Commuter rail stop could create jobs, development

BY DARRELL CLEM
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Westland's selection as a train stop for a proposed commuter rail service between Detroit and Ann Arbor could spur new jobs, businesses and housing close to a passenger station near Michigan Avenue and Henry Ruff Road, local and regional officials said.

Planners hope to start four round trips daily on the 48-mile route by October 2010. However, the project still hinges partly on funding and an agreement with Canadian National Railroad to use a stretch of its tracks from the New Center area of Detroit to near Dearborn, said Carmine Palombo, director of transportation programs for the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments, or SEMCOG.

Westland's station, possibly in a building that also houses a county-owned library for the blind, would allow passengers to connect with a shuttle service to and from Detroit Metro Airport, an improved facility used by millions of people every year.

Mayor William Wild said airport access convinced railway planners to choose Westland as a train stop — a decision that came amid vigorous lobbying from city officials and lawmakers such as state Rep. Richard LeBlanc and state Sen. Glenn Anderson, both Westland Democrats.

"The airport was the sell," Wild said.

Planners envision a pilot rail project for three to five years, in hopes that ridership will reveal a need for a permanent commuter system including the Westland stop.

"I think it's going to create

Chamber Taste Fest a hit with holiday revelers

BY JULIE BROWN
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The sound of music and smell of great food were apparent Tuesday evening at the Hellenic Cultural Center in Westland.

The occasion was the Holiday Taste Fest of the Westland Chamber of Commerce, which drew some 550 revelers for a night featuring 18 Westland restaurants.

"Enjoying my favorite chamber event of the year with wonderful food and friends," said Dr. Amanda Apfelblat, a Westland chiropractor. She's on the chamber board and was helping as a greeter.

Another chamber board member, Tim Weise of Garden City Hospital, also enjoyed his time at the Taste Fest.

"The food is amazing, the variety," said Weise, director of rehabilitation therapies for the hospital. It's a challenge to sample everything. "But we try," he said with a smile. "Each year there's a little different variety. That always brings you back."

As a sponsor, Garden City Hospital had five tables for the Taste Fest. "By word of mouth, it just spreads," he said of attendance. "It's the holiday spirit."

Brookellen Swope, president and CEO of the Westland chamber, noted the event supports the chamber's Joseph F. Benyo Scholarship Fund. "And we like to have a good party," Swope said.

"There was dancing going on: 'I think the Red Robin mascot started it out,'" she said.

The event takes some organizing, to get restaurants on board and get the word out to attendees.

"I think the restaurants see it as a great marketing opportunity," she said. Serving samples to 550 party goers is good for business.

Three men face trial in church break-in case

BY DARRELL CLEM
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Three men are facing trial in Wayne County Circuit Court amid allegations they broke into a Westland church during an incident that police said was foiled by an alert citizen.

All three defendants face trial after they appeared Thursday in front of Westland 18th District Judge C. Charles Bokos and waived their right to a preliminary hearing — a decision that for now averted courtroom testimony.

The men — Aaron Ray Hanson, 22, his brother, Justin Morlyn Hanson, 21, and Jonathan Edward Morris, 20 — are charged with one count of breaking and entering and one count of possession of burglar tools, police Lt. Dan Karrick said. The younger Hanson brother and Morris also are charged as habitual offenders.

The Hansons are Westland residents; Morris is from Canton.

Westland police captured three suspects after an alert citizen called for help after seeing suspicious activity around 3 a.m. Friday, Nov. 19, at Our Savior Church, on the southeast corner of Warren and Venoy, Karrick has said.

Police caught one man near the church, another in a nearby apartment complex and a third who had gotten into an alleged getaway car near the scene. Officers arrived before anything was taken from the church.

The witness who called police "allowed us to get there quickly and catch these guys before they had a chance to steal anything," Karrick said.

Karrick and other police officials have often said they depend on quick action by alert citizens to help them make arrests in neighborhood crimes that might otherwise go unsolved.

Not-guilty pleas have been placed on record for the Hanson brothers and Morris as they face trial. Aaron Hanson remains jailed with a $100,000 cash bond, while the other defendants have $250,000 cash bonds due to their habitual offender status.

Police seek help finding drugstore robbery suspect

BY DARRELL CLEM
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

He walked up to a Westland pharmacy packing a pistol and demanding prescription drugs.

Without firing any shots, he walked out with more than 7,000 doses of drugs such as OxyContin, Ritalin and morphine.

For nearly two months, Westland police didn't release any information about the robbery, which happened at 10:38 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 16, inside the Rite Aid store located at Wayne and Ford roads, near one of the city's busiest intersections.

Police Lt. Dan Karrick said authorities kept quiet because they didn't want to possibly scare away the suspect while they investigated the case.

They hoped to quietly nab him without alerting him. Weeks later, the investigation has produced no leads, so police Sgt. Steve Borisch has released a photo captured by an in-store surveillance camera, in hopes that someone might recognize the suspect and come forward to help authorities solve the case.

The suspect was described as an unshaven white male in his 40s.

"He had a pistol in his waistband, which he showed to the pharmacy employee," Borisch said in a statement issued by the police department. "He then took a large quantity of controlled prescription drugs and walked out the front door."

No getaway vehicle was seen.

Anyone who recognizes the suspect or who has information about the incident is asked to call the Westland Police Department at (734) 721-6311 or (734) 722-9600.

jobs in that area, and it may spur a little economic development," Wild said, adding that Ford Motor Co. owns vacant land near the site.

Wild also called the proposed Westland station "an ideal site" because of "the ability of our residents to work downtown (Detroit) or in Ann Arbor and have mass transit available to them."

Wild already is quite familiar with the site. He used to visit the library for the blind to get materials for his late grandmother, Joan Shilavinitz, who was legally blind.

Palombo conceded that the project still faces hurdles, although it looks promising. The plan will require a combination of funding, likely from federal, state and local governments along with private-sector dollars. Palombo couldn't put a price tag on the railway.

Moreover, Palombo said agreements appear likely with Norfolk Southern Railway Co. and Conrail, but planners still have to reach an accord with Canadian National Railroad.

Like Wild, Palombo also predicted the project would have a positive impact on the Westland station and other train stops.

"There's an opportunity around those train stations for businesses and services that would cater to the people who would go to those stations," he said. "Potentially, we could even have some new housing in the vicinity."

Sheila Cockrel to speak at Rotary

Sheila Cockrel, Detroit city councilwoman, will speak Thursday, Dec. 11, to the Westland Rotary.

Guests are welcome. The club will meet for lunch 12:15 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 11, at the Wayne-Westland Salvation Army corps, on Venoy south of Palmer in Westland.

"I'm very persistent," Rotary secretary Danny Wilson said of his success in lining up the high-profile councilwoman. He'd met her at a Wayne Rotary lunch he attended.

"I was just so impressed with her handle about what's going on in Detroit," said Wilson, adding Cockrel's the only non-African American on the Detroit council.

"It's a multicultural city and that's what the council should reflect," he said. Those who'd like to join Westland Rotary for lunch Dec. 11 should call Wilson at (313) 999-6685 by noon Tuesday. Lunch is $10.

The club has many strong speakers, and Wilson hopes to bring in some who are high-profile. "Let's try it and see how it works," he said.

The eldest of six children,

Cockrel was born and raised in Detroit's Corktown. Her parents, Lou and Justine Murphy, led the Catholic Worker movement and devoted themselves to serving the most needy. Cockrel's parents ran a soup kitchen for hungry Detroiters from their home, and opened their door to homeless women and children.

Cockrel is currently serving in her second term on the Detroit City Council, according to the council Web site.

Cockrel's life as an activist began in earnest in the late 1960s when, as a Wayne State University student, she became involved with the West Central Organization. This grassroots group developed housing, urban renewal, health care and university expansion programs. Then in 1968, alarmed by an increase in cases of police brutality, she founded the Ad Hoc Action Group, a citywide organization that monitored the activities of the police department following 1967.

As a member of the Labor Defense Coalition, led by Detroit attorney, activist and leader Kenneth Cockrel, she and others battled the city's deployment of the STRESS undercover decoy unit which was responsible for the deaths of 20 people.

In 1978, she married Ken and they shared a vision for social change and followed a political active path. When Ken decided to run for the Detroit City Council in 1977, Sheila organized his successful campaign. During his term, she served as manager and administrator of his office. Ken died in 1989.

In 1993, Cockrel successfully ran for a seat on the Detroit City Council. During her first term she worked with Detroit churches to help develop faith-based and corporate economic development programs. Sheila Cockrel ran for re-election in 1997 and was selected by the voters of Detroit to serve a second four-year term.

A proponent of recreation and leisure activities for Detroiters, Cockrel chairs the Detroit City Council Recreation Task Force. Her leadership on the task force has helped increase the focus on recreation and leisure activities and helped shape the debate regarding the Belle Isle vehicle fee, the Web site notes.

In 1999, Sheila Cockrel was selected as a Fannie Mae Foundation Fellow to attend the Senior Executives in State and Local Government summer program at the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. Cockrel is a life member of the NAACP, a member of Gesu Parish and lives in Detroit with her daughter, Katy.

Salvation Army kettle drive off to strong start as need grows

BY JULIE BROWN
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Salvation Army bell ringers have been manning the red kettles since mid-November, with hopes of raising $8.5 million in the metro region. Goals locally are $130,000 for the Wayne-Westland Corps, which also serves Romulus and Inkster, and $175,000 for the Dearborn Heights Citadel, serving Garden City, Livonia, Redford, Dearborn and Dearborn Heights.

"Right now collections are going fairly well," said Capt. Steve Merritt, commander for the Dearborn Heights Citadel with his wife, Christine. "This has always been a very generous area. When times are difficult, people come forward."

Bell ringing will continue at community sites through Dec. 24, with the Salvation Army taking Sundays off as a day of worship and rest. Steve Merritt believes many drop money in kettles because they know those who've experienced job losses and tough times.

"The need has hit home in a personal way this year," he said. Donations for Dearborn Heights and environs are up about $19,000 from last year, although collection started about a week earlier this year, compared to the Saturday after Thanksgiving last year.

"God willing, we will" meet the $175,000 goal for the five communities, Merritt said. "He's in control."

Capt. Derek Rose is corps commander with wife Joanna for Wayne-Westland. "We are a little ahead of last year," Derek Rose said. "We really are seeking the community's full support."

Wayne-Westland has raised about $60,000 of the $130,000 goal, and will serve some 578 families plus additional arrivals for help. The Roses are grateful to those who've signed up for Adopt a Family, in which specific gift needs for a family are met. As of Thursday, 67 percent had been adopted, although Wayne-Westland expects additional inquiries for help this weekend, the final weekend to ask for yule adoption help.

Wayne-Westland did bell ringing in the street at Wayne and Warren roads, with one additional such session on tap.

"I'm always amazed," Rose said of community support.

"When things seem the worst people respond. I'm humbled and blessed that people are giving so much."

