assessments would be frozen at '91 levels. (Personal property procedures are unchanged.)

The state would reimburse in-formula school districts for lost revenues. But cities, villages, townships, counties, out-of-formula school districts and community colleges would not.

The Headlee rollback amendment already in the constitution would be changed. Instead of rates in a community being rolled back as a whole, the rollback would be by two classes of property: (1) residential-agricultural and (2) everything else — commercial, industrial, etc. Result: different millage rates within a community. (House Joint Resolution H) asked to approve a constitutional amendment capping assessment increases. Homestead increases would be the consumer price inflation rate or 5 percent, whichever is less, beginning in '93.

ASEPTIC NECROSIS OF THE HIP

With the recent attention to the hip injury of Bo Jackson, many of you asked: "What arthritis does he have and can it happen to me?"

It appears that Bo Jackson has "aseptic necrosis" of the femoral head. Like other medical terms, the sound is imposing, but each word taken separately makes sense. Aseptic means the condition is not caused by infection. Necrosis indicates that the bone involved is completely disintegrated; therefore the body cannot replace the loss. The cause is a blockage of the artery to the head of the femur where the bone forms a ball into the socket of the pelvis.

In Bo Jackson's case, he likely took a blow to his hip that resulted in stretching and kinking of the artery with subsequent obstruction. Other reasons besides injury, for the artery to close off include high doses of steroids, swelling within the artery in diseases such as rheumatoid arthritis or systemic lupus erythematosus, and blood clots in the circulation which by chance lodge in the artery going to the head of the hip.

Even for athletes, aseptic necrosis is a rare event. For those of us not in contact sports the hazard is even less. Yet, as Bo Jackson's experience illustrates, the condition can occur to anyone.

High court ponders law license case

By Tim Richard
staff writer

The Michigan Supreme Court, for the next few months, will ponder whether to readmit Irving A. August, 60, into the brotherhood of attorneys.

"His misconduct undermined the conduct of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court," said Murray J. Muscat of Birmingham, associate counsel for the Attorney Grievance Commission. AGC opposes readmitting August.

"The issue is not permanent disbarment but whether the perception of the public is important to the administration of justice in this state," Muscat said.

"He has demonstrated, by fact and law, that he is fit to re-enter," countered E. Phillip Colista, August's attorney. Colista blamed the AGC decision against his client on "amorphous notions of visceral reactions."

AUGUST, FORMER owner of Orchard Mall in West Bloomfield, had his law license revoked in 1983 when he was convicted in federal court on three counts: (1) conspiracy to manipulate the "blinddraw" system for picking bankruptcy judges, (2) obstruction of justice and (3) corruptly endeavoring to influence a

'His misconduct undermined the conduct of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court.'

— Murray J. Muscat, associate counsel for grievance commission court employee. Alleged purpose was to get his cases assigned to judges who would grant higher attorney's fees.

Sentenced to three concurrent terms of two years, the Oakland County attorney served 10 months in prison and was fined $20,000. He was disbarred.

The employee, Kathleen Bogoff, also served a brief term. August and Bogoff have since married and have a son, court records show.

Since his release, August has worked as a financial advisor for Burt Burseloff, owner of Household Specialties, a manufacturer of clocks and mirrors, and as a paralegal for Dr. Ira Snider. August has issued disclaimers that he is not an attorney.

In 1988 August applied for reinstatement of his law license. A hearing panel in Wayne County voted 2-1 against him. On review, the Attorney Discipline Board voted 4-1 in his favor.

Muscat, on behalf of the Attorney Grievance Commission, appealed the review decision to the state's highest court, arguing that it shouldn't reinstate August.

"The court has issued a stay of his license," Muscat said after the hearing. The AGC filed its appeal Jan. 10, 1990. The Supreme Court agreed to hear it in December.

There's no guessing how long it will take the court to decide, but Muscat said, "We're hopeful it will be between now and October."

CENTRAL ISSUE, In Chief Justice Michael Cavanagh's mind, is, "What significance should the underlying offense have?" Colista blamed the "amorphous" gut reactions of two members of the hearing panel for wanting to deny August a reinstatement. They are saying "the severity of the offense" is more important than the fact August has been rehabilitated, Colista said.

"You have rehabilitation. You have a lawyer who has done well," said Colista, noting August had waited the full five years before asking reinstatement.

"What is being asked is that you go beyond the rules" in denying reinstatement, he told the court.

MUSCAT, ASKED by Cavanagh if the AGC would ever agree to reinstate August, said he would continue to oppose it.

"The court rules have never said a suspended attorney will get his license back," Muscat said. "He does not have a right to reinstatement. It's a privilege."

Muscat went on, "The effect may be a permanent disbarment. Perhaps he never will (be reinstated)." Muscat said reinstatement would amount to saying August is "qualified and fit to be recommended to the public as fit to be trusted."

The State Bar Association filed an amicus (friend) brief on behalf of the AGC's appeal.

Hospice needs volunteers

Volunteers are needed at Hospice of Southeastern Michigan to help provide compassionate care to the dying in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties:

- Patient assistant volunteers help patients and their families by running errands, lending support and being a friend. Patient assistant volunteers go through a 30-hour training course offered at least eight times a year.

- Clinical hospice volunteers perform patient care tasks such as giving baths, transferring patients and changing linen. They must complete the patient assistance volunteer course and have additional training in clinical skills. Volunteers with nursing skills are particularly needed.

- Bereavement volunteers make followup telephone calls to bereaved families over the course of 13 months. They must complete the patient assistant volunteer course and have additional training in grief counseling.

- Office volunteers provide clerical support. Volunteers with computer operation or medical transcription skills are in great demand.

- Speakers Bureau volunteers tell the hospice story to groups in the community.

Anyone over the age of 16 is welcome to volunteer. Many assignments are for evening and weekend work, so students and people who work during the day shouldn't hesitate to volunteer.

Volunteers are asked to work at least two to four hours a week and to commit to working for a year.

For more information on hospice volunteer opportunities, call Hospice of Southeastern Michigan at 559-9209.

In spring work hard, cook easy

What magical potion does spring produce? In the last three weeks, I painted the bedroom, cleaned the basement, planned a major kitchen remodeling job and cleaned the oven. I'm not pregnant. I'm not even expecting company. It never ceases to amaze me what I can accomplish during the annual Janes Gang spring housecleaning forage.

Then again, sometimes it frightens me when I move the stove only to find food-encrusted pennies, wooden spoons that grew fur and about 3/4 pound of raw spaghetti. I'm not that messy.

I could get so much more accomplished if I didn't have to cook. It's harder than you think trying to dig the Lean Cuisines out of the bottom of the cooler while you're trying to defrost the freezer.

But never fear. Here's the Janes Gang cooking survival guide for spring housecleaning 1991.

First off, never underestimate what you can do with a box of Kraft Macaroni and Cheese. I think of it as "Hot Dog Helper." I'm way too busy to cook hamburger, so by cooking up a box of macaroni, tossing in a few handfuls of nuked hot dogs and then stirring in real grated cheese and about 3/4 cup of barbecue sauce, I can call it, "Cassoulet Chold Chien."

FOR ADDED nutritional value, I stir in some frost-encrusted shriveled broccoli from a partially opened bag left too long in the freezer. If you happen to be on one of those nutritional kicks and are adverse to eating hot dogs, you can substitute chicken nuggets, smoked sausage, ham or yesterday's meatloaf. True gourmands add some sliced shitake mushrooms and a splash of decent chardonnay for added flavor and aroma.

Another favorite that the family goes bonkers over is my famous Chicken Tarragon. People ask me all the time where I get the time and energy to create the great recipes you see here. I don't have time. What little time I do have, I clean and cook.

The Chicken Tarragon recipe was stolen from "Joy of Cooking." That recipe used butter. I use margarine or whatever I have a coupon for. That recipe used fresh tarragon. I used dried, and ditto for the bottled lemon juice over fresh. The results, however, are strikingly similar. I serve this right from the non-slick skillet sitting next to Success boil-in-bag rice and some frost-encrusted green beans that were hidden next to the above-mentioned broccoli.

There is absolutely no time for glitzy kitchen gadgets while spring housecleaning. Forget the Cuisinart, the KitchenAid mixer, the pressure cooker and, unfortunately, the cappuccino maker. Instead, dust off the crockpot, electric wok and waffle. Yesterday, the crockpot was home for three packages of frozen mixed vegetables, four bouillon cubes and four cups of water. For heartier one-dish creations, beans, rice and/or cubed potatoes can be added. By this time, the cheap chardonnay is gone as a thirst quencher, and you find yourself relegated to using a few splashes of dry vermouth instead.

Lastly, never forget the difference between a good cook and a great cook is his or her chili recipe. Chili is a wonderful kitchen-cleaner-outer. If all else fails and you are planning some housecleaning the first weekend in May, you can check out the Great American Chili Cook-off out at the Saline Fairgrounds, benefiting the National Kidney Foundation. Bring the family for dinner.

The average wedding will require about 20 torte "cakes." Our largest wedding took 30.

Wedding cake is dreamy . . .

By Joan Boram special writer

IMAGINE A WEDDING CAKE so exquisite that the caterer, the reception hall and the florist schedule their activities around it; a wedding cake so matchless that the bride and groom arrange their reception to accommodate it; a wedding cake so scrumptious that, on Monday morning, wedding guests are at the door of the bakery, waiting to order one for themselves. (And they're not even getting married!)

You've just imagined the white Alaskan mousse torte created at Monchelle Lamoure, an elegant French bakery, along with a restaurant in the atrium of a bank building at the corner of Long Lake Road and Woodward Avenue in Bloomfield Hills. The bakery and restaurant is owned and operated by Mike and Kathy Hagarty. Their 19-year-old son, Eric, is the pastry chef.

"We supply at least 500 white Alaskan mousse tortes a year as wedding 'cakes,'" says the affable Mike Hagarty, "and I don't know how many raspberry tortes. So far this year, it's running 60/40 in favor of white."

"The Alaskan tortes are flavored with white chocolate from Switzerland. It's a Swiss recipe, very light, perfect after a heavy meal."

THE CAKES THEMSELVES look like embroidered clouds. Edges of the three layers are embellished with white flowers and florets, and the smaller top layer is adorned with real fresh flowers.

"The average wedding will require about 20 torte 'cakes,'" says Hagarty. "Our largest wedding took 30."

He makes it sound so simple. But a torte is a fragile concoction. You don't just take it out of the refrigerator, deliver it, and drive away, or at least you don't if you are Kathy and Mike Hagarty.

"We begin by making sure the bridal couple understand that tortes need pampering," says Kathy. "If they want their picture taken cutting the cake, we have to coordinate delivery with the ceremony, and with the photographer. The cake has to be kept cool. We have ice in our car (or cars: for a large wedding, it amounts to a convoy), and we whisk them to the refrigerator the moment we get there. Then, at the right time, we put them on the tables."

The Hagartys also make sure the hall is cool and that the florist provides the right flowers to show off the cake.

FOR RUN-OF-THE-MILL special occasions, there's a seductive selection of tortes available from Monchelle Lamoure on 24-hour notice: Lemon Hazelnut, Black Forest, Italian Rum, Raspberry Chocolate, and Cappuccino.

"The Linzer torte is extra special," says Mike Hagarty. "The base is hazelnut genols (cake), and it's made with fresh raspberries. Often, it has a lattice top. To assure that you get the full raspberry flavor, we cook it 90 percent, and give instructions for cooking the other 10 percent at home."

"All of these tortes are made with a minimum amount of sugar. At least one is on the restaurant menu every day."

But man does not live by torte alone. Breakfast is served at Monchelle Lamoure starting at 7:30 a.m. The Hagartys provide traditional French chocolate croissants, "Danish," and several varieties of muffins, including blueberry for the die-hard American palate.

"There's a regular crowd from the neighborhood that shows up on Thursday mornings for the carrot-zucchini muffins," says Kathy, "and people from the offices in the building come down just to smell the Macinac Island Fudge de-caf coffee."

CURRENT SCONES are everyone's favorite. Mike calls them "Portsmouth scones," because Portsmouth (England) is where he got the recipe.

Lunches at Monchelle Lamoure are simple, delicious and reasonably priced. Desserts are placed first in the cafeteria-style line, followed by entrees, which might include a low-cal Waldorf salad, a complete lunch based on a stuffed chicken breast and, of course, sandwiches.

English teas are a specialty of the house. The Hagartys cater them for groups as large as 100. The menu includes delicate finger sandwiches: egg and chive, cucumber and cream cheese, minced crab meat, and pineapple cream cheese. There are Portsmouth scones, fruit and cream, finger cookies, a selection of traditional English teas, and the richest truffles imaginable.

Monchelle Lamoure is in the atrium of the Bloomfield Center, 1533 N. Woodward, Bloomfield Hills. Hours are 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday-Friday. 647-4140.

Pavilion Cafe serves up light meals next door to hospital

By Arlene Funke special writer

Pastrami sandwiches truck out at the Pavilion Cafe in Livonia.

But an interesting array of salads and flavor-of-the-day frozen yogurts have been hits. After eight months in operation, the restaurant is still developing new ideas to tempt its customers.

The Pavilion Cafe is in the Marian Professional Building, adjacent to St. Mary Hospital on Levan near Five Mile Road. The restaurant is open to the public as well as employees of the hospital and professional building.

While customers turned up their noses at pastrami, they took to the Thursday salad specials in a big way.

"WE PREPARE four different salads," said chief cook Wayne Stolt of Garden City. "We try to incorporate a new salad every time." Choices might include a hefty Maurice salad, with meats and cheese, or a fresh pasta with baby shrimp, mack crab, grated mozzarella cheese and vinaigrette dressing.

"I like the Greek salad with extra feta cheese," said Julie Sproul, director of community relations at St. Mary. Sproul, a Redford native now living in Livonia, is one of many hospital employees who regularly patronize the cafe.

Other regulars are Pat Durham and Marianne Kruse, both of Redford, and Valerie Chapman of Farmington Hills. All three work in the data processing department at St. Mary.

Kruse, enjoying a lunch of baked cod, rice pilaf and mixed vegetables with cheese sauce, praised the fast service and prices. Chapman likes the quiche.

The restaurant, which seats 100, is open from 7 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., weekdays. The cafe, operated by Cantaluce Corp., a subsidiary of St. Mary Hospital, opened last August. The casual, contemporary cafe has replaced a small hospital coffee shop.

"WE REVAMPED the menu," said Pavilion Cafe manager Mike Blazewski of Redford. Blazewski has 15 years' service in food service. He managed the St. Mary coffee shop and previously worked at Crittenton Hospital in Rochester and Garden City Hospital.

A full breakfast is available all day, Blazewski said. Weekly breakfast specials may include omelets and croissants. Fresh muffins and other standard breakfast fare are served. Lunch includes several freshly made sandwich choices, soups, a quiche (typically chicken and spinach, or crabmeat and vegetables), salads and a hot entree.

Signature sandwiches include a club sandwich on a natural-grain bun with dressing, and the Wildetrack, which combines turkey breast, corned beef, cole slaw, Swiss cheese, tomato and lettuce, on pumpernickel with Russian dressing. Full or half-portion are available. The St. Mary Healthy Heart is a marinated chicken breast, spinach leaves and low-cal dressing on a natural-grain bun.

Customers get into line and place orders. Anything that requires preparation, such as sandwiches, is brought to the tables. Food is served on recyclable polystyrene plates.

The cafe serves around 1,500 customers per week, including hospital people and outpatients who come to the facility. Blazewski hopes to attract nearby business people and residents.

The Pavilion Cafe is in the Marian Professional Building adjoining St. Mary Hospital, on Levan south of Five Mile Road, Livonia Park in Levan lot. Go to Pavilion/Marian entrance. Cafe is off the lobby, across from the gift shop and pharmacy. For more information, call 464-4800, ext. 3018.

SPARTAN SAUTE

2 ounces feta cheese
8 ounces sirloin beef tips
4 ounces sliced mushrooms, fresh or canned
2-3 ounces quartered artichoke hearts, fresh or canned
2 ounces green peppers, cut into julienne strips
2-3 ounces olive oil (or margarine) for cooking
1 teaspoon fresh garlic
2 ounces platted Greek olives or sliced black olives
1 teaspoon mixed herbs (oregano and basil)
2 ounces garlic butter

Saute sirloin tips in olive oil and fresh garlic until medium rare. Add mushrooms, artichoke, and green pepper. Cook until tender, approximately 1 minute. Add olives and garlic, lightly tossed. Serve over rice or pasta. Garnish with fresh feta cheese.
Serves 2.

ORIENTAL CHICKEN STIR-FRY

8 ounces boned chicken breast, trimmed and cut into julienne strips
4 ounces pea pods
2 ounces bean sprouts
4 ounces water chestnuts
4 ounces finely chopped blend of broccoli, cauliflower and carrots
4 ounces sliced mushrooms

Saute chicken in butter or margarine until juices begin to run clear, about 4-5 minutes. Sprinkle with tarragon and just before serving, douse with lemon juice.

CHICKEN TARRAGON

4 chicken breasts, skinned and boned
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons dried tarragon
Juice of 1 lemon or 1/4 cup bottled lemon juice

Saute chicken in butter or margarine until juices begin to run clear, about 4-5 minutes. Sprinkle with tarragon and just before serving, douse with lemon juice.

