Senior home worker charged with theft

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Holder

An Westland American House Senior Living Facility employee was arrested for allegedly stealing jewelry from residents, who reportedly hadn't noticed the items missing until they were contacted by police.

Michele Lee Holder, 39, was charged with six counts of larceny and one count of possessing narcotics paraphernalia, a crack pipe.

The investigation began after Detective Bureau Secretary Sharon Konfara was reviewing transaction records submitted by local pawn shops and reportedly noticed several pawn transactions by Holder involving expensive jewelry since April 2.

Konfara noticed a Dearborn Fordson High School Class of 1946 ring had been pawned - the woman who pawned it was born in 1971, police said.

The school was contacted by Lt. Greg Angelosanto, who was able to get the owner's name using the initials on the ring. Finding that Holder was employed in housekeeping at American House, Angelosanto reportedly was able to locate the ring's owner, an 81-year-old woman who lives at the facility.

The woman didn't know that the class ring had been stolen until she was contacted by police, police said.

Sgt. Steve Borisch went to the Barber Shop Exchange, 1916 Venoy, where the ring had been pawned to retrieve it. While Borisch was in the pawn shop, Holder arrived to pawn more jewelry, he said. When confronted, Borisch said Holder initially told him someone had given her the class ring to pawn.

Holder subsequently told police she was addicted to crack cocaine and had been stealing to get money for drugs, Borisch said. Officers recovered a large amount of jewelry that Holder had in her possession and she agreed to tell the officers where she had taken the items from so they could be returned, police said.

Six victims were identified. The jewelry recovered from Holder was returned, police said.

In addition to the class ring, police also recovered a pinwheel bracelet and a mother's ring belonging to that woman which had been stolen and pawned along with four other rings and three chains which hadn't been pawned, police said.

The number of charges brought against Holder were limited, Borisch said, because items pawned earlier had already been melted down and couldn't be identified.

Ex-Tiger McLain big draw at poker benefit

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A recent poker benefit for the Westland Chamber of Commerce featuring sports celebrities was billed as Pros versus Joes. That was really the case as Joe Bobby (left), a Westland police officer, played a couple hands with former Detroit Tigers great Denny McLain.

Local card players got to test their skills against former professional athletes at Joes vs. Pros poker tournament that kicked off a four-night fund-raiser for the Westland Chamber of Commerce.

On hand at the Texas Hold 'Em tournament were former Detroit Tigers Denny McLain and Pat Sheridan, and former Detroit Red Wing John Ogrrodnick. Also from the NHL were Chris Tamer and Dave Roberts and former NFL player Rob Spicer.

"The pros signed autographs and posed for pictures. Denny McLain is one of the bigger draws, people are glad to see him," said Jeffery Kavanaugh, a former board member and Westland police officer whose company, Crazy Kopz, runs the charity games at Vision Lanes.

About 75 people turned out for the Joes vs. Pros. The chamber earned about $1,800 over the four nights - the nonprofit group is guaranteed 50 percent of the proceeds from the events. This was the chamber's second fund-raiser with Crazy Kopz.

Westland looks for more homes to do drain work

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Westland is still seeking homeowners who want their footing drain removed and a sump pump installed at no charge.

"We sent letters out a month ago looking for volunteers. We have 60-65 percent of the number we need so we need to add more homes," Department of Public Services Director Kevin Buford said. "It helps eliminate the chance of sewer backup.

Most of the people who signed up have had sewer backups."

The city is looking for volunteers in specific areas of Westland - between Merriman and Middlebelt, Joy and Warren Road, Merriman to Henry Ruff between Cherry Hill and Palmer, and Henry Ruff to Middlebelt between Annapolis and Van Born.

Most homes constructed before 1980 didn't have sump pumps unless they were added later. The problem with the footing drains is that they are connected to the sanitary sewer which can be overloaded during heavy rains and increase the amount of sanitary sewage that the city pays to be treated.

"You can never guarantee there will be no sewer backup. When you take flow out of the system, you reduce the chance of backup," Buford said.

City engineers OHM are working on the project along with Bidigare Contractors Inc., whose employees will make appointments with residents and do the actual work.

Reducing the possibility of sewage backing up into homes due to heavy rains is the small picture in the $3.5 million sewer rehabilitation project recently approved by the council. The bigger picture is to reduce the amount of sewage the city discharges for treatment and as a result eliminate or drastically limit Westland's participation in a mandated regional sewer storage facility.

"We are trying to be a very small part of the $200 million regional project, if we have to part of it," Buford

Woman pleads no contest to embezzlement

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A Westland woman has entered no contest pleas to felony charges that she embezzled an estimated $300,000 from Westland Convalescent Center.

Michaelene Meek, 46, entered the pleas Wednesday before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Craig Strong. She is scheduled to be sentenced June 16. While not an admission of guilt, a no contest plea is treated the same as a guilty plea.

Meek was originally charged with the 20-year felony of embezzling more than $100,000 that was stolen from Westland Convalescent Center from March 2008 through August 2009.

A second warrant charging Meek with embezzlement under $100,000, a 15-year felony, is expected to be issued shortly. That warrant relates to money missing from Westland Convalescent Center over a period dating back to 2005.

Employed by Westland Convalescent Center since the 1980s, Meek worked in the business office where her duties included handling accounts payable.

Westland police investigated and found that when clients would pay in cash, Meek would not deposit the money and would keep it.

The amounts of money not deposited varied a great deal, police said, from $55 to $1,000. The largest sum was $20,000 missing in one month for a total $170,000 missing in a 17-month period.

Clients were issued receipts for their payments, police said, so the money was actually stolen from Westland Convalescent Center, not the clients.

In fact, the embezzlement came to light after a nursing home resident died and a family member tried to contact Meek about paying any outstanding balances at Westland Convalescent Center.

When Meek failed to return calls, the family member contacted the center's chief financial officer. A large discrepancy on what was owed on the account triggered the investigation.

Meek, who was fired from her position at Westland Convalescent Center, remains free on bond.

Krazy Kopz, which operates charity events at Vision Lanes seven days a week, rents the group the equipment and provides the dealers. State law allows a charity to hold the gambling fundraisers for four days. It's a

Incumbents face challenges in bid for re-election

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A former Wayne-Westland school board member has joined the race to challenge incumbent 12th District Wayne County Commissioner Joan Gebhardt.

"Joan is a nice lady but we've got to do something better for our district," said David James, who also served a year on the Westland council before being removed by a recall. "As I look at what is happening in our area with declining home values and loss of jobs, there must be something we can do."

Running as a Republican, James will face Michael Case, also a Westland resident, in the Aug. 3 primary election. Case couldn't be reached for comment. The winner will move to the primary election to run against Gebhardt, a Livonia Democrat seeking her second term on the commission, representing the 12th District, which includes Westland, Inkster and a portion of southern Livonia.

Gebhardt became commissioner in the 12th District in January 2009.

Gebhardt serves on the Committee on Government Operations, Committee on Ways & Means and the Committee on Public Services. She was recently named to the newly created Task Force on Wayne County Jail Population. In addition, Gebhardt is vice president to the executive committee of SEMCOG, serves on the board of directors for the Head Start Governing Board and the Great Start Collaborative, and is a trustee for Schoolcraft College.

Gebhardt has led an effort to reduce the commission's budget by $1.6 million and enacted a 10-percent pay cut for commissioners that took effect in October.

State Rep. Richard LeBlanc, D-Westland, will have no primary race. In November, LeBlanc will be challenged by Republican Floyd S. Collins, also of Westland. Collins couldn't be reached for comment.

Two Livonia council members, former state senator Laura Toy and former state representative John Pastor, will vie for the Republican nomination for the 6th District state senate seat. The winner of the Aug. 3 primary will face incumbent Glenn Anderson, D-Westland, who defeated Toy in her 2006 re-election bid. The 6th Senate District includes Livonia, Redford Township, Westland and Garden City.

"I am running for the state Senate to give our community its voice back in Lansing," Toy said. "While our municipalities, schools and citizens struggle, unfortunately we have seen more finger pointing than solutions out of our state government."

Pastor, a former state representative elected to three terms, said he believes he has the background to serve in the Senate.

"I've been in business, and we need someone who knows about tough times and knows how to get out of tough times," Pastor said. Pastor believes the 6th District needs a change in Lansing.

Anderson said in his re-election announcement recently that he was honored to serve the 6th District.

"I will continue my fight to promote job growth, strengthen education, help struggling families and ensure state government is reformed to better address Michigan's needs during these difficult times," Anderson said. "Our communities have seen some major investments in growing job sectors, and I will continue to focus on developing policies to bring more industries like these to our area while supporting our traditional automotive and manufacturing jobs."

County Executive Robert Ficano, a Livonia Democrat, is running for re-election unopposed.

In the congressional race, U.S. Rep. Thaddeus McCotter, R-Livonia, is running unopposed on the Republican side of the ticket in the 11th District. Natalie Mosher faces no opposition from other Democrats.

said. "There are plans but they are not 100 percent in place."

Under the agreement worked out with Michigan Department of Environmental Quality, Wayne County and local communities, a large tunnel would be constructed in Dearborn Heights to hold storm water runoff during heavy rains. That would allow the runoff to be released later and avoid overflows, including untreated sewage being released into the Rouge River.

The $3.5 million project includes the replacement, relining or repair of various sanitary sewer lines, also the removal of footing drains and the installation of sump pumps in residential homes in five subdistricts of the city.

The financing for the project comes through a loan from the State Revolving Fund and a 40 percent debt forgiveness grant through the stimulus program.

"The improvements of the city's 286 miles of sanitary sewer lines and 6,744 sanitary sewer manholes is imperative to ensure consistent services to our residents," Mayor William Wild said. "This cost-effective avenue will reduce the sewage disposal costs imposed by Wayne County while taking advantage of capital fund improvements."

Homeowners interested in participating in the sump pump program can call the Department of Public Service at (734) 728-1770.

GC Hospital competes in walking challenge

Botsford Hospital and Garden City Hospital employees are competing to see who can walk the most minutes during the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life on Saturday, May 22.