"The weather hasn't been a hindrance thus far, Merritt noted. "The Red Kettle Campaign is dependent on the shoppers. We watch the weather map, too."

Salvation Army leaders are grateful for donors' generosity: "We thank them for their giving in past years and this year," said Merritt, adding Dearborn Heights will help nearly 500 families including more than 1,200 children this year. "This season is the season for the collections, but the money raised helps our communities throughout the year."

Rose agreed, noting Wayne-Westland's support is appreciated all year. "We couldn't do what we do without the people supporting us," he said.

You can volunteer locally as a Red Kettle bell ringer by visiting www.ringbell.org. There's also a virtual kettle online where you can donate. To find out more, visit www.salmich.org or call (877) SAL-MICH.

Texas Roadhouse, on Ford Road between Newburgh and Wayne (across from the Westland police station), is a drop-off site for donations of new unwrapped toys and nonperishables for the Salvation Army. For each toy donation and/or bag of nonperishables, the restaurant will give a thank you free "baby blossom" voucher (for an appetizer). In addition, the restaurant has adopted two local families through the Salvation Army.

Commission votes to give parks money to local communities

BY KURT KUBAN
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The Wayne County Commission made good on its promise to restructure the county's parks millage so a portion can be redistributed back to local communities for their own recreation projects.

The commission voted 10-4 on Thursday to give back 25 percent that each municipality contributes in taxes to the fund, which they will be able to use for capital improvements for local parks and recreation facilities. The remaining 75 percent will still be allocated for improvements and operations to the county parks system, which includes Hines Park and Elizabeth Park in Trenton.

Commissioners Kevin McNamara, D-Canton, Laura Cox, R-Livonia, Philip Cavanagh, D-Redford Township, Ronale Bowman, D-Westland, and Bernard Parker, D-Detroit, sponsored the new ordinance. The mea-

GETTING A LITTLE BACK

Community	2007 tax levy	Money to be allocated
Canton	$1,000,440	$250,110
Garden City	$176,216	$44,054
Livonia	$1,253,897	$313,474
Plymouth	$117,302	$29,325
Plymouth Twp.	$500,093	$125,023
Redford	$348,582	$87,145
Westland	$567,896	$141,974
Detroit	$2,433,600	$608,400

sure was opposed by four commissioners from Detroit, and Commissioner Jewel Ware of Detroit abstained.

McNamara said the new ordinance makes sense for several reasons. First and foremost, he believes it will help save local parks and recreation programming.

"Over the next two years, communities are going to go through extreme budget pressures. Usually when that happens, parks and rec programs are the first to get cut," he said. "This is our way to help out and save those programs."

McNamara said the measure will also help secure support from local communities when the millage is up for renewal in 2010, when it is set to expire.

"We are going to need their support. We need this millage. Without it, our parks will close," McNamara said.

Cox, whose district includes the Plymouths, Northvilles and Livonia, said the new ordinance will ensure the millage money is fairly.

"This brings more equity to the process, which is what our local communities have wanted," she said.

Wayne County voters initially passed the parks millage in 1996. The annual levy of .25 mills generates about $12.7 million per year. The millage was renewed in 2000 and again 2005. It expires at the end of 2010.

Wayne County Executive Bob Ficano opposes the new ordinance. He will have 10 days from the time the ordinance is delivered to him to either sign it or veto it. The commission has a 10-vote veto power majority.

However, Assistant

Executive Alan Helmkamp said Ficano is still weighing his options. He may still try to veto the ordinance or challenge it in court.

"We're still reviewing today's events," he said. "In our view it's illegal and it's bad policy."

If Ficano vetoes the measure, the commission would have 45 days to override it.

Phil LaJoy, Canton's new supervisor, welcomed the news, calling it "a step in the right direction." Under the new formula, Canton would get approximately $250,000 in 2009.

Livonia Mayor Jack Kirksey, who has also been critical of the millage, praised the commission for the new ordinance. He says Livonia residents have contributed approximately $14 million over the last eight years, but received less than $200,000 back for local recreation projects.

Kirksey said he would support a renewal of the millage if language is changed that would keep the 25 percent in the local communities.

Gingerbread spices up the holiday season

Among all the holiday memories held near to our hearts, the gingerbread house is for some, perhaps, the most memorable of them all. Building a gingerbread house is often a group effort, with friends or family members coming together to share time while creating a tasty work of art.

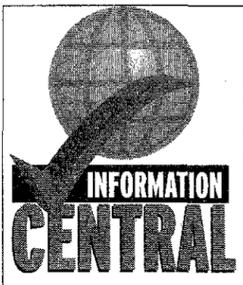

The ginger spice was first brought from Malaysia to Greece around 2000 B.C.E., by wealthy Greek families, in the form of spiced honey cakes. In the 11th century ginger was introduced to the Europeans who added a bread crumb mixture to the spice and gingerbread was born. During the Middle Ages, as Germany became the center of spice trade in Europe, ginger was in abundance and crafters began to use gingerbread to create different shapes. When molasses was added to gingerbread in the 17th century its appeal spread. It is believed that Columbus brought gingerbread to the New World.

If all this talk about spices has got you thinking about the history of the spice trade, why not check out Jack Turner's, Spice: The History of Temptation, or Michael Kronld's, The Taste of Conquest: The Rise and Fall of the Three Great Cities of Spice.

However, if all this talk about spices has turned your thoughts to food and the holidays, maybe a tastier list of titles is in order. The library has several titles that might be of interest including: Steven Stellingwerf's, The Gingerbread Book or Teresa Layman's, Gingerbread for All Seasons.

If you are ready to take a leap and create your own gingerbread house, pick up some tips in Christa Currie's, Gingerbread Houses: A Complete Guide to Baking, Building, and Decorating, or Aaron Morgan's, Making Great Gingerbread Houses: Delicious Designs from Cabins to Castles, from Lighthouses to Tree House, or Nonnie Cargas' Gingerbread Houses: Baking & Building Memories.

No time this year to create your own masterpiece? Why not stop by the Edsel and Eleanor Ford House to view their "Homes for the Holidays" display of gingerbread houses during the holiday season. (The Edsel and Eleanor Ford House is one of the Museum Adventure Pass participants.)

For more information about gingerbread, spices, holiday celebrations, or any other subject, give us a call at (734) 326-6123 or stop by the William P. Faust Public Library of Westland at 6123 Central City Parkway. Our Web site is www.westland.lib.mi.us.

Dealing with IRS now is better than waiting, worrying

Dear Rick: I have not filed a tax return since the mid-1990s. I have no excuse, it's just that one thing led to another and now it's been over 10 years. I recently got married and told my wife about this. She is frantic and says I should immediately contact the IRS. I talked to a friend who said it would be best not to do anything. He said if the IRS hasn't caught you so far, the likelihood of being caught is very slim. My wife said I should ask for your opinion.

You do need to work out a resolution with the Internal Revenue Service. That does not necessarily mean that you should immediately contact the IRS, but rather begin the process of working out a resolution.

Your friend's advice is irresponsible at best. By not filing your tax returns you may be subject to substantial fines and penalties and even potentially the loss of your freedom. The fact the IRS has not caught you to date does not necessarily mean they will not catch you.

If the IRS does catch you and finds that you are not in compliance with the law, you will have a much more difficult and painful experience as opposed to you voluntarily filing your past returns.

In the situation at hand, generally I would not recommend that someone go to the IRS themselves. Even though I have found the IRS to be much easier to deal with today than they were in the past, it still is a government entity and there continues to be an adversarial relationship between the IRS and taxpayers.

Consult a professional such as a tax attorney to help you resolve the issues with the IRS. Being represented by an attorney who deals with the IRS provides you with a professional who won't be intimidated, understands how they operate and whose job it is to protect you and only you.

Over the years, I have seen many individuals who have not filed tax returns for many years. The one thing they have in common is that they are constantly looking over their shoulder fearing the IRS will discover their deception. This is no way to live.

When people eventually filed their tax returns, not only did they experience a huge sense of relief by coming clean with the IRS, they also found they did not owe nearly as much as they had originally feared. The one comment I hear from people who settle with the IRS is, "I should have done this sooner."

If you do make a mistake in preparing your returns, or even if you have never filed your returns, it is always better to voluntarily come clean with the IRS as opposed to waiting to be caught. The IRS is much more forgiving in waiving penalties and working out payment plans with taxpayer's who voluntarily step forward. Anyone who has issues with the Internal Revenue Service, should be proactive and work with a professional.

One reason people sometimes fail to file a tax return is they do not have the money to pay the taxes owed. Even in those situations it pays to file the return. The IRS has payment plans and does waive taxes in case of hardship.

We all hate paying taxes, however they are a fact of life. Trying to evade taxes either by commission or omission will not save you money and it will cost you in dollars and in aggravation.

Friends to gather for candlelight vigil

Members of the Compassionate Friends know the holidays are tough times for people who've lost loved ones, especially children.

In an effort to help with the grief, The Compassionate Friends, Western Wayne County (Livonia) Chapter, sponsor a candle-lighting ceremony in Kellogg Park in downtown Plymouth Sunday, Dec. 14, in conjunction with Children's Memorial Day.

"The holidays are especially difficult for parents who have lost children," said committee member Gail Lafferty. "This candle-lighting ceremony honoring them helps their memory live on."

The ceremony will include the dedication of a tree decorated with ornaments with the children's names, a candle-light vigil, a reading of the children's names, poetry and songs.

The local ceremony includes the candle-lighting at 7 p.m. in conjunction with the world-wide candle-lighting. The idea is that, as candles burn down in one time zone, they're lit in another, creating a 24-hour memorial.

Recognized in communities around the world, International Children's Memorial Day is already officially sanctioned by the U.S. Congress.

"Hundreds of families will gather near a tree specially decorated with the names of children who have died too soon," Lafferty said.

For more information or to register a child, call or e-mail candle-lighting committee members Gail Lafferty, tcf-candlelight@yahoo.com or (734) 981-4528.

The Compassionate Friends sponsor a Christmas tree in Kellogg Park that features ornaments remembering children to be honored at the candlelight vigil, set for Dec. 14 in downtown Plymouth.

The Fred Hill Briefcase Drill Team of Plymouth took its act to Broadway Thanksgiving Day, marching in the Macy's Thanksgiving Parade.

Giving their regards

Millions watch Briefcase Drill Team's Broadway stroll

BY TONY BRUSCATO
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

As Fred Hill waited anxiously on Broadway in New York City for his 17-member Briefcase Drill Team's turn to step off in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade, he was approached by someone walking by.

"We were waiting for the parade to begin and enthralled with all the activity and up walks (actor) Alec Baldwin," Hill said. "He said, 'Old guys in dark blue suits with briefcases ... you better be good.'"