CASSOLET CHOID CHIEN

(Hot Dog Casserole)

2 ounces red and green peppers, cut into julienne strips
1/2 teaspoon powdered ginger
1 teaspoon fresh garlic, minced
1 ounce olive oil
3 ounces soy sauce
1 cup cooked rice
2 eggs, beaten

Saute chicken in olive oil. Add minced garlic and ginger. Add mushrooms, broccoli, cauliflower and carrots. Saute for 1 minute. Add pea pods, water chestnuts and peppers. Saute for 1 minute. Add soy sauce, bean sprouts and beaten eggs. Stir, then add rice. Serves 2.

SEAFOOD PASTA SALAD

1 1/2 cups small cooked shrimp (gulf size)
2 cups imitation crab, finely chopped
1 each green, red and yellow pepper, diced small 1 head iceberg lettuce, cut medium
1 cup grated mozzarella cheese
2-3 cups grated Parmesan cheese, divided
One 16-ounce bottle vinaigrette salad dressing
1 pound rainbow fettuccine or rotini pasta, preferably fresh
1 cup sour cream (optional)

Cook pasta and cool by rinsing in cold water. Moisten pasta slightly with olive oil to prevent sticking. Refrigerate. When cooled, mix with other ingredients in large mixing bowl. Save a portion of Parmesan cheese to sprinkle on top.

2 cups macaroni

1 cup grated cheddar cheese
2 tablespoons flour
3/4 bottled barbecue sauce
6 hot dogs, cut into chunks
Chopped onions or other vegetables (optional)

Precook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Drain. Pour into lightly greased 2-quart casserole. Combine cheese with flour. Toss to coat. Stir cheese mixture and barbecue sauce into macaroni. Add hot dog chunks. Mix well. Cover and bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes or until heated throughout.

MONCHELLE LAMOURE CARROT CAKE

To make batter, mix:
2 cups sugar
1 1/4 cup light vegetable oil
3 eggs
2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking soda
1 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon

Add to batter:
2 cups grated carrots
1/2 cup black walnuts, chopped

Bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Ice when cool.

Icing:
1 small package Philadelphia Cream

Cheese
1 stick butter
1 1/4 cups powdered sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

WALDORF SALAD

1/2 cup heavy cream
1/2 cup vanilla yogurt
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup diced unpeeled Granny Smith apples
1 cup diced unpeeled red apples
1 cup thinly chopped celery
1/2 cup chopped California walnuts
1/2 cup Golden raisins

Toss apples in lemon juice. Add celery, walnuts and raisins.

Dressing: Whip cream until stiff. Add vanilla yogurt and a pinch of cinnamon and whip until blended.

Toss salad in dressing and chill.
Makes 4 servings.

MONCHELLE LAMOURE WHITE CHOCOLATE MOUSSE

Mousse
1/2 cup confectioners sugar (sifted)
4 ounces white chocolate, grated (use Swiss or French Chocolate)
4 tablespoons unsalted butter, cut into 10 pieces
3 extra-large eggs, room temperature, separated
1 cup heavy whipping cream (cold)
Pinch of salt
Pinch of cream of tartar

Garnish
Fresh raspberries or strawberries
Dark chocolate
Crushed hazelnuts

Melt white chocolate over hot water in double boiler, stir until smooth. Whisk in butter, one piece at a time. Whisk after each piece until blended.

Beat egg yolks with sugar until firm. Pour into double boiler and whisk over low heat until thick. Remove from low heat. Add white chocolate, and beat until cool.

Beat heavy whipping cream until stiff. Using electric mixer at low speed, mix egg whites until they foam. Add salt and cream of tartar and beat mixture until stiff.

Add 1/2 of egg whites into chocolate to lighten. Add remaining egg whites, and fold in whipped cream. Cover and refrigerate overnight. A metal bowl is best, if you have one.

When ready to serve, spoon into small decorative bowl or cup. Top with suggested garnish.

Chocolate decorations beautify dessert

CURLS

For curls, use a bar of chocolate that's at room temperature. Carefully draw a vegetable peeler across the chocolate, making thin, curling strips.

For shaved chocolate, using a vegetable peeler, make short quick strokes across the surface of a room-temperature bar of chocolate to make thin, irregular pieces.

To grate, rub a cool, firm square of chocolate across a hand grater.

and cook on 100 percent power (high) for 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 minutes, stirring after every minute. Pour melted chocolate onto a waxed-paper-lined baking sheet, spreading 1/4 to 1/2-inch thick. Chill until almost set.

Firmly press hors d'oeuvre or tiny cookie cutters into chocolate. Chill.

At serving time, lift cutouts from baking sheet with spatula. Be careful not to touch the surface with your fingers; fingerprints show clearly and can't be removed.

TWO-CHOCOLATE LACE

Melt together 1 cup chocolate pieces and 1 tablespoon shortening over low heat, stirring constantly.

Line a baking sheet with waxed paper or foil. Using a pastry bag fitted with a writing tip or a heavy-duty plastic bag with a small hole cut in one corner, drizzle the melted chocolate over the waxed paper in a 2- by 1 1/2-inch lacy zigzag. Chill in the freezer 5 minutes or until set.

Meanwhile, finely chop 3 ounces white baking bar with cocoa butter and melt with 1 tablespoon shortening over very low heat, stirring constantly.

Using a pastry bag with a writing tip or a heavy-duty plastic bag with a small hole in one corner, randomly drizzle the white mixture on top of the chocolate design. Chill in freezer 5 minutes or until set.

Store in a dry, cool place (between 65 degrees and 75 degrees) until serving time.

LEAVES

In a heavy saucepan, heat 2 ounces semisweet chocolate pieces over very low heat, stirring constantly until chocolate begins to melt. Remove from heat and stir until smooth.

With a small paintbrush, brush melted chocolate on the underside of non-toxic, pesticide-free fresh leaves such as rose, lemon or ivy. Carefully wipe off any chocolate that runs onto the front of the leaves.

Place leaves, chocolate side up, on a baking sheet lined with waxed paper; chill or freeze until set.

FROZEN DESSERT

Stroh's Ice Cream Co. is introducing a new product, a 100 percent cholesterol-free frozen dairy dessert. It contains 140 calories per three-ounce serving.

The package contains complete per-serving nutritional labeling, and complements the recently introduced family of square half gallons for Stroh's Light and Stroh's Frozen Yogurt Dairy Desserts.

"These three new items allow us to compete on a broader basis in the frozen dessert business," said Phil Roselli, Stroh's Ice Cream Co. president.

The non-cholesterol dairy dessert is available at drug and supermarket outlets and ice cream parlors in four new half-gallon-square flavors — Peanut Butter Cup, English Toffee Fudge, Raspberry Fudge Torte and Chocolate Caramel Pecan Torte.

The Kosher-approved product contains no tropical oils and has been formulated to comply with expected FDA standards regulating "cholesterol-free ice cream." The generic product designation will be changed immediately following development and approval of these standards.

Growing boys thrive on nutritious meals

After the birth of our third son, an old friend called me and said, "You know, Betsy, there is a special place in heaven reserved for mothers of all boys."

Of course, at that time, I had no idea; not even a clue, for what was in store for me.

But now, as our three boys are getting older and entering their teenage years and adolescence, I am beginning to understand what she meant.

I would hazard a guess that the special place in heaven she referred to is probably extremely well-padded.

THIS WEEK'S Winner Dinner Winner, Barbara Hanchin of Southfield, is also the mother of three boys. Her oldest son is in college. Her two younger boys are in high school and very sports-minded.

The boys are involved in water polo, cross country running and now baseball. Hanchin and her husband have actively supported their boys and cheered them on at the many games, meets and matches they have participated in throughout the years.

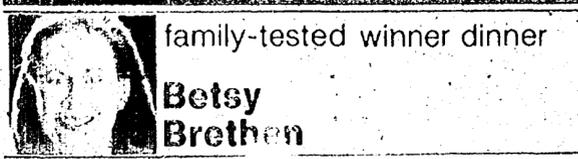

On the home front, Hanchin has learned that growing boys need to eat — her sons are more than 6 feet tall — and as a result has strived to prepare meals that are nourishing and easy to make, keep well and can be reheated.

She recently submitted a menu for Oven Swiss Steak, served over rice, noodles or mashed potatoes; Cole Slaw and Apple Crisp that is a guaranteed winner with her family.

WHEN HER BOYS were younger, Hanchin stayed involved with their schools by being an active volunteer. As they got older she began working part-time as a secretary and also worked as a substitute teacher for Birmingham schools.

She recently broke her arm while ice skating, but has used the time well while her arm heals. She has been studying medical terminology with the goal in mind of becoming a secretary in the medical field.

Barbara Hanchin of Southfield fixes a hearty meal featuring Oven Swiss Steak.

Southfield, Hanchin sings in the choir and has co-chaired various community and intercity outreach efforts undertaken by her church, including helping to provide, prepare and serve meals to the needy at St. Patrick's Church in Detroit.

In her spare time, she enjoys knitting and reading, and is looking forward to going to Manistee Lake this summer with seven other families

THANK YOU, Barbara Hanchin, for sharing your great-tasting menu with us, and congratulations on being this week's Winner Dinner Winner.

Until next week, all the best and, please, keep those Winner Dinners rolling in. I am especially looking for recipes for heart-healthy stir fry dinners.

Recipes

OVEN SWISS STEAK

This dish can be quickly and easily assembled in advance and refrigerated. As another option, if your oven is equipped with a "Time Bake" feature, place the dish in the oven and adjust the timer so that when you return home from work or errands your dinner will be bubbling away and ready to eat. It can easily be reheated for those who return home after the dinner hour.

If you prefer to have your vegetables less cooked, simply cook the meat by itself for 1 hour and then add the remaining ingredients.

Prepare either noodles, rice or mashed potatoes to go with this entree. This recipe serves 4-6.

and double fold the edges so that the meat is tightly sealed. Bake for 2 hours at 325 degrees. Roll back the foil and sprinkle with fresh parsley, if desired. Serve over rice, noodles or mashed potatoes. This recipe can easily be increased.

COLE SLAW

Finely slice some fresh cabbage. Add grated carrot, green pepper and onion, if desired. About 10 minutes before serving, add as much of the following dressing as desired:

- 4 tablespoons sugar
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 6 tablespoons vinegar
- 4 tablespoons oil

Combine the above ingredients in a jar with a lid. Shake the jar well and keep the dressing stored in the jar.

APPLE CRISP

This dessert is always good, regardless of the season.

Peel and slice the apples and place them in a greased 7-by-9-inch pan. Tart apples are best to use. Fill the pan so that it is half-filled with the apples. Add ½ cup water to the apples.

Cut the following together and sprinkle it on top of the apples:

- ½ cup margarine
- 1½ cup flour
- 2-3 teaspoons cinnamon
- ¼ cup sugar

Bake at 375 degrees for 45 minutes.

- 2 pounds round steak, trimmed of fat and cut into serving pieces
- ½ pound sliced mushrooms
- 1 green pepper, sliced into rings
- 1 pound can tomatoes, drained and chopped
- 1-2 onions, sliced into rings
- ½ teaspoon seasoned salt
- Pepper to taste
- ½ cup juice from canned tomatoes
- 1 tablespoon A-1 Steak Sauce
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- Large piece of heavy-duty aluminum foil (20-inch width)

Place the foil in a 9-by-13-inch pan. Arrange the meat slice on the foil. Place the vegetables and the seasonings on the meat. Mix the tomato juice, steak sauce and cornstarch and pour over the meat. Bring the foil up

Ricotta cheese mixture fills delicious Cocoa Blintzes

AP — Cocoa Blintzes are filled with a creamy ricotta cheese mixture and served with a rich cocoa-sour cream topping. Sprinkle the tops of the blintzes with sugar.

COCOA BLINTZES

Cocoa Sour Cream Topping (recipe follows)

Ricotta Cheese Filling (recipe follows)

- 3 eggs
- 1½ cups water
- ½ cup potato starch
- 3 tablespoons cocoa
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- Dash salt
- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 2 tablespoons butter, cut into small pieces

Prepare sour cream topping; refrigerate. Prepare ricotta cheese filling; set aside.

In a medium bowl, beat eggs and water until blended. Gradually add potato starch, cocoa, 2 tablespoons sugar, salt and oil, beating until mixture is smooth.

Lightly butter an 8-inch skillet.

Heat skillet over medium heat. For each blintz, pour about 3 tablespoons batter into skillet; quickly rotate pan to coat the bottom of the pan evenly. (Stir batter periodically.) Return pan to medium heat; fry blintz until set. Invert skillet over clean cloth towel. (Blintz leaf will come out of pan cooked side up.)

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Lightly butter a 13-by-9-inch baking pan. Place slightly heaping tablespoon of ricotta cheese filling in the center of each blintz leaf. Fold in sides and ends, forming a square.

Arrange blintzes, seam side down, in prepared pan. Sprinkle remaining 2 tablespoons sugar over top. Dot with butter. Bake in a 350-degree oven 15 to 20 minutes or until heated through. Serve immediately with cocoa-sour cream topping. Makes 14 to 16 blintzes.

Cocoa Sour Cream Topping

In a small bowl, combine 1 cup (8 ounces) sour cream, ¼ cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cocoa and ½ teaspoon vanilla; stir until well-blended.

Ricotta Cheese Filling

- 1¾ cups (one 15-ounce container) ricotta cheese
- 1 egg

- 1 teaspoon sugar
- ½ teaspoon ground cinnamon
- Dash salt

In a medium bowl, stir together all ingredients until well-blended.

Piedmont winery changes name in 35th year

Unless you are a wine buff extraordinaire, you've probably never heard of Piedmont wines produced by Michele Chiarlo.

That's just fine, because you're in our company. We just recently discovered these wine gems from Italy's famed Piedmont region.

Until now, the wines of Michele Chiarlo have been sold in the United States under the brand name Granduca. In fact, you will still find several of these wines under this brand name. That's OK, too, because these are the wines of Michele Chiarlo.

The firm of Granduca was found-

Eleanor and Ray Heald

ed in 1956 by Chiarlo, the son of seven generations of esteemed grape growers. To celebrate 35 years of winemaking dedication, the name of the winery has been changed to Michele Chiarlo, reflecting the producer's personal pride in presenting top-quality wines.

"It has always been my philosophy and overriding passion to rigorously select grapes from the most reputable growers in the most-favored vineyard areas," Chiarlo said. "For our estate vineyards, only hillside locations with unique soils and microclimates have been chosen."

THE CEREUQIO vineyards in Barolo have long been renowned for their exceptional wines. Here, Chiarlo owns the Antico Podere Averame, one of the finest nebbiolo vineyards for Barolo production. To ensure excellence at the time of harvest, the estate Cannubi vineyard, with its 38 to 50 percent grade, has been terraced at major capital investment. Previously, this vineyard was painstakingly farmed by hand labor.

"If there is a single finest vineyard in Barolo, and the consensus is that there is, that vineyard is Cannubi," said the Italian wine authority Sheldon Wasserman in his book "Italy's Noble Red Wines."

In the vineyard, Chiarlo practices severe pruning during the winter dormant period and cluster thinning in mid-summer to limit the crop, and uses organic fertilizers.

Because Chiarlo sources grapes throughout the Piedmont region, he operates wineries in three different locations to ensure that the harvested grapes reach the processing location in the shortest time possible. Once at the winery, the grapes are crushed and pressed, in the case of white varieties. Temperature-controlled fermentation with natural yeast is used for both red and white grapes.

After fermentation, the new red wines are racked into Yugoslavian oak ovals or small French oak barrels. The cooperage selected is determined by repeated tasting and depends on the vintage and varietal.

THE WHITE WINES are kept in refrigerated tanks to maintain their fresh, fruity grape aromas until bottling.

In Italy's Piedmont, Chiarlo is respected by his winemaking peers for his work in improving standards in Italian winemaking, having introduced procedures in the 1950s, which were eventually codified by the DOC laws governing Italian winemaking practices.

He has created a trademarked

'It has always been my philosophy and overriding passion to rigorously select grapes from the most reputable growers in the most-favored vineyard areas.'

— Michele Chiarlo

wine, in limited supply, known as "Barilot," which is a distinctive blend of 60 percent barbera and 40 percent nebbiolo.

Italy is among the world's leaders in fashion. Producers, like Chiarlo, are designing wines that are at the cutting edge of consumers' taste preferences. The exceptional vineyard sites and extra care taken to maintain vine and wine quality are expensive. These factors are reflected in the price of wines from Italy's finest producers. Chiarlo is among them.

WINE SELECTIONS OF THE WEEK

The following wines of Michele Chiarlo from Italy's Piedmont are uniquely styled.

1989 Fior de Rovere Gavi ($23.50) is an artful presentation of the Cortese di Gavi grape from the tiny Rovereto di Gavi area. Produced from 35- to 40-year-old vines, it is an attractive wine with pear-like fruit impressions, lengthy finish and balanced acidity. It will complement poultry or fish dishes with rich sauces.

1985 Barolo ($25.50) is a handsome wine now but portends the aging potential of another 10 years. The lively red fruit, with cocoa and tobacco nuances, finishes smooth and velvety.

1982 Barolo Riserva ($29.25) is a rich wine deserving the designation "Riserva." It mirrors the character of the 1985 Barolo described above, but additional age has enhanced it to full maturity.