The hospitals' employee wellness committees have been in contact for the past year exploring alternatives for a health-focused competition. With both hospitals already participating in their local Relay for Life events, they decided to arrange a walking challenge to see who could walk the most minutes during this 24-hour event.

"We are excited for this challenge that not only gets our employees to focus on their health through walking but also allows each of us to support and make a difference in the fight against cancer," said Stacy Brand, chair of Botsford Hospital's wellness committee. "We're looking forward to going out and having a great time with some healthy competition."

"We hope this friendly competition will encourage all of our employees to participate in the walk and continue to exercise regularly, ultimately leading to a healthier lifestyle," added Garden City Hospital's wellness committee chair, Catherine Chamberlain. "There has been great participation from the Garden City Hospital family at many events in the past and we hope with the help of them, we will be successful."

Each hospital will participate in their local Relay for Life. Botsford Hospital will be a part of the Relay at Shiawassee Park in Farmington and Garden City Hospital will be stationed at Garden City Middle School. To support Botsford or Garden City's walking challenge, join them anytime from 10 a.m. Saturday, May 22, to 10 a.m. Sunday, May 23.

"Botsford Hospital is pleased that two organizations have already stepped up to support us for the walk," said Brand. "Erase the Ink, M.D., in Rochester Hills has purchased T-shirts for the first 50 Botsford participants and Breadsmith of Bloomfield Hills has donated treats for the walkers. We really appreciate the generosity of these local businesses."

"This should be a fun and very worthwhile opportunity for both organizations while helping a great cause stamp out cancer, so come and join us just for the 'Health of It,'" said Chamberlain.

Botsford Hospital is a multi-specialty community hospital with 330 licensed beds located in Farmington Hills, Michigan. Each year it cares for more than 17,000 inpatients and almost 60,000 emergency patients with a team of 2,400 employees, 400 volunteers and more than 600 physicians.

Garden City Hospital began as the vision of six local physicians in March 1947 to provide a more attentive healthcare facility for the community. Today the hospital is a state-of-the-art medical facility with 323 licensed beds, 1,463 employees, 364 physicians and 48 medical specialties.

Former funeral home operators go to jail

BY KAREN SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The former operators of the Ziomek Funeral Home in Livonia are expected to spend at least two years in prison for not paying back more than 60 people they duped out of money for pre-paid funeral contracts.

Nancy and Christopher Ziomek of Canton were sentenced Monday, May 10, to two to 15 years with the Michigan Department of Corrections after pleading guilty in Wayne County Circuit Court to violating the terms of their probation, which required them to pay an initial amount of $150,000 in restitution by May 3.

"The incarceration was the end result of them making promises they could not keep," Wayne County Assistant Prosecutor Robert Spada said. Asked how long they will actually spend in prison, Spada said: "Truth in sentencing usually means two years." He said he will request that restitution be a condition of their parole at the time they become eligible. He said the victims are still out their money.

Timothy Wrather, attorney for Nancy Ziomek, said: "Mrs. Ziomek entered a plea agreement with the intent to pay back all of the money gained through the pre-paid contracts in question. Ultimately, and despite good-faith efforts, she and her husband, Christopher Ziomek, fell short of the required amount specified in that agreement. Unfortunately, the prison sentence handed down to the Ziomeks makes it less likely that the families involved will ever be made financially whole."

In November, the Ziomeks were charged with two counts of embezzlement greater than $50,000 but less than $100,000, three counts of embezzlement by an agent or trustee greater than $1,000 but less than $20,000, and funeral contracts-conversion. Wayne County Prosecutor Kym Worthy said the defendants obtained more than $230,000 from unwitting victims between 1998 and 2007, and the money was later spent by the Ziomeks for their own personal use.

The Ziomeks entered plea agreements and were placed on five years' probation, but only if they followed repayment guidelines; otherwise they would be subjected to jail time.

In sentencing them this week, Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Daniel Hathaway noted he would consider a motion for resentencing if they are able to repay the entire amount authorities said they stole from their victims.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP IS THE CHARTER OF A GOOD BANK.

(AND WHY IT MATTERS TO YOU.)

WE HAVE GONE THROUGH AN EXTRAORDINARY PERIOD IN OUR NATION'S HISTORY. But what lessons have we learned along the way? A fundamental one that we've really known all along: that financial institutions, banks in particular, play a critical role in the development and health of the communities in which they serve.

At Charter One we believe in a simple premise: good banks allow citizens to invest in other citizens, from the homes they live in, to the cars they drive, to the ideas that create small businesses, to funding the growth of those small businesses into ever more successful enterprises. One man's savings is another woman's mortgage. One man's investment is a new factory or day care center. A good bank lies at the center of it all as a facilitator of prosperity, a pillar of stability, and a reliable source of financial solutions.

That's our belief, and that's a role we've played for over 75 years. We've invested in the communities in which we live and have succeeded by helping our fellow citizens succeed. What's more, we encourage community involvement and volunteerism at every turn. From serving on local committees to volunteering in soup kitchens to educating the under-served on financial matters.

While banking should always be part of the greater whole, it is still personal. There is nothing more personal, in fact, than your financial life. So the people of Charter One are committed to treating you not like a number on a screen, but like a fellow citizen. Anticipating your needs and making your bank as accessible as your wallet. Whether it's online banking, flexible loans, or global capabilities.

This is how we got to be who we are. It's how we started. And how we intend to go forward. So to find out how we can help you with your financial needs, just ask a Charter One banker. We're here to help you—and everyone—prosper. Good banking is good citizenship and good citizenship is good business.

Lincoln students turn bowls for Bright event

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

When the families of youngsters involved in the Bright Futures program at Lincoln Elementary gather May 26, it will be the last family night held at the school. It also will be an opportunity for the youngsters to reach out and help the residents of Haiti.

The students have spent the last month making and decorating clay bowls that will be sold at a modest price at the May 26 Empty Bowls benefit to help raise money for the earthquake-ravaged country. Site coordinator Sara Bliss hopes that money along with what the Bright Futures students collect in loose change at lunchtime will bring in some $200 for Haiti.

"We decided to do a service learning project and go beyond reach out to others," said Bliss. "It's a nice hurrah, a nice send-off."

The youngsters worked with art teacher Paul Chisholm, who kept reminding them not to paint the bottom of their bowls. According to Chisholm, the Bright Futures Empty Bowls is an offshoot of a similar fund-raiser that was done in the district about five years ago to raise money for the Wayne-Westland Food Bank.

Rovin Ceramics in Taylor donated the clay used to make the bowls, about 60 in all, according to Bliss.

"Paul handled it all, it's his brainchild," she said. "We had them sign the bottom of the paper bowls they used as molds, then Mr. Chisholm signed the bottom."

The color selection ranged from blue and red to green and kiwi. Youngsters used their imaginations in decorating the bowls, heeding Chisholm's reminder not to paint the bottoms. He's using kilns at Adams Middle School, and Lincoln and his kiln at Roosevelt-McGrath to fire the bowls after glazing them.

"It'll be exciting to see how they turn out," he said. "Some potters say when you open the kiln it's like Christmas. You never know what you're going to get."

"We have a lot of gifted artists here," he added.

In addition to the bowls, the students also decorated sheets of paper that will be made into placemats. The decorations urge people to help Haiti. They're also writing letters to give to the Red Cross to distribute among the people of Haiti.

"This is awesome. Sometimes with the process, it's hard to see the end result," Bliss said.

Fifth-grader Zaria Johnson decorated the inside of her bowl with a sun, because she wanted it to be "cheerful," while Kelcie Charron painted the inside of her bowl red, the outside green and trimmed the rim in green.

Kelcie, a fifth-grader, has been in Bright Futures since its inception three years ago. While the program offers different clubs, her favorite is the homework club, even though she gets straight A's and is on the honor roll.

"I think my mom, brother and sister will come to the party," she said. "They'll probably say it's a good thing that I did and that I did a good job on my bowl."

Third-grader Brenden Booth was busy making placemats. When why he was putting Remember Haiti on them, his answer was like a news report.

"Because Haiti had an earthquake and the people are very poor," he said. "All of their buildings were knocked down and they really need our help."

While the Bright Futures program is ending at Lincoln — it's one of six Wayne-Westland schools that will close in June — it will continue in the fall. According to Lynn Malinoff, director of the 21st Century Community Learning Centers in the Institute for the Study of Children, Families and Communities at Eastern Michigan University, the school district has agreed to bus the Norwayne Bright Futures students from their new schools to Adams Upper Elementary, where the program will be offered, "so we can continue to service the families of Norwayne," said Malinoff.

"My focus has always been on service learning," she said. "We spend a huge chunk of time working with the staff to help them engage students and give them a voice. They see that they're not only recipients, they can be givers."

The program has been in the school district for three years and is funded through a five-year 21st Century Community Learning Center grant through the Michigan Department of Education. Malinoff said the program is also looking for other resources to expand services and partnerships to serve more children.

"Hopefully when the last two years of the grant are up, we will be able to apply for more money," she said.

People who have been involved and worked with the Bright Futures are being invited back for the Empty Bowls program. While Bliss hasn't decided what will be on the menu, she knows there will be a lot of excitement among the children who will want to buy their bowls.

That's what Kelcie has planned and she knows what she'll do with her bowl.

"I will probably put it away as a keepsake," she said.

Community Night puts emphasis on family, safety

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Juanita Francis is the epitome of making lemonade when life gives you lemons. When troubling times hit the Westland resident, she channels her energies into doing good for someone else.

The loss of her father and sister last year and a miscarriage spurred her to put even more effort into the second annual Keep It Safe Community Night at Taft-Galloway Elementary School in Wayne. The three-hour event, slated for Wednesday, May 19, is the result of a partnership between her JFL Diversified Business Network the Wayne-Westland school. It will be held at the school, 4035 Gloria, Wayne.

"Whenever I am going through difficult times in my life, I know something great is coming soon," she said. "I prayed and asked God to give me a vision what to do for a community project that would help me to heal by serving others. What came to me was Keep It Safe."