By Hill's account, the Briefcase Drill Team — a parody on men who wear business suits — never missed a beat. "The crowd reaction was better, or more so, than we've ever had before," said Hill of the 3 million people who crowded the 2½-mile parade route. "That's something we didn't anticipate because we were new to them ... but they got it in a hurry."

"The crowd was 40-50 people deep and lined up on the side streets about half-a-block," he said. "And there were people 30 stories up watching us."

NBC-TV, which telecasts the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, gave each entry less than 30 seconds on camera at 34th and Broadway.

"During rehearsal Tuesday night, they had decided what moves they wanted us to do in about 25 seconds," Hill said.

"We added a few and they loved them, so we ended up doubling the amount of time we had originally."

Lee Harrison of Canton Township, who has been a member of the Drill Team for five years, said it was an exciting experience.

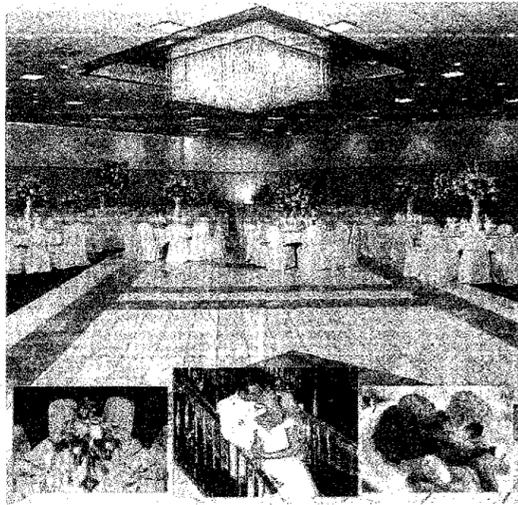

"I always thought the Detroit Thanksgiving parade and the others we march in were pretty special, but there's a different level at the Macy's parade," Harrison said. "It's really well done, with an enormity and excitement you don't see at the other parades. Everything in New York is bigger and more grandiose."

Crusaders finish 0-3, bid 3 seniors adieu

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Three seniors made their final appearances Thursday night as the Madonna University women's volleyball season came to a close in the final round of pool play at the NAIJA National Championships in Sioux City, Ia. Second-seed Biola (Calif.) University improved to 30-3 overall defeating MU in four games, 25-15, 26-28, 5-212 and 25-19, to advance to Friday's elimination round at the Tyson Events Center.

Meghan Warkentin led the victorious Eagles with 15 kills.

Eleventh-seeded MU, which lost all three matches in Pool B, finishes the year 35-7 overall.

Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference Player of the Year Lubovj Tihomirova (Riga Latvia) closed out her stellar four-year career with 20 kills in the loss, while fellow senior Whitney Fuelling (Milford) added 13 to lead MU. Senior Stephanie Parslow (Macomb Dakota) also had one block-assist in her final match as a Crusader.

Setter Inta Grinvalds finished with 43 assist-to-kills, while Brynn Kerr (Livonia Churchill/Schoolcraft College) and Amanda Koszela had 16 and 15 kills, respectively.

"There was balance overall because of the play-in games and there were no weak teams which made it a really great tourney," MU coach Jerry Abraham said. "We played great tonight. The games were close. It was a great match and we played to win. We played tough, played hard and hit tough. I wish I could say we played bad, but we didn't. It just wasn't good enough. I don't feel like and 0-3 team."

On Wednesday, it was another heartbreaking five-set loss for the Crusaders.

Unseeded Lubbock Christian (Tex.), getting a balanced hitting attack, downed the No. 11-seeded Crusaders, 28-26, 23-25, 25-16, 15-25, 16-14.

Kelsey Odell led Lady Chapparals (24-5) with 18 kills, while Courtney Yonke finished with a game-high 29 digs. Childress also had 16 digs.

Mary McGinnis paced MU with a career-high 26 kills, while Tihomirova and Fuelling collected 22 and 19, respectively.

Grinvalds finished the night with 62 assists and 12 digs, while Kerr and Liz Dempsey (Livonia Franklin) recorded 20 and 15 digs, respectively.

"We lose three great seniors that will be hard to replace," Abraham said. "Both Lubovj and Stephanie have been to four straight National Tournament, while Whitney (Fuelling) has been to three. It will be hard to replace them, especially offensively. We need to get attackers, a middle and outside hitter, along with a setter for next year. But we have 12 players coming back."

SideLines

Showcase at Edgar

The Michigan Interscholastic Hockey League will stage the first of its two Mini Showcases Tuesday, Dec. 9 at Livonia's Edgar Arena.

Matchups at the Stadium Rink include Novi-Detroit Catholic Central vs. Warren DeLaSalle (7 p.m.); Birmingham Brother Rice vs. Livonia Stevenson (9 p.m.); while at the B Rink will be University of Detroit-Jesuit vs. Port Huron Northern (6:30 p.m.) and Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook vs. Grosse Pointe North (8:30 p.m.).

Tickets for the Mini Showcase are $6 (adults) and $3 (seniors and students).

The second MIHL Showcase will be Tuesday, Jan. 13 at Edgar and will include Livonia Churchill on the schedule replacing Stevenson.

"Most of our teams have a long history with Stevenson and Churchill teams - they are natural rivals, they participate in the MIHL Prep Showcase, and as a league, we respect their teams and coaches," CC coach Todd Johnson said.

Bulldog linebacker

Ferris State University senior linebacker Jeff Hollandsworth (Livonia Stevenson) recently completed his football career as the Bulldogs' 15th all-time career leader in tackles (296) and 10th all-time in assisted tackles (157).

Hollandsworth, who had 41 career starts, missed his final game of the season to a knee injury.

He earned All-Great Lakes Athletic Intercollegiate Conference honorable mention honors this season as the Bulldogs finished 6-5 overall and 5-5 in the GLIAC.

A three-time All-GLIAC Academic Team selection, Hollandsworth will graduate this month from Ferris with a degree in business.

Balanced attack bolsters Franklin

Redford Thurston was geared to stop Livonia Franklin's own version of double-trouble - twins Briana and Brittany Taylor.

The senior duo was held to a combined 14 points, but the Eagles couldn't stop the rest of the Patriots, who rolled Friday night to a comfortable 55-31 non-league girls basketball triumph.

Sophomore forward Chelsea Williams led Franklin, now 2-0, with 18 points and eight steals.

Brittany Milican added nine points, while Brittany Taylor had eight. Briana Taylor and Mary Gilliland each contributed six.

Rennica Lee Merida, a 6-2 senior center, and Chelsea Carradine, a 5-10 junior guard, each scored 10 for the Eagles, who slipped to 1-1 overall.

"They (Thurston) had some big girls, but I thought we rebounded well," Franklin coach Dave McCall said. "We moved the ball and had good spacing."

Thurston came out with a box-and-one defense on Briana Taylor, but the Eagles fell behind 18-5 after one quarter and couldn't recover.

Franklin broke it open with another 18-5 run in the third period.

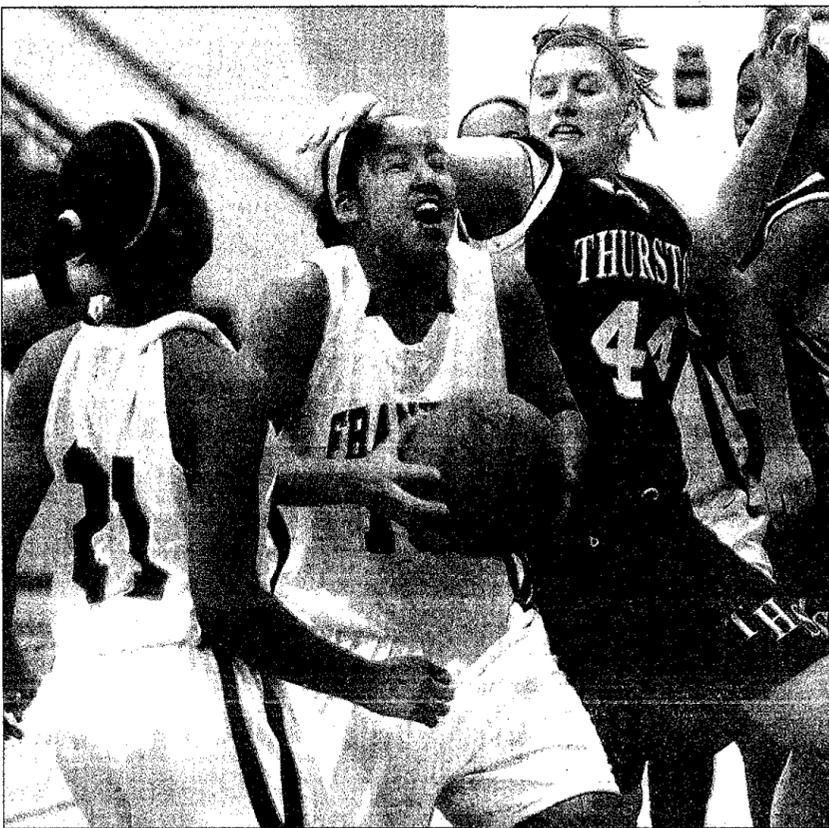

"Brittany and Briana didn't have their best games offensively, but defensively they were a force to be reckoned with," McCall said. "Things got clogged up a little with our offense, but the other girls adjusted and came through as a team. Chelsea Williams was outstanding on both ends."

CHURCHILL 51, GARDEN CITY 29: Senior point-guard Lindsey Graciak showed no rust from the long volleyball season as Livonia Churchill (1-0) opened its 2008-09 season with a convincing 51-29 victory Thursday over visiting Cougars (0-2).

Graciak, who helped the Chargers to the Class A semifinals, which ended Nov. 21, scored a game-high 12 points.

High aspirations Clarenceville cagers puts their skills to test

BY TIM SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

It's a new season and a new way of looking at things for coach Corey McKendry and Clarenceville's varsity boys basketball team.

Last year's Lonnie Fairfax-led Trojans finished 18-3 and easily captured the Metro Conference - only to be knocked out by Detroit Renaissance in the first-round of the Class B districts.

McKendry and his cast of key returnees - such as Jamie Stewart, Jeremy Gainer and Darryl Whitaker - won't be happy with a repeat performance in 2008-09. This year's squad is hungry to make it all the way to Michigan State University's Breslin Center and be viewed as an elite program.

"(Winning the Metro) is definitely a goal," McKendry said. "Last year I think it was our main goal. But that's changed. Now, we want to get our program to where we're competing at a statewide level, whether it's for a district or a region."

Stewart, who McKendry considers a strong candidate for Mr. Basketball, is just as driven for major team success. He already is there individually, having averaged 22.5 points and six rebounds per game last season.

"I just want to go out there and play every night and compete at a high level, make my teammates better," Stewart emphasized. "Just go out there and compete and show we're better than the conference we're playing in. We're really good, you know?"

To help the Trojans overcome any "conference inferiority complex" that goes with playing in the Metro, McKendry booked his players for plenty of tough summer action against squads such as Orchard Lake St. Mary, Detroit Pershing, Romulus and Clarkston.