WINE BULLETIN BOARD

Tasting Premium California

Wines will be the topic of a five-week wine course 7:30-9:30 p.m. Wednesdays, May 8 to June 5, at Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge Campus in Farmington Hills. The class will focus on classic wine varieties including chenin blanc, chardonnay, sauvignon blanc, zinfandel, cabernet sauvignon and merlot. Total cost is $90. Instructors: Eleanor and Ray Heald. For more information telephone OCC, 471-7561.

Detroit's Rattlesnake Club has initiated an ongoing attraction for wine buffs called the "Wednesday Wine Bar." According to Sommelier Madeline Triffon, each week's tasting will feature five to six wines and several of Chef Jimmy Schmidt's tasty appetizers. The cost, inclusive of wine, appetizers, tax and gratuity, is $15 at the door. Come casual any time between 6:30 and 7:30 p.m.; no reservations are needed. Triffon will be in attendance, as well as a winemaker or supplier. For more information regarding wine themes, call the Rattlesnake at 567-4843.

Tempers flare over jet flight test

By Wayne Pool
staff writer

The roar of the crowd often drowned out the roar of overhead aircraft during Thursday's public hearing on Metro Airport noise reduction.

Jet take-off routes will be changed by June 1, with aircraft expected to be spread over a wider number of communities. Though part of a 180-day test, the new flight patterns could become permanent.

Flights over western Wayne communities are expected to decrease, however, and Livonia, Westland and Garden City residents said they couldn't wait for changes to begin.

"WE'RE GOING to be happy, but we're probably in the minority here," said Anthony Tropack of Livonia, looking out over a 225-member audience packed with residents of Sumpter and Huron townships, where jet noise is expected to increase.

"Does it mean that because we have fewer people, the county has less interest in us?" asked Huron Township Supervisor Christine Gambler.

Several speakers shouted at county and Federal Aviation Administration officials in protest over increased flights over their neighborhoods.

Officials, however, urged caution.

County "noise czar" Bryan Amann said the altered routes put the greatest number of flights possible over open space, and away from heavily populated northern suburbs.

The county will establish a 24-hour airport noise hot line by next month, Amann said, allowing citizens to record complaints on the spot.

Amann was among the FAA and county officials on hand to listen to public comments.

Though the county will monitor flights, Garden City homeowner Lynn Walker said he's put a video camera in his driveway to do some monitoring of his own.

One area homeowner said that he's considering moving if flights aren't shifted soon.

"If it doesn't change this summer — I'm out of here," Tom Timmer said.

Stadium plans draw praise, fire

By Wayne Pool
staff writer

A proposal by Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara to keep the Detroit Tigers downtown is "do-able," according to a regional planning agency.

But the Tiger Stadium Fan Club says the plan sells out area taxpayers.

Speculation is rampant that Tigers President Bo Schembechler will make at least a partial commitment to the McNamara plan today during an appearance before the Economic Club of Detroit.

The proposal would link new downtown development, including restaurants, shops and offices, to a new or renovated Tiger Stadium, deputy executive Michael Duggan said.

Schembechler isn't expected to announce a stadium site and Duggan wouldn't speculate on potential candidates. But the county is emphasizing the current Corktown site over others, including the State Fairgrounds.

The plan has drawn endorsement from the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG), a regional planning agency for seven metropolitan counties.

"We're very excited about it," said SEMCOG deputy director Ed Hustoles. "We think it is a practical plan."

The Corktown site neighborhood offers tremendous development potential, Hustoles said.

"We can see it from but (downtown) offices," he said. "We know there's a lot of open lots and abandoned buildings."

The Fairlane Town Center-style development proposed by the county, features ring roads leading to massive parking lots near the stadium, as well as an outer ring of restaurants and shops.

The plan could help spur development as far south as the Detroit Riverfront, Hustoles said.

Commission taps Breen to fill Heintz seat

Maurice Breen is in — and out. Breen, the newest Wayne County commissioner, is expected to take office this week. He replaces Susan Heintz, who resigned from the board to head Gov. John Engler's regional office for southeastern Michigan.

In accepting the job, Breen announced his resignation as Plymouth Township supervisor. Breen, a Republican, will represent Plymouth, Plymouth Township and Livonia in the $41,396-a-year commission seat.

He delayed his swearing-in ceremonies to tender his resignation from his township post.

Breen was appointed to the seat 10-0 by his fellow commissioners Thursday. He received the votes of Kay Beard-D-Inkster, Kevin Kelley, D-Redford and Shirley Poling, D-Canton. Commissioners Susan Hubbard, William O'Neil and Edward Boike, abstained from voting.

Breen will serve in an interim capacity until an election is scheduled. Though an election date hasn't been set, county officials said it would occur within 90 days of the June 10 school elections.

A GOP primary may precede the election, with Breen and former Livonia mayoral candidate Joan Duggan already shaping up as prime candidates. Several Democratic challengers have also expressed interest in the post.

Heintz, who formally resigned from the board Monday, received a standing ovation from her fellow commissioners at Thursday's meeting.

The Northville Township Republican has served as a commissioner since 1987. The lone Republican on the board, Heintz served as commission vice chairwoman since 1989.

She was replaced in the latter post by David Cavanaugh. Cavanaugh represents the Grosse Pointes, Harper Woods and a section of eastern Detroit. He is the son of late Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanaugh.

Glenn pitcher Cathy Mruk tossed a four-hitter Farmington. It was the Western Lakes Activities Association opener for both teams.

Rocket launch

Homers carry Glenn to 5-3 triumph

Bridget Mussin and Karen Olack each belted solo homers Thursday, powering Westland John Glenn to a 5-3 softball victory over visiting Farmington in the Lakes Division opener for both teams.

Olack, a junior, stroked her round-tripper in the first inning, while Mussin, a senior center fielder, added her homer in the third.

Mussin, the Rockets' lead-off hitter, went 3-for-4 with two RBIs. Jenny Massey added two hits for the winners.

Winning pitcher Cathy Mruk, a junior, tossed a four-hitter in going the distance. She struck out three and walked four.

Three Glenn errors led to a pair of Farmington runs in the sixth inning.

Farmington's Corey Wojcik, who scattered eight hits over seven innings, suffered the loss.

Jenny Sever went 2-for-4, including a triple, in a losing cause.

Glenn is 1-1 overall, while the Falcons dipped to 4-3.

FRANKLIN 2, W.L. WESTERN 1: Senior Jenny Mayle threw six innings of no-hit ball Thursday, as host Livonia Franklin held off Walled Lake Western in a Western Lakes Activities Association (Western Division) encounter.

Mayle (3-0) struck out six and walked two as the Patriots improved to 3-1 overall.

Franklin could only muster five hits. The Patriots scored a run in the first and one in the sixth.

Emily Skura and Dawn Warner each scored for Franklin, while Wendy Rynkiewicz knocked in a run.

Western tallied its only run in the seventh off Mayle on a walk to Heather Burger, a single by Corey Vrandenburg and a single by Shelly Crawford.

STEVENSON 19, SALEM 9: On Thursday, visiting Livonia Stevenson unloaded for 19 hits in a rout of Plymouth Salem.

Rachel Allor paced the victorious Spartans, going 4-for-4 with four runs scored and two walks.

Other heavy hitters for Stevenson included Carrie Palmisano, 4-for-6 with three RBIs; winning pitcher Lori Shingledacker, four runs scored; and Gayle Richardson, 2-for-4 with three runs scored and two RBIs.

Shingledacker pitched all seven innings, scattering 12 hits. She walked eight and fanned four.

Andrea Welmg, the losing pitcher for Salem, had three of the Rocks' 12 hits.

CLARENCEVILLE 22, HAMTRAMCK 0: Rhonda Saunders had a big game Wednesday as host Livonia Clarenceville rolled past the Cosmos in a Metro Conference opener.

Saunders, a converted outfielder, hurled a no-hitter over five innings (mercy rule). She struck out nine and walked only two.

Softball

The senior (3-0) has not allowed an earned run through 18 innings. She has allowed only five hits and 13 walks, while fanning 32.

Saunders also helped her own cause with the bat, going 3-for-3 with four RBIs.

"I hope she keeps it up," Clarenceville coach Wendy Kelehan said. "I hope she stays healthy."

Other Clarenceville offensive contributions came from freshman Melissa Ufford, 2-for-2 with three RBIs; Mary Gould, 3-for-4 with three RBIs; Leandra Hoffman, 2-for-4; Michelle Torres, 2-for-3 with four RBIs; and Beth Maguire, 3-for-3.

MARIAN 6-1, LADYWOOD 5-2: Livonia Ladywood split a double-header Thursday with Catholic League Central Division foe Birmingham Marian.

Marian won the opener, 6-5, despite two hits each by Michelle Wilson and Allison Brenny. (Wilson had one RBI and both of Brenny's hits were doubles.)

Sophomore Mary Jo Kelly, the losing pitcher, worked 6½ innings. She struck out 10, walked nine and scattered four hits before giving way to senior Staci Kowalczyk in the seventh.

The Blazers came back to win the nightcap, 2-1, behind the three-hit pitching of Kowalczyk, who struck out five and did not walk a batter.

Ladywood tallied both of its runs in the fifth.

Wilson singled and later scored on a wild pitch. Andrea Crichton also scored.

On Tuesday, host Southgate Aquinas swept the Blazers in a twinbill, 2-0 and 5-3.

Kelly pitched seven strong innings in the opener, allowing only four walks. Karen Totzke tripled, but the Blazers could not bring her home.

In the nightcap, Crichton went 2-for-4, but the Raiders held on.

Ladywood is 4-6 overall and 1-3 in the Central.

LUTHERAN WESTLAND 13, S'FIELD CHRISTIAN 7: Sophomore center fielder Leslie Turgeon homered and knocked in three runs Thursday, lifting host Lutheran Westland to the Michigan Independent Athletic Conference win over Southfield Christian.

The Warriors took advantage of 17 walks by three different Eagle hurlers. Sophomore left fielder Tracy Lapum was one of the beneficiaries, walking four times and scoring four runs.

Winning pitcher Christy Pydyn, the victim of three unearned runs the first inning, settled down to pitch seven strong innings. She scattered seven hits, walked four and fanned eight.

Lutheran Westland is 3-1 overall and 2-1 in the MIAC.

The Eagles slipped to 1-2 overall and 0-1 in the conference.

Freshman pitchers pace Madonna

By C.J. Rieak
staff writer

With the freshmen stepping to the forefront, Madonna University stayed atop the NAIA District 23 baseball standings — in spite of a 2-1 loss Friday at Northwood Institute.

The Fighting Crusaders second game with Northwood was washed out. A make-up has not yet been scheduled.

What kept Madonna atop the district at 8-3 (24-8 overall) was a sweep of Concordia College Thursday, 5-4 and 9-0, at Redford's Capitol Park. Earning their first collegiate wins were freshmen pitchers Sean Henkel (from Livonia Stevenson) in the opener and George Leung in the second game.

The long ball propelled the Crusaders in both victories over Concordia. They connected for five home runs and added a triple in the sweep.

Joe Brusseau (Redford Bishop Borgess) hit a pair of dingers, the first a solo shot in the first inning of the opener. Jeff Pendell knocked in Madonna's second run in the opener with a second-inning triple, and John Bonham's base hit delivered Pendell with the third run.

Unbeaten teams Glenn, Stevenson girls rolling along track

Westland John Glenn won its fourth consecutive girls track meet Thursday, downing host North Farmington in a dual meet, 85-43.

The Rockets were led by Amy Finley and Lynette Conner, who each figured in four first-places apiece.

Finley scored victories in the high jump (4 feet, 8 inches), 100-meter hurdles (17.64) and 300 hurdles (51.07). She also combined with Dana Nowicki, Tina Honeycutt and Rebecca Berzel to win the 1,600 relay in 4:37.07.

Conner, meanwhile, captured the long jump (14-5), 100 dash (13.64) and 200 dash (28.27). She also anchored the winning 400 relay team (56.09), which included Melanie Cline, Joanna Salem and Tamara Murphy.

Among the other Glenn first-place finishers: Cathy Riney, shot put (29-7½) and discus (88-6); Kim Springer, 400 dash (1:06.66).

Emily Shively paced North (0-1) with firsts in the 1,600 and 3,200 runs with times of 6:02.78 and 12:39.44, respectively.

LIVONIA STEVENSON won all four relays en route to a 100-28 victory Thursday over visiting Walled Lake Central.

The Spartans (3-0) won nine individual events, led by double winners Teresa Sarno and Gail Grewe.

Sarno captured the shot put (34-9¼) and discus (118-0), while Grewe added wins in the high jump (4-6) and 1,600 run (5:51.0).

Other Stevenson firsts were recorded by Karen Rosinski, 100 hurdles, 17.9; Jennifer Turbiak, 300 hurdles, 52.98; Cathy Bacile, 100 dash, 13.8; Tabitha Belcher, 800 run, 2:33.7; and Carrie Creehan, 3,200 run, 12:32.9.

Bacile, Kim Nelson, Michelle Slawski and Debbie Walsh won the 400 relay in 55.25, while the foursome of Julie Martin, Nelson, Walsh and Slawski took the 800 relay in 1:57.0.

In the 1,600 relay, Stevenson's Stacy Prais, Jennifer Nash, Walsh and Rosinski placed first (4:38.2).

Prais, Creehan, Heather Gores and Jennifer Pfander added a win in the 3,200 relay (11:03.0).

Cindy Capstick led Central with firsts in the long jump (15-3) and 400 run (1:05.1).

WAYNE MEMORIAL'S Akua Hammons took center stage Thursday, leading the visiting Zebras to a 69-59 Wolverine A League triumph over Wyandotte.

Hammons gained three individual firsts: long jump (15-8½), 220-yard dash (27.7) and 440 run (1:05.0).

She also anchored the mile relay, making up a 15-yard deficit to give Wayne the victory in 4:31.0. Tranessa Burroughs, Erika Beetz and Rebecca Delcomyn rounded out the winning foursome.

Beetz also won the high jump (4-10) and 800 hurdles (49.8). Other Wayne winners included Kim Morrow, shot put, 32-0; Sue Kobylarz, discus, 74-11; and

JIM JAGDFELD/staff photographer

Amy Gokee (top) holds the blocks for Livonia Churchill teammate Hue Diep for the start of the 400-meter relay Thursday against Walled Lake Western.

Quinday Cooper, 100 dash, 12.0.

Cooper, Loleta Cobbs, Nicole Perry and Burroughs took the 440 relay in 56.0, while the quartet of Cobbs, Burrough, Perry and Cooper captured the 880 relay in 1:58.0.

Both teams are 1-1 overall.

LIVONIA CHURCHILL (0-2) was no match Thursday for visiting Walled Lake Western, falling to the Warriors, 89-39.

Western won all four relays and 10 individual events.

Churchill's only winner was Kelly Kobane in the high jump (4-6).

LIVONIA FRANKLIN also found the going rough in another Western Lakes Activities Association (Western Division) meet on Thursday.

Visiting Plymouth Canton downed the Patriots, 92-35.

Franklin's only winners included Nicole McMullen in the long jump (14-3), Debbie Bryz in the 400-meter dash (1:05.3) and the 1,600 relay team (4:34.1).

Wayne's Buford clocks 9.8 in 100

Wayne Memorial's top sprinter Shawn Ma-Azza was out with a pulled hamstring, but the Zebras may have found another speedster Thursday, as Allen Buford clocked a 9.8 in the 100-yard dash in a 67-61 Wolverine A League defeat at Wyandotte Roosevelt.

"It's the first time Allen has run the 100," said Wayne coach Floyd Carter, whose team is 1-1 overall. "He and Shawn are about the same speed. They would have gone one-two, no problem."

Buford also captured the long jump (19 feet, 9 inches) and was a member of the victorious 800- and 1,600 relays.

Buford, Steve Caldwell, Glen Dare and Keishmon Daniels won the 800 in 1:37.5, while Phil Gibson, Joe Dumont, Dare and Buford took the 1,600 in 3:46.0.

James Grady also stood out despite the loss, winning the high jump (5-10), 120 hurdles (15.6) and 330 hurdles (41.6).

"Buford and Grady are two real fine athletes," Carter said. "We still have a chance to have a real fine season."

Other Wayne firsts were turned in by Joe Ramsey in the shot put (41-11) and Dumont in the 440 run (54.0).

LIVONIA FRANKLIN evened its dual meet boys track mark at 1-1 Thursday with an 85-51 triumph at Plymouth Canton.

Steve Clemmons paced the Patriots with victories in the 100- and 200-meter dashes, recording times of 11.3 and 23.5 respectively.

Clemmons, a senior, also anchored the victorious 400- and 800 relay squads.

He teamed up with Ron Clair, Vic Rodopoulos and Ron Trola to win the 400 in 46.24.

The foursome of Clemmons, Clair, Rodopoulos and Russ Keberly added a first in the 800 (1:36.6).

Three other Patriot seniors winning two individual events apiece: John Revels, shot put (39-10) and discus (133-8); Jeff Eliniski, 110 hurdles (16.3) and 300 hurdles (44.2); and Eric Curnow, 1,600 run (4:36.7) and 3,200 run (10:38.0).

Other Franklin firsts were recorded by Keberly in the long jump (18-10½) and Kevin Kube in the pole vault (9-6).