The event will start with dinner from 5-6 p.m. — pizza, chips and pop provided Uncle Joe's Market, Toarmina's Pizza-Cherry Hill and Kroger — followed by an open house from 6-7 p.m. for Taft-Galloway families to welcome students and families from Vandenberg who will transfer there when their school closes in June.

There will be presentations by various officials including Westland Mayor William Wild and Wayne Mayor Al Hadeous and displays by both Wayne and Westland police and fire departments, the Michigan State Police and the Mason who will be providing their Michigan Child Identification Program.

"Yes, we are partying with a purpose," Francis said. "Safe is providing imperative information (police, fire, and state police), karate demonstration (protection), community child ID preparation, having clean fun and great fellowship. We expect to exceed the 450 patrons from last year and looking forward to setting a standard of excellence that many would look to follow."

There also will be plenty of things for youngsters to do. Zorro's Mexican Restaurant is sponsoring the Arts and Scraps, which will let children create treasures out of industrial scraps, and Rumors on the River is sponsoring the Video Game Mobile, filled with 30 PlayStation 2's and Xbox 360s. PKSA Karate also will do demonstrations. The first 200 guests who walk through the door will receive goodie bags.

"My living room is filled with boxes," Francis said. "It's going to take six hours to fill those bags."

Last year's event focused on safety from a broad spectrum, but this year "we are taking it to another level, even grander."

The event is free to the community and "is great for the whole family."

"Come out and enjoy an informative night of fun, food and entertainment," she added.

May is Arthritis Awareness Month

According to the Center for Disease Control, arthritis is the most common cause of disability in the United States, affecting an estimated 46 million adults. Although the most common form of arthritis, osteoarthritis, is typified by painful swelling and stiffness in the joints, is a fact of life for many older men and women, a majority of arthritis sufferers are under the age 65.

Arthritis encompasses more than 100 different conditions and diseases, including fibromyalgia, lupus and tendonitis ("tennis elbow") and is caused by a variety of factors, from autoimmune reaction to injury and age. Maintaining an active lifestyle is challenging for arthritis sufferers, but extremely important. Exercise "feeds" joint cartilage and research shows that arthritis sufferers who exercise regularly often increase flexibility and decrease stiffness and joint pain.

If you have been diagnosed with arthritis, the library has a number of books written by medical professionals that may help you to stay active and healthy, such as "The Everything Health Guide to Arthritis: Professional Advice on Managing Pain, Choosing the Right Treatment and Leading an Active Lifestyle" by Carol Eustice and "Arthritis: An American Yoga Association Wellness Guide" by Alice Christensen.

The library subscribes to "Arthritis Today," a bimonthly publication of the Arthritis Foundation, which features information on conditions and symptoms along with available treatments, important tips for nutrition and exercise and other articles on daily living for arthritis sufferers.

You can also access a wealth of research databases through the library's website, www.westlandlibrary.org, by clicking Research, Subject, Health and logging in with your library card number (click on the "home access" link, if you are working from home). The Infotrac Health and Wellness Resource Center and Magill's Medical Guide Online databases provide consumer-friendly information on a range of health issues, including arthritis such as osteoarthritis, rheumatoid arthritis, or gout.

For more information about health research in the library give us a call (734) 326-6123 or stop by the reference desk to learn more about arthritis resources in the library.

Highlighted Activities

Adult Book Discussion Group: 7 p.m. May 18
Join us as we discuss "The Leisure Seeker" by Michael Zadoorian. John and Ella Robina, a couple married 50 plus years - she has stopped her cancer treatments, he has Alzheimer's - kidnap themselves from the adult children and the doctors who seem to run their lives, and steal off on a forbidden vacation determined to prove that, when it comes to life, you can go back for seconds and sneak a little extra time. Copies will be available at the Reference Desk. All are welcome.

Documentary Movie Night:

"Disarm" at 7 p.m. May 19
Join us for a viewing of the documentary film "Disarm." This film spans a dozen countries to look at how, despite a global ban, millions of antipersonnel mines continue to claim victims daily in countries around the world. "Disarm" features striking footage smuggled out of the isolated nation of Burma, scenes from a war-ravaged community in Colombia, footage from minefields in Iraq, and exclusive scenes shot by Afghan and Bosnian deminers. Defined as a conventional weapon, antipersonnel mines inflict destruction upon civilian populations for decades after the initial conflict has ended. No sign-up is required.

Open Mic Performers' Concert:

7 p.m., May 20, teens and adults, at the Library Pavilion.
The Open Mic season is over but we're celebrating the event by hosting two established performers of this freewheeling series - Bill Fragell, a country and folk singer from Westland, who draws influence from great singer-songwriters like Kris Kristofferson and Johnny Cash, and Tom Kozma, a folk singer from Novi, whose witty, self-effacing lyrics bring smiles and tenderness. Join us outside in the library pavilion for this special event.

Friday Night Movie:

"Precious," 7 p.m. May 21
This week's movie is "Precious." The scene is Harlem, New York, in 1987.

Teenager Clarisse Precious Jones is dirt poor, morbidly obese, semiliterate, and pregnant for the second time - both courtesy of her own father (the first baby was born with Down syndrome). Her home life is several levels below Hell, as her bitter, vengeful welfare mother, Mary, abuses her both physically and otherwise. Yet somehow, the young woman still has hopes and dreams. Rated R. ## Police offer tips on online buying, selling

The Westland Police Department is offering some important tips regarding the buying/selling of items online via craigslist.

The overwhelming majority of craigslist users are trustworthy and well-intentioned, and with billions of human interactions facilitated through craigslist, the incidence of violent crime has been extremely low.

However, police say it's important to take the same common sense precautions online as you would offline.

When meeting someone for the first time, remember to:

- Insist on a public meeting place like a cafe or the police station.
  - Do not meet in a secluded place, or invite strangers into your home.
  - Be especially careful when buying/selling high value items.
  - Tell a friend or family member where you're going.
  - Take your cell phone along if you have one.
  - Consider having a friend accompany you
  - Trust your instincts.
- For more information about personal safety online, check out getsafeonline.org and wiresafety.org.

Citizens for Peace sponsor regional conference

A regional Peace Conference bringing together representative from as many as six Midwest states will be hosted by Citizens for Peace May 14-16 at Madonna University in Livonia.

The purpose of the event is to exchange ideas and strategies to create a worldwide "Culture of Peace." Legislative bills in Congress to establish a Department of Peace and a Youth Promise Act for young adults will be explained and discussed.

Keynote speaker is Bishop Thomas Gumbleton, Michigan's noted human rights and peace activist. He will close the three-day event with his words of peace on Sunday.

Colleen Mills, president of Livonia-based Citizens for Peace, will present "The Power of Peace," an overview of the two bills. Karen Johnson, national communication coordinator of the Peace Alliance, will present the Strategic Plan: Legislative Advocacy; Community Peacebuilding; Mainstreaming in the Media; Building the Grassroots Network; and Ensuring Financial Sustainability.

A variety of interactive methods will enable participants to learn various nonviolent and peaceful techniques. Robert Koehler, a Chicago-based editor at Tribune Media Services and nationally syndicated writer, will guide attendees in discovering their writing talents. Koehler considers himself a peace journalist and has won many awards for his writing.

Participants will connect with their own inner peace under the guidance of Kathy Henning as she takes the mystery out of meditation. Rosemary Doyle and Jerry Mehler will offer opportunities to practice peace as they demonstrate the power of the Peace Circle in Restorative Practices, a technique embraced by a growing number of school systems in Michigan.

Kevin "Mr. Peace" Szawala will energize the audience with his motivational talk "Students Empowering Students." Working together to create a world without borders will be a hands-on experience as groups work together assembling "Global Peace Puzzles" created by Sue Belanger. Her company, "Puzzles with a Purpose," is dedicated to creative tools for positive change.

Spearheading endorsements for the Department of Peace, Dennis Mazurek will show how it's done, as the number of city endorsements nationwide now exceeds 38. Polly Anna Burnette-Egan, president of the Schoolcraft College Peace Alliance, recognized as the most active in the nation, will report on the National Peace Alliance Conference held in Austin, Texas, last month.

Reservations for the conference are $50, ($25 for students) and include Saturday lunch, two continental breakfasts and light snacks and refreshments Friday night. The conference begins at 7 p.m. Friday and concludes midday Sunday. Participants can register for all or part of the conference. Saturday night there will be a "Readers Theater" presentation of the original play by Stacey Martino The Gift of Peace.

"This is the brainstorming time for each of us to share our work, ideas and potential for creating the peaceful world we all desire," said Mills, co-founder and president of Citizens for Peace. The non-partisan, non-secular, non-profit grassroots group has been working since 2003 for the creation of a Department of Peace.

Do your homework on long-term care policy

Q: Dear Rick: I'm buying a long-term care policy and I've done what you have suggested by checking out the company. How long of an elimination period do you recommend? My options are 30, 90 or 180 days.

A: It is important to understand the elimination period is the time when you are self-insured. Once the elimination period has passed you are eligible to collect your benefits.

The elimination period is similar to an auto insurance deductible.

If you may have a $500 deductible in your auto policy and you are in an accident and have $600 worth of damage, the first $500 is your responsibility. The remaining $100 is what the insurance company pays.

As with auto insurance, the larger the deductible, the less expensive the premiums.

In most situations, I recommend a 180-day waiting period because Medicare generally covers the first 90 days of long-term care coverage. I always recommend that investors have a minimum 90-day emergency fund. Therefore, if someone needed to collect on a long-term policy he/

Money Matters

she can have a 180-day waiting period without causing financial distress.

Questions regarding long-term care — including at what age should one consider purchasing a policy — come up constantly at my free seminars.

The question was recently asked by a woman in her late 30s who had been approached about buying long-term care. My advice was that she was too young to consider long-term care and that it is more appropriate for someone who is in their late 50s or early 60s.

When you buy a long-term care policy in your 40s the premiums are substantially less than if you are in your 50s or early 60s. However, in the majority of situations regarding someone in their 40s, because they would not begin to collect term care until they're in their 60s or 70s they are consequently paying premiums for a much longer period of time than if they would have waited to purchase a policy. In addition, when you buy a policy that you know you won't collect on for many years, you are also assuming the risk that the insurance company will still be in business.