The third-year head coach noted that he wanted to make sure the Trojans were "focused on playing at a really high level" and geared for anything the postseason might throw at them.

Stewart, a 6-4 wing guard, added that the summer slate of games "got us into the mindset of playing good teams. We know what we have to do to get there and be one of those elite teams in the state."

The first test is 7 p.m. Tuesday at Taylor Kennedy of the Mega Conference.

McKendry is confident his team is better and deeper than ever.

"We're going to be fast, we're going to be pressing, and running and trying to get up and down the court as fast as possible," McKendry said. "We're not real big, but I think we have the best senior in the state."

"If we get up and down fast, and teams aren't able to double-team him (Stewart), I think we'll be tough to stop."

One player with size and strength who will need to be an interior force is 6-2 Gainer, who averaged 8.7 points and seven rebounds per game last season. He is the only forward slotted for the starting five.

"Jeremy knows his ticket is football, but if he wants to he could be a college basketball player, no question," said McKendry about Gainer. "He's just a tremendous leader for us, he's our hardest worker."

"He's just one of those kids who is a joy to coach."

Clarenceville's starting lineup probably will feature four guards.

In addition to Stewart - described by McKendry as a "pure scorer" and complete offensive player - are 6-2 sophomore point-guard Anthony Lavallis, 5-11 senior Whitaker and 6-1 senior Nathan Clark.

Obviously, how quickly Lavallis learns the point position will be crucial to the Trojans' early success.

If the struggles at all, the Trojans have 5-8 junior defensive specialist Levonte Brooks ready to step in at point guard. Brooks also will see minutes elsewhere in the backcourt.

The Trojans will also lean on senior forwards and third-year players Josh Robinson (6-0) and Matt Garant (6-1) to provide some size when needed.

Another player worth keeping an eye on is 6-7 sophomore forward Jalen Reynolds, a varsity newcomer.

"We're not rushing him," the coach said. "He's got a chance to be pretty good around here."

McKendry is banking on talent and motivation more than making up for the dearth of physical size.

"We're very athletic, we've got nine guys that can dunk the basketball," he said. "We just have to make sure we're in proper position, (that) we can get above the rim to get rebounds and cover some bigger people."

BOYS BASKETBALL CAPSULE OUTLOOK

LIVONIA CHURCHILL
Head coach: Jim Solak, seventh year.
League affiliation: KLA A Kensington Conference (South Division).
Last year's overall record: 12-9.
Notable losses to graduation: Ryan Rosenick (first-team All-Area); Andrew Vagnetti (fourth-team All-Area); Ryan Whitlum, Daran Carey, Nick Seger.
Leading returnees: Ryan Woods, 6-0 Sr. G; Scott Senczynszyn, 6-0 Sr. G; Alex Bay, 6-2 Sr. F; Cameron Norscia, 6-7 Sr. C.
Promising newcomers: Adam Bedell, 6-6 Jr. F; Raynard Allen, 6-0 Jr. PG; Tony Frezzell, 6-0 Jr. G; Steve Hovermale, 6-1 Jr. F.
Solak's 2008-09 outlook: "The kids are playing hard. We were hit hard by graduation, kids moving out of state, and injuries. We're getting after it in practice and we had a great scrimmage. They're playing together as a team. We don't have a ton of experience. I like this group and they like each other, which is important. We're extremely athletic, but they have to get used to each other, play together and learn as a team. We have some size, but we're going to go as far as our guards go. And they've been doing a great job so far."

LIVONIA FRANKLIN
Head coach: Jeremy Rheault, second year.
League affiliation: KLA A Kensington Conference (South Division).
Last year's overall record: 5-16.
Notable losses to graduation: Ryan Matthey (fourth-team All-Area); Kevin Percin.
Leading returnees: Connor Leidal, 6-4 Sr. F; Jeffery Poole, 6-3 Sr. F (14.3 ppg); Nate Coleman, 6-4 Jr. C; Garrett Gumm, 5-9 Sr. G; Kyle Kopia, 6-0 Sr. F.
Promising newcomers: Mike Gadsby, 6-0 Jr. G; Issac Cadet, 6-2 Sr. F; Andy McCaffery, 6-3 Jr. G; Hudson Cadet, 6-8 Jr. F; Jack Chinavare, 6-3 Jr. F; Tom Percin, 5-9 Jr. G; Robert Freed, 6-0 Jr. G; Anthony Crechiolo, 6-0 Jr. G; Nick Binder, 6-4 Jr. F.
Rheault's 2008-09 outlook: "We will be better. Our skills and understanding have improved. Offensively, while sharing the ball, we have to increase our three-point shooting from last year, which was very low last year (26 percent), along with free throw problems (62 percent). Our opponents also shot 100 more free throw attempts. Poole and Leidal are both very good scorers as drivers, around the rim, and from the perimeter. We have made adjustments with this group to defend drives and give us a better rebounding chance. We have to play hard and aggressive every game. This is a great group of player who enjoy each other and have been working hard this season."

LIVONIA STEVENSON
League affiliation: KLA A Kensington Conference (Central Division).
Last year's overall record: 9-12.
Notable losses to graduation: None.
Leading returnees: Ricky Chrzasz, 5-10 Sr. G; Gary Cobb, 6-3 Sr. F; Jordan El-Sabah, 6-4 Jr. F; Mark Grisa, 6-0 Sr. F; Bobby Naubert, 5-10 Jr. G; Brian Rowe, 6-1 Sr. F; Kendal Snow, 6-4 Sr. F; Austin White, 5-10 Jr. G.
Promising newcomers: Kyle Bambach, 5-10 Jr. G; Michael Beyer, 6-2 Jr. F; Jonathan Campbell, 5-10 Soph. G; Nick Marzec, 5-11 Jr. G; Frank Sopko, 6-1 Jr. F; Joe Swingle, 6-4 Jr. F; Nick Tomasi, 5-11 Jr. G.
Allie's 2008-09 outlook: "I am looking forward to a special year where the entire team grows together on and off the court. We have tremendous athleticism and our depth gives us an opportunity to attack teams in different ways and will make it more difficult for opposing teams to attack us. In our practices, we've continued to get better in all facets of the game, and as the schedule picks up, I expect to see our development show itself each contest this season. A renewed focus on defensive pressure and intensity will put us in a competitive position. We've been working very hard, day in and day out, and now we're not just coming out to play - we're coming out to win."

WESTLAND JOHN GLENN
Head coach: Dan Young, third year.
League affiliation: KLA A Kensington Conference (South Division).
Last year's overall record: 19-3.
Titles won last year: WLA A (Lakes Division).
Notable losses to graduation: Earl Hardison (first-team All-Area); Keshawn Martin (second-team All-Area); Stefan Marken (third-team All-Area).
Leading returnees: Austin Anderson, 6-2 Sr. G; Jeremy Langford, 6-2 Jr. G-F; Derrick Crosby, 6-2 Sr. F; Dorian Prather, 6-4 Sr. F-C; Jon Swagerty, 6-5 Sr. F; Brandyn Jenkins, 6-4 Sr. F.
Promising newcomers: Marquise Graves, 5-8 Fr. G.
Young's 2008-09 outlook: "This is a great group of kids. We have good chemistry and we're trying to continue our tradition of team defense and sharing the ball. Austin Anderson has started at guard since the 10th-grade. He's a one-two combo guard who can score and defend. Langford is a great athlete (lined 4.4 for football) and is an outstanding defender and improved shooter. Crosby is a great rebound, defender and leader, while Prather scores inside and goes out to the three-point line. Swagerty is a good athlete, defender and rebounder who is also a shot-blocker and slasher. Jenkins is long, a shot-blocker, defender and rebounder, while Graves is a one-two combo guard. He's quick with a great feel for the game. He shoots well and is physically strong."

WAYNE MEMORIAL
Head coach: Wayne Woodard, ninth year.
League affiliation: KLA A Kensington Conference (South Division).
Last year's overall record: 19-3.
Titles won last year: Western Lakes Activities Association and Western Division.
Notable losses to graduation: Mike Lee (first-team All-Area); Martez Abney (second-team All-Area); Jeremy Lovelady (fourth-team All-Area); John Hill, Matt Lewis, Willie Pompey, Ryan Collop.
Leading returnees: Robert Woodson, 6-0 Sr. G (third-team All-Area); 10 ppg; Daniel Hill, 6-3 Jr. F; Jimmel Bennett, 6-2 Sr. F; Jesse Dorow, 6-3 Sr. F; Joe Barton, 5-8 Sr. G; Delorean Holland, 6-2 Sr. F; Jeremy Vandegrift, 6-2 Sr. F.
Promising newcomers: Mike Safford, 5-8 Sr. G; Jamil Strickland, 5-11 Soph.; Jamele Robinson, 6-2 Jr. F; Derric Horton, 6-2 Jr. F; Reggie Reeves, 6-1 Jr. G; Nick Mills, 6-5 Jr. C; Jon Bausley, 5-10 Jr. G.

WOODARD'S 2008-09 outlook: "I think Robert (Woodson) is kind of a sizzing giant. People don't know how good a player he is and what a good teammate he was last year. He was the glue for us last year. Even though he was a junior, he was a captain because he leads by example. With the exception Woodson and Hill, we're inexperienced. We're learning on the run. We're pretty small, so rebounding is a concern along with consistency. We haven't been able to string a couple good practices in a row until this week. We're trying to be consistent in our daily approach."

LIVONIA CLARENCEVILLE
Head coach: Corey McKendry, third year.
League affiliation: Metro Conference.
Last year's overall record: 18-3.
Titles won last year: Metro Conference.

Promising newcomers: Anthony Lavallis, 6-2 Soph. PG; Jalen Reynolds, 6-7 Soph. F.
McKendry's 2008-09 outlook: "(Winning the Metro) is definitely a goal. Last year I think it was our main goal. But that's changed. We're going to be fast, we're going to be pressing, and running and trying to get up and down the court as fast as possible. We're not real big, but I think we have the best senior (Stewart) in the state."

LUTHERAN WESTLAND
Head coach: Brandon Beklus, second year.
League affiliation: Metro Conference.
Last year's overall record: 6-17.
Notable losses to graduation: Ryan Baglow, Nate Bacherl.
Leading returnees: Sam Ahlersmeyer, 6-2 Sr. F; Josh Kruger, 6-0 Sr. G.
Promising newcomers: Austin Baglow, 5-10 Jr. G; Gage Planery, 5-10 Jr. G.
Beklus' 2008-09 outlook: "Collectively, we are a little bit smaller than previous years but we're more athletic. Our success is going to depend on how well we dictate the tempo of the game. Our goal is to play more of an up-tempo style and create offense through defensive pressure. In order to successfully play this style, rebounding has to be a priority. We must not allow teams second-chance opportunities and take advantage of missed shots by scoring in transition."