Craig Miller and Mike Ream were the only Canton winners, capturing the 400 and 800 races in 54.0 and 2:11.0, respectively. The two also teamed up with Don Green and Dave Washenko to win the 1,600 relay in 3:45.0.

Canton's 3,200 relay team of Miller, Washenko, James Carnes and Chris Nelson were also victorious (8:43.7).

WESTLAND JOHN GLENN increased its dual meet mark to 3-0 with a convincing 115-22 win over visiting North Farmington.

The Rockets had several individual standouts.

Among the double winners, included Andrew Hodge in the 110- and 300-meter hurdles with times of 16.27 and 44.7, respectively; Randy Seach, 110 dash (11.2) and 200 dash (23.3); and Joe Rajewski, 1,600 run (4:56.4) and 3,200 run (11:09.8).

Seach also teamed up with Jim Woloskie, Juan Peters and Lamar Ellison to win the 800 relay in 1:36.4.

Other Glenn first places were garnered by: Jason Key, discus, 139-5; Bill Griffiths, high jump, 6-0; Buck, long jump, 20-0; Tony Donnelly, pole vault, 10-0; Jason Nowicki, 400 run, 53.38; and Bob Lulek, 800 run, 2:17.16.

Nowicki, Lulek, Scott Henson and Robert Bloomfield combined to win the 3,200 relay in 9:07.5.

Griffiths, Buck, Chris Vanderburgh and Jeff Kolbas added a win in the 1,600 relay (3:54.2), while Ellison, Buck, Brian Schultz and Ed Jeannin won the 400 relay in 46.24.

Todd Pawlowski took North's only first in the shot put (45-5¼).

LIVONIA STEVENSON was also a big winner Thursday, rolling past host Walled Lake Central, 103½-33½.

The Spartans (2-0) were led by Matt Rowe, who captured the 1,600-meter run (4:54.0) and 3,200 run (11:09.0). He also anchored the winning 3,200 relay team which also included Bill Morrison, Nick Boone and Jason Mase (9:23.0).

Another individual double winner was Dan Gibbons, who captured the shot put (43-1) and the discus (116-7).

Other Stevenson firsts were recorded by Tim Marska, high jump, 5-6; Rob Schultheis, long jump, 19-3; Fleming Christensen, 110 hurdles, 17.5; Dave Jenvey, 400 run, 54.58; and Rod Westlake, 800 run, 2:14.0.

Justin Brundage, Marska, Schultheis, and Cliff Michelson added a first in the 400 relay (47.3), while the foursome of Christensen, Schultheis, Westlake and Brian Jacobs won the 800 relay (1:38.66).

In the 1,600 relay, the quartet of Jenvey, Mase, Westlake and Frank Eupri finished first in 3:44.33.

LIVONIA CHURCHILL dropped its second straight dual meet of the season Thursday as Walled Lake Western won the final event, the 1,600 relay (3:40.5), to pull out the meet, 71-66. (Churchill was a close second in 3:41.0).

Despite the loss, Curt Pierson led the Chargers with firsts in the shot put (39-7¼) and discus (122-7).

Other Churchill winners included John Fabrikiewicz, pole vault, 10-0; Nate Loosle, 110 hurdles, 15.6; Matt Jeska, 100 dash, 12.1; Eric Henderson, 400 dash, 55.4; and Jeff Marlus, 800 run, 2:07.0.

Henderson, Phoue Diep, Jim Kramer and Jeska won the 800 relay in 1:37.8, while the foursome of Diep, Derek Bodrak, Ryan Kukla and Kramer added a win in the 400 relay (47.3).

Bill Crosby paced the victorious Warriors with first in the 1,600 run (4:36.0) and 3,200 run (10:08.0).

Trojans nip Lutheran Westland, 6-5

Livonia Clarenceville remained unbeaten with a 6-5 baseball victory last week over visiting Lutheran High Westland.

Tony Malinowski, making his first varsity start, scattered five hits and struck out eight over 6 1/2 innings to pick up the victory. Chuck Moncmen came on to pick up the save as the Trojans ran their record to 3-0.

Jim Brasgalla was the losing pitcher. He allowed six hits over six innings.

Kendrick Harrington, who went 2-for-3, scored twice, and had five stolen bases to lead the Clarenceville offense.

Ken Schilbe went 2-for-4 for the Warriors, now 2-2 overall.

JOHN GLENN 8, FARMINGTON 3: Brothers Aaron and Lawrence Scheffer combined on a three-hitter Thursday, leading visiting Westland John Glenn past the Falcons in a Western Lakes Activities Association (Lakes Division) battle.

The Rockets are now 5-0 overall and 1-0 in the Lakes-Farmington slips to 1-3 and 0-1.

Aaron, the starter, worked the first 4 1/2 innings to pick up the win. He struck out five, walked two and allowed three earned runs.

Lawrence came on to pitch the final 2 1/2 innings, fanning five while allowing only one walk to gain the save.

Lawrence also helped his own cause with a solo homer in the third inning. He also knocked in three runs.

Glenn's Rob Filary added a two-run homer in the first inning.

Les Luark belted a two-run homer in the fourth for Farmington.

Mike Shelp, the losing pitcher, worked six innings, allowing six earned runs and four walks.

SALEM 10, STEVENSON 2: On Thursday, Scott Rodgers ran his record to 3-0 as he

baseball

and Chris Tomas combined on a one-hitter in a WLAALakes Division triumph at Livonia Stevenson.

Rodgers, a senior right-hander, allowed the one hit (to Phil Woods) and three walks while fanning six. Tomas, a junior right-hander, retired nine straight batters and struck out three.

Rob Sudz took the loss for Stevenson.

Rodgers also helped his own cause with a pair of doubles and one RBI. Senior catcher Scott Niemiec went 4-for-4 with an RBI. First baseman Tom Davey went 3-for-3 with three RBI, while third baseman Eric Nielson contributed two hits.

W.L. WESTERN 19, FRANKLIN 6: The sun didn't shine Thursday at Livonia Franklin as the Patriots were routed by visiting Walled Lake Western in a WLAALakes Division matchup.

Winning pitcher Karl Sinclair tossed a five-hitter in going the distance.

Joe Kalhorne added an RBI triple and single before being ejected for unnecessary roughness. Todd McMillan added three hits and Chuck Vockler added two for the Warriors, who scored six times in the second.

Franklin made four errors during the inning as starter Steve McCool suffered the loss. He gave up five earned runs on six hits.

The loss leaves the Patriots at 2-1 overall.

CANTON 6, CHURCHILL 2: Plymouth Canton got only two hits off Mike Thomas, but took advantage of four errors Thursday to hand visiting Livonia Churchill its third straight defeat without a victory.

Frank Learned pitched the first 3 1/2 innings for Canton, allowing one run before giving way to Scott Kennedy, who finished up to earn the win.

Brian Tiel's pinch-hit single sparked a two-run Canton uprising in the fourth.

Mark Rutherford, a sophomore shortstop, went 3-for-4 in a losing cause. Mike Brooks and Bob Coppola each doubled.

RICE 7-3, REDFORD CC 5-2: On Wednesday, host Birmingham Brother Rice sent Redford Catholic Central reeling, sweeping a Catholic League Central Division double-header.

Bob Kummer went 3 1/2 innings as CC suffered a 7-5 loss in the opener. Rice scored four times in the fourth inning to win it.

Joe Vondracek went 2-for-3 and knocked in a run for the losers. Teammate Dan Gusoff added a two-run double in the fifth, but it wasn't enough.

In the nightcap, Scott Kapla pitched seven strong innings, but the Shamrocks fell, 3-2.

Kapla, a junior, struck out eight, walked three and scattered six hits.

Vondracek had two hits and George Charnley contributed a two-run single.

The loss drops CC to 4-2 in division play.

DEARBORN 4, REDFORD CC 1: On Thursday, the host Pioneers, one of the state's top-ranked teams, handed CC its third straight loss.

Dennis Pironello doubled in CC's lone run in the third inning.

The Shamrocks left three runners stranded each in the fifth and sixth innings.

CC is 5-3 overall.

Madonna keeps district lead despite 2-1 defeat

MIKE WOZNAK made it 4-0 with a sacrifice fly in the third, but Concordia got two runs in both the fourth and fifth innings to tie it. Ernie Bowling, Madonna's leading run-producer with 41 runs batted in, got home the game-winner with a groundout in the bottom of the fifth.

Brusseau went 3-for-3 to lead Madonna's attack, but Henkel's pitching made the difference. He allowed six hits and five walks; just one of the runs scored against him was earned, and he struck out seven. Also, five of the six Concordia hits were infield singles.

So even after Madonna got the lead back, coach Mike George never really considered relieving the freshman — for a couple of reasons. "I try to let my pitchers finish what they started," he said. "It can be a tremendous confidence boost for them."

In addition, the Crusaders were facing three more doubleheaders in the next three days, a stretch George did not want to face with a tired staff. Besides — as George noted: "(Henkel) was in control, he still had some pop in his pitches, and he's a great competitor. So (pulling him) never really crossed my mind ... not really."

Brian Fehn was the losing pitcher for the Cardinals, surrendering all five runs on eight hits and four walks.

IN THE SECOND game, Leung was almost untouchable. He fired a four-hitter to earn his first win, and didn't walk a batter while fanning nine.

It helped that the Crusaders put six runs on the board in the opening inning. The first two crossed the plate on Brusseau's second home run of the day, and sixth of the season. Several batters later, Rich Blomberg added a grand slam homer — the first in Madonna baseball history.

Solo shots by Jeremy Krol and Bowling upped Madonna's lead to 8-0 after two innings. Bowling knocked in the final run with a single, scoring Kevin O'Connor, who had doubled.

Bowling was 3-for-3 with two RBI, while Blomberg and Krol each contributed two hits. Larry Arnold was the losing pitcher, going the distance and surrendering 10 hits and four walks.

Defending champion Spartans top Adams again

By Brad Emons

staff writer

Livonia Stevenson capped a big week Friday by blanking host Rochester Adams, 3-0, in a rematch of last year's state Class A girls soccer championship (won by Stevenson, 2-1).

The defending state champs tallied three second-half goals to run their overall season record to 4-0.

"The conditions were terrible, cold and wet," Stevenson coach Mary Kay Hussey said. "The first half we tried to force things to the middle where it was very muddy. In the second half to moved the ball down to the outside."

Ragen Coyne tallied the Spartans' first goal from Lori Godlewski. Shannon Wilkinson then scored unassisted to make it 2-0 and Andrea Wittrock tallied Stevenson's final goal from Holly Kimble.

Karen Groulx posted the shutout in goal.

Hussey also praised the play of Kristin Oswaldel.

On Wednesday, Wilkinson scored twice and Maureen Drabicki added another goal as Stevenson beat visiting Ann Arbor Huron, 3-0. (Coyne and Emmy Heiby drew assists.)

Groulx and Smith combined on the shutout, while stopper Patty Diamond, a sophomore, spearheaded a tough Stevenson defense which also included Oswaldel, Wittrock, Heiby, Godlewski and Allison Pinta.

On Monday, the state's top-ranked team turned back visiting Northville, 3-1, as Drabicki scored a pair of goals, assisted each by Diamond and Sarah Bouchard. Coyne tallied the other goal from Wilkinson.

CHURCHILL 3, CANTON 0: Plymouth Canton coach Don Smith couldn't explain his team's latest loss Wednesday at Livonia Churchill.

"I don't know what happened," he said. "We're going to have to play better or we're going to be at the bottom of the heap fast."

SOCCER

What happened is that Almee Cousino scored a pair of goals for the winners, now 2-1-1 overall.

With midfielder Danielle Priebe out with an injury, Churchill coach Nick O'Shea juggled his lineup, and Cousino came through.

Cousino's first-half goal came on a throw-in from Fran Priebe. The second, coming early in the second half, was assisted by Dana Pososki.

With just under a minute to play, Mechelle Brazin's direct free kick from 20 yards out floated over the outstretched arms of Canton goalie Jory Welchans, and just under the crossbar for Churchill's third goal.

"Normally Lori Place (Churchill's top scorer) takes those, but I usually let them make the decision," Churchill coach Nick O'Shea explained. "It was good to see some of our other players show that they could score."

Churchill made some strategic adjustments for the Chiefs.

"We came in with the attitude that it would not be a pretty game where you can string a lot of passes together," Canton coach Nick O'Shea said. "Normally Canton plays a high paced game where you don't settle the ball down. We were ready for the high bounces. It will be interesting to see how we react against a team that passes it around."

Churchill's defense, led by Christina Garry and Stephanie Speen, also bounced around the Chiefs.

"We had a talk with the defense about not giving up goals," O'Shea said. "The defense came in with a different attitude."

The loss leaves Canton at 3-2 overall.

LADYWOOD 2, REGINA 1: Junior fullback Janet Davis scored the game-winner 30 minutes into the second half, leading Livonia Ladywood (2-3-1) to a Catholic League Central Division win Thursday at Schoolcraft College.

The Blazers trailed 1-0 at intermission before tying the game early in the second half on Amie Morelli's goal.

Christina Ozog and Betsy Monczka led the defense.

"I don't know what happened in the first half, but we couldn't get the ball up," Ladywood coach John O'Zog said. "I told them at halftime that based on our performance last year, we were taking them too lightly."

"And if we were going to be in the running for the Catholic League, this was a must win."

and sophomore forward Val Adzima scored two goals each Tuesday, leading the Blazers to the non-league win over Redford Thurston.

Julie Schewe, Tracy Przbyski and Kelli Colliton also scored for the victors, who dominated from start to finish.

SALEM 5, FRANKLIN 0: Erin Harvey had the hat trick Wednesday, propelling unbeaten Plymouth Salem (4-0) to the Western Lakes Activities Association win over Livonia Franklin (1-2).

Mandy Drummond and Lisa Ferguson also scored for the winners.

CONSIDER THE all stars and the classic bowling leagues the "cream of the crop" among the bowling community.

This week's column will feature only the men's leagues. The ladies and youth classic leagues will have their turn in a few weeks.

The top two men's leagues are the H & L Distributor's Tuesday All Star Classic of Thunderbolt Lanes and the Schaefer Beer Thursday Traveling All Stars. Many of the bowlers in these leagues bowl in both of the leagues, or on the same team.

Averages are generally lower in a traveling league than in an in-house league. Most bowlers carry averages more than 200 and honor scores of 300 games. It's not rare to see an 800 series.

These bowler's abilities are at the highest level and the competition is intense. Many of these bowlers could do well on the pro tour if they had the time and financial backing to do so.

The Observer and Eccentric cities are well represented in these leagues, as the following scores indicate.

Karl Brubaker of Garden City, carries a 214 average; Tom Brudzinski of Canton, a 225 average in the H&L League and 208 in the Schaefer's Beer League; Richard Eiermann of Garden City, 216 average with a 825 series in the H&L, and a 210 average in the Schaefer's; and Ernie Gazdag, Jr. of Westland, 220 average and an 810 series in the H&L.

Ed Grace III of Farmington Hills averages a 222 in the H&L and a 217 in the travel league, including a 300 game. Westland's Paul Grauzer averages 225 in the H&L, including a 300 game, and tops the averages in the Schaefer's with a 221.

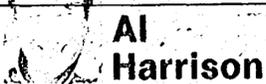

The scores of area bowlers are impressive and the honor roll of these two leagues continue: Bob Hanson of Rochester Hills averages 216 in the H&L and a 207 in the Schaefer's; George Fineran of Livonia averages a 216 in the H&L and a 212 in the Schaefer's; Lew Ansara of Farmington Hills carries a 191 average in the H&L; Westland's David Mahaz averages a 214 in the H&L; Nunzio Marino of Westland averages 218 in the H&L, including a 300 game, and a 213 average in Schaefer's.

Larry Omara of Troy averages 190 in the H&L; Jon Putti of Birmingham averages 220 in the H&L; Lee Snow of Farmington averages 219 in the H&L and 212 in Schaefer's; Troy Stus of Garden City carries a 220 average in the H&L and a 217 in Schaefer's; Jack Treolar, Jr. of Redford averages 199 in the H&L; Southfield's Dan Ottman averages 216 in the H&L and a 212 in Schaefer's.

Tony Stipack, Jr. of Redford averages 217 in the H&L and 199 in Schaefer's; Larry Walker of Garden City averages 217 in the H&L and 208 in Schaefer's; and Ryan Wilson of Garden City carries a 210 average in the H&L and a 211 in Schaefer's.

The H&L League bowls each Tuesday at Allen Park's Thunderbolt Lanes. Anyone interested in watching this level of competition are welcome to come and view the action.

Southfield's Plum Hollow Lanes is the site for the Miller Lite Classic each Friday evening. A few weeks ago, Mickey Ahrens of Southfield bowled a perfect 300 game and a 814 series, during which he threw 26 consecutive strikes.

The league also saw perfect games from Tim Saunders and Jim Strange.

Livonia's Wonderland Lanes hosts the Wonderland Classic each Tuesday night. Now in its 31st year, the league still attracts some of the area's best bowlers, including: Livonia's Ron Eisenbeis (209 average); Westland's Bill O'Brien (207); Livonia's Jim Gagnon (206); Redford's Larry Franz (205); and Redford's Greg Bashara (202).

Prize money is as impressive as the scores in this 16-team league, with first-place earning $5,400 this season and increasing to $7,500 next season. The league average is 192 this year.