Many insurance companies that used to sell long-term care have gotten out of that business. Therefore, you may find that although you've paid on a policy for many years, suddenly, the company decides it is no longer profitable to be in that business.

Over the years, long-term care policies have gotten better. A policy today is generally better than one 15 years ago. In addition, we don't know if there will be a long-term care option with Medicare in the future. Because there are so many ifs, ands, and buts with regards to long-term care, I think in the great majority of situations it doesn't pay to purchase the policy in your 30s or 40s. Wait until you are in your 50s or 60s.

There is a risk of waiting too long. Long-term care is expensive and if you wait until your late 60s or 70s, it may be too expensive to purchase. Therefore, there is a small window of time in which I believe it makes sense to consider purchasing a long-term care policy and that is late 50s, early 60s.

For those interested in long-term care, don't forget to shop around and make sure to deal with a qualified agent. Too many people involved in the long-term care industry have no clue what they're doing and don't understand the nuances within policies. Deal with someone who will make sure you get a policy best suited for your individual situation.

One issue regarding long-term care is whether the new health care bill will have some provisions for long-term care. Just because legislation has passed doesn't mean it will be implemented in the way that it was designed.

Therefore, if you need a long-term care policy, it's probably a good idea to start doing your homework, deal with a good agent and do not wait for something to come out of Washington.

Good luck!

The event will be hosted by emcee Ed Buehner, who was featured NBC's Last Comic Standing, and feature comedian Johnny Beehner and headliner Erin Jackson who garnered national attention with performances on The Ellen DeGeneres Show and Comedy Central's Live at Gotham.

Tickets are $20 per person with $15 of the ticket price going directly to benefit the many programs of Tail Waggers USA - Pet Food Assistance, Spay/Neuter Programs, Low-Cost Vaccinations, Emergency Assistance and Cruelty Investigation and Rescue.

Tickets can be purchased in advance on-line at www.tailwaggersusa.org or by contacting gogodogs@ameritech.net. Tickets will also be available at the door, however, seating will be guaranteed for those guests who pre-purchased tickets in advance.

A second Tail Waggers' event is the T.G.I. Friday's FLAIR show at 7 p.m. Tuesday, May 18, at Friday's at 720 Town Center Dr. on the grounds of Fairlane Town Center.

Bartenders have been conducting Flair shows since the early 1980s and now have turned these shows into charity fund-raisers. Get up close and personal with bartenders who have competed in the Friday's Bartending Olympics and have gone on to compete on a regional level.

Flair bartending is the practice of bartenders entertaining guests with the manipulation of bar tools like cocktail shakers and liquor bottles. Used occasionally in cocktail bars, the action requires skills commonly associated with jugglers.

Tail Waggers USA will also be accepting pet food donations to supplement their Pet Food Assistance Program. For community members that have fallen on tough times, the Pet Food Assistance program provides food for a family pet until the family is able to do it on their own.

Friday's also will be giving away a free appetizer coupon (up to an $8 value) for any pet food donation brought in the night of the show.

Wrongly convicted man devotes time to helping others

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Asked what he would say to the police officers who withheld evidence that would have kept him from being wrongly convicted of rape and imprisoned for nearly a decade, Kenneth Wynmienko's response is succinct.

Wynmienko

"I told you I was innocent. That's what I would say," said Wynmienko, 58, who was released from prison in 2003 after being exonerated by DNA testing, thanks to the efforts of the Innocence Project at Cooley Law School.

Since his release, Wynmienko has been on mission to help others who have been wrongfully imprisoned. Joined by the Innocence Project director and Cooley law professor Norman Fell, Wynmienko recently spoke at Westland's William P. Faust Public Library.

Wynmienko has estimated about 12 percent of the nation's prison population are wrongfully convicted — a number that falls into the 10-15 percent estimated by federal studies.

"I have traveled all over the country," said Wynmienko, who continues his work in memory of his father, who died while he was in prison, and another exonerated man, Eddie Joe Lloyd, who served more than 17 years in prison and died less than two years after his release. "I get choked up when I see my dad and Eddie Joe Lloyd — he was such a good-hearted guy."

Hearing Wynmienko's story, it seems inconceivable that he was convicted of the 1994 sexual assault of a Clinton Township woman.

But when Fell and Wynmienko talk about the reasons for wrongful convictions — police and prosecutorial misconduct, court-appointed attorneys not able to provide adequate representation, testimony from jailhouse snitches, lack of DNA testing and most commonly misidentification by witnesses — all were a part of Wynmienko's case.

The Cooley Law Innocence Project — a clinic staffed by law students supervised by professors — only reviews cases in which a prisoner has exhausted all appeals and in which there is DNA evidence. Nationwide, 254 wrongfully convicted prisoners have been released due to the efforts of the Innocence Project. Wynmienko was the second to be exonerated and released in Michigan.

"They were not released on a legal technicality or a Constitutional issue," said Fell. "Ninety-eight percent of DNA for us is exactly the same. But the 2 percent called junk DNA, no one except identical twins have that same 2 percent DNA."

Used in court since 1989, DNA is the first time a tool can be used with 100 percent certainty to determine if the accused is the perpetrator, Fell said.

"I think on paper, we have the finest criminal justice system in the world. We have the protections of our rights and of due process," said Fell. "The problem is the machinery is run by people. People have baggage, faults, prejudices and arrogance. Because of that mistakes are made."

There are steps that can be put into place to help avoid wrongful convictions, Fell said, along with maintaining DNA evidence for appeal purposes. Another issue is lack of funding for court-appointed attorneys for indigent defendants.

"The police have unlimited resources. They can go to the state police or the FBI," said Fell. "A court-appointed attorney paid $500 doesn't have the money to hire investigators."

In Wynmienko's case, his court-appointed was allowed only a weekend to prepare for his trial.

"When it comes to personal freedom and liberty, it's costly," said Fell. "What if you are right 99 percent of the time? That's pretty good. But two million people are doing hard time for felonies — 1 percent would be 20,000 people. The number is much higher."

Unlike most exonerated prisoners who don't receive any compensation for the time they spent wrongfully incarcerated, Wynmienko received a more than $3.7 million out-of-court settlement to settle a federal lawsuit against Clinton Township.

The difference was the allegations of misconduct by the Clinton Township police detectives who handled the case against Wynmienko. The township admitted no wrongdoing as part of the settlement.

His true story sounds like work of fiction

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

If it weren't a true story, Kenneth Wynmienko's story would sound like an implausible work of fiction.

Wynmienko was the manager of two bowling centers on April 30, 1994, when a 28-year-old Clinton Township woman was repeatedly sexually assaulted by a stranger who had broken into her home.

Initially, the victim told police she couldn't describe her assailant because he was wearing a mask and covered her eyes. Yet later, police released a composite sketch of the suspect and received an anonymous tip that the drawing looked like Wynmienko.

The suspect was described at about 6-foot-2 and about 220 pounds, 30 years old. Wynmienko, then 43, was 5-foot-10 and weighed much less. The victim later identified Wynmienko as her assailant in a lineup and in court.

There was no physical evidence tying Wynmienko to the sexual assault. In fact, testing of the semen showed the assailant and Wynmienko had different blood types.

Law students from the Innocence Project later found four pieces of evidence that the detective in charge of the case had written a note asking that the Michigan State Police lab not conduct tests on those items. DNA testing on the items later ruled out Wynmienko as the perpetrator.

The prosecutor who handled the case made a deal with Wynmienko's cellmate for testimony in exchange for a reduction of a life in prison sentence. The cellmate later recanted his testimony.

It was later learned that the prosecutor placed the victim, the cellmate and Wynmienko's former girlfriend, who was living with him at the time of his arrest, together in a room with the case file, Wynmienko said.

Additionally, Wynmienko said it was learned that the jurors were voting 10 to two for acquittal until the trial judge visited the jury room and expressed his opinion that Wynmienko was guilty. That same judge later exceeded guidelines when sentencing Wynmienko, citing his lack of remorse.

Along with knowing he was wrongfully convicted and imprisoned, Wynmienko said during his incarceration he also knew that the real rapist was free and likely committing more crimes.

In April, Wynmienko was allowed to speak at the sentencing of Craig Gonser, whose DNA identified him as the assailant in the case for which Wynmienko had been convicted and incarcerated.

The statute of limitations had expired and didn't allow Gonser to be tried for the 1994 sexual assault and break-in. Gonser, 42, was sentenced to 10-25 years for an unrelated sex crime. Despite the DNA evidence, at his sentencing Gonser denied the 1994 rape, as well as recent indecent exposure convictions.

Despite 4-3 WHAC setback, MU California-bound

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

It was a tough pill to swallow Thursday for the Madonna University baseball team following 4-3 loss to Indiana Tech in the finals of the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference baseball tournament.

But the 46-9 Crusaders can still get prescribed the right medication when they move on to next week's five-team NAIA region tourney as an at-large pick and the second seed, May 18-21, at California Baptist. They will face College of Idaho in the first round on Tuesday.

MU, ranked No. 11 nationally, played five WHAC playoff games in three days - not counting Tuesday's rainout - and came up a run short.

(See related story on www.hometownlife.com)

"I think we'll be fine," MU coach Greg Haeger said. "It was an interesting day yesterday (Wednesday) when you had to play 27 innings in a day. I liked the way they regrouped to play that third game (a 4-1 win over Tech). It's a tough loss here, but they'll regroup. They've been a pretty resilient team all year long."

Indiana Tech (33-26) also gained an automatic bid into the 45-team field next week by winning its second straight WHAC playoff title over the No. 1-seeded Crusaders.

Two of MU's three runs came on homers - fifth-inning blast over the left field fence by Ted Toune, his 10th of the year, and a solo shot by Spencer Sarel over the right field wall in top of the eighth to knot the count at 3-all.

Tech, however, answered with the game-winning run in the bottom of the eighth when reliever Jeremy Gooding

SIDELINES

Blazers stop Irish

Livonia Ladywood used a balanced scoring attack Wednesday to beat visiting Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard, 10-5, in a Catholic League girls lacrosse semifinal match.

