

MISSION STATEMENT

WE...

...welcome and serve all people.

...invite the community to pursue the world of knowledge by making available the collective mind and ideas of past and present leaders, scholars, authors, and producers of information.

...provide a variety of formats through the written word, visual representation, audio media, programs, and technological output.

...provide an avenue for education, recreation, socialization, and communication.

...strive continually to enhance our offerings and services to meet the needs of residents.

...enrich the community.

...promote a staff that is a community focused team organizing information, providing services, and responding to changes in Westland.

...believe in the right to read, to know, and to discover.

...adhere to the ultimate mission that enlightenment is the key to success.

William P. Faust

Public Library of Westland

A Gift...

...to the William P. Faust Public Library of Westland can provide an opportunity for individuals, families, organizations and businesses with the unique opportunity to permanently honor a loved one, bring recognition to a specific entity, or remember someone with a memorial.

Giving opportunities can also be designed to meet the specific needs of the donor and will be recognized in both Library and community publications.

We invite you to review the following opportunities and call the Library for more information at (734) 326-6123.

Your Contribution...

...combined with other generous donors will make it possible for the Library to continue its mission by providing avenues for education and recreation, enhancing the Library's offerings and services, and enriching our community and lives.

Your contribution will ensure the acquisition of equipment and collection materials that are essential to the full and rich operation of our most important community resource, our public Library.

Municipalities make libraries good through tax dollars, but it is through individual gifts that libraries become great.

Collection Items

Donors can contribute to help purchase collection items such as books, music cassettes and compact discs, CD-ROMs, videos, DVDs, and books on cassette or CD.

Donations to the Library collection will be recognized with a book plate bearing the donor's, or designated name.