HURON VALLEY LUTHERAN
Head coach: Jim Ott, ninth year.
League affiliation: Michigan Independent Athletic Conference (Reg Division).
Last year's overall record: 4-16.

Leading returnees: Aaron Howell, 5-10 Soph. F; Kyle Tacia, 6-4 Sr. F; Chad Fieiek, 6-5 Sr. C; Austin Tranchida, 5-8 Sr. G; Bryan Gruenewald, 5-10 Jr. G; Tyler Wagaman, 5-1 Jr. G; Mark St. John, 5-10 Jr. G.
Promising newcomers: Ian Lee, 5-9 Soph. G; Matt Kempainen, 5-11 Jr. F; Matt St. John, 6-1 Soph. F-C; Jacob Thompson, 5-10 Jr. F; Andy Falk, 5-11 Sr. F.
Ott's 2008-09 outlook: "Last year we had a tough season. However, we were competitive all year long and lost a lot of close games. Our record last year does not reflect the growth we had as a team and look forward to building on that growth this year. So far that growth has been very evident in practice as we try to adapt to the changes we see in the physical growth and their athletic abilities. Our conference was a very tough division last year and looks to have a lot of changes this year as well. We are hoping to do very well in our conference and are looking forward to an over-500 season."

Flint Powers Catholic topples Ladywood

Flint Powers Catholic came out nailing four first-quarter 3-pointers en route to a 53-40 non-league girls basketball victory over host Livonia Ladywood.

The Chargers made their 22-8 lead hold up to post the season-opening win over the Blazers, who fell to 0-2 overall.

Lindsey McPherson paced a balanced Powers scoring attack with 10 points. Megan Rybar and Stephanie Kelly added nine apiece.

"We put pressure on them early, but their dribble-drive penetration hurt us because everything was going down with their outside shooting," Ladywood coach Pat Cannon said. "Once we made an adjustment we play even with them the rest of the game."

"Our intensity was better tonight (than Tuesday's 48-24 loss to Franklin) and I thought overall we played pretty well."

Cara Miller, a freshman guard, scored eight of her team-high 10 in the third quarter as Ladywood cut the deficit to 42-34.

GIRLS HOOPS

Molly Gacioc and Mary Fitzgerald added eight and seven, respectively.

RU 65, CLARENCEVILLE 37: Redford Union's defensive pressure Friday night proved too much for visiting Livonia Clarenceville (1-1) as the Panthers (2-0) rolled to a non-conference victory.

The Panthers, racking up 27 steals on the night, built a 25-8 lead after one quarter and padded that to a 43-14 margin at the break.

Senior forward Jasmine Johnson led RU with 20 points and 10 rebounds, while junior guard Nakia McKinney added nine points and 10 rebounds.

Junior guard Ashley Devon led the Trojans with 14 points, while senior forward Marlene Azar contributed 11 points and 13 rebounds.

INTER-CITY 56, HURON VALLEY 23: On Thursday, Korryne Claypool poured in a game-high 23 points and Amanda Ison contributed 10 points and 12 rebounds to lead Allen Park Inter-City Baptist (2-0) past Westland Huron Valley Lutheran (0-2) in a crossover game between Michigan Independent Athletic Conference teams.

and played good defense," Churchill coach Chad Jenkins said.

Kia Griffin contributed 10 for the Chargers, who led 17-6 after one quarter and 31-12 at halftime.

"We ran our offense pretty well, but we missed some makeable shots," Jenkins said. "We pressured the ball and got some baskets off transition. But we gave up too many offensive rebounds."

BRIGHTON 58, WAYNE 19: On Friday, Wayne Memorial (0-1) couldn't overcome a 17-0 first-quarter deficit in its season opener against the Bulldogs (2-0).

Dayna Modrzynski led Brighton with 12 points, while Sarah Spring contributed nine.

"They're fundamentally strong," Wayne coach Leslie Williams said of Brighton. "They don't miss in the red zone - they finish shots. But their coach said we played hard every minute and that we were better than last year."

Williams used all 13 players with senior guard leading the Zebras in scoring with nine points.

EDEL FORD 60, STEVENSON 36: On Friday, Michelle Gaedke scored 18 and Charisse Carr added 16 to propel host Dearborn Edsel Ford (1-0) to a season-opening win over Livonia Stevenson (0-2).

The Thunderbirds led 39-25 at halftime and broke it open with a 13-0 third-quarter run.

Kaylee McGrath, a senior center, led Stevenson with 13 points, while Tasi Newton provided a spark with seven points.

"Tasi hand the ball well, was strong defensive and brought a lot of energy," said Tripp, whose team was 11-of-19 from the foul line.

Spartans stymie Salem icers, 5-1

Livonia Stevenson coach David Mitchell called it "a good team win and a solid 45 minutes of hockey."

Nobody could argue that point following the Spartans' 5-1 triumph Friday night over host Salem at the Plymouth Cultural Center.

Stevenson is now 4-0-1 overall and 2-0-1 in the Kensington Conference's Central Division.

John Vella scored twice and added one assist for Stevenson, which led 1-0 after one period and 4-1 after two.

R.J. Kierdorf and Matt Fox collected two assists each, while Cole Rochowiak, Trevor Baruzzini and Justin Shureb rounded out the Stevenson goal scorers.

Kurt Driscoll scored the lone goal for the Rocks, who slipped to 2-2-2 overall and 1-2-1 in the KLAA Central.

Stevenson netminder Dan Sager stopped 16-of-17 Salem shots, while the Rocks' Adam Powers made 33 saves.

NORTHVILLE 8, CHURCHILL 0: Alec Arthur notched a hat trick and added two assists Wednesday to lead the Mustangs (4-0, 2-0) to a stunning Kensington Conference crossover victory of Livonia Churchill (0-0-1, 0-0-1).

Alex Brewin collected three assists, while John Wozniak contributed two for Northville, which scored twice in the opening period, five times in the second and one with 5:38 remaining in the third to end the game on the eight-goal mercy rule.

Ted Keranen went the dis-ance in goal for the Mustangs to notch his second shutout. Senior Adrian Motta started for the Chargers replaced by freshman Alex Estes.

"We played no emotion or energy, and made too many mental errors against a good Northville team," Churchill coach Pete Mazzoni said.

STEVENSON 9, FRANKLIN 0: Mark Villaire, Justin Shureb and John Vella tallied two goals apiece Wednesday, leading Livonia Stevenson (3-0-1, 1-0-1) to KLAA Kensington Conference crossover win over Livonia Franklin (0-3, 0-3) at Edgar Arena.

Stevenson outshot the Patriots 36-7 as Trevor Baruzzini added a goal and assist, while R.J. Kierdorf and John Strauch each added two assists.

The game was halted after two periods because of the eight-goal mercy rule.

Goalie Richie Dunphy posted the shutout for Stevenson.

Grand Valley's best

Grand Valley State University recently earned team runner-up honors in the NCAA Division II Women's Cross Country National Championships held Nov. 22 at Slippery Rock, Pa. Three Livonians earned All-America honors (top 30) including Churchill High's Megan Macerati (far right), a sophomore who placed 14th overall; Stevenson High's Kelly Gibbons (far left), a senior who took 21st; and Sarah Kulczycki (middle), also of Stevenson, a senior who finished 26th. The Lakers wound up with 102 points only behind team champion Adams State (Colo.) with 79.

Buying Michigan food makes sense, cents

The golden delicious apples looked, well, delicious that sunny October Saturday at Joe Randazzo's in Westland. We'd stopped at the market at Newburgh and Warren to get some produce. I picked four apples and was headed to the register when my husband stopped me. He noted we had Washington golden delicious apples, and equally appealing Michigan golden delicious apples were available for the same price. It took only a moment to make the switch and I felt better about supporting homegrown producers of food — even if we do have family in Washington state.

Julie Brown

I'd gotten to thinking about Michigan foods a few days earlier, when I got my newsletter from the Plymouth-Canton Branch, American Association of University Women. Along with the timely election 2008 guide, editor Sue Sayers had included an e-mail list from member Kay Paupore of Canton, a retired Garden City schools teacher.

The list and text encouraged us to shift $10 per week of our grocery spending to products from Michigan companies. Many Michigan-owned grocery stores support other Michigan businesses on their shelves, the article noted. If every household started spending just that $10 a week of its current grocery budget on locally-grown foods, more than $37 million would be kept circulating in Michigan's economy.

The list included the ever-popular Bill Knapp's cake and other baked goods from Livonia's Awrey, which we've always supported, as my father-in-law, Stan Rembacki, worked there for more than 40 years. Of course, Kellogg cereals out of Battle Creek are a staple atop our refrigerator, and Absopure water out of Plymouth Township is even closer to home.

I e-mailed the contact in the newsletter article, Mary-Jelisse Bonello, and soon heard back from the Pinckney resident who started this initiative after reading an article in Hour magazine.

"I'm not associated with anyone, I'm just me," Bonello said of her effort that started a year ago. "That seemed like a no-brainer to me."

Bonello did her homework and sent the e-mail results to friends. "It's been going around ever since," said Bonello, whose e-mail is maryjelisse@gmail.com.

She'd contacted a woman involved with Michigan agritourism, Jeanne Lipe, and Bonello ended up contacting Michigan food businesses individually.

MICHIGAN ONLY

"I was really surprised at how big the response was," she said. Her goal was "to make sure the money ended up in Michigan." Thus, she didn't include Gerber baby foods, which was bought out by Nestle.

"You had to make some rules, and those are our rules," Bonello said. "Everybody can do it," even if they're not buying the gourmet foods. "It takes a little bit of thought."

She cites jobs, payroll taxes and other economic benefits Michigan sees from local grocery shopping. "This is a little bit of 'Ask not what your state can do for you,'" she said with a chuckle.

She cited the "triple dip" of buying Michigan products from Michigan's Spartan stores, where the product is made in Michigan, the grocery store is independently owned by a Michigan family, and the Spartan stores headquarters is located in Grand Rapids. Other independent Michigan retailers like Hiller's, Busch's (with Spartan ties), Holiday Market, Westborn or Randazzo's have a similar "double dip" value.

"There's a bunch of them in Ann Arbor," said Bonello, who works for True Value Hardware stores. "So I guess I have a natural bias for independents."

She's changed the way she shops for her family, and has received a lot of e-mail back on her initiative. There've been tips for feedback and thank yous.

Bonello may update her list, but has her job and family to attend to as well. "It was good and I really enjoyed it," she said of the response. She's lived in Michigan all her life, and didn't know Keebler was Michigan-based.

"I was doing it for myself," said Bonello, who heard from one man who did a New Year's Eve dinner with all Michigan products.

"You can't do it all," she concluded, but local shopping helps. "You're supporting the local people that own that store."

I felt energized after my talk with Bonello. My husband does the grocery shopping in our family, and he's good at it. It got me to thinking, though, how much of a difference we could make in our economically-troubled state if we'd make an effort to support these businesses.