Juniors Alexa Burns and Niki Jacobs each finished with two goals and one assist. Senior Gaby Meyer also added two goals as the top-seeded Blazers improved to 7-4 overall after going 6-1 in the league play.

Goalie Rana Freij, a sophomore, made 16 saves as the Blazers advance to the Catholic League finals 1 p.m. Saturday at Pontiac Notre Dame Prep.

Elaire LeBel had a hat trick for the Fighting Irish (2-8), while goalie Frannie Ciolek faced a total of 49 shots.

"The girls did not have their best game tonight, but they picked it up in the second half and found a way to win," Ladywood coach Kris Sanders said.

Moccia All-Academic

Western Michigan University junior Amanda Moccia (Livonia Stevenson) was one of two players for the Broncos to be named Thursday to the Academic All-Mid-American Conference Women's Tennis Team.

Moccia holds a 3.90 grade-point average majoring in Biomedical Sciences after playing at No. 2 and 3 singles, along with No. 2 doubles for the third-place Broncos (16-11).

She finished with a 15-10 dual match mark in doubles, including 6-2 in the MAC, while also winning her singles flight last fall at the Wolverine Invitational.

She is joined on the Academic All-MAC Team by teammate Emily Dudzik (Gowen, Mich.), a senior who carries at a 3.31 in Exercise Science.

Hole-in-one club

On May 3, 65-year-old Eric Corner, of Livonia, used a 7-iron to ace the 139-yard, No. 8 hole on the West Course at Raisin River Golf Club in Monroe.

Corner, who shot an 83 for 18 holes, was playing with Al Leskun, Leonard Richter and Dick Orgeck.

Free football clinic

Livonia Stevenson High School will be hosting its annual youth football clinic for those currently in grades 2-6 from 9 a.m. until 12:15 p.m. Saturday, May 22.

The clinic is free and instruction will be provided by the Stevenson varsity football team and staff.

Walkup registration begins at 8:30 a.m. in the Stevenson North Cafeteria.

Stevenson frosh gets clutch GW

Jake Semak made his first varsity hit count in a big way on Friday.

The freshman, brought up May 5 from the JV squad, delivered the game-winning RBI single scoring Matt Shain in the bottom of the seventh inning to give Livonia Stevenson an 11-10 baseball win at Novi.

The game was suspended from May 5 with the state-ranked teams tied at 10-all and now puts Stevenson, 20-4 overall, in a three-way tie for first place in the KLAA Central at 12-3 with both Northville and Novi.

Stevenson pitcher Troy Bodtke, who went the final 1.2 innings, got the victory.

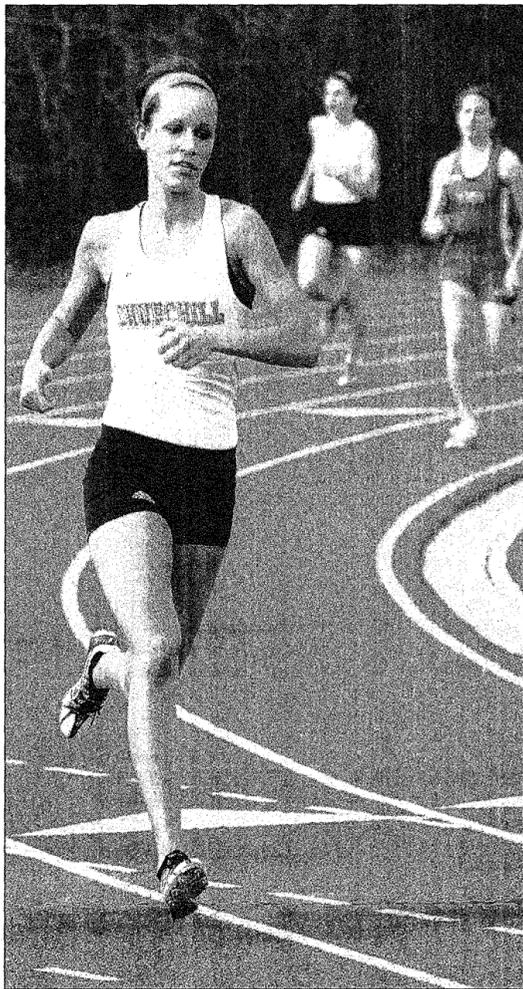

Mike Vomastek and Josh DeYonker each had two hits in the victory.

Nick Regnier had a homer and three RBI for Novi, which slipped to 20-5 overall. Mike Kruse and Kevin Zack added two hits apiece.

CANTON 2-3, CHURCHILL 0-2: The Chiefs (18-3, 13-2) only needed a split of its double-header Wednesday at Livonia Churchill (13-12, 8-7) to clinch the KLAA South Division title.

Chargers impress, seize conference

BY BRAD EMONS

All the pieces of the puzzle came together Friday for the Livonia Churchill girls track squad, which captured the KLAA Kensington Conference title Friday at wind-swept Novi High School.

The Chargers, led by senior standout Sara Kroll, scored a team-high 134 points to earn its first crown under third-year coach Pat Daugherty.

The host Wildcats were runner-up with 109 in the 12-school field followed by Northville, 103.5, Livonia Franklin, 71.5; Westland John Glenn, 64.

"I thought if everything went according to plan, we would win, but I'm surprised how much we won by," Daugherty said. "We scored in every event but three."

Churchill's distance crew, led by Kroll, sophomore Bethany Pilat and freshman Kerrigan Riley, came through with 23 points in the 1,600-meter run and 21 more in the 800. They also teamed up with freshman Michelle Azar to win the 4 x 800 relay.

Kroll, headed to Michigan State, took individual firsts in the 800 (2:16.06) and 1,600 (5:04.33).

"Sara (Kroll) was involved in or part of 36 points," Daugherty said. "Riley and Pilat each ran four races today. It's the first time they've ever done it. That scored a bunch of points for us. We also scored high in all relays, which was huge."

Churchill also made a stellar showing in the field events as Taylor Byron defended her shot put title (34 feet, 8.5 inches) and added a third in the discus.

Churchill also went second and third in the high jump with Senclair McDonnell and Ashley Cochran each clearing 5-2. The Chargers also took a third, a fifth and a seventh in the discus.

"We scored over 20 points in those events," Daugherty said. "Megan Kelly was sick all week. She was in the hospital Wednesday night and came back to take a fourth in the 400 and was on our 4 x 200 relay team that took fifth."

Westland John Glenn's Aubrie Scott was a double winner taking the long jump (16-9) and 100 dash. She also anchored the first-place 800 relay, which set a meet record (1:48.26).

Stevenson's Becky Adamcheck took the 300 hurdles (46.87), while Franklin's Megan McPherson captured the 3,200 (11:34.34).

Rocks solid at Wayne County

BY JIM TOTH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Maybe Salem should move all their golf matches over to Dearborn Country Club.

For the second time in two weeks, coach Ryan Nimmerguth's squad emerged victorious on the traditional par-72 DCC layout by taking top honors in Friday's Wayne County Invitational Boys Golf Championships.

Led by the efforts of senior Patrick Doty and Aaron Thompson the Rocks recorded a team-low 317 to finish three strokes better than runner-up Northville among the 13 Division I team competing.

Grosse Pointe South claimed third place with 329, U-D Jesuit placed one stroke back with 330 and Livonia Stevenson rounded out the top five with a 336 showing.

Other Observer-area included Livonia Churchill sixth (345), Livonia Franklin, eighth (349); Garden City, ninth (351); Canton 12th (397); and Wayne, 13th (402).

BOYS GOLF

"Two weeks ago at the Dearborn Elite Invitational we shot 316 and won, and today we shot 317 and won," Nimmerguth said. "We're definitely getting to know the course."

"This was our fourth 18-hole tournament and, in each of the previous three, we shot 316. Today we shot 317 and I had a hunch it might be good enough to do it. With all the rain we had the course was playing long, but our kids were consistent again and played real well."

Doty's 3-over-par 75 was good enough to not only lead all Rocks scorers, but earn runner-up honors overall behind Dearborn High's Evan Bowser. The Pioneer sophomore carded a sterling 73.

Thompson followed Doty in the Salem scorebook with a 79 and brothers Eric Duprey and Brandon Duprey rounded out the team total with 81 and 82, respectively.

Meanwhile, for coach Jim

Omiotanski's Stevenson team, the 336 was a few strokes higher than he had hoped, but considering the wet and windy conditions, pretty close to what he envisioned on a day where the course was playing longer than normal.

"Wind became a factor and you got little roll out there so it was tough," he said. "It was tough across the board. To only have seven players shoot in the 70s gives you a pretty good indication."

Drew Mossoian turned in the best round of golf for the Spartans by carding an 81. Teammates Christian Debay and Adam Giordano both followed closely behind with 84s and Dante Cicchelli added an 87.

Ben Proben's 81 led Churchill followed by Dominic DiLisi (86), Eric Hill (88) and Adam Yarber (90).

Jimmy Johnson and John Holmes each carded 88s for Franklin. Drake Hermann and Brandon Kozyn added 87 and 90,

Crusaders await tough NAIA draw

The NAIA office recently announced the pools for the 2010 Softball National Championship and the Madonna University women's team finds itself among elite company in Pool H for the national summit slated for May 20-26 at the Wilson Morgan Softball Complex in Decatur, Ala.

The No. 23-ranked Crusaders, 42-10 overall, will be making their second straight appearance in the championship and third overall.

They are grouped with No. 8-ranked Concordia University (Calif.), No. 9-ranked Oklahoma City University (Okla.) and Minot State (N.D.).

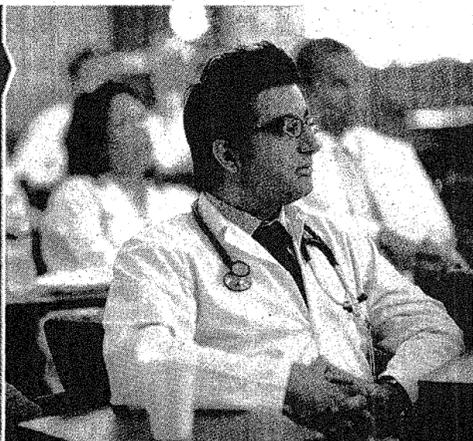

MU opens play at noon (EDT) Thursday against Concordia before facing off with Oklahoma City at 12:30 p.m. on Friday. The Crusaders close pool play 9:30 a.m. Saturday against Minot State.