This column will cease for two weeks because the Harrison's are leaving for a long drive and a too short vacation.

college sports

A pair of Livonia Franklin soon-to-be graduates have made up their minds where to continue their education — and play football, too.

Brian Poisson, from Livonia, and Mike Geiger, of Westland, have signed with Cumberland University in Lebanon, Tenn. Poisson, a 5-foot-8, 175-pound running back, was honorable mention all-Western Lakes Activities Association and was named Franklin's most valuable defensive player.

Geiger, a 6-foot, 160-pound wide receiver, was the Patriots' most valuable offensive player. He was also an all-Western Division selection.

Mike Stahley, a senior at University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point from Livonia, was presented with the Mr. Hustle Award at the annual Pointers' hockey banquet.

A wing, Stahley scored 18 goals and assisted on 19 others (37 points) in helping Stevens Point win its third straight NCAA Division III hockey title. Three of his goals came on the power play and three others were scored while the Pointers were short-handed.

Stahley was honorable mention all-Northern Collegiate Hockey Association, and he graduates with a school-record 143 games played, including 123 straight. He finished his collegiate career with 52 goals and 56 assists.

Just when things were going so well.

Tim Dowd, a senior outfielder for Central Michigan University's baseball team from Plymouth (Salem HS), suffered a second degree hamstring strain while legging out a triple April 12 against Ball State. Dowd's status for last weekend's games at Ohio University was questionable.

Too bad. Dowd was off to a hot start, batting .396 (sixth in the Mid-American Conference) in 19 games with five doubles, two triples and a home run, and 13 runs batted in. The Chippewas weren't doing so bad either: a 17-10 record entering last weekend's games at OU and a 5-1 MAC mark, good for first place.

Speaking of league leaders, check out Evansville's Art George, an outfielder from Redford (Thurs-ton HS) — again and again and again. George is listed among the Midwestern Collegiate Conference leaders in four categories.

He is hitting .330, which puts him ninth. He has three triples, second best in the MCC, and seven double, which is 10th. George's 17 stolen bases (in 20 attempts) averages out to .55-steps a game, third in the conference.

The University of Michigan's golf teams are relying on two Observerland products to stay in the hunt. It's not such a bad decision.

Dean Kobane, a junior from Livonia (Churchill HS), carded rounds of 78-68-71 to finish at 217 and in a tie for fourth place at the Marshall Invitational April 12-13. There were 18 teams at the tournament; U-M placed fifth. Kobane's score was just three shots off the lead.

Erica Zorder, a junior from Farmington Hills (North Farmington HS), fired a two-round score of 163, good for 16th overall and best among the Lady Wolverines at the 16-team Ohio State University Lady Buckeye Spring Invitational April 13-14. Zorder leads U-M with an 80.8 stroke average.

Success was stretched to consecutive tournaments for the Detroit College of Business' golf team last week. A long-time NAIA District 23 power, DCB collected wins in its first two tournaments, and Livonia Franklin HS graduate Steve Przeracki was instrumental.

At the DCB Collegiate Invitational April 12, the host Falcons bested 10 other teams to win with a 314 team score, 11 strokes better than runner-up Oakland University. Przeracki placed second overall with a 77.

Last Monday, DCB played in the 18-team Tiffin University Spring Invitational. Battling strong winds, the Falcons battled to a second win, firing a 333 to outdistance runner-up Malone College (Ohio) by 17 strokes.

Lisa Belsky, a junior at Ball State University from Plymouth (Salem HS), has collected 17 victories in 27 singles matches, competing mostly in the fifth flight. She is 1-2 in Mid-American Conference play.

Playing with three different partners at all three flights, Belsky has compiled a 9-10 doubles record. The Cardinals were 16-8 entering last week's action, but were winless in three MAC meets.

Northville wins opener

Northville started its golf program with a bang. The Mustangs won their first golf match in the program's history with a 200-220 win Thursday over Livonia Ladywood at Tanglewood Golf Club.

Senior Kristen Woodsum was the medalist, shooting a 48. Other scorers for Northville included junior Kelli Woodsum, 48; senior Shannon Price, 52; junior Kelly Casterline, 54; junior Diane Vogt, 59 and senior Courtney Casterline, 59.

For Ladywood (2-1), Michelle Gossett shot a 47 to grab medalist honors, followed by Lauren Zimmerman (49), Meghan Blake (54) and Jessica Hilario (70).

LIVONIA FRANKLIN split a pair of matches this week.

On Wednesday, Franklin (233) was a tri-meet winner over Monroe Jefferson (277) and Livonia Churchill (282) at Raisin River.

Franklin was led by medalist Nicky Meehan, who carded a 54.

S'craft 6th out of 12

There was balance in Schoolcraft College's effort Friday (April 12) at the Delta CC Invitational golf tournament, at Bay Valley Golf Course in Bay City. The four Ocelot scorers finished in a six-stroke spread.

It wasn't good enough to overtake the top teams, however. SC finished sixth in the 12-team tournament, trailing champion Lansing CC by 23 strokes.

Lansing won with a 302. Macomb CC and Muskegon CC tied for second with 307, followed by Grand Rapids CC (310), Henry Ford CC (324) and SC (325). Finishing behind the Ocelots were Oakland CC (326), St. Clair County CC (331), Glen Oaks CC (335), Mott CC (337), Alpena CC (340) and host team Delta (366).

Medalist honors went to Rod Erb of Mott and Paul Gessner of Grand Rapids; they each shot 70.

Top scorers for SC were Darrin Kent, with a 78; Rick Quito, 79; Kevin Zeschak and Jason Fournier, 84; and Dewey Steffen, 87 (the top four count in the team standings).

SC's next tournament is today at Indian Run Golf Course in Kalamazoo, with Kalamazoo Valley CC serving as host.

Going to Goa: quite an inexpensive vacation

Even peak-season prices in Goa are a bargain. Off-season rates during the hot rainy months of June through September run as low as $50 per person per day including three full meals. Peak-season rates are 50 percent higher December 20 through February when the weather is perfect.

Self-drive rental cars are not available anywhere in India, but in Goa you can rent a "tourist taxi," with driver, from the government tourism office for $25 per eight hours. One of these taxis, or a $3 bus tour, are good ways to visit the ancient Indian temples, 16th-century Portuguese churches and old forts, or to go shopping in the small capital city of Panaji.

This coastal area was part of the Hindu kingdom of Vijayanagar before Portuguese explorers came in 1510. A plague wiped out most of Old Goa in 1738, so the survivors moved their capital seven miles west to Panaji. After 451 years as a Portuguese colony, Goa was "repossessed" by India in 1961 and became the country's 25th state.

This Portuguese heritage gives Goa a strong European influence that reduces the cultural shock of India. Almost everyone speaks English. The economic base is fishing, agriculture and tourism, with very little manufacturing. Some Panaji shops sell only cashew nuts, which are a major crop and a good buy for tourists.

Travelers see areas lush with coconut palms, rice paddies and jungle. On the main roads, farmers use shallow buckets to toss grain high into the air. As it falls to the paved highway, a light breeze blows the chaff away and the grain is piled and bagged.

Another common sight is of water buffalo taking a mud bath! They waddle into deep pools of red mud until it is over their heads. When they emerge, they don't look anything like the team of clean white oxen pulling two-wheeled wooden carts down the road, loaded with lumber, coconuts, groceries, auto parts or almost any kind of cargo. Their huge wooden wheels are at least six feet in diameter.

Stop at the roadside stands selling souvenirs and handicrafts such as purses, jewelry, wood carvings and silk saris. These shopkeepers won't pressure you to buy, and you can negotiate sizable reductions in prices.

As in most of India, cows have a special status and are free to roam wherever they choose. Fortunately, there are not very many of them in Goa, although we did encounter one brown bessie on a popular public beach.

There are a great many ornate Hindu temples that welcome tourists any time, but especially during festivals. Several were built prior to the arrival of the Portuguese.

In the area known as Old Goa, you can visit the magnificent Basilica of Bom Jesus wherein the mortal remains of St. Francis Xavier repose in an ornate casket. Across the road is the imposing Se Cathedral, containing a bell said to be one of the biggest and best in the world.

An early morning spectacle on many of the wide sandy beaches near the resort hotels is the return of the fishermen. Dozens of long, black, outrigger boats are greeted each morning between 7 and 9 o'clock by wives and children who help drag heavy, fish-laden nets from the sea. Old women fill bushel-sized wicker baskets with small silvery fish.

A team of 30 or 40 people work for 20 minutes to drag each net ashore. The two ends of the net, which must be nearly a quarter-mile long, are pulled in simultaneously, creating an ever-diminishing semicircle. The last few yards to be pulled from the sea contain up to 200 pounds of fish.

The beach resorts are somewhat isolated, so rates often include meals, which means most dining is in-house. Many resorts offer a choice of two or three restaurants plus two or three bars. Food is good and varied with plenty of fish.

Spicy Indian dishes, vegetarian buffets and Portuguese cuisine as well as cheeseburgers and french fries are readily available in most hotels. Some dining rooms are air-conditioned. Many are not. Outdoor patios are popular for breakfast and casual dinners.

It's always warm in Goa, so light cotton clothing, sun hats and sunscreen are a must.

For more information, contact your travel agency or the Government of India Tourist Office, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, Suite 15, North Mezzanine, New York, NY 10112, (212) 586-4901.

I was recently quoted $1,713 for a round-trip fare Detroit to Bombay by Jaya Travel and Tours of Southfield. I also contacted India Tours Inc., toll-free in Chicago (800) 55-INDIA for a brochure.

Your travel agent might also check Air India, Pan American, Northwest and Singapore airlines, who offer various prices and discounts according to the season.

Dutchmen fill streets of Holland at tulip festival

The Holland tulip festival, a.k.a.

Tulip Time '91, runs from Wednesday, May 8 through Saturday, May 18 in Holland, Mich. Just 35 percent of the town's residents are of Dutch descent, but Dutch heritage dominates this Lake Michigan town for 10 days every spring.

You will find 1,600 "multi-national" Dutchmen performing the Klompen dance, several times a day in various parts of town. All 5,000-plus elementary students, grades one through five, march in the Children's Parade May 9. About 6,000 more scrub the streets during the Volksparade on Opening Day May 8.

More than half a million visitors attend the parade every year. They come to see the tulips, the windmill, the gardens, the shoe factory, the Dutch village and all the other attractions for which this town is famous.

The 110 teen-aged Living End Singers will perform "The Power and the Glory" May 15, 16 and 18 at Central Wesleyan Auditorium. Taffetas, a cabaret celebration of the 1950s, is presented 14 times during the festival. Victor Herbert's Red Mill dinner show is also popular.

The Show Stoppers, a senior citizen vaudeville review, is new this year. Barbershop on Parade goes into action 7 p.m. May 17. Other shows include the Tulip Time Salute, the Fantasticks, the festival musicale "My Kind of Towns" and parades, bands, costumes and other attractions.

For information telephone toll-free (800) 822-2770.

More than half a million visitors watch the Holland tulip festival parade every May on the west coast of Michigan. Residents like these get all duded up in period costumes for the celebration.

Showboat Week set to invade Chesaning

Jamie enjoyed the audition. "It was both fun and exciting. I was nervous when I went on stage, but then I got into my act and it was really exciting. The (best) part was watching the other people perform and seeing what they did with their acts."

Jamie will be there again this May. "This year LaDonna has choreographed an act for Amie and John Smith from Laingsburg," said Melody.

"I'm more excited than nervous," Jamie said. "It's a challenge to do. I just do the best I can and hope I make it."

Melody, naturally enough, hopes Jamie makes it, too. "It's quite an honor for them to be selected because so many try out. The groups that are chosen are really good."

Jamie wants to attend the festival for more than just her Showboat performance. She really likes the town. "Chesaning was really neat. There were a bunch of old houses that you could go through and a lot of unique shops."

Chesaning does have a lot to offer. The village is blessed with many well-preserved, turn-of-the-century houses on quiet, tree-lined streets, and is a lovely place to visit any time of year.

A number of these Victorian houses have been turned into shops. Some feature Victorian-accented merchandise and gifts; things like stuffed bears and collectors' porcelain dolls dressed in Victorian costume, lace and ruffle covered pillows, boxes, wall hangings and ornate music boxes.

There are also antique shops with oak furniture, tiffany lamps, depression ware and jewelry like garnet necklaces and earrings, cameos and watches.

During Showboat Week, the focus of the festivities is Showboat Park, where the showboat comes sailing down the river every evening. During the day and right up to showtime, the park hosts a large arts-and-crafts show along with food concessions run by local service groups and youth organizations.

But the whole city participates. Local merchants have sidewalk sales during Showboat Week. Churches and service groups serve home-cooked dinners (reservations recommended), and horse-drawn carriage rides are available.

For more information about the Showboat auditions, call (517) 845-3055. If you'd rather just watch, you can order tickets by phone, (517) 845-3056. Prices range from $8 to $14.

By the way, seating is not actually on the showboat. The showboat transports the main acts to the stage area, which is surrounded by bleachers where the audience sits. Ask for information about dinner with one of the local groups when ordering tickets for Showboat Week.

KEYBOARD FESTIVAL

The International Keyboard Festival runs April 27 to May 5 in Kalamazoo to celebrate people who perform, critique, teach or simply love music. The festival features piano, harpsichord, organ, fortepiano, synthesizer and the styles—classical, jazz and pop.

This Irving S. Gilmore International Festival will draw together some of the greatest keyboard musicians, including Van Cliburn, Steve Allan, Alicia de Larrocha, Claudio Arrau and Anthony di Bonaventura. The Master Series concert presents artists in solo recital, concerto and chamber performance. The Director's Series consists of more specialized and intimate concerts.

Ticket prices range from $10 to $55 depending on the concert. For more information, call 1-800-34-PIANO.

BED AND BREAKFAST DIRECTORY

The Lake to Lake Bed-&-Breakfast Association has published a new Michigan bed and breakfast directory with hundreds of listings. To get a copy, send a self-addressed stamped envelope to Lake to Lake Bed-&-Breakfast Association, Route 2, Box 183, Cedar, MI 49621.

MAPLE SYRUP FESTIVAL

The 51st annual Maple Syrup Festival will take place April 26-28 in Vermontville, Mich. Hearty stands of sugar maple trees surround this New England-like village, an hour southwest of Lansing, providing spring sap for making syrup.

Scheduled events include a pancake eating contest, carnival, crafts fair, Bluegrass fiddlers, talent contest and tractor pull. For more information, call the West Michigan Tourist Association, (616) 456-8557.

BIKE RIDE

The Michigan Council of the American Youth Hostels is leading a 25-mile back-road ride through Oakland County April 27. If you would like to join them, bring helmet, water and snacks. Meet 9:30 a.m. at Stony Creek Metro Park, West Branch Picnic Area A.

TAX REBATE

There's good economic news for the wallets of Michiganians visiting Canada.

The 7 percent Goods and Service Tax charged in Canada since Jan. 1 is rebatable on some items to non-residents of that country, AAA Travel Agency reports.

"Americans and other non-residents of Canada can receive full rebates on hotel accommodations and most consumer goods purchased in the 10 provinces and two territories of Canada," said AAA Travel Agency vice-president Diane Willard.

The GST is not rebated for meals and entertainment in Canada, according to Revenue Canada officials.

Here's how the rebate works. An American buys $2,000 worth of goods in Canada. At the border crossing, the tourist may stop at the Duty Free Shop on the Canada side and complete a rebate form. The $140 GST that was paid is immediately refunded in Canadian dollars. If the GST rebate is more than $500, it will be refunded by mail.

There are four border crossings with Duty Free Shops linking Michigan and Ontario — two in Windsor and one each in Sarnia and Sault Ste. Marie.

A person crossing the border from Canada by private boat or ferry at an entry point where there is no Duty Free Shop can get a rebate form from customs and mail it to Revenue Canada for a refund.

People crossing between Canada and the U.S. should also be aware that tightened security prevails at the border since the Persian Gulf war.

Customs officials are enforcing the requirement that those traveling between countries show either picture identification and a birth certificate, voter's registration card or passport to customs officials. Without I.D., travelers can be significantly delayed at the border. AAA Travel Agency suggests that regular visitors to Canada obtain a passport for convenience. Customers can get a passport photo for $10 at any AAA Travel Agency office.

IRIS SANDERSON JONES

Vacation 101: Do your homework

Last week, Dee Head of Farmington asked me where to go for a spring weekend with a budget of $200. Several weeks ago, Sandy Pennington of Novi and Jane Bibeau of Bloomfield asked what they should do with two weeks in China. This week, Sharon Churchfield of Plymouth wants to know where to go to celebrate a 25th wedding anniversary.

All these people are really asking the same questions. Where should I go? What should I do when I get there? How do I get the information I need to plan a great vacation?

The answer in almost every case is ask for the facts, ask for help and ask somebody who has been there. The essential word is "ask."

If you don't know where you want to go, you should probably start by talking to friends and co-workers and by spending some time in your local library.

The downtown Detroit Public Library has a huge travel department. Almost every local library has at least a few shelves of travel information. Ask the reference librarian to show you where the maps are. You can spend a rewarding afternoon just browsing through maps of your area of interest.

Step two is to contact the government tourist bureau of the city, state or country that interests you. Three steps: Call the Detroit Public Library travel desk for an address. Call telephone information for the capital city of the state or province that interests you. Call telephone information in New York City, where most foreign travel offices are based.