Think Michigan first

Livonia woman's Web site brings holidays home

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
O & E STAFF WRITER

Products from Michigan featured on Diggs' Web site.

Lisa Diggs opens the well-stocked freezer to show she's doing her part to boost the Michigan economy while preparing for the holidays. She especially can't wait to make the Hudsonville chocolate chip cookies. Diggs not only enjoys the aroma of baked goods wafting through her Livonia home, but the knowledge she's making it easier for consumers to buy all kinds of Michigan products by offering a list of companies on her Web site during one of the busiest shopping times of the year.

Diggs has created an additional grocery guide just in time for the seasonal onslaught of family and friends. Diggs spent hours reading labels in food stores before assembling the list of cheese, dips, cracker, snack and ice cream companies, but her research wasn't all drudgery. She visited a half dozen of the state's 60 wineries.

"The biggest single thing we need to think about is where something's coming from before we buy it," said Diggs. "Think Michigan first. If it didn't come from Michigan did it come from a Michigan store? What part of my dollar can be contributing to the Michigan economy?"

The Michigan Department of Agriculture estimates that if every Michigan family bought $10 of Michigan fruits and vegetables a week it would keep $37 million here at home. Diggs can only imagine the impact if consumers purchased a variety of foods produced in the mitten state, Diggs isn't encouraging shoppers to spend more, but shift their dollars to home-grown and produced items bought at Michigan stores like Meijer, Hiller's, Joe Randazzo's, Holiday

Market, Joe's Produce, and Plum.

BUYING LOCAL

It easily looks like Diggs could host a party with the bags of Better Made chips, Michigan potatoes and apples, and sausage filling the dining room table. The Al Dente Pasta came from the locally-based Westborn Market, La Jalisciense corn tortillas from Mexican Town. Tamales Express in Redford makes not only tamales, but enchiladas and salsa.

"I buy Michigan first if at all possible even if I pay a little bit more," said Diggs. "But in some instances it may not cost as much. Paygo compared to national sodas is usually less. The same is true of Michigan wines including sparkling wines and you can buy Michigan wines just about anywhere. It's not as difficult as people think. When they're grocery shopping with two kids to make it easier, print out the list and take it with you."

GIFTS FOR EVERYONE

Diggs offers dozens of ideas for not only preparing holiday meals, but gift giving at her Web site, www.buymichigannow.com. She loves the decorative Bullfrog Candles from Charlevoix but thinks women would equally appreciate outerwear from Wolverine in Rockford or Carhartt in Dearborn. She's just as excited about giving family passes to The Henry Ford or Detroit Zoo or putting together a gift basket with items from Harmony Hollow Bell Works in Ann Arbor, ornaments from Two Bees in Northville and Pevabic Pottery in Detroit, and truffles from The Chocolate Garden in Coloma.

Shoppers honor loved ones during holiday season

It always means the holidays are near when Angela Hospice's Tree of Life graces the halls of Laurel Park Place in Livonia. The annual fund-raiser supports programs for hospice patients and the community while offering a way to remember those dear to us at a special time of year.

"I've been involved with the Tree of Life for many years," said Rebecca Hyman, bereavement and social work manager for Angela Hospice, "and I've seen how meaningful the experience is for people who participate."

Angela Hospice's Tree of Life display features six large lighted trees. Visitors are invited to place an ornament featuring their loved one's name on any of the trees when they make a donation to the Tree of Life effort. The Tree of Life display, located next to Von Maur, opened in late November with a ceremony which included a performance by the Angela Hospice choir.

"Whether it has become a tradition they participate in year after year or whether it's the first time someone visits the Tree of Life, it really touches people to honor their loved ones in this way," said Hyman.

Tree of Life is an important fund-raiser for Angela Hospice, and the staff has been preparing for weeks as donors mailed in requests for angel ornaments.

"We were really surprised and pleased to see how many ornament requests we received through the mail this year," said Barb Paul, development coordinator. "At the Tree of Life opening, we already had over 1,500 angels on the trees."

Now in its 20th year, Tree of Life began as a small fund-raiser held in the house from which Angela Hospice operated in 1988. Just as the Tree of Life has continued to grow, Angela

Experts have packed everything from soup to nutty gifts

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

Not sure how to pack that fresh bowl of homemade chicken soup you plan to send loved ones for Hanukkah?

Wondering how you'll get that antique WWI plane propeller into a box and off to grandpa before Christmas?

And what about the preserved sheep's head you promised to out-of-town relatives?

Sue Sefton has shipped lots of soup without spilling a drop and Eric Ladwig has never met an item he couldn't pack securely.

"We tell people to freeze it and put it in a Styrene cooler with ice packs and then bring it in at 5 p.m.," Sefton described her soup-packing method. "We do a lot of frozen holiday food for people with kids out of state."

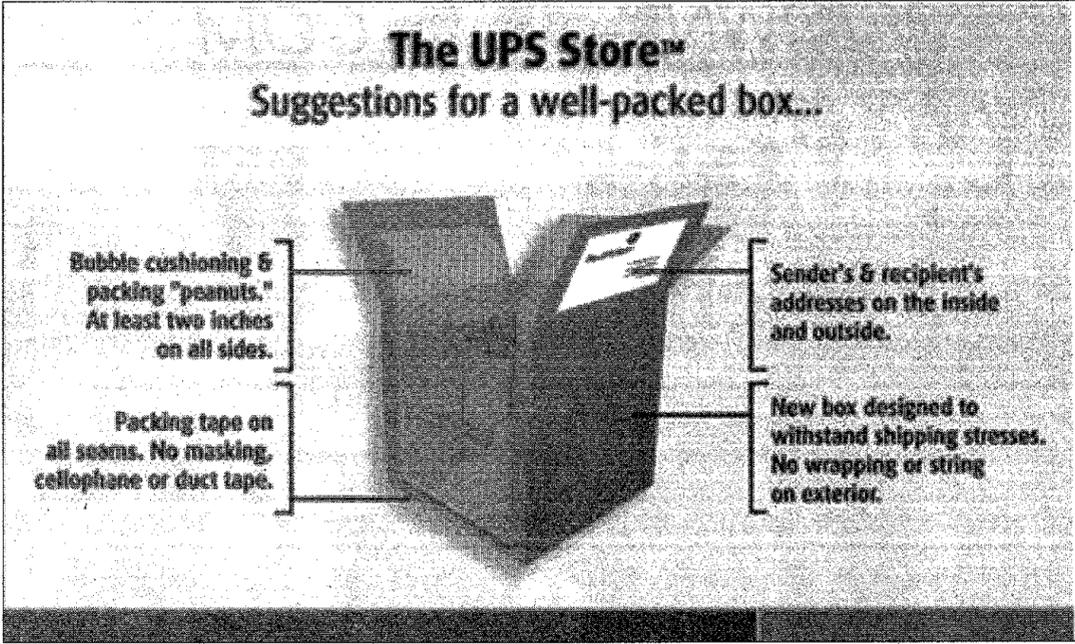

"I've never had any feedback that someone had an issue with a plant or food that we shipped. There's a baker who does these layer cakes and we've shipped those all over the country."

Sefton, whose UPS store is located at Orchard Lake Road and Maple, in West Bloomfield, is wrapping, boxing and shipping her way through her 22nd holiday season.

Ladwig, who owns a UPS store at Newburgh and Five Mile in Livonia, has packaged and shipped everything from airplane parts to a full-sized motorcycle over the past 13 years.

UNUSUAL GIFTS

"I have done some interesting stuff," said Ladwig, whose father owns a UPS store in Northville. "I did a WWI propeller last Christmas for one of our eBay guys. It was 6 feet but only about 6 inches in diameter. We had two boxes we put together.

"I had one guy who tried to ship his brother's remains, but only the U.S. Postal system can do that. I've done a stuffed, taxidermed sheep's head. We bubble wrapped it and double boxed it. It had horns, so we had to put big tubes on them and then we bubble wrapped them. It was for an eBay guy. Someone had bought it from him for Christmas."

There was the time Ladwig built a crate to ship a motorcycle to California.

"That was back in 1999. It cost about $1,500 (packing and shipping). Today it would be around $3,000."

Customers may not ship anything as elaborate this year during the current economic recession, but both Sefton and Ladwig are bracing for their busiest week of the year, starting Monday Dec. 15.

Sefton shipped about 3,000 packages during December 2007. That's double her usual monthly volume.

"We may have people this year, who instead of sending two boxes (of gifts), just send one box," Sefton said.

NO FLIGHT FEES

Both she and Ladwig say that even if fewer people ship gifts this season, more are sending vacation luggage through UPS to avoid additional airfare fees and to make sure their personal belongings arrive at their destination before they do.

"They'll ship it out so they don't have to mess with checking it in," Ladwig noted. "It's great for us. We can do a prepaid shipping label for them to send luggage back.

"I think we'll have a good (holiday) season." Ladwig said about 60 percent of his customers ask him to wrap as well as ship their items. It's about 50-50 at Sefton's store.

"I'd hope it would be 100 percent," Sefton said, adding that she gives over-the-phone packing advice to customers who insist on doing it themselves.

Here's some of what both she and Ladwig advise customers who pack their own holiday items for shipping:

■ Don't use brown paper or string to wrap boxes.

■ "Brown paper tears on a conveyor belt," Sefton said.

■ Don't use crumpled paper or real popcorn to cushion items. Use packing peanuts.

"Brown paper doesn't absorb shock," Ladwig explained.

■ Don't use an old box. "We say, 'Can this box be dropped off a two-story building and withstand a drop of that magnitude?'" Sefton said. She pointed out that used boxes may not be as strong as new ones.

■ Don't ship perfume or cologne, which are considered hazardous materials.

■ Take batteries out of toys before shipping.

■ If you decide to let a professional pack your items after all, make sure you know which wrapped gifts are breakable, so they can be packaged separately.

Hospice has been expanding and providing hospice services to more and more patients each year. This past spring, Angela Hospice announced plans to expand its Care Center facility on Newburgh, enabling more patients to receive inpatient services at Angela Hospice's "home-away-from-home."

"We've been hoping to expand our facility for many years in response to the com-elling community need," said Bob Alexander, business development manager for Angela Hospice. "An event like Tree of Life, which demonstrates such a heartfelt connection between Angela Hospice and the community we serve, is a powerful testimony to that important and timeless relationship we share with the people around us."

The Tree of Life remains on display through Dec. 24. To make a donation, visit the trees display area during mall hours, or call (734) 464-7810. Visit www.angelahospice.org for more information about the work of Angela Hospice.

OSTEOARTHRITIS OF THE HAND

Osteoarthritis of the hand is the most common form of arthritis. The features of osteoarthritis are sufficiently distinctive to identify it by examination alone.

The finding of enlargement of the distal or first joint of the finger is a hallmark of osteoarthritis. In most instances this enlargement is not painful, or the period of discomfort is short lived. Similar firm enlargement can occur at the middle finger joint or at the knuckles. All of these sites have in common the development of a small amount of bone around the joint.