The winner of each pool advances to a double-elimination championship series, May 24-26, in Decatur.

Behind the 4-hit pitching of Kevin Delapaz, the Chiefs captured Game One, 2-0, before completing the sweep in Game Two with a 3-2 triumph.

Delapaz struck out eight and walked only two in going all seven innings to outduel Churchill starter Troy Bogenschutz, who allowed seven hits and a walk over six innings.

Garrett Bryden went 2-for-3 with an RBI, while Joe Galanty also added two hits for the victorious Chiefs.

In the nightcap, Canton rallied from a 2-1 deficit with a run in the bottom of the fifth and added the go-ahead run in the sixth (scoring on a wild pitch) to pull out the win.

Andrew Tidwell, throwing four innings of scoreless relief after taking over starter Ben Staley, picked up the victory. Tidwell allowed three walks, walked two and struck out three.

Bernabie Salinas and Seth Tschetter each collected two hits for the Chiefs, while Drew Loudon had a pair of hits and an RBI for the Chargers.

W.L. WESTERN 3, JOHN GLENN 2: Blake Amhowitz doubled twice, including the game-winning run in the top of the seventh inning Friday to lead Walled Lake Western (7-20) past host Westland John Glenn (2-17) in a KLAAs crossover.

Glenn took a 2-1 lead into the seventh after scoring twice in the six on a Derrick Ammons RBI single followed by Caleb Clenney's steal of home.

Winning pitcher Jason Gamble went all seven innings, allowing six hits and a pair of walks while striking out 10.

Andrew McGrath took the loss in relief of starter Spencer Dowd, who worked the first five innings.

STEVENSON 6-6, S.L. EAST 5-3: Dan Lopez was the hero in both games Wednesday as host Livonia Stevenson (19-4, 10-3) stayed in the KLAAs Central Division hunt by sweeping South Lyon East (6-12, 3-10) in a double-header.

The Spartans took the opener, 6-5, as Lopez homered in the bottom of the sixth to provide the final margin of victory.

Lopez then belted a grand slam in the third inning of the nightcap as Stevenson earned a 6-3 win. He went 2-for-3 with five RBI.

Tyler Lynch, meanwhile, went 3-for-4 with an RBI, while Troy Bodtke added two hits for Stevenson in the opener.

Other RBI went to Evan Piechota, Jeff Sorenson and winning pitcher Mark Wagner.

Wagner threw 4.1 innings before Chris McDonald came on in the fifth to pick up the save. The two combined for 10 strikeouts and scattered nine hits.

Ryan Ferguson and Nolan Nunez each had two hits and an RBI for the Cougars, while reliever Justin Ulrich took the loss.

Matt Shain and Sorenson each had two hits in the first game.

Piechota pitched four innings to earn the victory. He gave up one run on three hits and a walk while fanning six.

Steven Kopek was the losing pitcher, while Nunez had two hits and an RBI for East.

FRANKLIN 5-4, JOHN GLENN 1-0: In a KLAAs South Division twinbill Wednesday, host Livonia Franklin (9-13, 5-10) and Westland John Glenn (2-16, 2-13) settled for a split.

Franklin took the opener, 5-1, as sophomore pitcher Joel Trudell went six strong innings, allowing just two hits and four walks. He struck out six before reliever Nick Hopson came on to close out the game in the seventh.

Andrew Crechiolo had a 2-run single, while Dan Muller and Travis Barnes each contributed an RBI double for the Patriots.

Derrick Ammons went 2-for-3 with the lone RBI for Glenn.

Losing pitcher Rob Schurig went six innings, allowing six hits and two walks while striking out nine.

In the second game, Glenn posted a 10-4 triumph as reliever Andrew McGrath pitched three scoreless innings in relief of starter Colton Lipinski to pick up the win.

McGrath allowed three hits, walked none and fanned two.

Caleb Clenney paced Glenn's 11-hit attack going 2-for-2, including a 2-run homer in the third inning and three runs score. Andrew Benyo also added two hits and scored twice.

Losing pitcher Jack Chinavare went 5.1 innings, allowing five runs on seven hits and three walks. He belted a 2-run homer in the first inning to stake the Pats to a 2-0 lead.

Justin Dean added two hits, while Barnes and Will Cramer also knocked in runs.

PLYMOUTH 5, WAYNE 4: Ben Wohl's 2-out infield single scored the game-winning run in the bottom of the 10th inning Wednesday to give the host Wildcats (10-10, 5-9) the KLAAs South Division triumph over Wayne Memorial (6-12, 5-9).

Starting pitchers Zach Lloyd (Wayne) and Mike Nadratowski (Plymouth) both went seven innings with the game tied at 4-4.

Jake White collected two hits, including the game-tying 3-run homer in the top of the seventh. Mike Grandowicz and Lance Gentry also added two hits apiece.

Matt Priebe went 3-for-4, including a single that made him the all-time hits leader for Plymouth.

The second game of the scheduled twinbill will be made up Tuesday, May 18 at Plymouth. Game time is 4 p.m.

Canton sweeps Chargers to wrap up KLAAs South

KLAAs SOFTBALL

Wednesday, host Livonia Franklin (17-11, 4-6) earned the sweep over Westland John Glenn (2-13, 2-8).

Juniors Chelsea Williams and Jessica Emery each went 3-for-4 as the Patriots prevailed in the opener, 8-2.

Williams had a triple and scored three runs, while Emery added an RBI along with junior Mariah Barcus and freshman Afton DeWys and Maggie Leins. Freshman Katelynn Devers also doubled and scored a run.

Winning pitcher Tiffany Lambie (12-9) scattered six hits and a walk over seven innings. She struck out six.

Claire Truskowski, who gave up 12 hits over seven innings, took the loss.

Rachel Romanek had two singles for the Rockets.

In the nightcap, Franklin sophomore hurler Nicole Williamson (5-2) threw a 3-hitter, walked one and struck out three in a 10-0 six-inning mercy win over the Rockets.

Top offensive performers for the Patriots included Devers and Williams, two hits and two RBI each; Barcus (RBI), Leins (two runs); and Audrey Geraghty (RBI single, run).

Glenn pitchers combined for 12 walks and allowed eight hits as Brandi Holbrook suffered the loss.

STEVENSON 9-3, S.L. EAST 0-1: On Wednesday, Livonia Stevenson (17-10, 6-4) swept a double-header from South Lyon East (10-14, 2-8).

Stevenson unloaded for 15 hits in the opener en route to a 9-0 victory as Shelby Wilson and winning pitcher Jacqueline Johnson each had three hits, while Morgan Copperstone and Allie Koestering added two each.

Copperstone doubled twice and had two RBI.

Johnson allowed nine hits without a walk and struck out seven in seven innings.

Losing pitcher Olivia Nelson was the Cougars' top hitter going 3-for-3. Melissa Erickson added two hits.

"Jackie did a fine job today of mixing her pitches up and hitting her spots," Stevenson coach Rob Witherspoon said. "I am very excited about how we came together as a team today as our younger players came through both offensively and defensively."

In the second game, Copperstone took to the mound and earned the victory with a 7-hitter. She walked only one and struck out two in seven innings.

Top hitters for the Spartans included Becca Zarras (3-for-3, RBI); Nina Bonanno (2-for-3, RBI); and Anna Plumley (2-for-4, two runs).

Nelson was the losing pitcher, while Olivia Richalsky collected two hits.

"Our seniors did a great job today of showing leadership and leading our team to two wins," Witherspoon said. "Morgan was very composed in the circle, and combined with solid defensive play, we were able to get out of some key situations."

Warriors roll in MIAC Blue tuneup

PREP BASEBALL

Lutheran High Westland tuned up for its MIAC Blue Division baseball showdown with Southfield Christian with a convincing 15-3 mercy-rule victory Friday at Willow Run.

The Warriors, who improved to 12-4 overall with the non-conference win, unloaded for 12 hits led by Gage Flanery's 4-for-5 effort, including a pair of doubles, a triple, three RBI and three runs scored.

Other offensive standouts for Lutheran Westland included Austin Baglow, who went 3-for-4 with three doubles, four RBI and four runs; Tony Cipolla, 3-for-5, two RBI; and Marc Rosin, 2-for-4, including two double and two RBI.

Winning pitcher Thomas Handschumacher went the first five innings, allowing three runs on six hits and two walks. He struck out three. Rosin came on in the sixth to strike out the side.

Both the Warriors and Southfield Christian are tied at 7-1 each in the MIAC Blue.

Game time is 4:30 p.m. Monday at Southfield Christian.

CRANBROOK 14, CLARENCEVILLE 0: In a Metro Conference playoff game Wednesday, host Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook wasted little time jumping on Livonia Clarenceville (12-11), striking for four runs in the opening inning, six more in the third and four in the fourth en route to a five-inning, mercy-rule victory.

The Trojans could muster only two hits off Cranes starter Nick Cassel.

Eric Trotter, the losing pitcher, and Mike Schiffman collected the lone hits for the Trojans.

MADONNA

came on during a tough spot with the bases loaded for Andy Omilian and walked Justin Medeiros to force in the go-ahead run.

"The funny thing was we had seven walks and two hit batters today, but we still stranded 13 of their runners," Haeger said. "I thought the guys did a great job. But the last inning I think the walks caught us there. But throughout the (playoffs) five games we played here, we pitched well. I think we were a 2.00 ERA (earned run average). We've got to make a few more plays in the field. We missed a few opportunities to make plays. All in all, the walks were tough today, but making plays is part of the game."

Gary King went 3-for-4 with an RBI, while Medeiros reached base safely five times going 2-for-2 with three walks and two RBI to pace the victorious Warriors. Shortstop Chad Geier also went 2-for-2 with an RBI.

MU scored its first run in the opening inning when Billy Hardin III doubled and scored on Zach Flavin's single.