Tell the operator what government tourist office you're looking for and chances are she will find you a number.

These governments spend millions of dollars creating literature for travelers. All you have to do is ask for it. That works almost all the time, although I still haven't heard from the China National Tourist Office in California, which must have received my letter almost four months ago.

Jane Bibeau and Sandy Pennington couldn't wait for that, because Jane's daughter Renee will only be in China until midsummer. They had already done their basic library research so they took the next step. They asked me, and through me, my readers, for advice.

Several of you wrote to me with good information. Virginia Hayward of Ann Arbor "had a most successful trip — 21 days, six provinces — because I picked the brains of my friends who went the year previous." She asked somebody who had been there.

Kathryn Briggs of Farmington has been to China three times and appeared on a public television program, "Travel With Kay." She learned how to ask her Chinese guide about attractions that had special interest to her, like a little-known royal garden.

Barbara Swanson of Canton Township requested and eventually visited the ancient observatory in Beijing and the site of the discovery of Peking Man. All of these people know how to ask questions, and I will share their letters with you in coming weeks.

By now, you have probably contacted a travel agent, maybe more than one. Remember, it doesn't cost you a penny to talk with an agent. Commissions from the travel industry pay the agent's rent. Go to your local agent, check out the nearest AAA World Travel office or find an agent that specializes in the area that interests you.

When Micky Jones wrote this week's article on Goa, he followed all of the above rules, even though he had already visited Goa. He took guide books out of the library. He contacted the Government of India Tourist Office in New York for information. He called an Indian associate he met long ago through his office, and was directed to two specific agencies.

At his friend's suggestion, Micky visited Jaya Travel and Tours in Southfield, because it specializes in trips to India. At the Jaya agent's suggestion, he contacted India Tours Inc., of Chicago at a toll-free number, (800) 55-INDIA.

You'll find my reply to Sharon Churchfield's questions on this page soon.

Going, going... Goa

By Micky Jones
special writer

A guided tour of India's exotic cities is fascinating, but not relaxing. The cultural shock of extreme wealth, poverty, history, filth, religion, noises, costumes, smells, beggars, languages, animals, customs and foods is hard for many westerners to absorb.

After two weeks touring areas north of Bombay, we flew into the tiny west-coast state of Goa for a few days of relaxation at a luxurious beach resort. The round-trip flight from Bombay to Goa costs $92, and a four-day, three-night stay at the luxurious Majorda Beach Resort, where I stayed, is still just $160 per person including three meals a day.

It took less than an hour for our Indian Airlines plane to make the 250-mile trip south from Bombay. Goa can also be reached by train or bus, but we didn't hear good things about the 400-mile ride from Bombay that can take 24 hours or more.

Goa, which is roughly 65 by 40 miles, has 60 miles of uncrowded beaches on the Arabian Sea. Europeans, especially Germans, fly in by the thousands on inexpensive charter aircraft for two weeks of relaxation at one of several large beach resorts.

At one, The Aguada Hermitage, you can rent the one-bedroom villa occupied by Maggie Thatcher or the two-bedroom unit occupied by Indira Gandhi during a 1983 Commonwealth Conference.

Showboat Week set to invade Chesaning

By Phyllis Kröger Stillman
special writer

In the old days, when transportation was difficult, isolated small towns situated along a river looked forward to a special time of the year — showboat season, when the outside world came to visit.

Chesaning recreates those magic times every July during Showboat Week. And if you're a frustrated (but talented) performer, you could be part of the magic.

Chesaning has long been known as Michigan's showboat city. Every year since 1937, Chesaning has dusted off its old showboat, the Shawassee Queen, invited a big-name performer (like Tennessee Ernie Ford, Debbie Boone, Steve Allen, or Mickey Gilley) and hosted a week-long party. This year, Polish Prince Bobby Vinton will be the featured performer during Showboat Week, July 10-15.

For many Michigan residents, though, the famous performers are not the best entertainment during Showboat Week. Each evening's performance features six amateur acts from all over Michigan, selected at an audition in May.

This year's audition is May 3-4, and everyone is invited. All you have to do is show up at Chesaning Middle School at 6:30 p.m. either night. They'll give you a number, and then you'll wait for your chance to perform for the judges.

Be prepared to wait a while. People really do come from all over for a chance to be part of the festivities. Howell High School freshman Amie Sawallich, 15, went last year with her mother, Cindy. "It was very long. Amie was one of the last ones to audition. We didn't get out of there until almost 11 p.m.," said Cindy.

Amie said it wasn't a bad experience. "I was a little nervous, but it was fun. The auditions were a little long, but they were well organized."

Amie was selected to appear in the Showboat, and sang "Wind Beneath My Wings" last year. "I had a really good time that night. There were a lot of people there, and I like a big audience."

If people like Amie are any indication, competition is tough. Amie has been singing since she was 5, and performed with various community theater groups, including Ann Arbor Civic Theatre (playing Gretl in "The Sound of Music") and in vaudeville shows with Howell's community theater. She also performs at weddings.

Jamie Kus, 13, a seventh grader at Hays Middle School in Grand Ledge, is another committed performer. "Jamie is very serious about this kind of thing," said Jamie's mom, Melody. "She's been doing gymnastics since she was in first grade. She's hoping to get a scholarship and maybe even make a career of it."

Like many performers, Jamie heard about the audition through classes. She attends LaDonna School of Dance in Grand Ledge, operated by LaDonna Fair. Last year, though, Jamie tried out on her own. "Jamie just decided to choreograph her own routine and try out," said Melody.

Jamie Kus, 13, is a gymnast who plans to compete at Showboat Week in Chesaning in June. "I'm more excited than nervous," she said.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF LIFE:

Lynette Winkle-Snauwaert believes having a fulfilling career is very important. As a nurse at Detroit Receiving Hospital, her way of thinking is reflective of students of the '80s who have placed financial success ahead of personal fulfillment. But in the 1990s, the winds of change are blowing. Page 6

MOVING PICTURES

Excellent performances save 'Mortal Thoughts'

"Mortal Thoughts" (B, R, 104 minutes) is one of those films that entertain in spite of itself — and the enjoyment flows from excellent performances, certainly not from the transparent plot and the nagging questions it raises.

Why does Cynthia Kellogg (Demi Moore) voluntarily appear at the local police station to be videotaped confessing she was an accessory after the fact in murdering James Urbansky (Bruce Willis), the abusive husband of her best friend, Joyce (Glenn Headly)?

Why does Cynthia refuse legal counsel and allow Detective John Woods (Harvey Keitel) to badger her as she provides a great deal of damaging information about her best friend?

There aren't a lot of options in answering those questions but "Mortal Thoughts" is still well worth everyone's viewing time because the performances by Moore, Headly and Willis are compelling as Cynthia recounts — in flashback — the doomed Urbansky marriage.

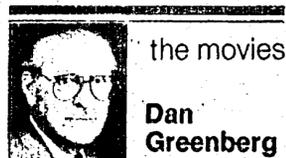

FROM THEIR very first moments, the Urbanskys squabbled as James tormented his bride, even at their wedding feast which had a nice generic, ethnic touch. Willis is a later-day Stanley Kowalski even though that role is now cliched and "Mortal Thoughts" is a long-way from the filmic achievement of "A Streetcar Named Desire."

The girls in the beauty shop, however, are the very best. Moore and Headly are simply excellent in their portrayal of two street-smart cookies, tough but loving, if only given a chance.

Cynthia has what she wants, two children and a decent, faithful man, even though her husband Arthur is somewhat of a nerd and always so busy working that Cynthia's out on the town getting in trouble. She exhibits all too well that inherent will to fail so many of us possess.

The urge to play and the looming, throbbing force of man's worst features, ably represented by Willis' Urbansky, are the seeds of tragedy that blossom all too obviously amidst "Mortal Thoughts."

"Reunion" (PG-13) has a screenplay by Harold Pinter to recommend it as well as an important topic this time of year when Holocaust Memorial Day reminds the world not only of the awful crimes Nazis committed against Jews but about the crimes regularly committed against all humanity. Ask the Kurds

JASON ROBARDS is featured in this story of two schoolboys — one Christian, one Jewish — and what happens to their friendship in Hitler's Germany of the 1930s.

The terrible toll of prejudice and racism is also the subject of "Up Against the Wall" (PG-13), a story of Black teenage life.

STILL PLAYING: "Awakenings" (B, PG-13, 121 minutes).

Robin Williams and Robert DeNiro as doctor and catatonic patient call to mind too many other films. The doctor's special care and sensitivity lead to temporary recovery but film lacks spark expected from these talented actors.

"Career Opportunities" (PG-13). The night-shift at a Target Store is Jim's last chance. Whoopie!

"Chameleon Street" (PG-13). True story of Detroit's William Street who was an impersonator of doctors and other folks.

"Class Action" (C+, R, 100 minutes).

"Dances With Wolves" (A, PG-13, 180 minutes).

"Defending Your Life" (C, PG, 95 minutes).

"The Doors" (C, R, 135 minutes).

Oliver Stone's overly long, repetitious story of Jim Morrison and rock musical group, The Doors. Excessive attention to Morrison's drug, booze and sex problems are neither attractive nor entertaining. Doubtful, as well, that it will serve as a cautionary lesson.

"The Five Heartbeats" (A-, PG-13).

"GoodFellas" (B+, R, 145 minutes).

Martin Scorsese's intense, compelling saga of three mobsters returns after receiving half-dozen Oscar nominations. Despite good acting and fine technical values, the film is to be condemned for glorifying vicious and violent gangsters.

"Gully by Suspicion" (A, PG-13, 100 minutes).

Robert DeNiro's superb performance energizes this blend of fact and fiction describing the terrible pain anti-communist hysteria inflicted on Hollywood in the '50s.

"The Hard Way" (B, R, 105 minutes).

James Woods as tough cop doing comedy doesn't match Michael J. Fox's excellent spoof of movies and movie people in this entertaining, unusual buddy film.

"Heaven and Earth" (PG-13). Japanese Samurai epic.

"Home Alone" (B-, PG, 100 minutes).

"If Looks Could Kill" (C+, PG-13).

High school student flunks French but winds up living the life of James Bond.

"King Ralph" (B, PG-13, 95 minutes).

Vegas lounge pianist (John Goodman) is in line for British throne in beautiful comedy.

'Cry:' Powerful, preachy

By John Monaghan
special writer

"China Cry" is in some ways a true-life remake of "1984," told through the eyes of a woman. And while the grueling story of Sung Neng Yee's nightmare during Communist China in the 1950s shares Orwell's totalitarian fears, its powers are muted by preachiness.

The new film, which plays exclusively at the Star Theatre in Madison Heights, opens in 1941, as the Japanese march in to Shanghai. Sung's pampered childhood is destroyed by low-flying fighter planes and storm troopers who toss her family onto the street.

Sung grows to believe the promises of the Communist government, which frees China from the marauders. Yet the bright, attractive and friendly teenager also desires nylon stockings and the attention of a handsome fellow student who wears Western clothing.

HER FREE spirit and questioning nature don't sit well with the Communists, who subject her to intense interrogation and torture throughout her 20s. They want her to denounce her early Christian teachings, but she only grows stronger in her faith. Her love for her husband is constantly in jeopardy.

"Love is a bourgeois deceit," barks a female interrogator, in between beating the pregnant Sung.

The Detroit Blues Band has made a name for itself as a gritty, urban blues outfit primarily by performing in the tri-county area.

Blues band burns with 'Real Life'

By Larry O'Connor
staff writer

The rock'n'roll dream made Jimmy McCarty sing the blues.

After nearly 20 years of performing on guitar for such legendary Motor City rock outfits as the Detroit Wheels and The Rockets, McCarty changed his tune. Tired and fed up with the peripheral nature of the rock'n'roll business, he landed with the Detroit Blues Band four years ago.

"It's (the blues) just closer to what I feel musically," said McCarty, whose band performs Friday, April 26, at the Other End Lounge in Taylor. "I just reached a point with rock'n'roll that I just wasn't satisfied anymore.

"There's so many things in rock'n'roll that are just as important or more important than the music itself. I couldn't deal with that after a while."

Rather than letting his dissatisfaction turn to bitterness and sullenness, McCarty turned to the style of music where honesty and introspection burn passionately.

"Real Life," the Detroit Blues Band's first release, documents McCarty's transformation from the plasticity and facade of rock'n'roll excess to the soulful renderings of the blues. The release confirms this blues thing is not just a passing fancy for McCarty.

But while McCarty has found creative solitude, "Real Life" marks a turning point for the Detroit Blues Band itself, whose time has finally come. The band originally formed in 1976.

CURRENT MEMBERS, guitarist/vocalist Emanuel X. Garza and drummer Thomas "T-Bone" Wagner, were in the first incarnation of Detroit Blues Band. William "Billie" Landless plays bass in the band.

Both have seen bandmates come and go in 15 years, including a harp player who left three years ago.

Detroit Blues Band has always had an unsullied reputation as a gritty, urban blues outfit. The band was chosen as the Best Blues Band in 1987, 1988 and 1989 in the annual Metro Times Music Poll.

Yet word of the group's musical talents never filtered beyond the Motor City. Part of the problem was the band hardly traveled outside the tri-county area to perform, except for a brief excursion to Texas.

More than anything, though, the immobility stemmed from not having a product. "Real Life" is the band's first release after 15 years of performing.

Understandably, band members are quite proud of the release.

"The fact it's our stuff," said Garza, who composed "Go Downtown" and "Scandalous Behavior" on "Real Life." "Years ago, we would have done all cover stuff. Except for the Muddy Waters cover, this is all original stuff.

"It's got a little of everything in it. It's not totally a blues album and it's not totally a rock album."

Some blues aficionados might grumble about the release's rock stylings while rock'n'roll purists might "Real Life" is too bluesy. "The ones that just take the CD for what it is enjoy it the most," McCarty said.

INITIALLY, the band didn't enjoy recording of "Real Life." McCarty said what should have been a month's worth of work was turned into six because the project was recorded in a small studio. Producer Gary Spaniola did the final mixing at Sella Sound, giving the CD an undeniable professional gleam.

Firehose douses notion of sell-out

By Larry O'Connor
staff writer

Bill Wyman, John Entwistle, Adam Clayton and Sid Vicious — definitely bass players by Mike Watt's definition.

Sting? No, the blond zen leader of The Police is too cool, sort of the anti-bassist.

"Think of the kazoo, man," said Firehose bassist Watt, summing up a just-completed dissertation on the instrument and its place in rock'n'roll history. "It's funny. It's where you put the lame guys."

Frustrated guitar players, Watt calls them. The lot of them are finger-picking dweebs who were the afterthought in most bands, according to the Firehose leader.

Not women bassists, though. People like Kim Gordon of Sonic Youth are all right in Watt's book.

This rhetoric from Watt could be misconstrued as an indictment against those who perform on the four-string instrument.

Rather it's more a call to arms, a purposeful slap for bassists across the world to unite against the bourgeoisie of the guitar-controlled conspiracy of rock'n'roll.

Firehose's funk-jazz-rock laden music Watt's putting the dream into motion.

ASIDE FROM bassist's revenge, Firehose's latest release "Flyin' the Flannel" marks a radical change for the California-based three-piece. The product is the band's first on a major label, Columbia.

This development — more precisely any mention of a sellout — turns Watt just a tad defensive. He's quick to point out the brilliant 16-song effort was paid for with the band's own money, recorded before the band even landed a deal with the Sony-owned label.

"I haven't changed in any way," said Watt in a telephone interview from Providence, R.I. "Have you listened to it yet? Does it sound much different than our other albums?"

Watt said he's been asking others, who are quick to bring up the band's switch to a major label, that question. The main reason for going from SST to Columbia was better distribution.

"Hopefully, it gets in the chain stores," Watt said.

The thought of Firehose perhaps being featured in a window display at a giant record store in some strip mall is a bit much to fathom. This band's meld of melodic and edgy music has been something of a tucked-away treasure, shared discreetly only with those who deserved to be enlightened.

ASIDE FROM the three-prong attack of Ed "From Ohio" Crawford's gnawing guitar, George Hurley's syncopated drumming and Watt's groove-infested bass, there's a refreshing exuberance in Firehose. Such enthusiasm has sustained this band whereas a lot of other groups would have long since been rendered to historical footnotes.

Formed in 1986, Firehose was formed by the surviving members of

YOU'LL EAT WHAT WE'RE COOKING
— The Generals

The first full-fledged LP from this Detroit band picks right up where they left off last year with their self-titled EP. A lot of the same rough edges are there, but then again so is the potential.

The majority of the album is blistering, raw rock'n'roll, driven by speed guitar and percussion work. It's no wonder that these guys have been compared to those Motor City icons, Iggy and the Stooges.

"Til the Day You Spoke" opens the album with an example of The Generals' rawness when it works. Unfortunately, for every tune like "Spoke," "I've Been There" and "If I Run," are wastes of time like "Can't Go On" and "If Tomorrow."

As with the EP, it is the changes of pace throughout "You'll Eat What We're Cooking" that stick with the listener. "One More Night" and "Because of You" show the band's other side and leave you hungry for more.

"Dirt Roads, Old Friends" is an acoustic guitar interlude that adds a new dimension to The Generals' sound (not to mention clearing up any misconceptions about their guitar playing versatility).