Heredity or past injury determines the pattern of hand arthritis.

What bothers people with hand osteoarthritis is not the pain, which usually is limited to a few weeks. Nor is there disability associated with the condition, though at times osteoarthritis can shift the first finger joint into an awkward position. What bothers individuals with hand osteoarthritis is the appearance of the fingers.

Nothing is possible to make the hands look better. No medication will cause the bone about the joint to re-absorb, no injection into the finger joint will shrink the enlarged area, and no hand surgery is capable of removing the ridge of bone.

In osteoarthritis of the hand, the fingers may not appear pretty, but they work well.

Have your picture taken with Santa

The St. Vincent DePaul thrift store in Westland wants children everywhere to enjoy this holiday season so Michael Saine and his staff are offering free photos and a chance to visit with Santa from 3:30 p.m. on at 6613 Wayne Road.

Everyone is welcome. Santa needs no appointments. Just come and enjoy the season. Cookies and punch will be served.

Saine said part of the reason the store is making the photos available is because many families, due to the cost, have given up this tradition in these troubling economic times.

Goodwill collecting toys for local clients' families

Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit has kicked off its "12 Days of Christmas" campaign, designed to help needy families buy holiday gifts for their children.

The organization asks Metro Detroiters to donate new, unwrapped toys to its "Santa Shop," where they will be sold at discounted prices to individuals who receive employment training and assistance from Goodwill.

Anyone who donates a toy will receive a coupon good for $1 off a beverage purchase at any of the 19 Caribou Coffee locations in Southeast Michigan.

"Due to various employment barriers, many of these parents are unable to provide their families with everything they want this holiday season," stated Lorna G. Utley, president and CEO, Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit. "While our programs help them become trained, trusted and ready to work, gift donations allow these hardworking individuals to focus on getting their lives on track, knowing their children will have a happy holiday season."

The campaign continues to Wednesday, Dec. 16. These local Caribou Coffee stores are accepting donated toys:

- Ann Arbor: 1423 Stadium Boulevard
  - Livonia: 17378 Haggerty
  - Novi: 47490 Grand River Avenue
  - Plymouth: 44601 Five Mile
- In 2007, Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit successfully placed nearly 1,500 residents in new jobs in the tri-county area. For more information about Goodwill Industries and its Christmas campaign, visit www.goodwilldetroit.org

For men Diggs suggests a subscription to Car & Driver, Swedish Pimple Fishing Lures from Gladstone, or an American Coney Island package of 12 Dearborn Sausage hot dogs, buns, sweet onion, chili sauce, instructions, and two hats.

Inside Detroit designs custom tours for those interested in history, architecture, world-class cuisine, or bar hopping. Jeff Daniels' CD benefits The Purple Rose theater in Chelsea. "It's an effective tool for the holiday season," said Diggs. "They might find something else by that company if they don't want the item listed."

Companies can take advantage of the campaign as well by listing their information for free or adding a link for $100 a year. Diggs believes everyone can make a difference by taking the pledge to buy Michigan. She used a local company to build the Web site that features photographs taken by her father, Larry Diggs, a Livonia lensman.

"I'm working full time on the Web site on top of my full time consulting business because I believe in this," said Diggs, founder of The Catalyst Company which nationally helps organizations attain and sustain success.

Donate a toy to brighten a sick child's holidays

Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan (CLF) has formed a partnership with Morley Candy to collect holiday toys at several of their area retail stores for distribution to Michigan children and teens affected by leukemia.

The 56-year-old, Michigan-based foundation (www.leukemiamichigan.org) is collecting toys for their holiday toy program and will ship personalized toy packages during the holidays to child patients and their siblings and to the children of adult patients affected by leukemia, lymphoma and related blood cancers.

Anyone bringing a toy to one of the Morley retail locations will receive a 10-percent discount on a purchase, excluding gift card or gift certificate purchases. This year, it is expected that nearly 5,000 toys will be needed for about 1,200 toy packages that will be shipped to families and to provide hospitals with toys for those battling cancer throughout the state. Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan relies heavily on toy drives and donations to support the program.

According to Kristen West, CLF Patient Services Director, "Families affected by cancer face many strains on their time, finances and emotions. To combat some of these stresses and make the holidays brighter for these families, CLF provides gift packages each year. This is a great opportunity for families, businesses, schools and community groups to consider if you are planning on an activity to give back this holiday season and the new partnership with Morley candy makes it easier than ever."

New, unwrapped toys suitable for infant through age 12 are needed as well as gift cards for teen patients. The CLF website, www.leukemiamichigan.org has specific information on the types of toys that are suitable. Some examples include electronic hand-held games, dolls, arts and crafts kits, books, action figures, board games, and sports equipment.

To drop off toys or donate to this program, bring a new, unwrapped toy to any of the Morley or Sander's store locations including Rochester (436 S. Main Street), Livonia (Laurel Park Place Mall on 37702 Six Mile Road), and Birmingham (745 E. Maple Road). Toys or gift cards may also be dropped off at the CLF office at 29777 Telegraph, Suite 1651, in Southfield prior to Dec. 24. The holiday toy collection and special discount offer at Morley's will end on Dec. 24.

Questions about the holiday toy program may be directed to the patient services department at (248) 353-8222.

Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan is a statewide organization that provides information, financial assistance, and emotional support to adults and children affected by leukemia, lymphoma, and related blood disorders. Since 1952, Children's Leukemia Foundation has served more than 11,000 families in Michigan.

Be Santa to a local senior citizen

Many seniors served through the Wayne County Senior Alliance Holiday Meals program this Christmas will get gifts, too, thanks to Home Instead Senior Care.

Every year, the company sponsors "Be a Santa to a Senior," a national non-profit program that provides gifts and companionship to socially isolated and lonely seniors. In Wayne County, the local office takes the program a step further by partnering with Senior Alliance to provide extra assistance and awareness as well as an extra touch of holiday cheer by helping to sell holiday meal cards for homebound seniors.

The cards from the Senior Alliance are being sold from the Home Instead Senior Care in Livonia office until Christmas.

"When you buy a meal card from us, our Home Instead office will match that donation with a gift to be delivered along with the meal to seniors on Christmas Day," said Glenna Yaroch, owner of Home Instead Senior Care in Livonia. "We hope that the local community will support our efforts as a way of giving back to the seniors in our area who have given us so much."

This is the fourth year that Yaroch and her staff have partnered with the Senior Alliance, which will serve approximately 750 seniors this Christmas season. For the 2008 holiday season, Yaroch has chosen large print word search books for the seniors receiving meals.

"Home Instead Senior Care has come up with a very thoughtful way to approach Holiday Meals this winter," said Linda DeVore, Senior Alliance Program Manager. "We appreciate their generous support and know how much seniors will appreciate receiving a gift along with their meals."

"Selling Christmas cards helps the organization purchase meals throughout the year," said DeVore. "The Senior Alliance hopes to sell 3,000 cards so each senior receives multiple cards on Christmas Day."

The meal cards cost $5. To purchase a card through the "Be a Santa to a Senior" program and ensure that seniors will receive a matched gift, call Home Instead Senior Care at (734) 525-5300. For information on the holiday meals program, call Senior Alliance at (734) 727-2017.

In 2008, "Be a Santa to a Senior" volunteers will surpass one million gifts delivered to needy seniors since the inception of the program in 2004. "Be a Santa to a Senior" program has become the largest gift-giving project of its kind for older adults. Home Instead Senior Care is the world's largest provider of comprehensive companionship and home care services for seniors.)

Armenian Genocide Committee accepting essays

Students with winning essays about the Armenian Genocide of 1915-1923 and its relationship to other genocides of the 20th century, will be awarded $100-$500 in the second annual competition, funded by the Hagopian Family Foundation.

The contest is sponsored by the Armenian Genocide Committee and is open to middle and high school students.

Edgar Hagopian, chair of the Armenian Genocide Committee and patriarch of the Hagopian Family Foundation, stated that the project "is a critical and vital key to perpetuating the history of the Armenian people in the minds of students as well as having them learn that a comprehensive study of the Armenian Genocide will aid and educate legislators and leaders to avert future tragedies."

"It is the youth of our nation that will look back to help not only this country move forward, but hopefully, one day the world," Hagopian said.

Suggested essay themes are:

- Events that precipitated the Armenian Genocide, as well as others.

Toxic toys

Testing reveals trouble in toyland

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
O&E STAFF WRITER

The recall of 45 million toys in 2007 reinforced the way Mike Shriberg shops for his two young children. Two years before the Consumer Product Safety Commission became involved Shriberg was testing everything from rubber ducks to teething rings for the Ecology Center in Ann Arbor. The nonprofit released its annual guide to toxic chemicals in toys Dec. 3 (www.healthytoys.org). On Saturday, Dec. 13, Shriberg visits the Ann Arbor District Library, Mallets Creek Branch with a hand-held X-Ray Fluorescence (XRF) analyzer to test toys for free. Chemicals such as bromine have been shown to permanently affect the developing brain and reproductive system, and possibly cause cancer.

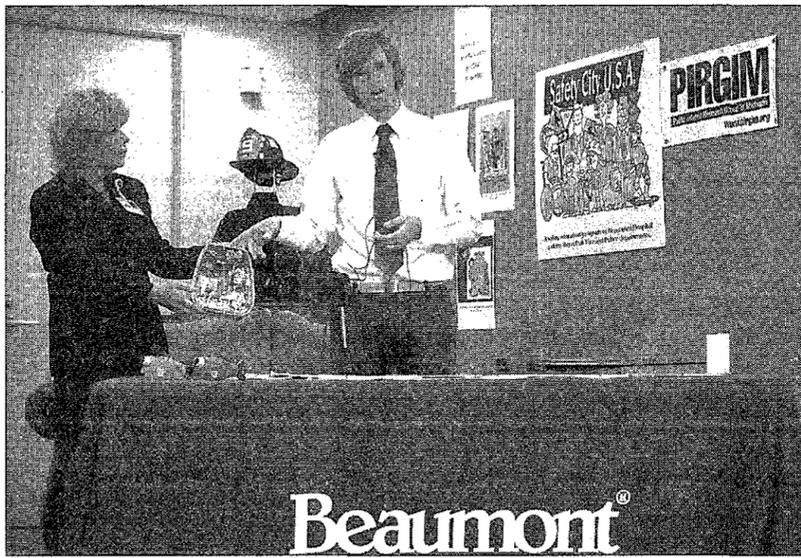

"One class of toy that stands out is children's metal jewelry. It remains the most contaminated category two years in a row and is five times more likely than other products to contain lead greater than recall levels," said Shriberg, Ecology Center policy director. "Lead causes brain damage. Pediatricians will tell you there's no safe level of lead. We recommend consumers avoid low cost children's jewelry of undescribed metals. Several Hannah Montana brands (Disney) with high levels of lead were found as well."