Starter Kyle Bolton kept Indiana Tech off the board for the first four innings before the Warriors struck for three runs in the top of the fifth to take a 3-2 lead.

Sam Haldane came on and pitched the next 1.2 innings before giving way to Omilian (2-1), who suffered the loss.

Despite the setback, Haeger is confident his team can make a bid to reach the NAIA Nationals in Lewiston, Idaho. "We have incredible depth on the mound," he said. "We have seven or eight guys we can run out there that we hope are pretty good. All year long the pitchers have responded. And most of the year offensively we've responded. It's a team that doesn't like to lose. I know that and I can see by the reaction now. We don't like to lose and usually we find a way. With our pitching and defense, we usually get it done."

Meanwhile, a few days off to get recharged and refueled may be just what the doctor has in order for the Crusaders.

"Those were tough circumstances today - 36 innings in 24 hours or so," Haeger said. "They were taxed. We look forward to getting refreshed and going on to the opening round."

MU will learn its fate later today (5 CST) when the NAIA Region sites and pairings are announced in Kansas City, Mo.

Spartans pull out last-minute win

Talk about a flair for the dramatic.

Renee Boudreau's header off a corner kick from Shannon Merritt with only 19 seconds remaining enabled Livonia Stevenson to come away with a 2-1 girls soccer victory Friday night at South Lyon.

The win pushes the Spartans' overall record to 6-4-2 and 3-4 in the KLAAs Central Division.

Kayla Kimble scored Stevenson's first goal in the seventh minute from Molly McConnell, but the Lions (5-7-3, 0-5-2) answered five minutes later on a goal.

"It was a good effort and three points that we absolutely needed because we're in a battle right now for third place with Salem," Stevenson first-year coach Chris Grodzicki said. "Without that win we're not in the equation. That makes Tuesday's game (7 p.m. at home) all the more to play for."

CHURCHILL 2, FARMINGTON 1: Kelsey Rothermel's penalty kick in the 65th minute was the difference Friday as host Livonia Churchill (6-6-1) downed the Falcons (6-4-4) in a non-conference encounter.

Farmington's Katie Evans and Churchill sophomore Lauren Favazza each scored a goal in the first half to make it 1-1.

GIRLS SOCCER

The Chargers got outstanding play from outside midfielder Rachel Blackney and defender Megan McDonald.

LAKELAND 2, JOHN GLENN 0: On Friday, goals by Jillian Braheim and Julianna Corvell, both in the final 10 minutes, carried White Lakeland (4-7-2) past host Westland John Glenn (3-9-2) in a KLAAs crossover.

Standouts for the Rockets included goalkeeper Andee Samborski and defender Ashley Bailey.

CHURCHILL 8, WAYNE 0: Rachel Staff, Alexa Vakratsis and Lauren Favazza scored two goals apiece Thursday, leading Livonia Churchill (5-6-1, 5-2-1) to a KLAAs South Division mercy rule win at Wayne Memorial (3-9-1, 1-6-1).

Churchill, also got a goal and assist from Kayla Szado and a free kick from 30 yards out from Darcy DeRoo.

Other assists went to Kayla Munroe, Rachel Blackney and Kaylie Secord.

The Chargers scored three goals in the first eight minutes and ended the game at the 56-minute mark.

"Finally my team came out of the gate with intensity and desire," Churchill coach Dave Hebestreit said. "We didn't play to the level of our opponent for the first time, but directed the situation from the start."

"We have been talking about starting strong, as so far this season we have only been playing well in the second half. Hopefully this will be a permanent change."

On Tuesday, host Wayne lost to Plymouth, 8-0.

CANTON 8, FRANKLIN 0: Allyson Krause and Jessika McClenden each tallied two goals Thursday as the Chiefs (10-1-3, 7-0-1), the KLAAs South Division leaders, blanked visiting Livonia Franklin (0-13-1, 0-7-1).

The Chiefs led 4-0 at halftime and ended the game with 15 minutes remaining due to the eight goal mercy rule. They unloaded for a barrage of shots on Franklin goalkeeper Alexis Smith, who finished with 18 saves.

PLYMOUTH 4, JOHN GLENN 0: On Thursday, the visiting Wildcats (9-1-4, 6-0-2) pulled away during the second half for the KLAAs South Division win over Westland John Glenn (3-8-2, 1-5-2).

Center defenders Ashley Bailey and Jenna Williams stood out for the Rockets, who gave up only one first-half goal (on a penalty kick).

"I'm happy with the results and proud of the way we played," Glenn coach Jimmy Mortada said. "We showed we can play and did not let them (Plymouth) control the play. Our goalie Andee Samborski also played very well."

LUTHERAN SOUTH 4, LUTH. WESTLAND 0: April Broska notched a hat trick Wednesday as host Newport Lutheran South improved to 3-4 in the Michigan Independent Athletic Conference's Red Division with a shut-out of Lutheran High Westland (2-5-2, 2-4-1).

Savannah Diroff also scored for the victorious Saints.

MU sweeps honors

The Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference regular season and playoff champions placed three on the All-Conference squad led by junior pitcher Jess Irwin, who is 28-4 overall; senior first baseman Cat Sidor (Livonia Churchill), who is hitting .376; and junior Kelly Lesko, hitting .347.

Earning honorable mention was sophomore pitcher-designated player Hallie Minch (Garden City) and freshman third baseman Erica Landess.

Sidor was a repeat selection to both the WHAC's Champions of Character team - which goes to the student-athlete who best exemplifies the five core values of respect, responsibility, integrity, servant leadership and sportsmanship - along with the WHAC All-Academic team.

Also named to the All-Academic team, which requires a 3.25 grade-point average or better, was Rachael Kethe, Tara LaMilza and Ashley Shay (Garden City/Dearborn Divine Child).

C'ville rallies for 7-6 softball win

Livonia Clarenceville got off to a good start Wednesday in the opening round play of the Metro Conference girls softball tournament with a 7-6 win at Harper Woods.

Junior Joanna Burling went 3-for-4, including a key 2-run double in the fifth inning that closed the deficit for the Trojans.

Senior Megan McLaughlin stroked three singles, including the go-ahead 2-run shot in the sixth that gave the Trojans the lead for good.

Junior Stephanie Bishop also went 2-for-4, while sophomore Rachel Grefke scored twice as the Trojans evened their overall mark at 7-7.

The victory went to senior Val Sochacki, who survived some tense moments in the seventh to run her season record to 4-6.

Sochacki scattered nine hits, struck out four and didn't walk a batter in the complete-game outing.

Bob-Lo memories

Learn about boat's past at Historical Society banquet

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

Robert Legel remembers Bob-Lo Boat moonlight cruises on the Detroit River as "one of the greatest dates of all times."

As a child, Sue Daniel took "nice" family outings on the S.S. Columbia and S.S. Ste. Claire to Bob-Lo Island's amusement park.

And Kevin Mayer, who worked on the Columbia in the 1980s, is so passionate about Bob-Lo, he created a working, miniature version of the amusement park — complete with the Ste. Claire steamship — in the basement of his Livonia home.

"The love and interest for this ship is still out there," said Mayer, general manager of the Ste. Claire and volunteer coordinator for its restoration project. "This is the last remaining steamship built by Frank Kirby. She just turned 100 on May 7."

Legel, Daniel and other Livonia Historical Society members will take a nostalgic armchair cruise through the Bob-Lo boat's past, and learn about its future, at their annual banquet, Thursday, May 20, in the Alexander Blue House at Greenmead, Newburgh and Eight Mile, Livonia.

The Livonia Historical Society event, which includes dinner and the "Bob-Lo Memories" program, is open to the public. Tickets cost $16 and reservations are due Monday, May 17. Call (248) 477-7375 for tickets.

Mayer and Dr. Ron Katoo of Bloomfield Hills, a Henry Ford Hospital physician and principal owner of the Ste. Claire, will be the guest speakers.

"We're going to be doing it all, giving a little bit of history, showing (pictures of) the crew, Captain Bob-Lo, showing the renovations," Mayer said. "We hope to have her up and sailing again. We are taking everything down to the bare metal and wood. It's looking great."

RESCUING AN ICON

Kattoo and his partners in the Maximus Corp. bought the ship from its previous owners in 2006 and began the estimated $3 million restoration that is funded by himself, his partners, public donations and sale of souvenirs.

More than 400 volunteers are involved in the project.

"There's something for everyone on the ship. We have contractors and electricians. But there's always debris to take off and put in a dumpster, sweeping up and behind the scenes work at different festivals," Mayer said.

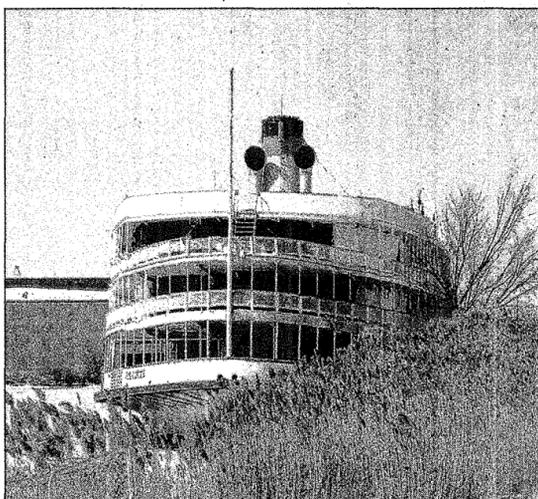

The Ste. Claire was built in 1910 to hold 2,426 passengers, and along with its older, larger sister ship, the Columbia, sailed the Detroit River for 81 years. Millions of residents in Southeastern Michigan took the 18-mile trip to the Canadian island, south of Grosse Isle, to picnic, play and ride roller coasters.

CHILDHOOD MEMORIES

"Oh boy, it was fun riding

The S.S. Ste. Claire marked its 100th anniversary May 7.

The Bob-Lo boat, S.S. Ste. Claire is docked in Ecorse, undergoing a restoration.

that boat," recalled Daniel, president of the Livonia Historical Commission and treasurer of the Historical Society. "It was an experience

I didn't have anywhere else except on the boat and the amusement park when you got there." Legel, Livonia Historical Society president, fondly remembers the dancing on board the ship and its moonlight cruises.