"You Weren't Much of a Lady" is another bluesy favorite worth mentioning by itself due to its classic chorus: "You weren't much of a lady, but now you're naking one helluva song/You weren't much of a woman, but I'm gonna play you all night long."

A ballad called "The Road" closes the album with a nifty harmonica intro by lead vocalist Tony Cole.

SOUL HITS OF THE '70s — various artists

They're at it again — hot on the heels of "Have a Nice Day," a 15-volume compilation enshrining 1970s pop hits, the folks at Rhino Records are now mining the vaults for '70s soul classics.

The first five volumes of "Didn't It Blow Your Mind" center on the years 1969-71, just as Motown was ebbing and just before Philly International caught fire.

In retrospect, it was a rich time for black popular music. Groups and soloists jockeyed for chart position in a surprising variety of styles.

While the Chiffons and Delfonics delivered the sweetest of sweet soul music, Tina Turner tore it up with her sassy, southern style. While Friends of Distinction politely delivered their brand of L.A. pop soul, Flaming Ember offered Sly Stone-derived funk.

Turner aside, none of these artists managed any kind of lasting stardom. But there were some magnificent one-shots — "O-o-h Child" by the Five Starsteps, the Edwin Hawkins Singers' "Oh Happy Day" and Jean Knight's "Mr. Big Stuff" among them.

Several of the songs are drawn from Invictus/Hot Wax — post-Motown labels founded by ace Motor City songwriters Lamont Dozier and Eddie and Brian Holland.

These songs, including Freda Payne's "Band of Gold," "Somebody's Been Sleeping" by 100 Proof Aged in Soul and "Give Me Just a Little More Time" and other, lesser-known followups by Chairmen of the Board, form the basis of an overlooked second chapter in Detroit's illustrious soul history. (Could a full Invictus/Hot Wax retrospective be far behind?)

Whatever their source, few of these songs have been anthologized before. That makes this collection a welcome addition for those who remember — and maybe for some of those who don't, —

Men discover their sexuality sooner than women

Dear Barbara,

Why is it when I talk to gay men they say they have known that they were gay their whole life. But when I talk to gay women, they say they didn't figure out the problem until young adulthood. Are men more in touch with their sexuality?

George

Dear George,

Before answering your excellent question, we have to recognize that as of this date, we do not know the genetic contribution to homosexuality and lesbianism. The genetic factor might come out earlier in men and later in women.

It may turn out that the expression of the genetic code for men is at an earlier age than it is for women. If you and I have this in the back of our mind, I can then respond psychologically.

Psychologically, the roles of men and women growing up are different. For both, the original bond is to the mother. A man has an easier job — for him the love object remains a woman.

For the woman, the task is more difficult. She must change her love object to a man and this happens at a later date. It might not happen until she gets married and then finds out she is not enjoying it.

Adolescent girls often have crushes on teachers or classmates who are women. When all goes ac-ording to cultural expectations, they then outgrow these crushes and make the difficult change to the man as a love object.

Some cannot make this change and remain attracted to women. If she is a lesbian, then it is about this point that she will realize it. It will come into consciousness after trying to make the culturally acceptable switch and not being able to.

Why do men, who have the easier task, switch to another man as a love object rather than remaining bonded to women? (Of course, I still recognize the pressing contribution of genes in these choices.) In a psychological explanation, the baby boy felt panic in his relationship with his mother and so he pulled away.

He became frightened and felt weak and helpless in this relationship. When this happens, the mother as a love object has to be avoided. He then seeks strength from his father and later on from other men.

Developmentally, this switch was motivated to occur at a younger age than the girl's switch. Because the demands on men and women are different, he found out earlier that he was not going to comply with cultural expectations.

It is also possible that in our culture, women can hide their sexual preference even from themselves longer than men can. Sexually, the physical demands on men and women are different and so women might be able to defend themselves against acknowledging the reality of their sexual preference for a longer time. A woman can be passive and still seem adequate. A man cannot hide the lack of an erection.

This is a complicated topic. I am sure that many readers have additional thoughts on this subject that I have left out. Any letters which contribute understanding to this problem will be welcomed.

VIDEO VIEWING

Violence galore, so all can comfortably displace their aggressions via Seagal's antics. Certainly, a $43 million box office can't be wrong.

"Marked for Death" debuted on videocassette April 18 and on the same day, a different kind of violence, from another era, appeared on home video for the first time.

Peyton Place (1957, 157 minutes) and Return to Peyton Place (1961, 123 minutes) were pretty violent and shocking stories of life, love, sex and passion behind closed doors in a small New England town.

THE FIRST starred Lana Turner and was nominated for nine Oscars while Carol Lynley was featured in the second. Both will seem tame by today's standards but lovers of soapy melodrama, as well as everyone tripping out on nostalgia, will enjoy this dual pack. Where else can you get almost five hours of other people's lives for just pennies a minute?

While we're on this love affair with old-time hate and passion, MGM/UA Home Video is releasing 10 detective stories Wednesday, each for under $20, starring a host of famous Hollywood names — Tony Randall, Robert Morley, Anita Ekberg, Elliot Gould, James Garner, Steve McQueen and Faye Dunaway, among others.

Four of these films feature Margaret Rutherford as Miss Marple in the Agatha Christie series — Murder Ahoy (1964, 93 minutes), Murder at the Gallop (1963, 81 minutes), Murder Most Foul (1965, 90 minutes) and Murder, She Said (87 minutes). The last, in 1962, was Rutherford's first appearance as Miss Marple. All are in black and white and unrated but suitable for family viewing.

The Alphabet Murders (1966, black and white, 90 minutes) has Rutherford in a guest appearance with Tony Randall starring as Hercule Poirot, another Agatha Christie favorite.

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER makes an unbilled appearance in The Long Goodbye (1973, color, 112 minutes), Robert Altman's updated spoof of the old Raymond Chandler private-eye story.

Other titles in this orgy of old detective stories include The Thomas Crown Affair (1968, color, 102 minutes), Kiss Me Deadly (1955, black-and-white, 105 minutes).

ALTERNATIVE MOVIE

"There's no place for it in the new China."

The story is true, according to the introduction, even the supernatural scene where she's saved from a firing squad by a blinding light, which some interpret as a lightning bolt from heaven.

Anger and outrage fuel "China Cry," which was written and directed by James Collier, apparently on a mission from God. I can't remember a film in the past few decades that so openly wears its Christianity on its sleeve.

The occasional charm of "China Cry" comes from actress Julia Nickson-Soul, who, like the other actors, delivers her lines in English. The one-dimensional supporting characters, from her brooding husband to the stone-faced Communists, drag the film down.

THE DIALOGUE is loaded with cliches, not just party slogans ("The era of pure Communism is the prize of the future."), but from Sung, who tells her husband, "They bend us like saplings in the wind."

While there are moments of suspense and power, this is not an especially hard-hitting drama.

There's no edge. Like a TV movie with a message, it can be digested and leaves you with the required amount of outrage.

Overall, "China Cry" should warrant high praise from the review staff at The Christian Science Monitor. After witnessing the anti-Communist, pro-Christian and American values espoused here, you may think the Monitor had a hand in producing it.

Band plays blues its way on 'Life'

Despite not being enamored with the rock'n'roll lifestyle, McCarty wants to go on the road with the Detroit Blues Band and reach a wider audience. He's tasted success on several levels.

Though he played with Billy Lee and the Rivas, who later became Mitch Ryder and The Detroit Wheels, some of McCarty's best rock'n'roll tracks were laid with The Rockets. Johnny "Bee" Badanjek formed the band in 1973, recording six LPs, including one on Capitol.

McCarty also contributed guitar pieces for Bob Seger's "Seger VII" album and Jimi Hendrix's "Nine to the Universe."

But in those 20 years, McCarty also worked with The Siegel-Schwall Band and The Buddy Miles Express.

"I always appreciated the blues," said McCarty, whose influences include B.B. King, Albert King and Hendrix. "I spent 20 years trying to make it. It gets to the point to when you don't make it... and you do what you really want to do."

Available for $20 from The Male Room, The Boardwalk, West Bloomfield.

Magic Garden

Children will be enchanted, watching their own magic beanstalk grow. The easy gardening kit contains everything to transport Jack from the castle ground to the giant's magic kingdom. In the book, read all about Jack's exciting adventure with the beanstalk, then turn the book upside down and read the story from the giant's point of view in "The Beanstalk Incident." After all, there are always two sides to every story! Available at Jacobson's Stores. Book cost $14, gardening kit $8.

the hardcore group, The Minutemen, who lost frontman D. Boon in a van crash. As the story goes, one of The Minutemen's biggest fans in Ohio heard, quite mistakenly, that the band was auditioning new guitarists.

Ed Crawford promptly quit his job and headed to San Pedro, Calif., to try out. Upon hearing The Minutemen were finished, Crawford remained undaunted. The young guitarist continually called Watt, who was still grieving the death of D. Boon.

"He had a lot of (guts) coming out to California like that," said Watt, who has taken a teacher-pupil role with the young guitarist. "In 4 1/2 years, he's been on 10 tours. (I taught him) how to do Vaudeville. I give him a lot of credit. He's got a lot of drive."

That energy is something Watt wanted to rekindle on "Flyin' Flannel."

"I thought I played conservative bass on the last album ('FROM MOHO')," Watt said and added later. "I've written 250 ditties over the years, if you want to call them that. To make them fresh... it still has to have that same intensity."

Firehose will perform Friday, April 26, at Alvin's, 5756 Cass, Detroit. Tickets are $10 in advance. For information, call 99-MUSIC.

STREET CRACKS

For Gary Thison, there's no better job than comedy

By Julie Brown
staff writer

Gary Thison remembers watching Dick Van Dyke and Red Skelton's TV shows when he was a child. He thought they were funny.

These days, Thison's making them laugh during his own performances as a stand-up comic. Thison, 37, has been doing comedy for "a long time. Right out of high school, pretty much, so we're going on 20 years."

"It's been fun so far. There's just no better job than this. I don't have to know what I'm talking about."

Making them laugh is what matters in Thison's line of work.

He grew up on the east side, graduating from Harper Woods High School. Thison, a Clinton Township resident, has lived on the east side most of his life. He studied theater at Wayne State University.

He'll appear later this month at Joey's Comedy Club in Livonia. "It's a fun room."

THISON PERFORMS at comedy clubs and does corporate shows.

His repertoire includes after-dinner banquet shows combining magic and comedy. They're similar to his club performances but cleaner.

He studied magic for years and has continued to incorporate magic into his performances.

"Everything always had a comedic twist to it. I pull out some genuine magic props, but I bastardize them. Things just don't quite work out."

Some of the tricks flop, intentionally, but Thison also does some real magic tricks that work out.

"It's a comedy-variety show."

Within two minutes of arriving on stage, Thison likes to have audience members feel as if they're relaxing

In his basement.

"I'm pretty confident that I can get almost any crowd to like me."

THISON'S WORK isn't all in the Detroit area. He has performed in such cities as Sarasota, Fla., and Chattanooga, Tenn.

"It's the best place because more people know me," he said of his time spent in metro Detroit.

Thison finds it easier to get more work in this area because of his contacts, but also enjoys his work elsewhere.

"Kansas City is like a dream. They just love every show. It's a sophisticated audience."

THISON FINDS a variety of sources of inspiration when writing material.

"There's really a non-stop influx of material because anything can be funny."

He and other comics tend to exaggerate things that happen in real life. Thison was sleeping in his car by the side of the road a while back when he was approached by the police.

"They were very nice."

He wasn't drunk, and didn't get a ticket. That brief, polite exchange found its way into his act.

THISON UPDATES his material regularly. He can throw something new in for a short time. He did that when the pope came to Michigan a few years ago and that visit was covered extensively on TV.

"It was very funny for a couple weeks."

After that, he dropped the pope material. Thison also revises his material slightly depending on where he's performing.

He has written in the past for other people, including Soupy Sales.

"I wrote for a lot of radio personalities."

He has continued to write for other comedians.

"It has to be a certain kind of act."

Thison does some writing now for a comedian-ventriloquist. He writes material that can't be used in his own performances.

THISON APPEARED on WDIV-TV/Channel 4 earlier this year for the annual Easter Seal Telethon. He has performed at fund-raising benefits for United Way and other non-profit groups.

"You try to give it back when you can."

He has done some other TV work, including local talk shows such as "Kelly and Co."

"No HBO special yet."

IN HIS free time, Thison enjoys being with his wife and children. He collects baseball cards and has bought Operation Desert Storm and Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle cards.

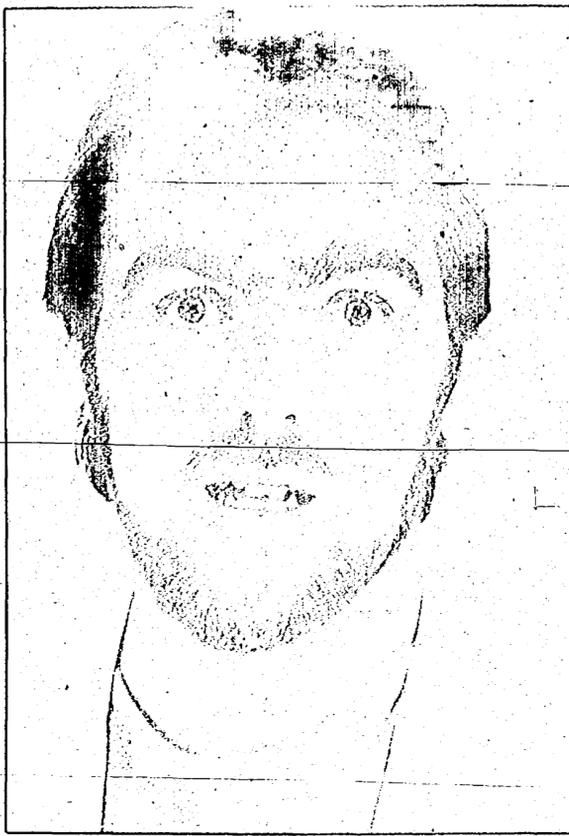

"So that's something I like to do."

His work keeps him busy.

"It's just a non-stop, constantly promoting yourself."

Down the road, he'd like to do more writing. Thison may just try to write the great American novel at some point.

Gary Thison will be at Joey's in Livonia/Stoyan's Inn, 36071 Plymouth Road in Livonia, April 24-27. Showtimes will be 8:30 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, 8 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday. For reservations or more information, call 261-0555.

As a child comedian like Dick Van Dyke and Red Skelton made him laugh. Now, Gary Thison is the one making people laugh as a stand-up comic.

Making it in the 1990s

By William Coutant
staff writer

With all that has been written and said about the recent emphasis on personal wealth, the emergence of the "yuppies" and the self-serving as the dominant role models of the late 1980s, you might wonder what's next — or what the next generation of professionals will be like.

If you're looking for a return to the idealism of the '60s, don't hold your breath. But that doesn't mean the current crop of students and recent grads are all about money and status, either.

Judging the results of a questionnaire on life goals given to incoming college freshmen, achieving financial success is one of the most important goals, while developing a meaningful philosophy of life is a low priority for most.

That represents nearly a complete reversal from student attitudes in the early 1960s.

BUT TALKING to college seniors and those who've recently graduated, a different picture emerges.

Yes, being "comfortable" is a goal for most, but having a fulfilling career and personal life, and helping others are also important.

Connie Majewski, a recent Oakland University graduate working on her master's in physical therapy, is looking for a career that combines some degree of financial success and job security in a way that will help others.

"Physical therapy is something I've always wanted to do," the New Baltimore resident said. "I can see the impact I have on patients. There's a lot of job satisfaction because I can make a difference."

"WORKING WITH people" is an important consideration, said Khyla Condne, a psychology major at OU.

Condne, who will graduate in June, is an intern for the probate court in Royal Oak.

Financial success is not a high priority for the Ferndale resident; helping prevent drug and alcohol abuse, and making life better for youngsters is important.

"I know that I'm not going to do this and make a lot of money," she said.

HAVING A fulfilling career is very important, said Lynette Winkle-Snauwaert, an MSU and OU graduate. She works as a nurse in the "surgical intensive care" unit of Detroit Receiving Hospital.

"They trained me real well at OU," she said. "But I never thought I could do what I'm doing now. You get a real good feeling when you come home and know that you've changed somebody's life."

And earning an advanced degree is a likely possibility, the OU 1990 nursing graduate said.

"There are so many possibilities in the nursing field, it's wide open."

Lisa Taylor, a December graduate in communications, would like to work for the government doing something we all would like to see — saving tax dollars.

"Finances are important, but being happy is number one," Taylor said. "I've never had a problem. I know I'll have enough money."

For Taylor, marriage and a family, making an impact on the political structure and living by her religious convictions are top priorities.

AND ALTHOUGH many said they plan to marry at some time, for most, it is a future consideration.

"Far down the road," and "maybe in five years or so, when I'm established in my career" are typical responses of several students and recent graduates interviewed.

Establishing a career, and in many cases, returning to college for an advanced degree are factors that will keep many from the wedding altar for some time.

Lisa Bamberger, a 1988 Eastern Michigan University graduate, expects to return to school to earn a master's in toxicology, she said.

"I think you need that extra education," she said. "It seems that in the hierarchy of this field, most people have some advanced degree in the field."