Holly Bair won't be buying her 6-year-old niece a Pony Land Scented Pony Pet for Christmas because it made the Trouble in Toyland report for phthalate levels 95 times the amount allowed by the pending February 2009 Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act. Bair is just as concerned about toys which present choking hazards. Toys are still the number one reason children end up in the Emergency Room at Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak. Bair was an emergency room nurse for eight years before becoming Beaumont's Trauma Care coordinator and director of Safety City U.S.A., a facility for teaching prevention programs. She and Nate Housley, field organizer for PIRGIM, held a press conference there recently to announce the 23rd annual report from the public interest group (www.toysafety.net).

"Choking is the leading toy related death for children across the U.S. either on parts of toys, balloons, balls, those things small enough to fit into a toilet paper tube for children under age 3," said Bair. "But there are toy related injuries as well. The magnets that come in toys if kids swallow one magnet it may move through without injury. If they swallow more it could create bowel obstructions."

Bair recommends parents pay attention to age appropriate warning labels and inspect toys regularly for sharp edges or loose parts. "They need to do their research, be a good consumer, read the report, take the report with them (when they

Holly Bair, Beaumont Hospital's Trauma Care coordinator, and Nate Housley, field organizer for PIRGIM, recently held a press conference to announce the 23rd annual Trouble in Toyland report from the the public interest group.

TOY TESTING

What: Free testing for toxic chemicals in toys
When: 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, Dec. 13
Where: Ann Arbor District Library, Mallets Creek Branch, 3090 East Eisenhower Pkwy. (Meeting Room A/B), Ann Arbor
Details: No pre-registration required. For information, call (734) 761-3186, ext. 125 shop)," said Bair.

Housley hopes parents heed Bair's advice.

"They can find dangerous toys on any store shelf. Not all toys are tested before they go on store shelves," said Housley. "If a toy is made out of soft plastic, it shouldn't be allowed to be chewed on or swallowed. Toys with soft plastic may have phthalates in them. Even after Feb. 10, the CPSC issued a legal opinion that said they will allow toy manufacturers to continue selling toys with phthalates until they run out of stock."

Housley agrees with Shriberg that there's no way to tell if a toy on a store shelf is safe. Country of origin is no clue either. Between 80 to 90 percent of toys come from China so the majority of problems come from Chinese toys, but the Ecology Center hasn't found a consistent correlation between where a toy is manufactured and safety.

"Chinese products don't fare any worse. It's not a China problem but a regulatory problem with our system. Because it's made in the U.S. doesn't mean it's safe," said Shriberg. "The good news is we found 21 percent did not contain toxic chemicals. It shows toy manufacturers can make toys without chemicals of concern."

While Shriberg is looking forward to the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act going into effect Feb. 10, 2009, the reforms don't go far enough. The Ecology Center together with organizations like the Michigan Nurses Association formed the Healthy Michigan, Healthy Kids coalition to work with state lawmakers to draft the Safe Children's Product bill package to protect children from toxic toys and other children's products. "We hope it will be introduced in January and to get it done so it's in place by the holiday season 2009," said Shriberg. "It would eliminate, lead, mercury and arsenic in toys, and chemicals of concern like bromine, bisphenol-A and phthalates would likely make the list. Parents would be able to make a decision of whether to buy toys through a government Web site requiring disclosure of chemicals. And it would provide incentives for companies to develop safer alternatives and to locate and grow in the state."

SECRETS TO WINNING COUNTEROFFERS

WORKWISE by Mildred L. Culp

It was 2001. The dot-com crash had put Patrick Lannon in job-hunting mode twice. He and his wife, expecting their son, left Portland, Ore., for Knoxville, Tenn. The offer Lannon landed after extensive internal interviews surprised him. He countered, asking "If it would be worth it to pay me 20 percent more if it would positively impact the business..."

friend to identify the "missing ingredient," the one that would make the offer "perfect" -- tuition reimbursement. The friend won a $20,000 salary bump, provision for his Executive M.B.A. program expense and modified telecommuting.

Victor Brown, vice president of Business Development at the Birmingham, Ala., regional Chamber of Commerce, remembers telling an employer in his native Atlanta that he wasn't "comfortable" with an offer, that he'd go home and discuss it with his wife. "They sweetened me right there on the spot $2,500," he reports. Years later, a recruiter called him. That led to an offer from another company of $58,000 plus $8,000 in bonuses. When he demurred, the company said it couldn't offer much more.

"But I was confident I wasn't going to leave my home, where I'd lived my whole life," he adds. "They'd tried to tell me the cost of living in Birmingham was lower than Atlanta, but I'd done some research. I told them that housing prices in Birmingham were a bit higher." They settled at the top of the scale:

- $76,000 salary;
- 20 percent relocation package, which grew to almost $20,000;
- $12,000 signing bonus; and
- with 12 months of good performance, 500 shares of stock.

TECHNIQUES

People successful at counteroffers recommend a range of techniques. Lannon stresses familiarity with the psychology behind a counteroffer. "An employer who made an offer," he remarks, "clearly wants you... Establish your value to the organization to make the decision easy." He comments that a 90-day period makes the employer "fully invested" and much more likely to meet your demand than take on the added expense of recruiting and hiring someone else. Meanwhile, work toward accomplishing the goals you set with the company for that period.

Dugan, the HR manager, advocates a certain "mindset, a shift from selling yourself to negotiations. Once you have an offer, your relationship with the hiring company has changed. Know your market value and be psychologically comfortable with your requests. You need to be able to walk away."

Brown advocates "interviewing for positions like the interviewer -- to determine whether you're a good fit, whether you have the attitude and commitment. Understand the position you're looking for and your interests. In any negotiation you just can't be anxious or to desperate."

Bobbie Stone of executive search firm Bobbie Stone International L.L.C., in Princeton, N.J., advises candidates to "make sure you have a salary in place (in your current company) and find out whether a bonus there (is) guaranteed." Not everyone has that luxury.

Still, Lannon observes, "I think a lot of people seeking a position feel lucky getting it and don't spend much time thinking why they get the offer. It's not's looks. Think why and get back. Use it as leverage."

CAReport

By Kevin Koloian
Avanti News Features

The Impala nameplate dates all the way back to 1958, when it was the ritziest Chevrolet in the company's full-size car lineup.

The 2008 Impala, as always, is targeted at buyers who want a sedan with good size, a reasonable price and a decent amount of usable storage room.

Changes for 2008 are relatively minor. Satellite radio is now standard on all models, while the lower-level LS and LT models received a standard six-way power driver seat. Stability control is now standard on 2 LT, LTZ and SS trim levels, and the 3.9-liter V6 is now E85 ethanol-gasoline compatible.

A throwback, the Impala is one of the few cars available with a bench front seat. The optional 40/20/40 front seat isn't a traditional bench, but the center armrest of the middle section can be folded up to create a bench.

With this setup, you can sit three across the front and three in the back, making the Impala a true six-passenger sedan. This is a dying breed nowadays.

The Impala comes in four trim levels: LS, LT, LTZ and SS. The $21,255 LS model includes 16-inch wheels, a front bench seat, air-conditioning, full power accessories, a tilt steering wheel, a power driver seat, a single-CD audio system with an MP3 jack, and keyless entry.

Moving up to the LT model adds dual-zone climate control and remote vehicle start.

The LTZ includes 18-inch alloys, performance suspension, heated leather bucket seats, a Bose audio system and an auto-dimming rearview mirror.

The SS comes with monochromatic exterior paint, a performance-tuned suspension, 18-inch wheels and a rear spoiler.

Options for the Impala LS consist of a Luxury Edition Package that includes front bucket seats with leather, a flip-and-fold-flat rear seat, steering-wheel-mounted audio controls, OnStar, a rear spoiler and anti-lock brakes with traction control.

The LT has two sub packages called 1 LT and 2 LT that include features such as leather seating, a six-CD changer, satellite radio, heated front seats and 17-inch alloy wheels. The LTZ's only options are a CD changer and a sunroof, while the SS can be ordered with heated seats, a power front-passenger seat, Homelink transmitter and an auto-dimming rearview mirror.

The Chevy Impala is a dying breed. Thanks to the optional 40/20/40 front seat, it's one of the few cars in its class that can comfortably seat six.

There are three different engines for the Impala, depending on what trim you order. The LS comes with a 3.5-liter V6 engine that produces 211 horsepower and is E85 compatible.

Available on the LT and standard on the LTZ is a 3.9-liter V6 that is good for 233 horsepower, which is now built with Active Fuel Management technology. This system deactivates half the cylinders while cruising to save fuel.

The SS has a 5.3-liter V8 making 303 horsepower. All models have the same four-speed automatic transmission and are front-wheel drive.

Fuel mileage on the 3.5 liter V6 is 18 miles per gallon in the city and 29 mpg on the highway, on regular gas.

As for safety, anti-lock brakes and traction control are standard on the LTZ and SS, and optional on other models. Full-length side curtain airbags, OnStar and a tire-pressure monitor are standard on all Impalas, and stability control is now standard on 2 LT, LTZ and SS trim levels.

In crash tests conducted by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, the Impala earned a perfect five star rating for driver and front-passenger protection in frontal impacts. In side-impact testing, an Impala equipped with the side airbags scored five stars for front passengers and four stars for those seated in the rear.

You'll notice interior comfort immediately when you enter the Impala. Its instrument panel has a soft feel with a simple design. The gauges themselves are sophisticated, yet easy to use. Buttons for the radio are wide and flat, while a large central knob operates with little effort.

The control knob system is found in new Buick models as well as the Cadillac DTS, all of which feature a similar center console.

The Impala offers many solutions to your cargo storage needs. They include its forward-flipping rear seat cushions that reveal a storage tub underneath that can contain spills or carry smaller items. The tub also serves as a covered storage area beneath the seat with cushions down.

There's also a decent-sized pass-through from the trunk that can be accessed by flipping the seat bottoms forward and the seat backs flat. The Impala's trunk holds its own. It is larger than many other mid-size cars' trunks at 18.6 cubic feet.

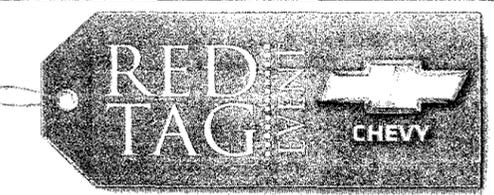

To keep you going in the right direction, all Impalas include the new Generation 7.0 OnStar as standard equipment. This system offers Turn-by-Turn navigation with the optional Directions and Connections service. Turn-by-Turn navigation directs the driver by using the digital readout lines in the radio head. Directions are downloaded by the OnStar advisor to the vehicle and can be played back or paused anywhere along the route path.

And to keep you going and going, like the Energizer Bunny, all Impalas come with a three-year or 36,000 mile limited warranty with a five-year, 100,000-mile powertrain warranty.

The Impala should be a good fit for people who need an affordable car with a roomy interior.