"You'd take your girlfriend on the moonlight cruise. It was great, Legel said.

The ships stopped running in 1991 and the amusement park was closed and its rides sold to make way for luxury condos.

A New York investor bought the Columbia with plans to restore the ship and sail it on the Hudson River, Mayer said.

The Ste. Claire restoration team hopes to have the ship ready for dock side tours in two years and eventually cruising the Detroit River again.

"I hope it comes to fruition and they get it floating," Legel said. "All you have to do is mention Bob-Lo boat and everyone says, 'I remember that.'"

Laugh, walk, sleep on behalf of animals

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

You probably won't see any cats on leash at Project Kitty Connect's 3rd Annual Catwalk May 22 in Redford, but felines will benefit from the funds raised by the Trap-Neuter-Return (TNR) organization that strives to reduce stray and feral cat population and euthanasia. Participants will collect donations and pledges for the cause and walk any time 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Claude Allison Park, located south of Seven Mile on the east side of Beech Daly at Pickford, in Redford. Just $30 will pay for a wellness check-up, rabies vaccine, an ear tip and spaying or neutering for one local feral cat. The ear tip identifies the cat as spayed or neutered. Rebecca Godo started the organization — which has a core group of about 10 volunteers — in 2007 to help feral cats in her neighborhood and to stop them from reproducing. Godo said her heart broke when she discovered that feral cats taken into the shelter system often are euthanized, because they are deemed unadoptable.

"I started researching for an alternative and found Trap-Neuter-Return. I found people doing it but not so much on an organized level. There wasn't a lot of help out there." She and other volunteers began working together as Project Kitty Connect, educating others and enlisting the help of veterinarians to perform low cost spay and neuter surgery. Volunteers trap the cats, have them spayed or neutered and then return them to the out-of-doors.

"People care for these animals with food and water and then they start reproducing. They reach out to us for help."

Project Kitty Connect doesn't place animals into foster or adoptive homes, but has referred individuals who find stray cats to rescue groups. "We assist people in also getting them spayed and neutered and we encourage them to seek out adoption routes. We help out when we can," Godo said.

In addition to the walk, Country Cat and City Kitty Rescue will be at the fundraising event with adoptable felines. Jan's Pet Grooming will trim nails for $5 a pet, All About Animals Clinic will offer spay/neuter information, and local arts and craft vendors will sell their goods. #### AGING, ACTIVITY AND ARTHRITIS

As more people are living into their 80's and 90's, physicians are seeing more of them coming in with complaints of aching all over. The patient notes that mornings are particularly difficult and that activities such as making meals, keeping the house clean and working in the garden are becoming impossible because of aching and fatigue.

In most instances the patient comes with a daughter or a person in the family who has reached a point that the patient can no longer live at home without assistance.

After listening to the patient and undertaking a physical examination the doctor may reach a conclusion that startles the patient. The doctor will say that the patient does not have rheumatoid arthritis, polymyalgia rheumatica or a cancer related condition. Rather, the patient is out of condition and needs exercise. The patient protests saying that she (or he) is busy every day with house chores.

Often the doctor is fortunate, as the family member attending the patient will say that the doctor is right: the patient spends too much time sitting around, reading, resting, or watching television, and that family members have told the patient so many times.

Probably the most common cause for joint stiffness and muscle fatigue in patients over age 80, is inactivity. The treatment is not another medicine but more workout. The activity must be work: done daily, going on for at least 30 minutes continuously, and should bring up a sweat. Finally, the older the patient the more important that she (or he) does the activity every day.

Livonia artist shows her landscapes at May 22-23 show

Barbara Spraul of Livonia will exhibit and sell her paintings May 22-23 at the Village of Rochester Hills' annual spring art show.

Spraul, known for her color intense landscapes, was born and raised in Germany and had an early profound love for art. While studying drawing, she also earned a nursing degree. She moved to Michigan in 1994 and studied drawing, oil painting, and miniature painting. True to her heart, she found that painting was more satisfying than any other profession and devoted her time to her passion of creating.

Her technique combines oil, acrylic, gouache, and charcoal. She paints series of paintings, choosing one subject matter at a time. She also works with individual costumers to create unique pieces of art.

"I feel a deep emotional fulfilment and pleasure when I paint. I am very thankful that by creating unique peaceful paintings it is possible to spread joy and lift the spirits of the viewers," she stated.

The show runs 10 a.m.-8 p.m. May 22 and noon-6 p.m., May 23 at the Village of Rochester Hills shopping center, located at Adams and Walton in Rochester Hills.

Be wary of a new sort of crook in the appliance industry

In my days past I learned a great deal about how the unethical appliance repair companies operated and how many thousands of consumers were being literally ripped-off. Working with the Victorian lady of consumerism, Esther Shapiro, at the Detroit Consumer Affairs Department was one of the most rewarding things I've ever done. She used to tell me that the schemes and scams that were worked on homeowners were always changing in ways that we could never imagine.

Appliance Doctor

I recently have been reading stories about thieves being captured and charged with possession of hundreds of stolen appliances taken from homes with a "for sale" sign on the front lawn.

One pair of crooks had sold hundreds of products on the Internet. Capture was rather easy for the police department, which installed GPS devices inside the appliances in an undercover operation at one house. One case is about a legitimate appliance retailer selling products and used by the thieves as a fence. Fortunately none of this is going on here in Michigan, at least not to my knowledge.

Recently I've spent time at the telephone at my son Mark's appliance repair business in Livonia. It's been most enjoyable talking to many readers who call with questions about their major appliances and I would like to tell you of one these calls. A senior lady called to tell my son that she would not be using his company to install her new dishwasher even though the $100 price he quoted her was $139 less than the retailer was going to charge her. I asked her why she was going to spend $239 to have a new dishwasher installed when she could get the job done for $100. Her reply caused the hair on the back of my neck to stand straight up.

"The retailer told her that if she used anybody besides him to install the product she would not be able to get her Michigan rebate of $50 from the State."

It really is too bad that Esther Shapiro is retired and the office of Detroit Consumer Affairs is no longer in existence. Esther would have put this retailer on national television or even worse.

As for my last column about the dishwasher which came on by itself I received an e-mail from an engineer who writes: SO, did you find out if the dishwasher did, in fact, come on by itself? As we get deeper into the processor controls I need to understand ways they go wrong — you can bet that Microchip isn't going to have a list of reported circuit gremlins available for review and agency standards are reactive at best. Even traditional technology can become unpredictable with new manufacturing techniques and alternate manufacturing locations and, as you know, one flawed component can take out the best design in the world.

Well folks I did talk to the person who had a dishwasher come on by itself. He did call GE and they did come out to check it out at no charge. The service technician did order a new electronic board and another part and should be installing it soon. Even though the product is out of warranty GE is covering the bill on this repair and I think rightfully so. There isn't a manufacturer around who wants to mess with the Consumer Product Safety Commission in Washington. Those boys will tag on some pretty hefty fines for dangerous products which are not reported promptly. You could say they carry as much weight as Esther Shapiro. Stay tuned.

Joe Gagnon can be heard at 8 a.m., Saturdays on WAAM 1600 and Sundays at 2 p.m. on WDTK 1400. You can e-mail your problems and questions on appliances to appldr@twmi.rr.com.

Support group offers tips to fight weight-loss plateau

As weight-loss warriors climb to the mountaintop of fitness and better health, they will inevitably cross a plateau or two in their journey. According to Dr. Nicholas Yphantides, medical spokesperson for TOPS Club, Inc. (Take Off Pounds Sensibly), the nonprofit weight-loss support organization, "There are inevitable periods of plateau. You feel like you have changed nothing, yet the body fat no longer disappears and your weight loss seems to be stuck in neutral. The real dilemma is that the plateau can be a huge motivation killer."

The harm, he says, is that some people give up during a plateau and fall back into poor eating and exercise habits out of discouragement.

On a positive note, since it's best to lose weight slowly, steadily, and sensibly, plateaus often can be a body's balancing act. A plateau also can signal that a body has less fat left to lose.

Yphantides points out that real plateaus, when weight loss does in fact stall, are different from perceived plateaus, when a person is in denial and doesn't believe they are doing anything differently, yet the weight is not coming off.

"Honesty and accuracy are such core ingredients to healthy living for TOPS members that I have to mention them, as I frequently discover what I call a 'perceived plateau' upon deeper interaction and conversations with people who are frustrated with their weight loss," he says.

One cause of a true plateau is that the body is trying to achieve equilibrium, or homeostasis. In this state, the body wants to retain the status quo and not lose weight. Weight will resist coming off, even if the number of calories consumed and level of exercise stay the same.

Yphantides says that the key is to mix up your routine so the body reacts to changing signals. "Some weight-loss warriors make the mistake of expecting different results with the same routine. It's easy to get discouraged, but it's more effective to get creative," he notes.

His strategies for overcoming a weight-loss plateau include:

- Eat the same weekly amount of calories but eat less one day and more the next to make the body react differently. Also, remember to drink water to feel full and avoid problems caused by dehydration.
- Try adding a new activity to an exercise routine. It will activate more muscles and change the way the body is used. For instance, if you typically walk daily, swim or bike instead. Add high-intensity cardio intervals to a low-intensity workout. If there's a fun, new dance class to try, this is a good time.
- Switch the type of workout. For example, trade an aerobic session for a strength-training or muscle-toning class. This can increase lean muscle mass and jump-start the metabolic rate.

• Spread out daily food intake to fuel metabolism over a longer period of time. Add a few mini-meals each day, going from three meals to five, without adding calories. Make sure breakfast is a solid meal, because it results in better concentration and higher energy throughout the day.

Use patience and persistence as tools in the journey to overall wellness. Weight-loss plateaus will happen along the way but they can be overcome.

TOPS promotes weight management with a philosophy that combines healthy eating, regular exercise, wellness information, and support from others at weekly chapter meetings. TOPS has about 170,000 members in nearly 10,000 chapters throughout the United States and Canada.

Visitors may attend their