The Ypsilanti Township resident said she loves her job, which involves testing the quality of drinking water.

"It's real-world chemistry," she said.

AFSANEH "SONYA" Nematollahi, a systems engineer for General Motors, would encourage anyone who can to continue straight through college and earn an advanced degree, she said.

Sound training and the ability to work with people are keys in any field, she said.

Afsaneh "Sonya" Nematollahi, a systems engineer for General Motors, believes young people should go straight through college and earn an advanced degree.

While Keith Kreager has solid credentials — an undergraduate degree from Michigan State University and soon-to-be master's degree from Oakland University — he has yet to land the type of job he wants.

"You can't be isolated," she said. "Problem solving isn't enough. You've got to be able to work with people."

THE ROCHESTER HILLS resident came to the United States from Iran. The United States is the best country in which to pursue a career, she said.

"I don't think people who live here understand how much freedom and opportunity we have here," she said.

Nickalee Niedzielski, a 1989 Eastern Michigan University graduate in public administration, is working toward a master's degree at Wayne State University.

"I didn't need to get my M.A.," the South Lyon resident said. "It allows you to study more in your specialty."

Marriage and family are "down the road," said Keith Kreager, a Michigan State University graduate. He will earn his master's degree in business administration this spring from OU.

And even though Kreager will have solid credentials, he still hasn't landed the type of job he wants. For Kreager, the recession has already hit home.

"I'm a little worried," the Rochester native said. "I've had some interviews, but they're mostly writing back to say 'Thanks, but no thanks.'"

SOME STUDENTS cited concerns beyond their immediate career goals. The environment, race relations, politics, and the homeless are among those concerns.

Rosemary Harp, a University of Michigan sophomore, said many of her friends "are more economically oriented," than she is. But that doesn't worry the Birmingham native.

"You have to do what's going to make you happy," Harp said.

Harp, who is leaning toward a creative writing major, said she not only considers it important to follow a career path based on other than financial motives, but to be involved in politics and social issues.

She has worked for political candidates and for environmental issues, but doesn't see that as a campus trend.

"A lot of students here are apathetic," she said. "Most aren't even registered to vote."

PERHAPS MICHAEL Jahr, a senior majoring in journalism at EMU, has found a happy medium to the puzzle of why students have become more concerned with their careers, but not necessarily personal wealth.

"I don't want to sit in an office from 9 to 5," he said. "It's (journalism) a job that I'm excited about."

"But I've grown up in an era and in a city (Flint) where layoffs have become common. Companies like GM would grow and boom. Then a recession comes and they layoff."

"I don't think people are as idealistic as in the '60s, but they're not as money-conscious as the yuppies."

Idealism takes back seat to financial success

Attitudes mirror economics

By William Coutant
staff writer

The trend over the past 24 years to pursue careers that offer higher financial rewards will probably continue, but some market forces and a changing employment picture could alter some current paths to success.

Data gathered by the American Council on Education suggests that the desire to achieve financial goals has replaced other, less material pursuits.

According to a questionnaire given to incoming college freshmen at Oakland University, "being financially well off" has replaced "developing a meaningful philosophy of life" as an essential or very important goal.

"It's a complete reversal from 1966," said Georgia B. Aktan, director of institutional research at Oakland University.

In 1966, 90 percent of incoming OU freshmen rated developing a meaningful philosophy of life as a top priority, Aktan said. In 1989, that had dropped to 35 percent.

During the same period, being well off financially climbed from a low of 34 percent in 1966 to 80 percent in 1989.

THAT CHANGE may not just reflect a shift from altruism to selfishness.

"I think then (in 1966), you knew you were going to find a job," Aktan said. "The economy has changed."

Aktan said OU fits the national profile of most public American universities, so the findings probably hold true throughout the country.

And, not surprisingly, business careers have continued to be the biggest draw over the past 10 years, with between 20 and 21 percent of Michigan college students choosing a business major, she said.

BUT THE quest for financial security and solid money-making careers has put a drain on other fields where expertise is at a premium.

"There is a tremendous demand in the sciences," said Raymond E. Hill, a professor of management at Eastern Michigan University.

"There is a demand for two to three times the number of Ph.D.s that we now have."

THE LONG-TERM commitment necessary for a student to earn a doctorate, the difficulty in making a living while pursuing an advanced degree and the money that can be made in the private sector by a talented scientist all work against the advanced educational system and research positions, he said.

Public misconceptions about science and technology are also a contributing factor to a lack of status for researchers, Hill said.

"People have a lot of mixed feelings about technology and sciences," he said. "Science literacy among the public is lagging."

SO DOES the brain drain from other academic fields and the large number of business graduates translate to a stronger business community in the United States? Probably not, one economist said.

"We need people with a good liberal arts background and some business training," said David Littmann, senior economist with Manufacturers Bank in Detroit.

"Communication skills are highly prized. The ability to write and speak clearly is really important."

Littmann is concerned that most people new to the business world are looking for financial rewards ahead of job satisfaction.

And a thin background in courses other than business can hamper a business professional's ability to change with the times, he said.

"You need to be more of a whole person, because things will change, and you have to adapt."

MORE THAN ever, ability in a foreign language, especially Japanese, German, French and Spanish, is a big plus in business, he said.

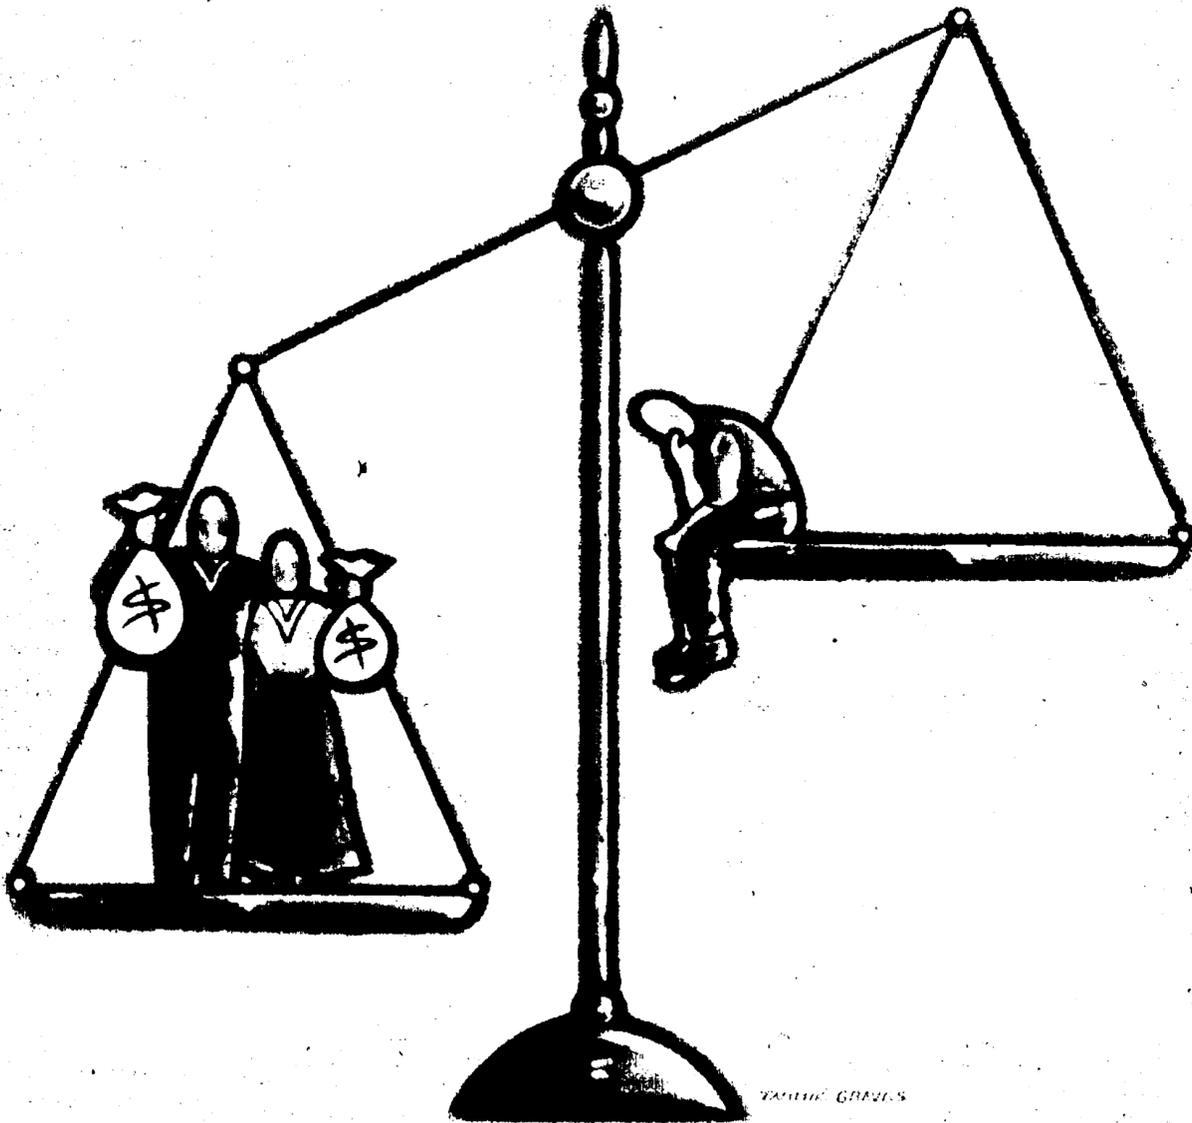

And along with a good undergraduate degree, a master's in business administration is highly valued in the business community, Littmann said.

"The demand for MBAs, especially in accounting, is increasing," he said.

With an uncertain economy and the ups and downs in demand for many fields, such as engineering, business careers show no sign of lagging in popularity.

"The second most popular field last year (in Michigan public colleges) was communications," Aktan said.

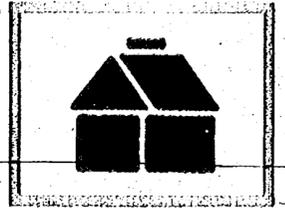

"Five years ago it was engineering. Ten years ago it was social sciences. But business has been number one during all those years."

Colors: They help shade moods

A peek into feelings

WATER COLORS or brights, air or fire shades, the enthusiasm in dressing this season focuses on color.

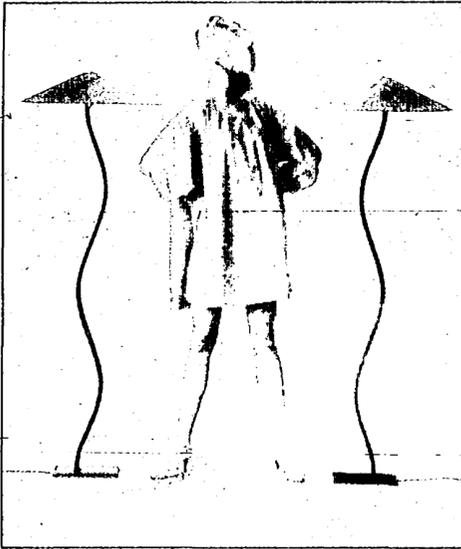

Buying a color that becomes you is important, but choosing a color to wear on a certain day to compensate for the way you feel also is significant.

Studies have shown the color of our clothes affects our state of mind. Here are some properties of individual colors:

- Red being the warmest of all colors increases vitality, energy and warmth. It will stimulate the senses that include seeing, hearing, smelling and feeling. The color of love, fire and passion.
- Green is a calming and quieting color, the color of nature. Green encourages stability.
- Yellow is associated with sunshine. Yellow is warming and brings happiness. It has been noted to wear yellow when asking for a raise, it's hard to say no to yellow.
- Like the blue of the sky and the ocean, blue has been linked with soothing properties. Blue is an excellent tranquilizer, as well as being cooling and relaxing.

All backdrop accessories are from Gorman's Gallery of Fine Furniture, Southfield.

Preview planned

Village Antique Show draws national dealers

The treasures of past generations will be on view for prospective new owners May 10-12 at Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village's seventh annual Village Antiques Show. A special preview will be May 9.

The museum's Lovett Hall will provide an intimate setting for 47 dealers from across the nation. Each will present a distinctive selection of antique merchandise.

"Each participating dealer has a reputation that is as distinguished as the antiques being presented," said J. Jordan Humberstone, Village Antiques show manager.

Complementing the show is The Katherine B. Hagler Memorial Mini Forum, a free lecture series designed for the private collector.

On Friday, May 10, John Zolomij, director of the Raymond E. Holland Automotive Art Collection, will discuss "The Motor Car in Art" from his book of the same title.

On Saturday, May 11, David Lindquist, dealer in 18th- and 19th-century English and country French antiques, will present "Antique Furniture: What to Know Before You Buy."

Both talks are free with Village Antiques Show admission.

A GALA preview night party on Thursday, May 9 will offer an advance opportunity to survey and buy antiques before the public opening on May 10. Preview ticket prices range from $100 to $300.

Proceeds from the Village Antiques Show support all aspects of Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, including educational experiences such as one-room schoolhouse classes and preservation of Thomas Edison's Menlo Park laboratory and dozens of other historic buildings in the village.

Tickets for the Village Antiques Show are $5 in advance, $6 at the door. They are separate from regular museum or village admission. A single ticket purchase is good for all three days of the show.

Lovett Hall is adjacent to Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, at Oakwood Boulevard and Village Road in Dearborn, just west of the Southfield Freeway and south of Michigan Avenue.

College glass art to grab spotlight

Center for Creative Studies-Colege of Art and Design students, faculty and alumni are playing a key role in April for Michigan Glass Month.

From 1-4 p.m. Saturday, April 27, glass department faculty Herb Babcock, Max Davis and Albert Young, along with student Chris Nordin, will have a special demonstration of glass sculpture and blowing techniques.

The demonstration will be on campus in the glass studios in the Yamasaki Building, 245 E. Kirby.

Michigan Glass Month helps introduce Michigan artists who are using glass as the material for their artistic expression.

The 11th annual celebration is designed to promote public awareness of varied kinds of glass and its use in industry and the home as art.

THE CENTER for Creative Studies' committee for Michigan Glass Month 1991 is co-chaired by Herb Babcock, glass department chairman, and renowned alumna Sylvia Viglietti.

Functional and decorative glass works by students, faculty and alumni will be exhibited at nine galleries throughout the Detroit area. Their glass artworks range from functional vessels, platters, jewelry and paperweights to abstract sculptures.

Michigan has been a leader in promoting glass as a contemporary art form and in helping enrich the public's appreciation of the beauty of this art form.

STUDENTS INVOLVED in the study of glass are taught many different techniques including hot-blown glass, stained glass, cast glass, pate de Verre, sand blasting, grinding and polishing glass.

Center for Creative Studies is a four-year, fully accredited college and one of the 10 largest visual arts colleges at the undergraduate level in the United States.

The college grants the bachelor of fine arts degree in 17 areas of concentration in crafts, fine arts, graphic communication, industrial design and photography.

It's at 201 E. Kirby, directly behind the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Develop poise at public speaking

Q: How do you go about organizing to give a speech? I do a lot of business presentations but I'm always nervous. Sometimes they don't go over very well and then I feel terrible afterward. I know you do a lot of speaking, so I'm hoping you can give me some guidelines.

A: Studies show that next to death, speaking before an audience is the second most dreaded fear in life, so you certainly aren't alone in your anxieties.

And if you "homb" (which happens to everyone once in a while) you'll feel worse yet, a feeling that will linger if you let it.

I've been speaking and giving seminars for 10 years and attended hundreds of hours of education on the subject. Speaking is actually quite complex and there's no way I can do justice to your question in this short column.

THE Professional Speakers Association of Michigan, however, is giving a one-day seminar on Powerful Business Presentation Skills at Laurel Manor in Livonia on May 8.

It runs 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and is designed for executives or anyone who must give presentations.

This seminar is far beyond "Speech 101," as professional speakers share the intricacies of making a speech look easy.

THE FIRST session by Tim Connor, CSP (Certified Speaking Professional), will teach how to prepare yourself mentally; pre-plan your presentation and room logistics; and anticipate problems, resistance, reactions and attitudes of your audience.

She'll teach how to hold the audience in the palm of your hand with six behaviors that will capture the audience's attention; how to design visuals to keep your audience enthused, educated and entertained, etc.

Winning your audience with a 90-second, non-verbal warm-up will be presented by international image consultant Carol Peterson.

She'll target common image mistakes and teach easily understood principles to assure you'll win over your audience even before you speak.

Another key to successful speaking is understanding what your audience expects. C. Leslie Charles, CSP, will share five strategic steps to diminish resistance and to work your group effectively.

A LIGHT "working lunch" is included with participants seated at tables with professional speakers (I'll be among them) to dialog on any aspect of speaking. No one from the audience will be asked to speak.

This is not a "traveling road show" but a seminar given by highly professional Michiganders with a long list of distinctions who earn their living by speaking internationally.

They are members of PSAM, the Michigan chapter of the National Speakers Association, which has grown from just a handful of people 16 years ago to a current membership of 3,700 people.

You can register for this seminar by sending a check for $125 payable and addressed to PSAM, 6165 Worlington, Birmingham 48010. For more information, call 626-2062.

Dorothy Lehmkuhl is a professional time management consultant, based in Birmingham. "Organizing" runs the first three Mondays of each month. This is a special edition of the column.
